CONTESTS LOOM ON PAVING BIDS

City Council Will Employ Competitive Methods

To be Used in Sherman Way, Beverly Glen Plan

Immense Sum Will Go in Hollywood Project

The City Council seized an opportunity yesterday to put into effect its desire to obtain competitive bidding among different types of paving in street improvement projects. The opportunity was provided by the fact that the improvement of South Sherman Way and Beverly Glen Road is not being carried on by ordinance and will be paid for by the proceeds of a special bond issue. If the proceedings had been initiated by ordinance, it would have been necessary to specify the type of paving in the ordinance of intention.

For this improvement Municipal Improvement District No. 63 was formed, and on Tuesday the voters of the district unanimously approved the issuance of $375,000 in bonds to pay for the improvement. The voters of Municipal Improvement District No. 62, which was formed for the improvement of Ventura Boulevard between Lankershim Boulevard and Pacoima avenue, also approved a bond issue on Tuesday, the amount being $315,000. In this case the vote was 139 to 21.

The results of both elections were canvassed by the Council yesterday and as soon as it was announced that the voters of district No. 62 had approved their bond issue the Council adopted a report of the Public Works Committee recommending that the Board of Public Works be instructed to receive separate bids on each type of pavement and the contract be awarded, as usual, to the lowest bidder.

Meanwhile the Council is considering means whereby competitive bidding among different types of pavement also may be made possible in the case of improvements undertaken under the usual ordinance procedure.

IMMENSE SUMS GOING IN IMPROVEMENTS

Backing up Hollywood's five-finger plan, bond issues amounting to $690,000 were voted yesterday at special elections by property owners on Ventura Boulevard and Sherman Way for widening and extensive improvements. Today another special election will be held on a bond issue of $670,000 for the widening of Ventura Boulevard from Pacoima avenue to Sepulveda Boulevard.

With the action of the City Council in improving the "five-finger" plan, combined improvements providing increased traffic facilities for Hollywood and Ventura Boulevard, costing $7,360,000 will be started immediately.

The Ventura Boulevard improvement will furnish a 100-foot highway with seventy feet of paving from Hollywood Boulevard to Sepulveda Boulevard. Plans call for extending the widening process on to the city limits at Calabasas.

Co-eds Flailing Mussolini Win Debating Clash

Mussolini and his effect on Italy were successfully attacked last night by women debaters of the Washington State College in an intersectional verbal contest with co-ed debaters of the University of California at Los Angeles held in Leconte Hall. The question for debate was, "Resolved: That Mussolini has been a benefit to Italy," with the local feminine debaters taking the affirmative side of the question, and the Washington speakers, the negative.

The winning arguments of the Washington State College speakers established that present conditions in Italy are not as advantageous for either society or the individual as they were before Mussolini came into power. The U.C.L.A. speakers were Ruth Ehrenkrans and Edith Leslie, the Washington State College team being composed of Hazel Shoemaker and Lylia Appel. Miss Edith Everett, English instructor and former debate coach at Hollywood High School, was the only judge of the forensics contest. Ruth Gooder, chairman of women's debating at U.C.L.A., presided.

BORAH SHIES AT CABINET

Senator Rejects Justice Post

Los Angeles Banker Hinted as Referee on Labor Department Head

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Intimate consideration of the selection of the members of his Cabinet occupied President-elect Hoover today in the course of lengthy conferences with advisers, political leaders and persons under consideration for appointment.

Friends of Senator Borah of Idaho simultaneously announced that he had definitely refused an offer of the Attorney-Generalship which Mr. Hoover had made him. The Idaho Senator, they said, although gratified by the offer, had come to the conclusion that he can be of most service to his party and to the country by remaining in his present powerful and influential position.

Senator Borah, it is understood, informed Mr. Hoover with his decision last night during an afternoon call he paid the President-elect.

Henry M. Robinson of Los Angeles, an old and close friend of Mr. Hoover, spent most of the day with the President-elect at his S-street home. In addition to being prominently mentioned for a Cabinet position, Mr. Robinson is reported to have carried out a canvass of the availability of various individuals for the post of Secretary of Labor, with which Mr. Hoover had intrusted him before his Florida trip.

MELLON KEEPS SILENT

Secretary Mellon of the Treasury Department, who, according to all reliable reports, is looked upon as certain of reappointment, also conferred with Mr. Hoover for more than an hour and three quarters. The Secretary would not disclose the subjects discussed.

Mr. Robinson, who acquired national and international prominence as a member of the Dawes reparations commission and later as head of the American delegation to the Geneva economic conference, is said to have figured prominently in Mr. Hoover's plans for the organization of his administration. In addition to holding a very high opinion of his ability as a banker and economist, Mr. Hoover is reported to have great confidence in Mr. Robinson's discretion and tact and to consider him ideally suited to pass on the merits of possible Labor Secretaries, with which he was said to have been trusted.

NAMES MENTIONED

The names which have been mentioned most as possibilities for the Labor Secretaryship have been W. N. Doak, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, and James J. Davis, the incumbent.

Will Rogers Remarks:

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Washington's Birthday—hear the political speeches delivered under the guise of being addresses on Washington. They will start out by saying "It's the birthday of our first President, had he lived to see the fruits of the great Republican party." As a matter of fact there wasn't any Republicans in Washington's Day. No Republicans, no bo' weevil, no income tax, no cover charge, no disarmament conferences, no luncheon clubs, no stop lights, no static, no head winds. Liquor was a companion, and not a problem. No margins, no ticket speculators, no golf pants or Scotch jokes. And Tom Heflin hadn't yet read about the iniquities of Rome.

My Lord, living in those times, who wouldn't be great?

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

HARDY TRIAL STAGE SET

WARD WILL GIVES ESTATE TO WIDOW

AIR JOB FOR LINDBERGH

Federal Bureau Gets Pilot

Flyer Will be Adviser for Commerce Department on Fee Basis

Undersecretaryship Rumor in Hoover's Cabinet Not Supported

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh has accepted his first official post with the government—technical adviser to the aeronautics branch of the Commerce Department.

Secretary Whiting announced the appointment today, and said that Col. Lindbergh had agreed to hold himself in readiness to respond to any call from William J. MacCracken, Jr., the department's assistant secretary in charge of aeronautics to advise or personally assist the government in all phases of its regulation of civil aviation, the establishment of airports and airways, research and prevention of accidents.

The post will carry pay but only on a fee basis covering the time actually devoted to the government service and will not require Col. Lindbergh to establish himself permanently in Washington.

Gratification was expressed by Secretary Whiting that the government has been able to obtain the service of the noted pilot. Ever since Col. Lindbergh's rise to fame he has been interested in the Federal government's endeavor to promote and safeguard civil aviation, the Secretary said, and under his new status he largely will continue to do officially what he has done before without official rank.

Lindbergh has been mentioned in recent reports as a possible selection in the Cabinet of Herbert Hoover for an assistant secretaryship in charge of aeronautics, but the flyer has said there is no authority for the rumors.

FLYER COMMENTS ON NEW APPOINTMENT

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 21. (AP)—Landing here late today on his way from St. Louis to Wichita, Kan., as a precautionary measure after his airplane had developed slight motor trouble, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh said he will leave tomorrow morning for Wichita, the next stop on his national inspection trip for his company, Transcontinental Air Transport, Inc.

A small crack developed in the water jacket of his Curtis Falcon biplane, caused by freezing, Col. Lindbergh said.

Commenting upon his appointment, announced today, as technical adviser to the aeronautics branch of the United States Department of Commerce, Col. Lindbergh said he "is glad to be of service in any way or at any time to the government in keeping the department closer in touch with the industry and in regulation of civil aviation." He declined to regard the post as an executive one, describing it "of an advisory nature, whenever I happen to be in Washington."

Grecian Thrace Situation Tragic

ATHENS (Greece) Feb. 21. (AP)—A report from M. Christomanos, Minister of Communications, from the flooded area of Grecian Thrace, said today that the situation is tragic. He proposes that seven villages be abandoned because of damage to surrounding farms by snow, floods and ice.

SEA OF FIRE IN VOLCANIC PIT CALMS

Kilauea Ceases Activity After Being on Rampage Since Tuesday

HILO (Hawaii) Feb. 21. (AP)—The observatory at the Kilauea volcano announced at 2:30 p.m. today that all volcanic activity in the Halemaumau pit has ceased. The fountains of fire began to subside before noon and by 12:30 p.m. the flames and fumes had stopped. There was a surging movement in the lake of lava in the pit for a while, but this quieted down later.

The latest eruption of the volcano started at 4:30 a.m. Tuesday and throughout that day and the last two nights shot up spouts of fire 250 to 300 feet in the air.

It was announced at the volcano house that coincident with subsidence of the eruptions the surface crust of lava in the pit has collapsed.

SLEEPING VOLCANO IN GUATEMALA BREAKS OUT

GUATEMALA, Feb. 21. (AP)—The volcano Santa Maria broke into eruption today hurling ashes and enormous quantities of sand over the rich and populous southern coastal regions.

Ashes are reported to be falling at points as far away as Tapachula, Mex., sixty miles away. The disturbance shows signs of abating, but the government has ordered precautionary steps for the protection of the inhabitants. Santa Maria has shown signs of restlessness in recent weeks, and Guatemalans are disposed to blame the volcano for a series of earthquakes.

The last serious eruption of the volcano was in 1902. It is in the Department of Quezaltenango in Western Guatemala and is more than 10,000 feet high.

Suit for Libel Against Doheny Discontinued

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—The libel suit brought against Edward L. Doheny, oil operator, by Robert H. Murray of Washington and Mexico City, a former newspaper correspondent, was discontinued today by Supreme Court Justice Nathan Bijur.

The action was taken on application of the attorneys, who told the court the case had been "settled, compromised and adjusted."

The suit charged that Mr. Doheny had said Murray and George Creel solicited funds from him in 1919 to help finance a revolution in Mexico.

German Decries Trotzky Entry

BERLIN, Feb. 21. (AP)—Objection to the proposed admission to Germany of Leon Trotzky, exiled soviet leader, was voiced today by Count Friedrich von Westarp, the well-known leader of the Nationalist element in the Reichstag. He wrote to Chancellor Mueller that the presence of Trotzky would endanger German peace and security.

Tageblatt says that the Cabinet is divided on whether to admit Trotzky or not. Even the Socialists, says this paper, are unable to agree on the question.

Tragedy Stalks Ring in Friendly Boxing Battle

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 21. (AP)—A friendly boxing bout between two youthful contestants at the Rose Park Playground ended in tragedy tonight when one of the boxers, Frank Ocho, 15 years of age, slumped in a faint and died a few minutes later, and the other fighter, Manuel Puedo, 14, fainted from freight.

Efforts of the police emergency crew and attendants at the playground to revive Ocho failed. An inhalator was used for nearly an hour but to no avail.

The scheduled two-minute fight had been under way for a minute and a half when Ocho sank to the floor, mumbled "I can't do it, I can't do it," and then fainted. He was carried outside where he showed signs of life for a moment and then died.

Bay City's Milk Ordinance Valid

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—San Francisco's ordinance requiring that all milk sold in the city and county be pasteurized within the county limits was upheld by the State District Court of Appeal today.

A suit testing the ordinance was brought by Albert Witt, dairy operator at Colma, who was refused a permit from the Board of Health to sell milk in the city, which was pasteurized at his dairy, on the peninsula.

TWO SOUGHT IN COLORADO BOAT UPSET

Forest Ranger and Park Naturalist Believed to Have Been Drowned

GRAND CANYON (Ariz.) Feb. 21. (AP)—The swirling waters of the muddy Colorado River are believed to have claimed two more lives when the boat of Fred Johnson, 30 years of age, United States forest ranger, and Glenn Sturdevant, 31, park naturalist, was caught in the rapids of Horn Creek early yesterday morning. James P. Brooks, chief ranger of the Grand Canyon Park, the third occupant of the boat, was carried many yards down the stream, but was able to reach the northern shore.

The boat, caught in the rapids, turned over, throwing the three in the icy water. Nothing has been seen of Sturdevant and Johnson since, though three searching parties organized by the park service officials have combed both sides of the river for several miles below the rapids.

Horn Creek rapids are located about two miles below Bright Angel.

Superintendent Tillotson of the Grand Canyon National Park announced tonight that another searching party will leave Hermit Creek tomorrow morning to search the river from that point to the rapids in a last effort to find the bodies of the two missing men.

GUNS AGAIN JAR CHINA

Latest Uprising Brings Battle

Nationalist Forces and Foes Meet in Initial Clash West of Chefoo

Revolt Viewed as First Real Test of Unity Under Nanking Regime

CHEFOO, Feb. 22. (Friday) (AP)—Nationalist forces clashed with anti-Nationalists this morning fifteen miles west of Chefoo, precipitating the first battle of the new Shantung uprising.

The echoing boom of the heavy gunfire could be heard plainly here. The commander of the Third Division of Nationalist troops defending the city was carried here wounded soon after the battle started.

The Nationalists are putting forth vigorous efforts to organize their defense. They are receiving additional arms and have commandeered 90,000 bags of flour.

GOVERNMENT ACTS TO SUPPRESS REBELS

SHANGHAI, Feb. 21. (AP)—The Chinese government today moved swiftly and energetically to suppress an uprising in the Province of Shantung, the first real test of China's unity since the Nationalists came into power at Nanking.

Three thousand soldiers of the former Peking regime, recently incorporated into the Nationalist Army, formed the nucleus of a movement seeking to establish an independent zone on the north coast of Shantung Province. Coincident with this development, the movements of two powerful military figures, Gen. Feng Yu-hsiang, the overlord of Honan Province, and Gen. Chang Tsung-Chang, deposed dictator of Shantung, are arousing anxiety.

COUP PLOT LAID TO FENG

Gen. Feng, once known as the "Christian general," is reported to be massing 30,000 troops in Western Shantung. It is presumed in some well-informed quarters here that his purpose has been to seize Shantung in the event of its evacuation by the Japanese.

This report has inspired myriad rumors that Gen. Feng intends to sever all allegiance with the Nanking government and to establish his authority independently in Shantung after ousting both the Nationalists and revolters.

Shanghai's most competent authorities on Far Eastern policies see one aspect of particular seriousness in the present situation. Its effect, they believe, cannot help but be injurious to Sino-Japanese negotiations seeking a settlement of the Shantung question. There is a rising murmur of complaint among Chinese officials here and in Nanking that the presence of Japanese troops at important points in Shantung prevent the Nationalist authorities from taking the proper precautionary measures. Following the Tsinan incident, they say, Japan has refused to allow Chinese troops in the railway zones of Shantung.

JAPANESE SCORED

Chinese newspapers in Shanghai openly are charging Japan with assisting Gen. Chang Tsung-Chang to stir up a revolt in Shantung, thereby hoping to create an excuse for keeping her troops in the province. Local Japanese papers call these charges absurd.

Meanwhile negotiations between China and Japan over the Tsinan incident remain suspended. There is some talk of renewing them.

NAVAL PROTECTION ASKED FOR AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—American Consul Leroy Webber has advised the State Department that the situation at Chefoo is such as to make American naval protection necessary.

State Department officials say, however, that they feel there is no immediate danger to Americans because of the presence in the harbor of four Japanese and two British warships.

The disturbance appears to be centered on the east end of the Shantung peninsula with former Peking soldiers and brigands under two generals trying to execute an encircling movement with Fushan, about ten miles west of Chefoo, as the immediate objective of the advancing forces.

Airplane Drops Supplies on Wyoming Desert for Marooned Group

DENVER, Feb. 21. (AP)—Once again the Rocky Mountain region buffeted by many storms this winter, is host to general snowstorm Today's snowfall originated in Montana and Wyoming and worked its way southward along the eastern slope of the Rockies all through Colorado and into northernmost New Mexico.

In Colorado skies were overcast all day and from them a wet and heavy snow fell almost continuously. No great hindrance to rail or automobile traffic resulted but the snow added to the deposits that have caused hardships in widely scattered Colorado communities for many weeks.

MANY MAROONED

Wyoming added another chapter to its winter-long story of recurrent storms. Road conditions were made hazardous by deep drifting snow and wind.

Rock Springs, Wyo., reported no word had been received from a relief party that left the city last night in two trucks with provisions for thirty-five men who with their wives and children are marooned in twenty-three transportation county trucks stalled in snowdrifts near Table Rock in the Red Desert.

HORSES STARVE

Ranchers joined in rescue work to feed some 40,000 sheep of the Cow Creek Sheep Company, reported in a precarious position south of Bitter Creek along the Colorado-Wyoming State line. The sheep are seventy miles south of Rock Springs and roads to their present location are blocked by five-foot drifts. Sleighs have set out from Rock Springs in an attempt to carry feed to them.

Reports received at Rock Springs said hundreds of wild horses unable to break through the deep snow along the Utah, Colorado and Wyoming State lines have perished of starvation. There are no cattle or sheep in that section.

PLANE DROPS AID FOR STORM MAROONED

ROCK SPRINGS (Wyo.) Feb. 2 (AP)—A half-ton of foodstuffs an blankets was dropped from an air plane early tonight, for the relie of the crew of a fleet of twenty three trucks which are stranded i huge snowdrifts in the Red Deser

The plane had been dispatche from Salt Lake City earlier in th day by the Boeing Air Transpor Company to Rock Springs, wher it picked up the load of supplie and took off for the Red Desert.

Between fifty and sixty men women and children are in th party, and apparently their onl hope of release from the snow tha holds them is in a moderation o the cold wave which has kept ther isolated since Monday.

Three relief trucks which lef Rock Springs to aid the party ar now believed stalled, as they hav not returned to Rock Springs. Ther was a new fall of four inches o snow today.

The twenty-three trucks becam stalled in the snow Monday afte leaving Rawlins. They were e route from Carlsbad, N. M., to Roc Springs for use in connection wit work on the Baxter basin to Utal natural gas line. About thirty-fiv men, many of whom were accom panied by their families, were trav eling in the trucks.

STORM IN EAST RECORD FOR WINTER

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—From Canada to the Carolinas and westward in an almost solid blanket to the Mississippi, snow piled up today in the most widespread storm of the winter.

It was the worst storm in three years in New York City and Manhattan's snowfall was far below that in many other places.

Ten counties in Pennsylvania reported seventeen inches of snow New York had seven, Nashville Tenn., fourteen, Charleston, W. Va., twelve, and many other towns were nearing the one-foot mark.

More than 15,000 shovelers worked all day to keep New York's streets open to their congested traffic and throughout the snowy band across the Eastern States the snow removal forces were marshaled in a great offensive against the drifts

BABY PLACED IN 'GRAB-BAG'

Roseville Theater Says It Will Give Away Child of Destitute Parents, But Many Object

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—The city of Roseville near here today was thrown into a furor when the manager of a Roseville theater announced that a real, live baby will be given away at the showhouse next Monday night.

The county probation officer, L. J. Kinney, was asked to investigate after W. E. Eisler, theater owner, declared that the offer is "bona fide," in every detail and the baby is not a fish or an animal."

The Methodist Missionary Society which met today, passed a strong resolution of protest against what it described as a "disgraceful thing."

Eisler declared he is performing an act of charity. He says the child, 6 months of age, is one of six in the family and its parents are financially unable to care for it properly.

The person claiming the baby, under terms of the offer, must appear before a notary and promise to rear the baby as one of her own.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bass, president of the Parent-Teacher Association, declared if there is any child in need in Roseville, the proper solution is not to give it away at a theater.

Path Opened for Early Vote

Cruiser Foes Win Delay in Starting Second Batch; Rough Days Ahead

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Filibuster clouds over the Senate legislative calendar faded today as agreements were reported on the Navy Department and Interior Department appropriation measure.

Foes of the newly authorized cruiser construction program for which funds are provided in the naval supply measure threw a scare into Senate leaders by indulging in a verbal attack against the bill.

Leaders countered this talking game with threats of continuous day and night meetings for the final ten days of the sessions.

The opposition to the cruisers yielded to a vote to take up the bill. This carried, 63 to 5, and soon thereafter an agreement was reached limiting debate on the naval bill after 3 p.m. tomorrow. Senator Swanson, Democrat, Virginia, proposed the agreement which assures an early vote.

BLAINE OVERRULED

Senator Blaine, Republican, Wisconsin, raised a point of order against the $12,370,000 provided by the bill for starting the first and second year's program on the cruisers, but he was overruled by Vice-President Dawes.

Previously Senator Hale, Maine, appeased the opposition somewhat by an announcement that he will amend the bill to provide for only $200,000 for this fiscal year, ending June 30, to start the first five cruisers. Provision had been made also for $500,000 to be available immediately for drafting plans for the second complement of five cruisers, but he agreed to delay this appropriation so that it will becom available during the second year, beginning July 1.

Under this arrangement work will be started immediately on five of the cruisers. In the next fiscal year, beginning next July, the second five and an airplane carrier will be started and $10,000,000 will be available for continuing work on the first five.

ROUGH DAYS AHEAD

Some rough days are ahead on the Senate legislative drive and in preparation for this the first petition of the session for the cloture rule restricting debate was circulated by the friends of the bill of Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, extending the life of the Radio Commission another year.

This bill passed the House early in the week. Some opposition developed when it came before the Senate, and Senator Watson said he is getting the cloture petition as a measure of protection in the event a filibuster develops against the bill in the closing days.

Senators King, Democrat, Utah, and Brookhart, Republican, Iowa, expressed opposition to the increasing cost of the Navy in speeches during the controversy over the naval bill, but the Utahan admitted "you have the votes to pass it." He gave up the fight, but Brookhart held the floor for an hour before permitting the Senate to take it up.

Then a roll-call vote was forced on the motion to make it the order of business. Only five votes were mustered against this move—Black, Democrat, and Blaine, Brookhart, Frazier and Nye, Republicans.

Review of Day in Congress

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS]

The House received the $191,599,000 second deficiency supply bill from its Appropriations Committee.

The Senate decided to limit debate on the Navy Department supply measure carrying funds for starting cruiser construction.

The House Ways and Means Committee continued its study of the free list receiving proposals for tariffs on cotton and hides.

House leaders agreed to incorporate in the deficiency bill the President's 2,727,000 prohibition increase recommendation as a substitute for the $24,000,000 proposal.

BRITTEN SAYS ENGLAND HAS TWO NAVAL POLICIES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Chairman Britten of the House Naval Committee today accused Great Britain of having one naval policy for England and another for consumption in the United States. Each policy, he declared, has British control of the seas as its goal.

The Illinois member set forth his views in a statement in which he said the announcement by Sir Austen Chamberlain, the British Foreign Secretary, that Great Britain has no intention of calling a new disarmament conference is in "complete discord" with Chamberlain's approval of the announcement by Sir Esme Howard, the British Ambassador to the United States, that his country shortly will call a naval limitation conference.

Britten also made public a letter from Commander J. M. Kenworthy, a member of the British Parliament, which asked the chairman to inform his friends that "we, on this side, of all parties, who favor an informal conference, have no desire to interfere with, or to influence one way or the other, the construction of any warships that the elected representatives of the United States deem necessary within the limits of the treaty agreed upon in Washington in 1921."

"Personally," Kenworthy wrote, "I agree with the former Prime Minister of Australia, Mr. Hughes, in his declaration that every additional American warship is an added guarantee for the peace of the world and the security of the British Empire. But for the sake of our respective taxpayers we want this form of guarantee and our own guarantee to be as small and as cheap as possible."

SNOW GRIPPING EAST AND WEST

that threatened to paralyze transportation.

Atlantic City's proud boast that there isn't any snow on the board walk was snowed under early today but was justified again by afternoon with the help of a rise in temperature that turned the continuing snowfall into rain.

The snow was so dense visibility in New York Harbor was lowered to the danger point. Ferry service was slowed down and ocean liners hesitated to negotiate the journey between their piers and quarantine. The Leviathan, which arrived at dawn, lay anchored at Ambrose Light outside the harbor most all day but started for her pier in late afternoon when the snow moderated.

SNOW DERAILS ENGINE IN COLORADO

Shortly after the accident the first trainload of supplies reached Silverton, which has been isolated by snow from the rest of the world for seventeen days. The train carried fresh meats, butter, eggs and canned goods.

Silverton has been practically without food supplies for several days. The residents of the town had resorted to eating canned goods almost entirely, the supplies of fresh meats, eggs and other provisions having been exhausted.

The engine left the tracks six miles south of Silverton and plunged into the river. Telephone wires were down between Durango and Silverton and details of the accident have not been learned.

Shortly after the first train had been sent over the road a second train left Durango and reached Silverton without difficulty. Passenger and freight service will be resumed tonight over the Denver and Rio Grande Western Silverton branch for the first time since the 3rd inst. when snow slides buried the tracks.

FIRE CAUSES LOSS TO MARSHALL FIELD & CO.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Fire broke out shortly after 1 o'clock in the basement and first floor of Marshall Field & Co.'s store at State and Randolph streets. Extra fire apparatus was rushed to the scene as smoke poured from the building. The manager of the perfume department said $50,000 worth of perfumes was destroyed.

BATTLE BEGUN ON FILIBUSTER

Watson Seeks Cloture on Radio Bill

Copeland Mysterious in Opposition

Hearst Interests Threaten Federal Board

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Senator Watson of Indiana started today a battle in the Senate to defeat the secret power behind the filibuster against the important Watson-White radio bill. The Senator began the circulation of a petition for cloture to force limitation of debate on this measure.

Senator Watson announced that he does not intend to interfere with the debate on the pending naval appropriation bill and the Edge resolution for the Nicaraguan canal. He said he would not bring up the radio bill until these two measures had been disposed of.

"I intend to use this cloture petition only as a protection and then only if necessary," he said.

Senator Watson was being actively assisted in circulation of the petition by Senator Dill of Washington and Senator Wheeler of Montana. An active secret lobby and one lone Senator are holding up the bill from becoming a law. The Watson-White bill is for the purpose of extending the life of the Federal Radio Commission as an administrative body for one year in order that the commission may carry to conclusion the several vital policies it has initiated during the past two years to end the radio chaos prevailing on the continent.

MYSTERIOUS REASON

The lone Senator who is filibustering against the passage of the bill is Senator Copeland of New York, a political creature of William Randolph Hearst. Senator Copeland has been very mysterious about the reason for his opposition to the Watson-White bill. However, it was learned today that a lobbyist of the Hearst interests in Washington, John D. Costello, has been threatening the Radio Commission with legislative punishment unless it allots to the Hearst interests a large slice of the short waves set aside for the press of the United States. These waves are extremely important for the dissemination of public information and the Radio Commission has been determined that they shall not be monopolized.

Finding the Radio Commission adamant, Costello has been busily lobbying about the House and Senate. He got several Congressmen to register their influence with the radio commissioners without much success. Senator Hiram Johnson of California also put his influence forward in behalf of the Hearst program. So far as can be learned the radio commissioners refused to be influenced by these or any other politicians and events bear out this report, except in one particular.

HEARING ADVANCED

The Federal Radio Commission originally set the 18th inst. for the allocation of the forty waves set aside for the press. On that date the commission was assured of legal existence because the present statute continues its life until March 4. The date also was important because there would be four commissioners. Commissioner Caldwell of New York had resigned to take effect on the 23rd inst. After that date there will be only three commissioners, Chairman Ira F. Robinson of West Virginia; Vice-chairman E. O. Sykes, of Mississippi, and Commissioner Harold A. Lafount of Utah.

However, under considerable pressure the commission retracted the notice of hearing for the 18th inst. and agreed to the Hearst demand for an adjournment until March 7. If the Radio Commission does not get a new legal term of life as an administrative body, the March 7 hearing will be held before the radio branch of the Department of Commerce. It is said that unless there is a determined effort in the Senate to save the Radio Commission, the prospects are slim for obtaining action during this session, owing to the power of a small group of Senators to filibuster against legislation in the closing days of a session.

No information could be derived from Mr. Robinson himself regarding his conferences with the President-elect or concerning the report on his mission.

Eugene Meyer, chairman of the Federal Farm Loan Board, and the President-elect went over agricultural problems which the next administration will have to face. Through his administration of farm loans Mr. Meyer has acquired an intimate knowledge of the financial condition of farmers throughout the United States and the different agricultural problems in the various States. The appointment of a Secretary of Agriculture for the new administration rendered the information he brought of particular interest to the President-elect.

OTHER CONFERENCES

Carl Vrooman of Illinois, assistant Secretary of Agriculture in the Wilson administration and a student of the farm situation, also brought up the agrarian problem in a conference he had with Mr. Hoover. Mr. Vrooman is the author of a number of plans for the relief of agriculture.

Hubert Work, chairman of the Republican National Committee, and Representative Newton of Minnesota, Republican campaign manager and head of the western speakers' bureau, respectively, who were two of Mr. Hoover's closest lieutenants in the campaign, also conferred separately with him. The policy of silence which has surrounded all of Mr. Hoover's conferences so far was maintained in this case also.

Representative Wood of Indiana, chairman of the Congressional Campaign Committee, was the last caller of the day, although Mr. Robinson returned tonight to Mr. Hoover's home as a dinner guest for a continuance of their conference.

Mr. Hoover, in the meantime, is awaiting word from Representative Tilson of Connecticut, Republican leader of the House, as to the earliest date upon which Congress will be ready to be called into special session and proceed with the consideration of farm relief and tariff revision bills.

Representative Tilson, it is understood, will consult with Speaker Longworth, Chairman Snell of the Rules Committee, Chairman Haugen of the Agriculture Committee and with Chairman Hawley of the Ways and Means Committee, and inform Mr. Hoover in a few days as to the earliest date on which the House may safely be expected to have a bill ready for its consideration. It is understood that Mr. Tilson hopes that this date may be between April 8 and April 15, next.

YOUNG URGES THAT ALL TUNE IN ON INAUGURATION

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Gov. Young today called on all heads of State and local governments, public schools and private business concerns in the State to make arrangements to permit employees to "tune in" on the inauguration of Herbert Hoover as President of the United States on March 4, next. It is expected that the ceremonies will commence at about 9 o'clock, Pacific standard time.

Though it first was suggested to the Governor that he declare March 4 a holiday in view of the extraordinary occasion of the Presidential honor being conferred on a Californian for the first time, he points out that the inauguration will take place at a comparatively early morning hour and it would be unwise to suspend business for the entire day.

In a statement, the Governor declares that March 4 will be "an exceedingly interesting and important day for all Californians.

"I wish to urge heads of various departments of the State government, and so far as I may presume to do so, local governments and business men throughout California to make arrangements to permit those in their employ to pay the respect due Hoover."

He also requests schools to observe the occasion appropriately.

WATSON LINES UP BACK OF HOOVER DURING BY-PLAY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—An expression of regret by Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, for the newspaper men forced to stand in the snow outside the residence of Herbert Hoover here opened a round of political play in the Senate today with Senator Watson of Indiana, prospective new Republican leader, enrolling firmly behind the cause of the President-elect.

"If it had not been for these gentlemen, forced as they were to remain outside on the streets shivering and freezing in a foot of snow," declared Harrison, "they perhaps would not have been able to tell the country that my good friend from Indiana, Senator Watson, the next leader in this body of the majority party, had renewed his friendship with the President-elect."

This drew Senator Watson to his feet and the Indianan was subjected to some good-natured heckling as he took up the cause of Mr. Hoover. He was one of Hoover's outstanding foes in the Republican Presidential campaign last year.

Watson said he didn't know about the newspaper men standing in the snow. He took the opportunity to explain that Mr. Hoover had returned to Washington to seek counsel for his new duties and he declared the President-elect is the "best equipped man in his knowledge" for the Presidency.

Harrison provoked laughter with a suggestion that Mr. Hoover at least supply the newspaper men with kindling wood to warm themselves as they waited outside his residence for news.

He recalled that Mr. Hoover had asked $20,000 for enlarging the White House executive office and he presumed this was "to take care of three secretaries for whom he has asked."

Gibson Arrives From Belgium

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—Hugh S. Gibson, United States Ambassador of Belgium, arrived today on the liner Leviathan en route to Washington, where he will confer with Secretary Kellogg and receive his instructions as observer at the meetings of the preparatory disarmament commission under the auspices of the League of Nations, in April.

The Ambassador said he had complied with the formality of tendering his resignation, a custom observed by all envoys when a new President is elected. He said he expected to return to Europe the latter part of March.

KIDNAPER HUNT SPURRED

Every House in Bay City Scrutinized in Intensive Police Quest for Missing Child

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Every available police officer in San Francisco tonight is pushing a house-to-house search of the entire city for the missing Doris Virginia Smith-Murphy, victim of a kidnaping, which occurred last Friday, and which thus far has balked every effort to find a clew to her whereabouts or to the identity of her abductors.

The city-wide combing was ordered on the possibility that her hiding place might be unearthed or her body found in the event that she has been killed.

FOURTH NOTE RECEIVED

This action, the most extensive ever undertaken by the police force of this city, followed receipt of a fourth "K. K." note in which indescribably hideous torture was predicted for little Doris. Hitherto, police have been inclined to scoff at the "K. K." notes, believing them to be the work of a crank, or of the misguided "detective" minds of some of the little girl's older playmates. The writing has been that of a young boy or girl.

Now, however, few lines of activity present themselves for further investigation and the notes become the center of attention, together with efforts to locate Ulysses E. Smith, the child's father. The latter has not been found, despite word of his possible location requested of relatives in Pocatello, Idaho, of ship companies in New York and of the United States Navy.

WOMAN TELLS OF CLEW

Some weight was placed during the day on a report from Dunsmuir regarding a man in sailor's clothing, accompanied by an elderly woman and a girl answering the description of Doris, but no further information was available until the trio could be located by officers and questioned.

The car said to have been used at Dunsmuir answered in some respects the description of an automobile mentioned by Mrs. Marie Razura yesterday as containing a man and woman who stopped at her home on the fringe of the industrial district for a drink of water, but left hurriedly when the man saw a newspaper picture of Doris on Mrs. Razura's kitchen table.

DOG TO TAKE TRAIL

Trailing instincts of the trained dog will be put to the test by police here tomorrow in their efforts to locate the child. The dog to be used, Arnold Von Winkelreid, was brought by its owner from Seattle, arriving late today. Tomorrow the animal will be allowed to sniff of the missing 4-year-old girl's clothing at home and then taken across the street to the Jefferson Square playground from which the child is believed to have been lured last Friday.

Information late today by a Berkeley woman clairvoyant that the child has been held unharmed in the Berkeley hills for three days collapsed when police went to the spot indicated and found nothing to substantiate the woman's statements.

STAGE SET FOR HARDY HEARING

ley was one of the eighteen Assemblymen who voted against impeachment.

NATURE OF CHARGES

The managers went to work immediately this afternoon to prepare the articles of impeachment. According to Mr. Little, these will fall into three phases: Practicing law in violation of the constitution; obstructing justice, and generalyl reprehensible conduct.

It is reliably reported that the third phase will be more definite when filed, and there are a number of mystery witnesses who will testify to acts of Judge Hardy which have no relation to the Aimee Semple McPherson angle of the case.

One count, it is believed, will charge that Judge Hardy violated the constitution by refusing William Edward Hickman, the murderer of little Marion Parker, an open hearing, by issuing "cards of admittance" to favored friends who alone could enter his courtroom. Judge Hardy was disqualified from hearing this case after one forenoon.

McPHERSON CASE

The matter of practicing law relates to Judge Hardy's acceptance of a $2500 "love offering" from Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, her mother. His asserted obstruction of justice is concerned with his activities on behalf of Mrs. McPherson when he dealt with attorneys and detectives and witnesses in the early stages of the investigation of Mrs. McPherson's story that she was kidnaped.

The Senate Judiciary Committee today appointed Senators Weller, chairman; McKinley and Carter, all of Los Angeles, as a subcommittee to draw up rules to govern the impeachment proceedings. Senator Weller said he thinks the best plan will be to create a committee of three lawyers to pass on objections as to the admissibility of evidence, to obviate a roll call of the forty Senators each time an objection is raised.

ROLL CALL ESSENTIAL

Assemblyman Sewell, however, said that from his study of the code covering impeachments it will be necessary to call that roll at each instance. It is understood that the Oklahoma Senate, now trying Gov. Johnson, is forced to call the roll a score of times a day.

The managers will try to present their articles of impeachment to the Senate as early as possible next week, Assemblyman Little said this afternoon. The intervening holidays will be employed for that purpose, he said. The case then will be set by Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan, as the presiding officer, some time after the statutory ten days have elapsed. Judge Hardy's counsel will be permitted to file a demurrer, which must be heard an dvoted upon by the Senate.

AUTHORIZATION SOUGHT

Authorization for the expenditure of money in working up the investigation is being sought today by the committee, Mr. Little said. Whether this includes a sum whereby the managers can send members to Portland to take a deposition from Mrs. Kenendy is undetermoned. The managers, it is said, would like to have her testimony.

Mrs. McPherson has not appeared in Sacramento, having been released by the investigating committee. Mr. Little said she is a defense witness and that the State will not call her.

HARDY CONFIDENT OF FAIR HEARING

Although declining to issue a formal statement on his case, Superior Judge Hardy last night expressed belief in a fair and impartial Senatorial hearing and that he will be exonerated of any culpability in the acceptance of the $2500 check from Aimee Semple McPherson.

"I have no doubt that I will be given a fair and impartial trial and that the results will be favorable to me," Judge Hardy said.

Attorney Ford, with Attorney Hardy, a son of the accused, is preparing to defend the jurist at Sacramento.

DRY FUND ROW FINISH SOUGHT

House Gets Plan Along With New Deficiency Bill

Measure at Present Lacks Item for Prohibition

Amendment to be Offered for $2,727,914 Outlay

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—An eleventh-hour attempt to settle the dispute over providing additional funds for prohibition enforcement was outlined to the House today by its appropriation committee in reporting a second deficiency supply measure.

The bill calls for a total expenditure of $191,599,000 and includes all items embodied in the first deficiency bill except the controversial $24,000,000 prohibition item. This first supply bill, under the plan of Congressional leaders, will be permitted to die in conference.

An amendment will be offered in the House to incorporate $2,727,914 in the second bill for prohibition. This amount has been recommended by President Coolidge as a substitute for the larger sum.

Whether this plan will meet with the approval of those desiring a greater amount of money to enforce the dry law remains to be seen. The dispute over more funds for the purpose has been going on intermittently all session.

PROPOSALS TURNED DOWN

Senator Bruce, Democrat, Maryland, initiated discussion of the question by seeking $250,000,000 additional for enforcement and Senator Harris, Democrat, Georgia, sponsored the $24,000,000 proposal. The House turned thumbs down on both items and now will be asked by its leaders to vote $2,727,914 for this purpose. Of this amount the Prohibition Bureau would receive $1,719,654; the Department of Justice, $150,000; the Customs Bureau, $707,860, and the Civil Service Commission, $150,000.

There was no indication today whether House Democrats will accept the smaller amount. Yesterday, in the Senate, Glass of Virginia, announced he believes any supply bill carrying a smaller amount than $24,000,000 will encounter difficulty.

ONE OF PROVISIONS

The bill reported today among other things carries authority for the Civil Service Commission to use a part of its funds to speed up the examination of applicants for places in the Prohibition Bureau. Already there are 5000 odd seekers for these positions and it was estimated that the $50,000 recommended by the Budget Bureau would cause the work to lag for twenty-one months.

The $191,599,000 measure is divided into three sections, one covering the latest emergency recommendations, another the increases necessary to care for salary advances for government employees under the Welch Act, and the third carrying the items in the first deficiency bill.

VARIETY OF ITEMS

The first section has a wide variety of items totaling $78,677,229 for the different activities of the department for which insufficient funds were provided in making the regular appropriations for this year's work. Its recommendations include an $11,195,500 item for ninety-six public building projects in different sections of the country.

Chief among the controversial items in the measure is $75,000,000 for tax refunds. The proposal encountered considerable resistance from Democratic leaders when it was brought to the floor in the first supply measure, but it is not known whether they will revive opposition to it.

CRUISER RUSHES FROM MANILA TO CHEFOO

MANILA, Feb. 21. (AP)—The light cruiser Trenton left Manila today under orders to proceed to Chefoo as the result of a reported uprising in Shantung. The Trenton proceeded under ordinary speed and is due at Chefoo Monday morning.

Reports from Chefoo ten days ago said that 3000 former Peking soldiers who had been mustered into the Nationalist army had revolted at Lungkow, Shantung. There was fear then that the mutiny would spread to other towns and garrisons.

Missionary women were evacuated from several towns in the affected area, although men remained at their posts.

ANK TAX BILL STRIKES SNARL

Outlook for Its Passage by March 4 Gloomy

West Fails in Calling Up Amended Measure

BY C. A. JONES
"Times" Staff Representative

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—The 4 per cent income tax on banks and corporations became involved in a legislative snarl today and the outlook for passage by March 4, which is a necessity to make it effective for this tax year, is gloomy.

Charges of "fast work," and "jobbing," were preferred against the administration in the Assembly when an effort was made to hurry through one of the bills and on a roll call on a minor matter only [illegible] of the eighty votes were for the administration.

Companion bills were introduced last month in the Senate and Assembly. Senator Nelson is handling the bill in the Senate and Assemblyman West in the Assembly. Both chairmen of the respective revenue and taxation committees and [illegible] committees have been holding sessions.

SENATE BILL AMENDED

Due to the concerted drive on the part of real-estate interests, the Senate bill has been amended [illegible] to grant an offset of [illegible] per cent on real estate taxes paid and to reduce the offset on personal property taxes from 90 to 75 per cent. The Assembly bill was not amended on this point.

Because these basic amendments have been made, the Senate bill now requires a two-thirds vote. It was doubtful if there were two-thirds majority for the bill in the Senate, and the bill was put over until Monday, while Mr. West tried to call up his amended bill. Assemblyman Hornblower of San Francisco vigorously protested. He asked whether it were fair to ask the Assembly to vote on the bill when it did not contain the provisions so many members demand.

WEST MOTION CARRIES

Mr. Hornblower pointed out that the bill in the Assembly obligated [illegible] the Assembly bill, even if the bill in the Assembly carries and the bill in the Senate fails, the Senate would feel obligated to pass without a revenue measure.

On motion of Mr. Keaton of Long Beach that the West bill be deferred to next Tuesday, instead of Monday, a roll call was demanded and only forty-two members stood by Mr. West. This is far short of the two-thirds necessary to pass the Nelson bill. Keaton contended that a "gentleman's agreement" called for this delay, which West denied.

The Assembly revenue and taxation committee has refused to recommend a bill taxing intangibles at 2 mills per $1 instead of 3 mills per $1. Senator Nelson, however, is meeting with success for the 2 mills bill in the Senate.

FORD RETIRES FROM FARMING

Auto Maker Finds Land too Near Growing Suburb of Detroit

DETROIT, Feb. 21. (AP)—Henry Ford has retired from farming. Encroachments on his model farm of 3000 acres, by the growth of the municipalities of Dearborn, Melvindale and River Rouge, caused him to realize the impracticability of farming so close to Detroit, and his farming implements were sold today.

Mr. Ford is to retain only 200 acres of land, just enough to provide feed for 100 head of thoroughbred cattle he owns. The remainder of the farm will be cut and sold.

The farm has been used for nearly twenty years for experimental purposes to test agricultural methods and crop rotation.

Sixty-two filed their addresses yesterday.

GASOLINE TAX BILL PASSES IN KANSAS

TOPEKA (Kan.) Feb. 21. (AP)—Gasoline tax bill levying an extra cent per gallon on motor vehicle fuel for twenty-seven months following April 1, was passed by the Senate today without a dissenting vote, and sent to Gov. Reed. The present tax is 2 cents a gallon.

OUTLAY IN FILM FIELD MOUNTS

Data Gathered in Federal Biennial Census

Report Omits Distribution and Theater Items

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—The Department of Commerce announced today that according to data collected at the biennial census taken in 1928 the establishments engaged primarily in the production of motion-picture films in 1927 reported a total production cost amounting to $134,343,360, an increase of 43.5 per cent as compared with $93,636,348 for 1925, the last preceding census year.

The motion-picture industry, as constituted for census purposes, embraces all processes and activities connected with the production of motion pictures, such as the photography of scenes, the development of exposed films, the printing of projecting films, and other studio and laboratory work necessary in connection with the preparation of projection films for use. It does not, however, include distribution and projection in theaters.

Bill Approved to Create New Judicial Circuit

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today approved a House bill to divide the Eighth Judicial Circuit and to create a new judicial circuit, the tenth.

Chairman Norris of the committee attempted in the Senate to get immediate action on the measure, but Senator Blease, Democrat, South Carolina, objected.

The measure would put Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Illinois and Arkansas in the Eighth circuit.

In the Ninth corcuit would be California, Oregon, Nevada, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Hawaii and Arizona. In the Tenth would be Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Kansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Russell Takes Step in Fight to Enforce Dry Law

New Measure Seeks to Put Police in State Hands

CHICAGO, Feb. 21. (AP)—An automobile, believed to be the one used by the men who massacred seven gangsters a week ago, was found in a North Side garage tonight. Efforts had been made to destroy it. Hack saws had been applied, and the body of the machine had been burned, and parts were missing.

The garage owner, Leo Joppet, told police that two men rented the garage the 12th inst.—two days before the massacre—saying they wanted it for a month. One of the men said his name was Rogers. Fire broke out in the garage about 6:30 tonight.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21. (AP)—William F. Russell, Commissioner of Police, today ordered his deputy commissioners to instruct policemen to search both public and private premises for liquor law violations as the opening move in his fight to enforce the prohibition laws in Chicago.

The order follows an earlier one in which his deputies were told a complete survey of every part of the city was to be made to determine whether the police are obeying the command to "keep the lid down tight."

The new order, it was explained, does not mean that private homes are to be searched, but refers particularly to both public and private premises fronting on alleys, such as garages, barns, sheds and any other places in alleys suspected of harboring "miniature breweries, whisky stills, alcohol stills, whisky or beer trucks, liquor or beer stores."

After the police have ransacked the city they are ordered to forward the addresses of all suspected places with owners and lessees to the commissioner, who said he either will make a search with the consent of the owners or obtain search warrants wholesale to hunt through the suspected places.

Commissioner Russell charged the St. Valentine's Day massacre of seven members of the Moran gang was a result of liquor running and prohibition.

No progress was made today in solving the massacre. Not even a new theory was evolved concerning the slaughter.

A group of city officials meeting in Commissioner Russell's office today after his order was issued, agreed to increase the total award for apprehension and conviction of the Moran gang killers to $50,000, by asking the city to appropriate $20,000 and raising $10,000 by public subscription in addition to the funds already promised.

BILL WOULD END CITY'S POLICE CONTROL

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Feb. 21. (AP) A bill to take control of the Chicago police department from the city's hands and give it to the State has been placed before the Illinois Senate.

The measure, introduced by Senator Marks of Chicago, would replace Police Commissioner Russell and his deputies with a commission appointed by Gov. Emmerson.

In presenting the bill Senator Marks declared the Chicago police force "needs a house cleaning."

Under the system now effective by which the North, South and West park boards of Chicago are State operated, that city at present has a large area policed under State direction.

MADRID, Feb. 21. (AP)—El Sol prints a dispatch from Olmedo, Valladolid, reporting the birth of quintuplets, two boys and three girls, to a woman there, Sofia Hernandez Molpeceres. The five babies died shortly after birth.

Dr. Isidro Villa, professor of obstetrics in the University of Valladolid, referring to the case, says quintuplets are extremely rare and that the case possibly is the first in Spain. The average of such, he said, is once in about 40,000,000.

Senate Offers Compromise on Private Property

House Rejects Proposal by Heavy Vote

Leaders in Both Houses Seek Basis of Agreement

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Senate and House today both took another whirl at the Interior bill conference report and again wound up in a deadlock over the House provision giving the government condemnation power in its movement to acquire privately owned land in the Yosemite and other national parks.

Senator Smoot of Utah, chairman of the Senate conferees, renewed his request in the Senate for concurrence in the House bill with the result that the condemnation clause was modified to exempt property occupied by private homes, churches or hotels. The change was proposed by Senator Walsh, Democrat of Montana, who has a summer home in Glacier National Park.

Shortly after the Senate acted, the matter was again taken up in the House where, upon the advice of Representative Cramton of Michigan, the Senate compromise was rejected by a vote of 42 to 12.

CHILE AND PERU BURY HATCHET

Dispatches Say Tacna-Arica Dispute Settled

Washington Still Awaits Official Word

Santiago Reports State Protocol Agreed

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—The long pending Tacna-Arica boundary dispute between Chile and Peru is reported definitely settled in dispatches from Santiago today. Advices from Lima, the Peruvian capital, failed to confirm this.

The dispatches from the two capitals are in agreement on the broad lines of a projected settlement which will give Tacna to Peru and Arica to Chile, but they differed considerably as to the degree of finality which the negotiations have reached.

No confirmation of a final settlement was received in Washington during the day and pending such word State Department officials declined to comment. Gen. Pershing, one-time head of the American commission which went to the disputed territory, was told in Paris of the reported settlement and expressed pleasure that the methods of conciliation apparently had prevailed.

PLAN TREATIES

Advices from Santiago late today reiterated emphatically that a settlement had been reached and that the signing of a protocol will take place shortly. Later, these advices said, treaties of arbitration and commerce will establish peace definitely between Chile and Peru.

The dispatches added that the formula for the settlement is a Peruvian proposition which Chile has decided to accept.

Official confirmation or denial could not be obtained in Santiago. The Foreign Minister, while saying that his office has no official statement to make at the present time, did not deny the truth of the settlement report.

Direct official comment also was unobtainable in Lima on the Peruvian position but it was learned from highly authoritative sources that while the Santiago dispatches contained the principal points of a proposal still pending, the Tacna-Arica problem is not regarded as solved. The door for further Peruvian proposals or counter proposals, it is held, is still open.

MOORE'S PROPOSALS

The Associated Press correspondent in Lima said that he was in a position to state authoritatively the following:

When Alexander P. Moore, American Ambassador to Peru, recently returned to Peru, he found that the Peruvian-Chilean negotiations were deadlocked. In order to solve this impasse, Mr. Moore made certain suggestions by which the new Peruvian-Chilean boundary line would be the San Jose River. About a mile north of Arica a new Tacna sea outlet was to be built on the northern San Jose bank. This new port would have customs warehouses and other official buildings. The Arica-Tacna Railroad was to be abandoned and the famous Arica Morro for which Chilean and Peruvian troops battled in 1880 was to be internationalized. To determine the feasibility of this proposal two American engineers were sent to Arica to make a survey. These engineers yesterday delivered their report to President Leguia of Peru.

FORMER CHILEAN MINISTER PLEASED AT SETTLEMENT

PARIS, Feb. 21. (AP)—Augustim Edwards, president of the Paris assembly of the League of Nations, and former Chilean Minister to Great Britain, today expressed himself as greatly pleased at the settlement of the Tacna-Arica controversy.

"Every patriotic Chilean cannot but welcome the settlement of the serious and a long-standing dispute," he said.

PERSHING GLAD TWO NATIONS HAVE REACHED AGREEMENT

PARIS, Feb. 21. (AP)—Gen. Pershing, one-time head of an American commission to Tacna-Arica to make arrangements for a plebiscite there today expressed pleasure at news of the Tacna-Arica settlement.

"It is deeply gratifying to me that the governments of Chile and Peru have reached a settlement of the long-standing dispute," he said. "That a plebiscite was impracticable became evident soon after the commission met in Arica about three years ago. It was always my conviction that the common sense of justice and fair dealing of these two progressive peoples would lead to a mutual understanding on this really difficult question. I am sure the admirable example of resolving international differences by conciliation will have a far-reaching effect upon the relations among the American republics."

Duke Estate Defeats Suit

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21. (AP)—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals today set aside the $8,000,000 verdict against the estate of the late James B. Duke, tobacco magnate, in the suit brought by George D. Haskell, president of the Baush Machine and Tool Company of Springfield, Mass.

Haskell sued the Duke estate in Federal District Court at Newark, N. J., for $45,000,000 under the anti-trust laws, charging that Duke broke a partnership contract with him for the manufacture of aluminum in Canada and went over to the Aluminum Company of America. Haskell claimed he lost millions of dollars and sued for treble damages.

HUNGARY REMOVES PRESS CENSORSHIP

BUDAPEST (Hungary) Feb. 21. He said the amendment will remove the stringent features of the law and insure the press reasonable freedom of expression guaranteed in the constitution.

FIRST STEP TAKEN FOR FARM BILL

Agricultural Hearings Between Short and Extra Session Provided For

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—The first step was made today toward setting the House Agriculture Committee to work upon a farm-relief bill to carry out the promises of the Republicans during the last campaign.

With the House Ways and Means Committee already far along in its work upon the other farm-relief proposal, tariff revisions, a provision was incorporated in the second deficiency bill reported to the House today to permit the Agriculture Committee to conduct hearings between the end of the short session and the opening of the projected special session in April.

Witnesses will be heard upon the various phases that will enter into the new farm bill and after they are finished the committee will draft the measure upon which Congress will act.

Unlike the tariff hearings, those of the Agriculture Committee are not expected to be long drawn out. Chairman Haugen of the committee said he thought it could finish its work within two weeks and that a date for their commencement would be fixed at a meeting to be held before the adjournment of the short session, probably March 2 or 3.

Indian Aid Bill Gains Approval

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—The House Indian Affairs Committee today approved the Arentz bill to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to furnish food, clothing, hospital treatment or any other necessary assistance to any Indian, whether living on or off an Indian reservation. The committee referred the bill to the Indian Bureau for a report before definitely reporting it back to the House.

The committee also gave tentative approval to a bill to authorize establishment of an employment agency for the Indian Service, and to authorize appropriation of $50,000 for upkeep of the agency. The measure was sent to the Indian Bureau for its report and recommendations before final action was taken by the committee.

PROGRESS MADE ON REPARATIONS

New Way to Solve Problem Believed Found

Hopes for Settling German Debt Row Brighter

Full Committee Expected to Gather Today

PARIS, Feb. 21. (AP)—The subcommittee of the Second Dawes Reparations Commission, which has been wrestling with the question of how the full committee could take up the number and amounts of Germany's future payments, is understood tonight to have found a roundabout way of getting at the subject.

Today's exchanges are said to have resulted in considerable progress and the hope is expressed tonight that when the full committee reassembles tomorrow under the chairmanship of Owen D. Young of the United States it can go ahead under full steam.

PLAN FACED BREAKDOWN

The negotiations ran into a snag several days ago after preliminary statements had been made by Germany. The time had come to talk figures but it was known that what Germany wished to pay and what France, Belgium and Italy wanted her to pay were so far apart that a compromise seemed impossible. There was some fear that the whole procedure might break down. A subcommittee of two failed to discover a way to approach the subject from any other angle but the enlarged subcommittee of five hit on the idea that Germany's capacity to transfer money or payments in kind, which entered into the original Dawes plan, might furnish a path by which the present experts could approach the question of definite figures without encountering insurmountable obstacles.

The Dawes plan, under which reparations now are being paid, furnished protection to Germany against excessive transfers. It provides at the same time for increases in the present annuities of 2,500,000,000 marks when the economic situation of Germany will permit. It was this provision which afforded a chance for a trade between the two extremes of the present negotiations.

THEORY OF PROCEDURE

The subcommittee has proceeded on the theory that the Germans would be willing to abandon their protection under the Dawes transfer clause provided the creditors would give up their rights to demand increased annuities. It thus was found possible to discuss figures in connection with transfers, the latter term becoming only another name for annuities.

When the amount in cash or products that can be transferred by Germany annually is determined, then the experts will need to decide for how many years the Reich ought to continue this transfer. When they have that second answer, the reparations question will be settled.

LOS ANGELES QUARTET HELD FOR AUTO THEFT

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Charges of burglary and automobile theft were placed against two young Los Angeles women here today and their two male companions were arrested on charges of burglary, car theft and violation of the State gun law. They were found riding in a car reported stolen from Los Angeles. Those arrested gave their names as Laura Kastellar, 20 years of age; Lorine Carroll, 19; Robert Williams, 22, and Louis T. Brauder, 22.

LONG SPAN OF USEFUL YEARS HELD LIKELY FOR COOLIDGE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—President Coolidge should have thirty years of useful life before him when he leaves the White House, according to Col. James F. Coupal, his official physician.

The President's health, Col. Coupal said today, is better than it was when he entered upon his duties as Chief Executive. He should be good for another thirty years of service, he added, because he has learned how to live, do his work and yet keep strong and well.

When the President entered the White House he weighed 153 pounds. According to Col. Coupal, Mr. Coolidge now is slightly overweight, weighing in at approximately 163.

In remarking on his continued good health, President Coolidge has attributed it largely to regular habits and taking the proper amount of exercise. He seldom keeps late hours, takes a short walk with secret service men almost every day and often utilizes exercising machines kept in his room.

The President will be 57 years of age on July 4, next.

Veterans' Bill Sum Increased

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—The $10,000,000 Veterans' Bureau hospitalization bill was increased to $11,800,000 and favorably reported today by the House World War Veterans' Committee.

The measure is to provide particularly for the hospitalization of the increasing number of mentally afflicted World War veterans, and to enable the Veterans' Bureau to care directly for its beneficiaries.

LENROOT NOMINATION REPORT DUE TODAY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—A report on the nomination of Irvine L. Lenroot to be a judge of the United States Court of Customs Appeals will be made to the Senate Judiciary Committee tomorrow by the Borah subcommittee which has been holding hearings on the appointment. A meeting was held today but no one appeared in opposition to Lenroot.

MERCED, Feb. 21. (AP) — Lucille Landale, young San Francisco actress, showed her knees to a jury in the Superior Court here today to win a suit for $2500 damages against Max Bradfield, orchestra leader at a Seattle theater.

The knees, Miss Landis asserted, were badly scarred in an automobile crash while she was riding with the musician on a trip from San Francisco to Los Angeles. She sued for $50,000 but the jury, after an hour's deliberation and close inspection, decided they were damaged $2500 worth.

COMMITTEE APPROVES WAR CAMP DAMAGES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—The Morin bill to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to pay the Mack Copper Company, Inc., $268,500 in full settlement for damages to its property in San Diego county, California, was approved by the House Military Affairs Committee today. The property was taken over by the Federal government and used as an army cantonment and training camp during the World War.

COTTON TARIFF CAUSES CLASH

Thread and Tire Makers Ask for Egypt's Product

Sea Island Variety Held Impractical to Grow

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—New England and the South came to grips today on the tariff, groups from those sections clashing before the House Ways and Means Committee on proposals to place duties on long staple cotton and jute.

The free list still was under discussion in the revision hearings and, as more than 240 witnesses remained from yesterday, the committee was forced to call a night session, with prospects of such meetings for the rest of the week.

PROPOSAL OPPOSED

New England and eastern thread manufacturers and domestic tire makers strenuously opposed the proposal put forward yesterday by Arizona and California Pima cotton growers for a tariff on long staple cotton, while New England jute manufacturers protested against and southern cotton growers argued for a duty on raw jute.

John D. Clark, of the Clark Thread Company, Newark, N. J., told the committee that there is no substitute for Egyptian long staple cotton in this country for the making of fine threads and automobile tires, that the Arizona and Imperial Valley Pima product is too weak and irregular, and that a duty would increase the price of thread to the American consumer, decrease consumption and result in idle spindles.

No duty, he contended, would keep out Egyptian cotton as long as the people demanded the better-quality thread.

Democratic members of the committee wanted to know if a duty would not encourage growers in this country to turn back to the production of sea-island cotton, which is classed by the manufacturers as a substitute for Egyptian, but which has been practically wiped out by the boll weevil.

Clark said such production could not be started again on a paying basis unless the government subsidized the grower, or a complete embargo were placed against the Egyptian product.

TIRE MEN FIGHT

Other thread manufacturers opposed the levying of a duty, while M. E. Clark, of the tire division of the Rubber Association of America, said it would impose a burden on the tire manufacturer and result in no benefit to the cotton growers.

Clark said a good deal of American cotton was used in the making of smaller and cheaper tires, but the Egyptian product was needed for the higher-priced tire for trucks and busses. On cross-examination he said the rubber industry would be willing to have the 10 per cent duty on tires removed as imports are negligible.

FIRE ATTACKS VIENNA PALACE

Paintings Damaged by Blaze Intended to Keep Them From Cold Injury

VIENNA, Feb. 21. (AP)—Fire in the historic Schoenbrunn Palace seriously damaged the left wing today, several priceless paintings and tapestries suffering most. It was in this wing that Napoleon had his headquarters during several campaigns in Austria.

Stoves recently installed to prevent costly paintings from cracking in consequence of the intense cold were responsible for the fire. The heat caused a wooden wall panel to loosen. This fell across one of the stoves and took fire.

FRUIT-RATE CUT DEFENSE FILED

Rail Commission Answers Railways' Charge

Latter Attack California Tariff as Illegal

Depression Conditions Cited by Government

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (Exclusive) — The Interstate Commerce Commission today filed its brief before the Supreme Court in answer to the railroads of the country, which charge that the commission illegally lowered freight rates on deciduous fruits shipped east from California. The list of those defending the commission includes the California Growers' and Shippers' Protective League. The latter already has filed its brief.

Answering the charges that it misinterpreted the Hoch-Smith resolution and levied a confiscatory rate on the roads, the commission says that it correctly construed the Hoch-Smith resolution, which directs that the commission set the lowest reasonable rate for agricultural products suffering from a depression; that it did set this rate, and that the rate is not confiscatory.

Before the rate was cut the commission states that it was 50.4 per cent above its pre-war level, and generally higher than those on other fruits and vegetables from California, while the rates on the great body of transcontinental traffic were only about 25 per cent above the pre-war level. While the freight rate remained up, the commission continues, the market prices for deciduous fruits slumped from their peak in 1920 until they were only 3.5 per cent higher than those of 1917 and it was necessary from the standpoint of the producer that the rate be cut.

FASCISTS SET WOMEN'S STYLES

Italian Women Ordered to Boycott French Couturiers and Wear National Costume, but Married Men Think "L'Impero" Editor Rides to Fall

ROME, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Italian matrons, whose buxom figures and ample development always have given them a desire to shine in gowns created for the slim figures of mannequins in Paris, are going to be denied that pleasure and forced to don a strictly Italian costume, if the ultra-Fascist paper L'Impero has its way.

L'Impero, enraged at the action of the French couturiers in boosting their prices, calls on the women of Italy to cease spending money in France simply because of the chic attaching to Paris creations, and demands sternly that all wives of high government officials appear at the coming fete on the anniversary of the founding of Rome on April 21, wearing a national costume instead of French creations.

As a matter of fact, L'Impero does not suggest that Italian fashions ought to be any ampler than the French styles, but an unprejudiced observer faced with the problem of creating an Italian national costume would certainly find plenty of room inside the first requisite.

A boyish figure, perhaps, is fashionable in Italy when it is the rage everywhere else, but in that case fashion has represented an impossible idea, for Italian women simply are not made that way, it is contended.

Until the other papers have had time to comment, L'Impero suggests the French couturiers be boycotted.

It is impossible to say how the men will hail the scheme, but any married men can tell L'Impero's obviously celibate editor what the women are going to think.

NUT BUGS SPURN CHINESE EAT

Peculiar Odor Also Makes White Man Abstain Like Insects

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP) A specimen of the only plant in the world which has not developed some insect or fungus enemy grows here in the capital, yields a tasty nut, and is eaten only by Chinese.

Why insects and the white man spurn the nut is explained by Dr. William A. Taylor of the Department of Agriculture, who says the kernel is surrounded by a "most abominable smelling and tasting pulp," which reminds one of the odor from salt-rising bread in the process of fermentation.

The nut is of foreign origin and Dr. Taylor says Chinese laundrymen frequently are seen gathering them. The name of the plant, Dr. Taylor told a house committee, is the Japanese gingo tree.

DURANT AND EX-WIFE SETTLE ALIMONY SUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (AP)—R. C. "Cliff" Curant, automobile manufacturer, and Mrs. Pearl Durant, his former wife, have settled the latter's suit for $28,000 unpaid alimony out of court, Theodore J. Roche, attorney for Durant, announced today.

BALKAN FLOODS BRING DISASTER

Danube and Tributaries Inundate Cities

Avalanches Add Havoc in Jugo-Slavia

LONDON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Floods and avalanches have taken a heavy toll of life and property in the Balkan and neighboring countries. Disrupted communications prevented the full extent of damage being known here today.

Particularly is this true of the area through which the Danube and its tributaries run, but enough was learned from Thrace and Macedonia to indicate almost calamitous inundations there.

The Peloponnesus section of Greece and Thessaly too are stricken with the overflow of the Vardar, the Struma, Nestos and Maritza rivers. Several villages in the valley of the Struma are entirely covered with water and at Serres a military bakery and large railway bridge were carried away. Thousands of acres of valley land are under water.

So great is the general destruction and disturbance of communications that the Grecian government has postponed the impending senatorial elections until April 14.

In Slovenia, Jugo-Slavia, a number of avalanches, one of which caused seven deaths, were reported. Advices were meager.

Zero weather still prevailed in parts of the continent with no sign of abatement. In England, however, the mercury stands ten degrees higher than yesterday, and is almost everywhere above freezing. A gradual thaw was in progress.

ENGINEERS BLAST DANUBE ICE JAM

BELGRADE (Jugo-Slavia) Feb. 21. (AP)—After all other efforts had failed, army engineers, equipped with modern heavy artillery, today blew up huge sections of ice blocking the Danube between Belgrade and Panchevo in order to make a channel for steamers which have been imprisoned for the past fortnight.

The sudden spell of warm weather which succeeded last week's intense cold wave has produced not only floods but avalanches of snow throughout Jugo-Slavia. Avalanches already have caused the death of seven persons.

CHICAGO HEARS OF NEW RACKET

Glaziers' Union Agent Named to Grand Jury

Tribute of $500,000 Yearly Declared Taken

Contractors Forced to Join "Association"

CHICAGO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Another asserted racket of major proportions was laid before the grand jury this afternoon.

It is charged that a group headed by George H. Meyers, business agent for the Glazing Workers' Union Local No. 27, has been taking approximately $500,000 a year from a number of glazing contractors.

Meyers and his associates, according to the charges against them, have forced contracting firms to join what was called "the Illinois Glass Dealers' Association." They were given to understand that if they didn't they could not continue in the glazing business.

Initiation fees in the "association" were heavy in themselves, ranging from $50 to $250, and various sizeable sums were required thereafter. Of late the Meyers outfit is said to have been working on a percentage basis, demanding as high as 10 per cent of contracts the companies obtained.

Finally certain contractors now ready to act as complaining witnesses against the asserted racketeers rebelled and refused to make payment. Accordingly, glazing workers in their employ were called out on strike the 5th inst and since have stayed out.

TABLES

200 different styles for your choice

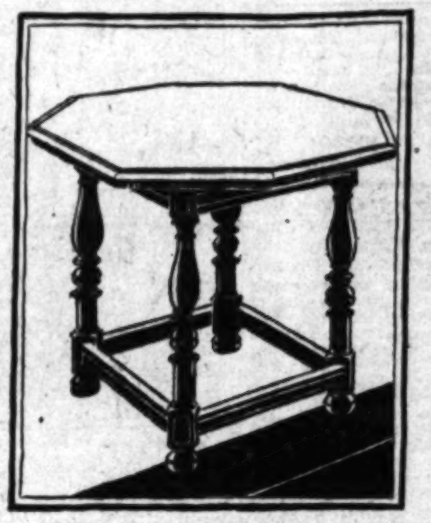
FEBRUARY is the month to select your tables! Here on Barker Bros'. fifth floor are assembled more than 200 different styles of tables for fashion conscious living rooms. All correct modes at value giving prices! See them!



Occasional Table

February Feature $29.75

OCTAGONAL top of finely matched butt walnut veneers; four turned legs of interesting proportion and design; all the lines bold and simple; the finish soft brown, high-lighted. 29 inches high. A table of unusual style and distinction.

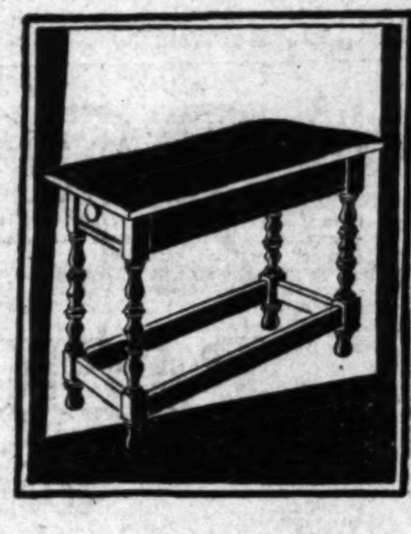
Other Styles, $15 to $350.

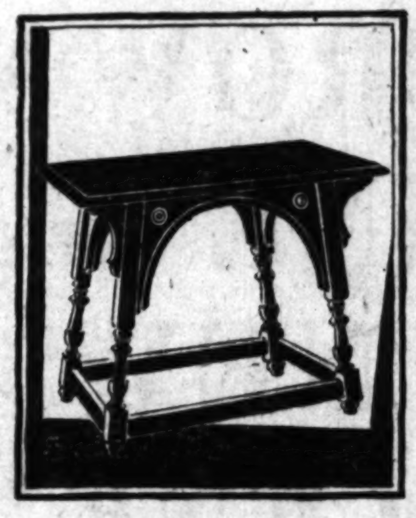
New Style End Table

Special Value $9.75

A NEW chair side table appears as a special February value! First cousin to the ubiquitous end table, but in new proportions that earn it style importance. Its direct lines suggest early English influence. Attractive walnut finish.

Other end tables, $3.95 to $95.





New Large Coffee Table

Fashion Special $14.75

Many of the new coffee tables are rectangular and increasingly generous in proportion. This model has a 20x28 top—large enough for hospitable tea service. The arched effect gives the apron distinction. A low stretcher. Impressive value.

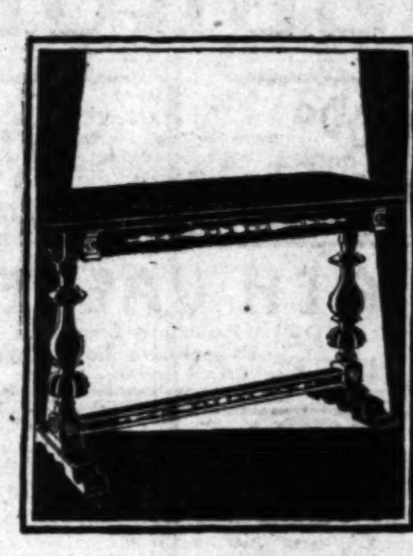
Other coffee tables $9.75 to $150.

This Library Table

Rare Value $32.50

By their woods shall you know them! And the nicely matched walnut veneers of this library table certainly class it in a group far above the usual $32.50 table. Interesting mouldings and stretcher—pedestal base—proportioned for small homes.

Other library tables, $19.75 to $500



Card tables range from $2.95 to $27.50 and console tables from $10.75 to $250 to say nothing of nests of tables, tilt tops and unique designs—all worthy styles and value features.

Transportation Pageant Opens New Anthony Building Tonight

From Chariots to Early Automobiles

Among the vehicles displayed in the Pageant of Transportation at the new Earle C. Anthony, Inc., building at Tenth and Hope streets tonight. Upper left, Dolores del Rio, film actress, trying to pump up the iron tire of an early Roman chariot. Upper right, a victoria bought by Gen. Vallejo from the Duke of Wellington and brought around Cape Horn in a sailing vessel in 1830. Below, the first Packard automobile in California.

MAYORS TO LEND GRACE TO EVENT

Notable Program Will be Broadcast at 9 o'clock

Fine Structure to be Home of Packard Automobiles

Milestone Marked in Career of State Distributor

EARL C. ANTHONY

With more than 100 artists appearing in a gigantic pageant depicting the history of transportation from the earliest times to the present day, Earl C. Anthony, Inc., officially will open the doors of its new $1,000,000 building at the corner of Tenth and Hope streets this evening at 7 o'clock.

Vehicles representing every mode of transportation will be displayed on the spacious floors of the display room. No effort has been spared in making this the most authentic exhibition of transportation ever brought together for a Los Angeles audience. It will be open to the public free of charge for a week.

Beginning at 7 o'clock the players will present in pageant, pantomime and song the romantic history of the world's desire to improve its mode of travel. As a special feature historic vehicles that played important roles in the development of California will be on display.

BROADCAST AT 9 O'CLOCK

At 9 o'clock a program will be broadcast over KPO, San Francisco, and KFI, Los Angeles, and will feature such artists as Virginia Flohri, Robert Hurd, Pryor Moore, James Burroughs, Everton Stidham, Mrs. E. C. Crossman, Paul Taylor's Metropolitan Chorus of thirty, the Packard Orchestra and many others.

As the guests of honor for the evening, Mayor Cryer, Miss Dolores Del Rio and Mayor Rolph of San Francisco will make short addresses to the radio audiences. The entire pageant will be staged by Lita Chevret, prominent in motion-picture circles, and the radio program under the direction of Robert Hurd, program manager for KFI.

NOTED ARCHITECT

The official dedication of the great building marks the completion of an extensive Earle C. Anthony, Inc., building program begun in 1927 and representing to date an investment of more than $2,500,000. The first link of the chain was completed April 2, 1927, with the dedication of the San Francisco building. The home of Packard in Oakland opened November 17, 1928, was the second in the State-wide movement to furnish adequate facilities for sales and service to a rapidly increasing Packard public.

Although the three buildings are dissimilar in design and architecture, they are subtly related in freedom and beauty, all being created by a prominent architect, Bernard R. Maybeck, who has to his credit such outstanding architectural triumphs as the Palace of Fine Arts at San Francisco, the Principia, Christian Science College, St. Louis; Hearst Memorial Gymnasium at the University of California, Berkeley; Faculty Club, Berkeley; Hearst Castle at McCloud, Cal., and the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Berkeley.

His well-known freedom from architectural dogma and conventional design is seen to splendid advantage in, for example, his daring conjunction of tremendous Byzantine columns of black marble with travertine capitals and corbels, which contain elements from several architectural epochs.

The walls of the showroom are constructed of French limestone purchased in France by Mr. Anthony. This stone came from the same quarries that furnished the stone for the fourteenth and fifteenth century French chateaux which flowered most magnificently at Mont-St.-Michel and Chartres. It is interesting to note its micaceous texture, which contains millions of tiny fossils. The tawny, foam-like limestone reflects sufficient light to make the illumination of the showroom a simple matter, absorbing glare, but reflecting enough light to kill all shadows.

One of the most notable features of the showroom is the exquisite marble, which has every appearance of having been mined in the quarries of Belgium. Its texture allows a perfect polish and in every respect experts declare its equal to natural marble. Its rich veinings are not found in any natural black marble, however, and attract attention by the beauty of their coloring. By an unusual process, invented in Europe 300 years ago, and today practiced by but few in the world, Steven Vida and his artisans constructed on the premises every block of marble utilized. The base of the process is a superfine keen cement. Eighteen tons of this were mixed with certain secret ingredients and formed in a semiliquid state. The column exteriors were cast in curved sections and affixed to the steel and concrete cores. After setting, they were polished by hand with Scotch and German hones.

Since his arrival from Hungary twenty-two years ago Mr. Vida has to his credit most of the larger buildings of the west coast, having worked on the Biltmore Hotel and Hellman Bank Building in Los Angeles; the Matson Building, Legion of Honor Building and Pantages Theater Building in San Francisco, and many others up and down the Pacific slope.

CEILING OF CYPRESS

The laminated ceiling is of mottled pecky cypress from the Everglades of Florida. Louis Boggio, the artist, was asked to color the ceiling as a painter of the middle ages might have treated the ceiling of a Spanish castle or cathedral. When that had been done Boggio fellowed and aged the whole, achieving the same effect as though it had been coated by the dust of many years and the smoke of thousands of torches.

Upon its rich, grainly texture, pitted with worm holes as though by extreme age, the artist has deftly brushed an intricate web of hues. Its polychrome tints are warm with the feeling of age and give a tapestried effect that relieves the severity of the limestone walls and the solemnity of the huge marble columns.

The doors were made of pecky cypress on the premises, and their heavy ornamental hinges and locks were made by hand of wrought iron. The dull shimmer of the green floor tile adds a note of restful beauty to the whole room.

The felicitous use of the rope columns of the mezzanine floor adds a note of grace as does the double arch at the rear of the showroom. The front wall of the building on the main floor is constructed of plate glass, which, aside from its strictly utilitarian purpose of admitting maximum illumination during the day, has been used by the architect to add buoyancy to what otherwise might have proved to be almost too rich a combination of color and texture.

DAWN TO MOONLIGHT

The unique lighting system of the main showroom, the design of Thomas Nudd, is controlled by a huge automatic switchboard forty-six feet in length, the largest ever built. It makes it possible, by mixing the three primary colors, to duplicate all lighting conditions ranging from the rose of dawn through full amber sunlight to purple evening dusk and moonlight. This fluctuation, occurring three times each hour, requires 1226 separate switch operations and is governed by a master clock. Behind jade-like translucent plaques of glass, set in corbels and rafters, 773 500-watt globes are grouped in 152 units. These units, together with other methods of lighting, can flood the showroom with a maximum load of 622,000 watts. It is interesting to know that the lighting current used in the entire building would, during the same period, light 500 average five-room houses.

YOU are cordially invited to the celebration of the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Earle C. Anthony, Inc., and the dedication of its magnificent new one million dollar Packard Building at Tenth and Hope Streets, tonight at seven P. M.

From museums, European governments, motion picture studios and private collections, we have gathered the most complete exhibition of modes of transportation through the ages ever grouped under one roof, including Napoleon's Carriage; California's First Vehicles; the Original Gold Coach, and Franz Josef's Royal Coach.

Lita Chevret has arranged and costumed a colorful array of fifty girls who will take part in the Tableaux of Transportation.

[A special feature of the exhibition will be the 22-year-old Packard which completed yesterday a 900-mile, non-stop wheel and motor, "Question Mark" run from Los Angeles to Oakland and return, refueling under way.]

At End of Tedious Nonstop Oakland Run

Harry Smith and Frank Podus of Earle C. Anthony, Inc., service department are shown here at the completion of the tedious nonstop run from Los Angeles to Oakland and return after the car arrived on the roof of the new service building at Tenth and Hope streets in Los Angeles. The wheels of the car did not stop during the run, which was made in twenty-seven hours. The old car is a 1907 model roadster.

ard Building on October 5, 1927, for an excavation of 35,000 cubic feet of earth for storage basement and sub-basement. Structural steel work in the columns is the largest of its kind ever rolled and supports, on the street level, a 125-pound per square foot floor. The twenty-nine foot six-inch spans between columns are larger than in any other similar building, being designed to afford the largest space possible between columns to facilitate the exhibition of cars in the showrooms and their servicing on the upper floors.

RAMP SYSTEM USED

The ramp system of communication, proved to be the most efficient method of moving automobiles, affords easy and immediate passage for cars from sub-basement to roof or between the intermediate floors.

The communication system has drawn the attention of the nation's engineers and was designed after plans achieved by a return to simplicity. So complicated was the process of drafting the ramps that it puzzled architects and engineers until clay models had been made and tested with model Packards, then cut to give cross sections and solve the problem. No difficulty is found in driving in second gear from the sub-basement to the roof, so carefully have swing, pitch and gradient been calculated, but low gear is specified for utmost safety. So perfect is the design that a car may be driven from sub-basement to roof in sixty seconds in second gear, and in seventy-eight seconds in low gear, although the six ramps and the connecting floor spaces between them are more than 1800 feet long. A central curb dividing the ramp obviates a signal or semaphore system as its width prevents passing cars from touching.

Faultless mechanical equipment of the most modern design is in use throughout the two shop floors. All service floors are practically inclosed in glass to afford mechanics every aid to perfect workmanship. The Work-Lite system of illumination is used throughout the service departments and gives so general an illumination that no shadows are possible. This not only expedites night work, but keeps service efficiency at a maximum during dull days and late afternoon hours.

CONDITIONS IDEAL

One of the earliest slogans used by the firm was "Anthony Service in Daylight Shops." The organization was among the first to recognize the necessity of affording its workmen every facility and convenience for a dual reason, first to safeguard all work, and second, to make conditions as ideal as possible for the workmen themselves.

It is remarkable upon analysis of the building to note how deftly the architects have blended its component parts. They themselves assert that this was possible only through having obtained the services of craftsmen who in the vigorous commercialism of our era have maintained the felicity, enthusiasm and technique which fits them to translate an original connection into actuality.

Today by machinery, it is possible to produce such splendid work that it is indeed difficult to find men who can, with their hands alone, create beauty from raw material.

Surmounting this obstacle the next task was to combine, with neither stress nor clash, the widely differing artistic and mechanical elements that go to make up a structure. An admirable use of satisfying line, mass and proportion is visible throughout, beautifying even the prosaic service floors. A refinement deserving comment is the special cement filler which prevents their dusting.

MUCH FLOOR SPACE

Nearly 200,000 square feet of floor space are included between the roof and the warehousing space in the basement; 28,000 square feet of which is used for a testing ground upon the roof. After a car has been serviced it is immediately driven up the ramp to the roof and there thoroughly tested, thus assuring that every item on the original service order has been completed perfectly.

In short, Earle C. Anthony, Inc., has attempted, and modestly feels that it has succeeded in that attempt, to surround the exhibition and servicing of its motor cars with every posible modern convenience and luxury.

Mankind, since its earliest days as a vertebrate species, has despised his legs as a means of locomotion. On this undeniable fact is predicated the Pageant of Transportation tonight in the new building.

The pageant is a double celebration. First, it commemorates the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Earle C. Anthony corporation, and second it dedicates the new building as the last word in land transportation service by the medium of Packard motor cars.

ALL KINDS ON DISPLAY

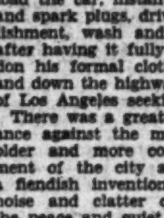
Every kind of wheeled vehicle, from the war chariots of the bellicose Assyrians to the eight-cylinder roadsters of the more peaceful Hollywoodites, will be shown at the pageant, fitly occupied by models dressed in the proper costume of the period represented by the vehicle. One of the most poignant spectacles at the pageant will be the sight of Napoleon's gilded coach standing meekly by the side of the Duke of Wellington's victoria. Wellington's victoria was purchased from the Iron Duke by Gen. M. G Vallejo of California, and brought here around the Horn on a sailing vessel in 1830.

Overland coaches, rubbing elbows with covered wagons; French sedan chairs hobnobbing with Japanese jinrickshaws; landaus of the mauve nineties consorting with Mexican solid-wheeled carretas, all attended by adequately costumed models, will provide the local transportation experts with sufficient conversation material.

Mayor Cryer will open the festivities with an address of felicitation to the Anthony Company both here and in San Francisco. Mayor Rolph of that city will answer Mayor Cryer, through the KFI-KPO radio circuit.

Afterward, Mayor Cryer and Dolores Del Rio, who will act as the modern girl of the transportation models, will greet visitors at the pageant, who will include many civic leaders and prominent business men.

MILESTONE ACHIEVED



LITA CHEVRET

The dedication today marks a very definite milestone in California's automotive history. In 1904 Earle C. Anthony and his father, Charles C. Anthony, organized the California Motor Company. Their first quarters were on Second street between Main and Los Angeles streets, in a building that had originally been a blacksmith shop. Here Earle C. Anthony enjoyed the privileges of being an executive, a salesman, mechanic, a grease-hound and wash rack expert.

At that time, Anthony states, there were perhaps not more than fifty automobiles in the entire State. Cars were shipped from the factories without carburetors or spark plugs. Upon being informed by the freight company that an automobile had arrived, young Anthony would go down to the depot, unload the car, install the carburetor and spark plugs, drive to his establishment, wash and polish it and after having it fully groomed would don his formal clothes and go up and down the highways and byways of Los Angeles seeking a customer.

There was a great deal of resistance against the motor car. The older and more conservative element of the city asserted it was a fiendish invention and that its noise and clatter quite destroyed the peace and quiet for which Los Angeles had been noted. The motor car was so rare and had been so short a time in operation that it was difficult to prove to the skeptical majority that the "horseless carriage," which Anthony represented, would last as long as a faithful horse and buggy.

However, a few venturesome souls did invest and gradually the automobile became less of a novelty. The original hooting and cries of "get a horse" from a majority turned into honest admiration.

The arrival of good roads eased the path of the motor-car salesman. Those who have the opportunity to inspect an automobile of a quarter of a century past find little cause to wonder that physicians forbade frail women from taking even the shortest motor trip. Crude springs, small, if any, windshields, open tonneaus and noisesome fumes from the engines combined with rutty roads made the automobile anything but a pleasant mode of locomotion. One by one the physical disabilities of the cars were done away with, and by the year 1907, the automobile may be said to have really come into its own.

In 1906 the California Motor Company first received its franchise to represent the Packard in Southern California, a franchise which has remained with Earle C. Anthony to the present day. In the first year, that is 1906, eleven Packards were sold in Southern California, and it is interesting to note, in the face of the mass quality production of the present day, that Anthony had to make a special trip to the East and go into a steady conference of forty-eight hours before he was able to get from the factory the eleventh car. However, his efforts and those of other pioneer automobile distributors in the United States soon warranted increased production and Packard, as well as other leading motor car manufacturers found a ready and rapidly increasing market for their product which reached a peak in 1928. In that year Earle C Anthony, Inc., received from the Packard Motor Car Company and distributed to the motoring public of this State 3511 cars.

LARGER QUARTERS SOUGHT

On Washington's birthday in 1913 exactly sixteen years ago, the business established nine years previously had reached such proportions that it was decided wise to move into larger quarters, the building chosen being that occupied by Earle C. Anthony, Inc., to the present day at the corner of Tenth and Hope strteets.

As many and valued refinements made their appearance not only in the motor cars themselves, but in the method of marketing and servicing them, perhaps none was so vital to the motor car industry as the first lease note or time payment plan written, by Anthony on November 13, 1913.

The National Automotive Chamber of Commerce has officially recognized this lease note, between the California Motor Car Company and the Hotel Clark Auto and Taxi Cab Company, as the original time payment contract. This form of automobile merchandising is used in more than 70 per cent of the automobiles sold each year. The note called for the purchase by the Hotel Clark Taxi Cab Company of one 1900 landaulet for $1700, sold for the account of Edward Baruch. The down payment was $500 cash and the balance was paid monthly in $10C installments at 8 per cent interest.

In 1915 the Packard Motor Car Company, recognizing the ability of Anthony's organization, appointed many distributors for the entire State of their product. The years between 1915 and 1922 were without incident and saw the motor car assuming more and more rapidly the place which it today holds in every-day life.

BROADCASTING BEGUN

In 1922 Anthony, a graduate electrical engineer, became interested in what was at that time as much of a toy as the motor car had been in 1904, radio broadcasting. With his own hands, assisted by one engineer, he built the first transmitter through which the call of KFI was granted by the Department of Commerce. The original KFI operated on a power of fifty watts and its owner was overjoyed to recieve letters acknowledging sendings of the crude early programs at any distance beyond 100 miles.

Rapidly KFI changed from its low power to 100 watts and, on January 11, 1923, went on the air with the 500-watt equipment which had yeoman's service until January 1, 1924, being replaced by the present 5000-watt equipment. Originally regarded by all, including Anthony, as merely a hobby, broadcasting rapidly developed under his expert guidance into a valuable means of spreading through the United States the cultural worth of the community he had chosen for his home. People from every city, hamlet and village in the country have written letters to KFI, as well as to other Los Angeles broadcasting stations, bringing about a bond that has brought many of them to Southern California.

The greatly valued office of president of the National Association of Broadcasters was conferred upon Anthony in 1927, a motor-car magnate being regarded as one of the world's foremost authorities upon the art of broadcasting and its legal and socialogic aspect.

In 1926 the success of Packard in California was so marked that it was decided to build in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Oakland three retail and wholesale establishments which could furnish adequate facilities to a rapidly increasing motoring public.

Vienna Fascist and Red Forces Arm for Clash

VIENNA, Feb. 21. (AP)—All night efforts by Police President Schoder to avert the proposed massed demonstrations on Sunday of Austria's rival militant home guards resulted in failure.

Both the Socialists and anti-Socialists continued, therefore, today to arm for Sunday's gathering The one faction is known as the Heimwehr, which is generally called Fascist, and the other is the Schutzbund, known as the Republic Defense League which is Socialist in origin

Vienna's communist newspaper "Red Flag" today declared that the members of the Heimwehr have received a full allotment of revolvers and other weapons and urged that the rival Socialist and Communist groups meet the "Fascist challenge with all the fury at their command."

The rivalry between the two groups culminated in disastrous riots in July, 1927, last year. The two organizations held massed assemblies at Wiener Neustadt on the same day but clashes were avoided. The Austrian government has been mobilizing the combined army gendarmeri and police force in anticipation of this Sunday's meeting.

Mrs. Sutcliffe Free in Bay City

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Mrs. Pearl Sutcliffe, estranged wife of Walter J. Sutcliffe, Los Angeles hotel man, was freed of a statutory charge today when her husband failed to appear as prosecuting witness at a Police Court hearing.

Sutcliffe is charged with assault to murder Carl Bengston, youthful musician, whom he found in a hotel room with Mrs. Sutcliffe, and slashed with a knife. Three operatives of the Burns Detective Agency appeared on a charge of complicity in the attack, but their cases were continued to next Wednesday.

RIVER PARLEY CALM RETURNS

Arizona Soothed Following Asserted Snub

Explanation Given for Lack of Conference Bid

Delegates Predicting Failure of Tri-State Agreement

SANTA FE (N. M.) Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Injured feelings on the part of the Arizona delegation to the tri-State Colorado River compact conference, which were aired freely in a "teapot tempest" at the morning session of the conferees today, apparently had been soothed sufficiently so that at least a surface calm prevailed among the various commissions here tonight. It was the rather general opinion, however, that Arizona had been sitting in the conference "with her feet in the aisle" ever since the first session was called to order, and because her toes had been stepped on unintentionally she gave vent to a vehement protest.

The Arizona commissioners complained at the morning session of the conference that the upper-basin States had failed to invite Arizona to a special meeting yesterday afternoon, at which a resolution approving a comprehensive development of the upper-basin area was adopted. Both California and Nevada, of the lower-basin group, attended the meeting and approved the resolution.

NONINVITATION EXPLAINED

In reply to Arizona's protest, Ward Bannister of Colorado, one of the authors of the upper-basin development resolution, said that Arizona had not been specifically invited to yesterday afternoon's meeting because of the feeling that Arizona would not take part in any action that would even imply the validity of the Swing-Johnson bill. Others explained to the Arizona commissioners that the special meeting was announced so that all could attend.

It was pointed out that the other delegations attended as the result of the announcement and that no special invitations were issued. Mr. Bannister explained further that the upper-basin States felt it necessary that six States vote on the resolution in order to prevent defection in the Utah ranks. Utah had sought adoption of the resolution, he asserted, in the belief that it might lead to development of Flaming Gorge and Dewey dam projects.

Intimations that Arizona was raising the objection in an effort to get herself into a position of advantage in future deliberations with California and Nevada over a tri-State compact brought a quick denial from the Arizonans. "Arizona is here honestly and is sincerely trying to bring about an accord on some vexing problems," said Commissioner A. H. Favour. "If we are going to get together we must show the utmost confidence in each other."

"Are you going to try to put Arizona in a difficult hole? We cannot reach a compact in this way, let's have no more of it."

COERCION SEEN IN NEGLECT

Commissioner John Mason Ross of Arizona saw in the neglect to invite Arizona into the special meeting an attempt to coerce Arizona into ratification of the seven-State compact. He said:

"The chief reason for this special meeting was to bring about a favorable ratification of the Swing-Johnson bill from Utah with the result that the bill would become operative. As I see it, this was an attempt to coerce Arizpna into ratification of the seven-State compact. You cannot force Arizona one iota. It is this sort of thing that has prevented heretofore an agreement among the seven States. It is unfortunate that it has been repeated."

Delegations fro mthe other States hastened to smooth over the rough spot with explanation that no slight whatever had been intended and Col. W. J. Donovan, chairman of the conference, asserted that the most punctilious courtesy should be practiced in the conference to prevent another occurrence of the kind.

WARD'S STATEMENT

"The facts are that Arizona did not participate in that meeting, was not represented thereat or given any notice thereof or any invitation to attend. At that meeting, as now appears, matters were considered and formal action taken thereon touching the future development of the Colorado River, matters in which Arizona has vital and legitimate interests. All of this seriously disturbed our commission and caused us to state our feeling and attitude at this morning's meeting of the tri-State conference. This led to a full discussion participated in by all the States represented. We are now constrained to accept the assurances there given us that the unfortunate occurrence resulted wholly from misunderstanding and unintentional oversight and was not intended as an affront to the State of Arizona. We do not believe such a thing will happen again. It is still our earnest desire to continue and assist the efforts of this conference to arrive at a satisfactory agreement with our interested and sister States, settling and terminating the entire Colorado River controversy."

Today's occurrences have not tended to lessen the feeling among many of the commissioners. It is generally understood that the effort for a tri-State compact is not to be crowned with success. It was the freely expressed opinion of some that "this is going to be a marathon affair until some one wears out and goes home."

Tomorrow night the conferees will be the guests of Col. Donovan at a negro heavyweight battle to be staged at the Santa Fe Armory. It will be decided at tomorrow morning's session whether an invitation to the entire assemblage to go to Carlsbad cavern, 200 miles south, on a three-day trip will be accepted.

TRI-STATE PACT ON RIO GRANDE SIGNED

SANTA FE (N. M.) Feb. 21. (AP) The tri-State compact between New Mexico, Colorado and Texas for allocation of waters of the Rio Grande was signed here today by Delph E. Carpenter for Colorado; Francis C. Wilson for New Mexico, and T. W. McGregor for Texas.

The effect of the compact is to create a truce among the three States until 1935, during which truce Colorado agrees not to further deplete the waters of the Rio Grande.

At expiration of the period the compact provides for the appointment of a new tri-State commission to further consider a permanent basis for allocation of the waters between the three States.

GIRL OF HALDANE ROMANCE UNNAMED IN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

LONDON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Seekers after the details of his famous romance were disappointed today when the autobiography of Rt. Hon. Richard Burdon Haldane, first Viscount of Cloan, appeared, but failed to reveal the identity of the girl with whom he fell in love in 1890. Lord Haldane went ahead to become Lord High Chancellor and Secretary of State for War, but he remained a bachelor to the end of his seventy-two years. He died last August.

In the autobiography he wrote that his fiancee was a remarkable girl of distinguished quality and said she broke off the engagement because she had misunderstood herself. He added that she died in 1897, and that "the memory of her has been a treasured possession."

Miss Elizabeth Sanderson Haldane, his sister, said today that the family will follow the wish of her brother and not disclose the name of the girl.

"She was an English woman and a member of a well-known family," said Miss Haldane. "I can only say that she was such a sweet woman that we all were stunned when she broke the engagement."

ANTARCTIC LAND TITLE DISCUSSED

Byrd Discovery May Lead to International Question of Title to New Areas

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Commander Richard Byrd's discoveries in the Antarctic region may lead eventually to the creation of an international arbitration commission to settle the question of just how far ownership is established for a nation by the setting up of its flag in uninhabited country.

This was indicated today following the announcement that Commander Byrd last Monday claimed a vast new territory in the Antarctic for the United States.

Records in the State Department leave the question hazy as international law cited is to the effect that discovery, such as Commander Byrd's, establishes a claim for his nation but not a permanent right to the country.

"How far the mere discovery of a territory which is either unsettled, or settled only by savages, gives a right to it," one authority declared, "is a question which neither the law nor the usages of nations has yet definitely settled." But another source asserted that "the ground taken by the British government, that a discovery made by a private individual in the prosecution of a private enterprise, gives no right, can not be allowed.

"There is nothing," this authority continued, "to support it, either in the reason of the case or in the law and usage of nations."

It was said unofficially that if the question of the validity of Commander Byrd's claim to the land for the United States does arise, it probably will be settled by an international arbitration commission.

Though the Antarctic generally is looked upon as a land of little value, it might be used as a base for meteorological investigations.

Unlawful Entry of Aliens Said to be Lessening

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Unlawful entry of aliens into the United States is becoming less of a factor each year, and the deportation of those who have been "bootlegged" through the border is becoming more rapid, in the opinion of Harry E. Hull, commissioner-general of immigration.

Writing to Representative Cole, Republican, Iowa, today, Commissioner-General Hull deplored recent newspaper articles in which startling statements as to the numbers of aliens unlawfully entering and the assertions of failure to deport them after their arrival were made.

Seven-Mile Span Near Completion

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (AP)—The final link in San Mateo-Hayward Bridge, the longest of its type in the world, was floated into position today. Following installation of cables for lighting the structure, the $7,500,000 span will be opened officially to travel March 2.

The bridge crosses the southern end of San Francisco Bay linking the San Mateo peninsula and the mainland at Hayward. The span is more than seven miles long.

CASH GIVEN GOVERNOR EXPLAINED

Witness at Impeachment Trial of Johnston Tells of $2500 Donation

OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) Feb. 21.—A story of financial aid extended Gov. Johnston, now on trial on eleven articles of impeachment, by a lawyer who represented a convict in an effort to obtain a pardon, was related by David L. Carter of Ponca City, the attorney, before an investigating committee of the House of Representatives here today.

Carter was attorney for J. T. Crane, convicted banker, who after aiding in the preparation of an audit of State penitentiary records, was granted a parole only to be arrested at Amarillo, Tex., for questioning in connection with purported swindling operations.

On one occasion while Carter was at the Governor's office to plead for clemency for his client, Carter said, the Governor asked if he had any money for him.

On a suggestion of J. P. Murray, Carter's law partner in 1927, Carter said, they agreed to give Johnston who was in financial straits, their fee, amounting to approximately $2500 in a damage suit. Carter told the committee that he did not know whether the money ever had been paid to the Governor, but added that, although the suit was successful, he received no fee.

GANNA ASKS NEW RIGHTS FOR WOMEN

McCormick's Wife Seeks Law for Establishment of Separate Domicile

ALBANY (N. Y.) Feb. 21. (AP)—Feminists, carrying proudly the banner of equal rights and with Mme. Ganna Walska as their chief spokesman, have placed before New York legislators their arguments for separate domicile, compulsory jury service for women and equal guardianship rights for both parents of minor children.

Ganna Walska told a joint session of the Senate and Assembly judiciary committees that the Pitcher-Jenks bill, granting a woman the right to a separate residence for voting and office holding had her approval, and suggested that the bill be amended to include legacy rulings and taxation.

The wife of Harold McCormick cited how she recently was held liable by the United States Customs Court for certain effects on the ground that her husband's home was her own, although she had declared Paris as her separate home.

India Religious Rioting Breaks Out in New Spot

LONDON, Feb. 21. (AP)—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Bombay says that religious rioting between Hindus and Moslems has broken out in Bangalore, the chief city of Mysore, Southern India.

The outlook is described as serious with reports of police having been stoned while attempting to rescue a Hindu from a mob. The dispatch says that the trouble originated in kidnaping charges similar to those which precipitated the Bombay riots of two weeks ago. During the week ending the 11th inst. in Bombay, 123 persons were killed and 759 injured in street fighting.

The kidnaping charges referred to a frequently circulated rumor that the Moslems have been stealing Hindu children for sacrificial purposes.

Infantry Refuse Order to Fire on Mutineers

LONDON, Feb. 21. (AP)—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch today from Hendaye on the Spanish border says that Gen. Primo De Rivera by disbandment of the Spanish artillery caused serious incidents in Segovia.

A body of infantry is reported to have disobeyed its officers in refusing to open fire on a group of mutinous artillerymen. The dispatch says the cadets seized their officers and held them prisoners for several hours until they were released by the local gendarmerie.

MAN KILLS SELF TO ESCAPE DAMAGE SUIT

BOISE (Idaho) Feb. 21. (AP)—Rather than face a damage suit pending against him, Bert Wiggins, former resident of Bellingham, Wash., killed himself here today, according to police reports. He shot himself with a pistol. Mrs. V. B. Rogers, a sister of the man, told police he feared to face a damage action filed after a motorcyclist ran into one of Wiggins's horses on the highway near Bellingham and was killed.

LARGEST BANK TO BE FORMED

Great New York Merger Reported Complete

Resources to Aggregate $2,000,000,000

Both Institutions Belong in Morgan Group

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—The New York Times tomorrow will say that negotiations have been completed for the merger of the Guaranty Trust Company and the National Bank of Commerce, forming the largest bank in the United States, with resources of about $2,000,000,000, and official announcement of the consolidation will be made Monday.

The merger, brought about mainly through the efforts of Myron C. Taylor, chairman of the finance committee of the United States Steel Corporation and one of the largest stockholders in both banking organizations, will bring together capital funds of $176,672,339 and total resources of $1,986,523,797, as of December 31, 1928, and will outrank the National City Bank, for many years the largest financial institution in the United States and in point of capital funds, the largest in the world.

The Times will say that only four banks in the United States have resources of as much as $1,000,000,000. The Guaranty Trust Company at the end of 1928 made its entry into the billion-dollar rank and others in this class are the National City, the Chase National and the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Company of Chicago.

The Guaranty Trust Company long has been known as one of the "Morgan group of banks," its directorate including Thomas W. Lamont, and George Whitney, partners in the banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. The National Bank of Commerce also has been identified with Morgan interests.

It was reported today that plans were being drawn for a skyscraper which would occupy the two present sites of the banks and house the combined institutions.

ST. FRANCIS BREAK LAID ON GEOLOGY

Dam Disaster Discussed at American Institute by St. Louis Engineer

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—Blame for the St. Francis dam disaster in California last March, and other major dam breaks, was laid to geologic conditions rather than faulty engineering design in a symposium today at the convention of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers.

Engineers were told by authorities on geological formation they should co-operate more closely with geologists before they start building dams.

The St. Francis dam disaster, which was considered the worst case of its kind on record, was used as an example to stress the importance of geologic research before dam building.

"It is fairly evident from the preliminary report of various geologists," Prof. Chester K. Wentworth of Washington University, St. Louis, said, "that unsuitability of the normally weak conglomerate on which parts of the dam rested, to withstand the action of water, was mainly responsible for its failure."

The institute was warned tonight that signs of exhaustion appear in production of minerals all over the world.

Lead and chromium were named as likely first to be exhausted.

Baldwin Plans to Confer With British Miners

LONDON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Premier Baldwin will meet the executive committee of the Miners' Federation on March 5 to discuss the situation ing the coal fields. A. J. Cook, secretary of the federation, said today his organization will submit practical proposals for handling the economic situation.

Some coal-field correspondents express the opinion that the spurt in prosperity now being experienced may be partly due to the cold weather although an increased demand from abroad also is noted.

In the House of Commons it was stated that since January, seventy-eight pits employing 11,000 miners have reopened. The Lord Mayor's relief fund has reached a total of $3,750,000, not including the government's pound-for-pound contribution.

French Flyers Arrive at Basra

PARIS, Feb. 21. (AP)—The newspaper Petite Parisien received a message from the aviators Lebrix and Paillard today announcing their arrival at Basra, Irak, from Cairo. They are making a flight from Paris to Hanoi, French Indo-China.

The message stated that the flight from Cairo had required nine hours and twenty-five minutes. The flyers said they would continue immediately to Karachi, India.

THREE DIG OUT OF IDAHO COUNTY JAIL

BOISE (Idaho) Feb. 21. (AP)—Three men dug through a brick wall of the County Jail here early this morning and escaped. Thirty other prisoners in the cell block did not leave. The escaped prisoners are C. W. Roberts and W. L. Wilson, charged with burglary, and Earl Snyder, serving a sentence for robbery.

INQUIRY CALLED BY FEDERATION

Unions' Council Orders Age "Dead Line" Investigation

President Green Instructed to Undertake Task

Changes in Immigration Quota Laws Opposed

MIAMI (Fla.) Feb. 21. (AP)—President William Green of the American Federation of Labor was authorized today by the executive council of the organization to begin at an early date an investigation in several States of an asserted "40 to 45-year dead line" of various employers.

The council also went on record as being opposed to any changes to increase the quotas of immigrants from any country, and through its president announced that Communism holds no "serious threat" for the union organization in the United States.

CO-OPERATION TO BE ASKED

Green was instructed to ask for co-operation of State and city union federations and also for legislative action in the various States, through committee inquiries, in the "dead line" survey.

Council members were quoted as expressing their belief that some employers are using the dead line and discriminating against married men with dependents in order that costs of liability insurance may be cut down.

It was pointed out that these practices are not in evidence, as far as is known, in States where the exclusive fund plan for liability payments has been adopted, but that they are in evidence where competitive plans are used.

QUOTA CHANGES OPPOSED

Further restrictive legislation in regard to immigration was favored by the council, the body going on record as opposing any change in quota basis from the 1890 census to any proposal having to do with national origins, and opposing any measure that would increase the quota from any country.

The council announced prizes totaling $1000, for acceptable designs by sculptors and artists for a Gompers memorial monument to be erected on a site in Washington designated by Congress. The monument, President Green said, will cost approximately $100,000, and will be started as soon after the May meeting of the council as designs can be chosen and contracts awarded.

FUND ASKED TO PUSH OIL DEAL FIGHTS

Pomerene Says Large Sum Needed to Prosecute Suits on Sinclair and Standard

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Congress was asked today in the second deficiency appropriation bill to appropriate $155,000 to permit special government counsel to prosecute naval oil reserve litigation involving many millions of dollars against the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing Company and against the Standard Oil Company of California. Atlee Pomerene, special government counsel in the Teapot Dome Wyoming litigation, testified before the House Appropriations Committee that $100,000 will be needed to carry on the prosecution against the Mammoth Oil Company and the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing Company, in which the government is seeking to recover $3,000,000. The case is in the Federal court in Delaware.

A. D. Morrow, special government counsel on the Mt. Diablo case in Elk Hills, California, testified that $55,000 would be needed to prosecute the government's effort to recover from the Standard Oil Company Section 36 in Naval Reserve No. 1 in Elk Hills valued at $25,000,000.

Michelson and Millikan Will Receive Medals

CHICAGO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Prof. A. A. Michelson, noted physicist of the University of Chicago, and Prof. R. A. Millikan, former University of Chicago scientist, who now is head of the California Institute of Technology, will receive the gold medal of the Society of Arts.

Both are Nobel Prize winners in physics, and the medals have been conferred for their distinguished services to science.

Railway Land Report Filed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Reporting its findings in a four-year investigation of the Northern Pacific Railway land grants, the special Congressional committee recommended to Congress today that the Attorney General be authorized to institute proceedings to procure a final settlement.

The investigation was instituted by President Coolidge in 1924, after the railway laid claim to valuable tracts of land in national forests in the Northwest from Lake Superior to Puget Sound. The company contends it is entitled to these lands under grants in 1864 and one a few years later.

SEVEN THOUSAND IDLE WHEN MINE SUSPENDS

LANSFORD (Pa.) Feb. 21. (AP)—Refusal of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company to meet a subcommittee of the general mine committee to consider a change in the working schedule at the No 6 colliery led to a suspension of work today at all the companies collieries in the Panther Creek Valley. About 7000 employees are involved.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

BUDD EXPLAINS NEW ROAD PLAN

Answers Espee on North California Project

Duplication of Facilities Denied in Statement

Great Northern Hopes to Rent Link From Rival

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—Ralph Budd, president of the Great Northern Railroad, today explained the position of his company in applying to the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to connect Great Northern territory with California and establish a new through system in conjunction with the Western Pacific.

Mr. Budd said he had not seen a statement by Paul Shoup, president of the Southern Pacific, in which Mr. Shoup was quoted as saying that the proposed 200-mile connecting link will duplicate existing facilities.

"Unnecessary duplication is not essential to the plan," Mr. Budd asserted, "and will not happen unless forced by the Southern Pacific."

UP TO COMMISSION

"It should be understood," said his statement, "that the Interstate Commerce Commission will decide after hearing the Western Pacific-Great Northern application for permission to connect Great Northern territory with California and establish a new through railway system, whether an order permitting such action should be issued. The commission's decision will be made solely in accordance with the public interest as shown at the hearing or hearings to be held by the commission.

"However, inasmuch as argument of the case has begun by Southern Pacific officials in advance of the hearing it seems proper to state our position, which is as follows:

"There is an important and growing traffic between California and the northern tier of States served by the Great Northern. Since last May when the Great Northern service was extended 550 miles from Spokane, Wash., to Klamath Falls, Or., there has remained only 200 miles to build in order to reach the Western Pacific at or near Paxton, Cal., and so to establish a second north and south railway, there being only the Southern Pacific at present.

CLOSES UP GAP

"In closing this 200-mile gap an area in Northern California, approximately 150 miles square, which is now without any railway will be afforded such facilities.

"As to unnecessary duplication, that is not essential to the plan and will not happen unless forced by the Southern Pacific. The proposed Great Northern line for forty miles will follow closely a grade now being built by the Southern Pacific from Klamath Falls, Or., to Alturas, Cal. The Great Northern is willing to pay half the interest charges on this line as rental and to use it jointly with the Southern Pacific when it is completed. The Southern Pacific and Great Northern are doing this very thing on all other main lines and branches in the Klamath country. Only by the Southern Pacific compelling the Great Northern to build a second line paralleling its construction for forty miles will there be duplication of railway tracks.

"As to unnecessary competition, I am unalterably opposed to an excessive number of competing lines, but the advantages of having two railways are well understood. All Northern California has only one railway, the Southern Pacific. A country so vast should benefit from the entrance of the second line and the old, well-established railway will, in my opinion, benefit rather than suffer from the resulting development."

ENVOY DEFINES BOLIVIAN VIEWS

Alborta Clarifies Issue in Chaco Dispute

Denies Invasions by His Country's Troops

Advocates Arbitration as Only Solution

Clarification of the conditions surrounding the Chaco territorial dispute between Bolivia and Paraguay, as they are officially viewed by the government of the former country, and emphatic denial of aggressive action in the controversy are contained in an official statement issued yesterday by Waldo E. Alborta, Consul for Bolivia in Los Angeles.

His statement addressed to The Times says:

The insistent news published in this city yesterday and today regarding a pretended invasion of Bolivian troops in the Chaco district, thus making new clashes imminent, has made it necessary for me to request you to publish the following facts regarding the situation in order to establish the truth regarding the Chaco controversy.

(1.) It is not true that Bolivia is invading the Chaco. Small garrisons are maintained at the forts with the sole purpose of protecting property and development in that territory.

PARAGUAY'S TACTICS

It always has been and it is Paraguay's diplomatic tactics to systematically accuse Bolivia of invading the disputed territory while her troops were going north into the Bolivian Chaco every day. The former is proven by:

(a) Paraguay occupies today a large area of the Bolivian Chaco and even Puerto Pacheco, or Bahia Negra, as this fort is called, all of which was never heretofore claimed as Paraguayan territory.

(b) The assassination of the small Bolivian garrison of Fort Vanguardia by 300 Paraguayan soldiers was outstanding. Twenty-five of the Bolivian soldiers at Vanguardia were massacred and then abandoned in grotesque postures, the rest of the garrison of fifty being at present held in Paraguay as prisoners, notwithstanding that no war has been declared. More evidence of this is shown by the fact that these Bolivian soldiers were killed in a surprise attack in their own fort, while the Paraguayans sustained no casualties.

(2.) The former outrage is to be investigated by a neutral commission and Bolivia, as well as Paraguay, has agreed to stop all military activities. Bolivia has always complied with her national and international obligations and will stand by this. In fact, Bolivia, in order to demonstrate her faith in the world-peace movement, has repeatedly invited Paraguay to settle the controversy by arbitration. However, just recently, Paraguay, in open contradiction with her promises, has made arbitration practically impossible by introducing previous reservations that grant a large portion of the disputed territory as definitely Paraguayan, and therefore deciding by herself what is to be decided by the arbitrator. No country could accept this one-sided decision, which, in this case, practically means that Paraguay refuses to arbitrate.

ARBITRATION ONLY WAY

Arbitration is the only possible and civilized way to avoid war and it is imperative to settle all these boundary disputes in strict harmony with justice and traditional rights. The nation that refuses to arbitrate is the sole one responsible for war. It is, therefore, imperative that Paraguay should withdraw these unacceptable reservations if arbitration is to become a reality in our modern civilized world. It is elemental that the arbitrator and not Paraguay is to determine the rights of each of the countries.

I thank you in advance for publishing this letter. I believe that your readers should be kept informed of the real and latest position of this controversy which not only affects the two countries involved, but all America.

BRITAIN HAS MYSTERY MAN

Public Aroused Over Elusive Col. Lawrence, Who Gets Credit for Much Magic in Secret Service

LONDON Feb. 21. (AP)—Col. T. E. Lawrence, mystery man of the British government services, again is filling the spotlight as the great, national "What Is It?" Once known as the "uncrowned king of the Arabs," Lawrence now is labeled by the whisperers as "Super-Spy" of the imperial interests in India.

Aroused by the silent hero's furtive return to England from Bombay, a puzzled public is demanding to be let into the secret of Lawrence's asserted activities against soviet influence in Asia.

It was as "Aircraftsman Shaw" in the Royal Air Force that Lawrence, the most successful dodger of publicity in modern times, went out for a tour of duty in India many months ago. When he came back recently he fed the flames of popular curiosity by fleeing all reporters and calling himself "Mr. Smith."

Just a simple enlisted man in His Majesty's air service is the explanation which official quarters have blandly issued when frequently taxed about Lawrence's status. And the romantic young bachelor traveled all the way home in this character as a third-class passenger.

But, his admirers want to know, why did he take his meals in private throughout the long journey, and why was he disembarked at Plymouth by a naval tender, and then waited on by an admiral?

In recent months rumors of Lawrence's operations in performance of "missions" in India have followed one another at short intervals. Some of them have been denied; others have been ignored by authorities.

Whenever disorders have occurred in the Indian possessions there the mystical Lawrence was presumed to be gaining information for his government.

"Aircraftsman Shaw," persistent "underground" reports have declared, has been the head of an extensive, all-seeing intelligence service on the Afghan-Indian border, and again, they said, he was working his strange magic on the internal affairs of Afghanistan.

These reports, the initiated say, were circulated by soviet agencies which charge that Lawrence is the chief of a propaganda service against the Russian government and influence.

Not long ago a fakir sitting in the dust at an Indian funeral was arrested, and it was the general belief in that district that he was Lawrence, carrying on his romantic activities.

Wherever Communistic agitation has flamed out in Southern and Western Asia, there fantastic stories have placed him in all the mystical draperies of the East.

But now a section of the British public is insisting that the truth be told about "Aircraftsman Shaw." They protest that it is nonsensical and undignified to continue such a masquerade of the shy, scholarly man who, with patience, tact, will power and amazing physical endurance, organized restless tribes of the Arabian desert and made possible the destruction of the Turkish armies in Arabia and Palestine.

"If he is doing special duties," an influential London journal demands, "Col. Lawrence should be transferred to another sphere and given the appropriate status.

"If he is not, the authorities should consider seriously the effect of his ambiguous position on officers and men, as well as on public opinion here and abroad."

Another paper suggests that if Lawrence really desires personal privacy he should retire into the classic shades of Oxford.

But the greater part of the British public will feel an acute, sentimental loss if their adventurous Sphinx is stripped of his romantic glamour by any commonplace explanation of his "miraculous" activities or restored to routine duties.

CRAIL PICKS CANDIDATES FOR CADETS

Appointees Must Pass Examinations for Naval or Military Academies

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Appointments to the United States military and naval academies by Representative Crail of Los Angeles are announced. The West Point appointments are: Porter F. Bedell, Redondo Beach, principal; Donald L. Durfee, 1307 Seward street, Hollywood, first alternate; Henry H. Bruderlin, 1718-A North Ardmore street, Hollywood, second alternate; Walter G. MacDonald, 1961 North Tamarind street, Hollywood, third alternate.

The Annapolis appointments are: Powell L. Fredericks, 684 South New Hampshire avenue, Los Angeles, principal; Bertrand P. Eastin, 329 South Pacific avenue, San Pedro, first alternate; William L. Calhoon, 523 West Sixth street, Los Angeles, second alternate; Donald R. Shaul, 967 Fourth avenue, Los Angeles, third alternate.

The United States Civil Service Commission held a competitive examination for these appointments at the Federal Building, Los Angeles, January 12, last. The appointees must take a rigid mental and physical examination before admission to the academies. The entrance examinations for West Point will be held March 5 and 6 and the entrance examination for Annapolis will be held April 17.

Should the principal fail in either of these tests the appointment goes to the first alternate; should he fail, to the second alternate, and so on.

"Added Values"

A New and Higher Standard for the Testing of Residential Property Investments!

TO OWN real property has always been a mark of distinction. Through the centuries the "freeholder" has come down to us as a man better than other men and entitled to rights that other men did not possess and did not merit.

Land ownership itself is a natural and fundamental impulse, seemingly as ancient as the race, yet the average man, no matter how acute his perceptions nor how extensive his training in other lines, finds here no fixed standard by which to test his prospective purchase.

This makes his buying difficult. It sometimes prevents him from buying at all, because of difficulty in deciding among conflicting claims.

Believing that ALL buyers and sellers alike, of residential property, would benefit, we have developed a simple standard of measurement, that can be applied by any one to any homesite or any number of homesites, to establish their relative desirability and to select the one that is really the best possible investment. Even differences in price have no effect upon the value of this method since due allowance can be made for them.

This standard—which you can apply to any real property anywhere—we call The Standard of Added Values. Utterly simple, yet entirely sound. Here it is!

The Standard of ADDED VALUES

1. AN ADDED VALUE is anything more than land and buildings as such. An ocean-view is an added value. A one-hundred-thousand dollar house next door is an added value. Nice people in the neighborhood are added values. A country-club membership and golf course are added values. Good schools—fine modern school buildings are added values. A house that costs you $10,000 to build may be worth $15,000 or even $20,000 the day it is done because of ADDED VALUES such as these.

2. Some of the ADDED VALUES in any residence property are likely to be found in all the rest. Sidewalks, sewers and lights are examples of these. The decisive question is, what property shows a preponderance of ADDED VALUES, especially Exclusive ADDED VALUES, among all properties at a comparable price? That is the property for you to buy!

3. Some of the ADDED VALUES that are found in every homesite, in Palos Verdes Estates, regardless of price, are:

- [a] The Basic Plan Governing its Development.
- [b] The Impossibility of Its Physical Duplication.
- [c] Its Restrictions and Architectural Control.
- [d] Its Complete Park System.
- [e] Its School District, Buildings, Equipment, etc.
- [f] Its Provision for All Kinds of Recreation—Golf Course, Swimming, Bridle Trails, etc.
- [g] Its land valuation increase brought about by its own natural residential expansion.
- [h] Its Immunity from Assessments.

In addition, many individual homesites have their own special ADDED VALUES that you should know about. Ask the representative of any real estate development to give you a list of ADDED VALUES of his properties.

Visit Palos Verdes Estates any afternoon or morning. Study its Added Values with our representative and make up your own list if you desire. Compare these with the added values any other residence development has offered you. Then decide!

NEWS OF SOUTHERN COUNTIES

JURY'S VERDICT REJOINS FAMILY

Son's Acquittal Means New Life in Kilgore Home

Mar Vista Hearth Will Rise on Ashes of Tragedy

Mother Swoons When Told of Boy's Exoneration

EL CENTRO, Feb. 21.—"All will be forgiven and forgotten and our family will be reunited and happy again." This statement was made today by M. R. Kilgore, husband of the woman who went on the witness stand last week and told a story of improper relations with F. A. Bartley in order to save Ray Kilgore, her son, from the penalty for killing the man.

"The acquittal of Ray by the jury last night has made it possible for us to forget the past and that is what we are going to do," Kilgore added. "We are all happy over the outcome of the trial and now we are going back to our home at Mar Vista and make a new start."

SON CARRIES TIDINGS

The husband's statement was given in answer to a question as to whether it would be possible for the family to be reunited after the confession made by the mother of the defendant.

Mrs. Kilgore was not present in the courtroom last night when the verdict was read. The oldest son, John Kilgore, rushed out to advise her of the result. He met her entering the building and as he told her of Ray's acquittal she began sobbing hysterically. A moment later she fainted and was taken to the County Jail for medical attention. Later in the evening she regained her composure.

FIVE BALLOTS TAKEN

The two sons, Ray and John, left by automobile for their Mar Vista home immediately after Judge A. C. Finney had signed the prisoner's discharge. Other members of the family followed today.

The jury reached a verdict after three hours and thirty-seven minutes' deliberation. According to statements made today, the first vote was nine for acquittal and three for manslaughter. On the third vote ten jurors favored acquittal, one blank ballot was cast and there was only one vote for manslaughter. It was understood that the final verdict was reached on the fifth ballot.

Music Teacher Convicted of Abusing Child

VENTURA, Feb. 21.—A verdict of guilt for one and exoneration for the other of the principals in the trial which had been conducted for several days before Superior Judge Edward Henderson was brought in by the jury last night.

Albert Smith, Oxnard music teacher, charged with a statutory crime against Harold Johnson, 6-year-old son of the Oxnard Chief of Police, was found guilty and will be sentenced to the penitentiary Monday. By the same verdict, Chief Johnson was exonerated of the defense charge that the Chief beat an involuntary confession from his prisoner.

The jury was out for more than an hour, returning once to ask for further instructions on the law in the case. But a poll of the jurors failed to reveal any indecision in the final verdict.

Smith sat unmoved in his chair as the verdict was read. His ordinarily pale face blanched slightly, but it was scarcely perceptible when he heard the report.

A motion for a new trial and a motion for appeal from the judgment probably will be made Monday at the time of pronouncing of sentence.

PARKS ANNOUNCES FOR SCHOOL BOARD

LONG BEACH, Feb. 21.—Aubrey Parks, fraternal leader, filed a petition as candidate for the School Board today. Parks seeks the position held by Herbert Alswede, who will not be a candidate. Mrs. John M. Edgar and H. P. Clifton, the other members of the board whose terms expire, also filed today as candidates to succeed themselves. At least one other candidate for the board will file, it was reported today. The election will be held April 5. On March 12 the electors of the district will ballot on a $2,100,000 school bond issue.

PHONE OFFICE LEASED

HUNTINGTON PARK, Feb. 21.—The Southern California Telephone Company has taken a lease on the room located at 2571 Clarendon avenue and is remodeling the place for a district office here to handle the business of the company for the entire southeast section. This office is the second district office opened recently, the other being in the Beverly Hills territory. It will be ready for occupancy early next month.

EX-POLICE CHIEF REDONS UNIFORM

Ernest A. Bovee

MONROVIA, Feb. 21.—Beginning the first of the month Ernest A. Bovee, former Chief of Police here and for several years city tax collector, will return to the uniform of a local peace officer, according to Police Chief Frank Scott.

Upon leaving the force Bovee assumed charge of city tax collections, but this office was recently abolished when the City Council turned this work over to the county. Bovee will assume the duties of day patrolman.

He served as head of the police department ten years, being succeeded by Scott in August, 1925.

LIBERATION FROM JAIL NEAR FATAL

Prisoners Posts Bond to Gain Freedom and Lands in County Hospital

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 21.—If Harvey Phelps had remained in the County Jail where he was booked last night in company with an asserted accomplice, Bob Doane, on Wright Act charges, he would have escaped an explosion at his Lakeside home early today which may cost him his sight, according to Deputy Sheriff Jack Tillery, arresting officer. Phelps gave $1000 bond for release soon after his arrest and went home. The water tank exploded while he was shaving this morning preparatory to his arraignment and he was taken instead to the County Hospital, Tillery said.

Tillery arrested the two men when he discovered them operating a seventy-five gallon still on a ranch near Lakeside, he reported to Undersheriff Ed Cooper. Doane was arraigned before Police Judge Arthur L. Mundo on charges of still possession, possession of five gallons of whisky and additional charges of having been convicted for Wright Act violation before. Date for preliminary hearing was not set pending arraignment of Phelps.

The deputy Sheriff, who went to the ranch on a civil suit matter, discovered the still in an oak glade, he said. Deputy King J. Powell, head of the county "rapid-transit" dry squad, went to the scene today to destroy 250 gallons of mash, said to have been left intact by Tillery.

CHINESE CHILDREN HAVE OWN SCHOOL

CHANNEL CITY'S STUDENTS OF ASIATIC RACE TO LEARN FATHER'S TONGUE

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 21.—Revival of the teaching of the Chinese language for Chinese children born in the United States will be started here next month with the opening of a native school under the auspices of the Santa Barbara Chinese Consolidated Benefit Association.

The school will be opened March 4, following a celebration in which all of the local Chinese will participate. Classes will be held six days a week from 5 to 8 p.m.

The American idea of compulsory attendance will be carried out, all of the Chinese children in the city being required to attend. The three American "R's," reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic, will be taught in Chinese by Dr. Fook Poy Yee, a graduate of Lingnan University, Canton, China.

RARE BRAIN MALADY FATAL

Case of Pasadena Physician Declared Fourteenth Recorded in History of Medical Science

PASADENA, Feb. 21.—Asserted to be the fourteenth victim in the victory of the medical profession to succumb to a rare brain disease, Dr. Harry S. McGee died today at his home, 194 Palmetto Drive, following a long battle with the strange malady.

The disease which claimed the physician's life is described as "a pathogenic yeast infection which attacks the brain covering." The infection has no relation to ordinary yeast, it was said.

Dr. McGee was 51 years of age and had resided here seven years. He was graduated from the University of Michigan and was a member of the surgical staff of the Pasadena Hospital.

He leaves his widow and four children. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 3 p.m. in the Neighborhood Church, Dr. Bradford Leavitt officiating.

PEACE SIGHTED IN PHONE ROW

Santa Monica Company Bids for Settlement

Inclusion of City Area in Primary Zone Offered

But City Must Abandon Case Before State Board

SANTA MONICA, Feb. 21.—Prospect of an immediate settlement of the bay district "telephone war" was in sight today when Charles P. Mason, general manager of the Santa Monica Bay Telephone Company, assured the City Commission that his company is willing to include all Santa Monica territory within a primary-rate zone, provided this city's suit before the State Railroad Commission, for an extension into a much wider primary zone, would be dropped. The city governing body had intimated that the suit would be dropped if the telephone concern would agree to this adjustment, and the response from Mason was prompt.

ACTION MONDAY

Final action was deferred until next Monday, and City Attorney Coffin will confer with P. Kinney, the city's telephone rate expert, before this session of the Council. Predictions at the City Hall were that the suit, which followed a series of hearings and meetings here and in Sawtelle, would be droped and an amicable settlement reached.

The new territory to come within the primary-rate zone, under the proposed settlement, lies north of San Vicente Boulevard, where subscribers now pay an extra rate; south of Colorado avenue and east of Twenty-third street. Under the proposed adjustment, telephones in these areas will pay the same rate as those surrounding the downtown section.

BRENTWOOD REMAINS

The 260 subscribers in the Brentwood Park area and Brentwood Country Club Estates are to remain within the Santa Monica exchange for the present, if the agreement is signed.

The new exchange for Sawtelle, in the West Los Angeles area, has been ordered; and subscribers in that territory will benefit by a cheaper rate to Los Angeles areas. It was believed here that the formality of the Railroad Commission's sanction would be disposed of without opposition.

John E. Davis Succumbs to Heart Attack

SOUTH PASADENA, Feb. 21.—John Evans Davis, 61 years of age, oil operator and president of the Jergenson Iron Works Company, died last night at his home, 1421 Milan avenue, following a heart attack. He had lived in this city eighteen years.

The local capitalist leaves two sisters, Miss Winifred and Miss Kate Davis, with whom he resided; a sister, Mrs. Mary E. Durbin of 1429 Milan avenue, and two brothers, E. R. and H. I. Davis of Pittsburgh, Pa. Davis was a member of the Los Angeles Shriners and Union League Club.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in the Turner, Stevens & Berry chapel, 1001 Fremont avenue. Burial will be in Pittsburgh.

Ann Nichols Buys Estate

ANNE NICHOLS

ENCINO, Feb. 21.—Ann Nichols, theatrical producer and author of "Abie's Irish Rose," which has netted her a fortune, has bought the eight-acre estate of Edward Small on Oakwood Drive, for a consideration of $72,500. A ten-room house is on the estate. It is learned that Miss Nichols will make the estate her summer home, and is planning to spend several thousand dollars in further beautifying it. The dwelling is situated on one of the finest hill sites in this district, and commands a full view of all the San Fernando Valley.

THOROUGH THIEF DEMOLISHES AUTO

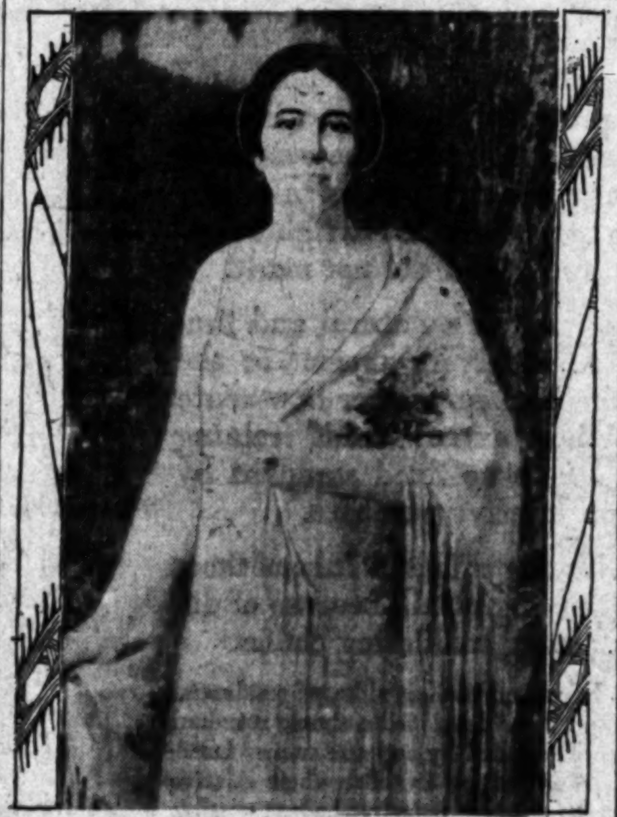
UPLAND, Feb. 20.—An automobile thief of exceptional thoroughness was sought by Upland and Ontario police today. Last night Theresa Helmick, of Claremont, reported the theft of her automobile from a parking place at Pomona College. Today it was found, wrecked, in San Antonio Canyon. The thief had first stripped the machine of all its parts, and tires, then shoved it over a steep embankment a mile and a half above the toll gate in the canyon. It was wrecked beyond repair.

RESEDA AND ZELZAH TO GET DIAL PHONES

RESEDA, Feb. 21.—Arrangements for the opening of a dial telephone exchange service for this city and Zelzah are about completed, according to C. C. Campbell, manager, with headquarters at Van Nuys. The new service will go into effect at 7 a.m. on the 27th inst. Most of the old-style telephones in this area have been taken out of the homes of subscribers and the new dial phones put in and explained to users. It is understood that the new exchange will start with about 250 telephones.

NOTED ARTIST TO SHOW WORK

Pasadena Painter Will Act as Host



Baroness de Stackelberg
Painted by Antonin Sterba and to be exhibited first time at Hotel Vista del Arroyo in Pasadena.

PASADENA, Feb. 21.—In honor of Antonin Sterba, famous Chicago artist, now residing in the Southland, Jules Kievits, local painter, will entertain with a tea at the Hotel Vista del Arroyo Tuesday at 4 p.m., he announced today.

Sterba's painting of Baroness de Stackelberg will be displayed publicly for the first time at the tea and other new works of art will be exhibited.

Serving as hostesses for the occasion will be Dr. Lorena M. Breed, Miss Barbara Blankenhorn, Mrs. Arthur W. Colby, Miss Eleanor Hague, Mrs. Frederick Hinrichs, Mrs. Euclid W. McBride, Baroness de Stackelberg, Mrs. Charles Seeberger, Mrs. Elisabeth Simmons and Mrs. Sidney Wood.

CYCLIST FATALLY INJURED

Elderly Orange Resident Run Down on Boulevard; Three Long Beach Men Hurt in Triple Crash

SANTA ANA, Feb. 21.—One man was fatally injured and three persons were hurt in a series of automobile accidents in Orange county during the last twenty-four hours, commencing with a mishap that caused the death of J. R. Speece, 71 years of age, of 145 South Pixley street, Orange, in the County Hospital, last night.

Speece, riding a bicycle south on Main street, north of the Santiago Creek bridge, turned his vehicle across the traffic. He was struck by a coupe driven by J. B. Howell of Fullerton and suffered a skull fracture. He died at 9 p.m. Witnesses exonerated Howell and he was not held.

In a three-sided automobile collision on the Coast Boulevard at Sunset Beach at 7 a.m. today, three Long Beach men were hurt and five other persons narrowly escaped serious injury.

Claude E. Bangs, 930 Molino street, Long Beach, tried to drive his car around that of W. H. Watts, 45 Mariposa street, Long Beach, who was bound southward with a party of eastern guests to Tia Juana. Bangs's car met a large coach, driven by George Townsend, 4946 East Second street, Long Beach, as he tried to pass Watts. There was a head-on collision that demolished the Bangs car and turned Townsend's car upside down. The Watts car was jostled in the wreck but its occupants all escaped injury. They included Mr. and Mrs. George Hamm, Mrs. Ed Hamm and Mrs. Fort, guests of Watts.

Bangs was slightly hurt and his companion, Walter R. Chesley, 1710 Gardena street, Long Beach, received a cut over one eye.

SHERIFF GOES EAST TO GET PRISONERS

SANTA ANA, Feb. 21.—Sheriff Sam Jernigan today was en route to Kansas City, to take charge of two prisoners, Charles Mendez and Eva Nieblas, of this city, who are held by authorities there. Mendez is wanted here on a check charge. The juvenile authorities have been seeking the girl, who is said to have traveled east with Mendez. Local authorities today were undecided whether Mann Act charges would be preferred against Mendez.

Vernon Club Opens Again

VERNON, Feb. 21.—Festive nights of a decade ago were recalled when stars of stage and screen foregathered at the gala premiere last night marking the reopening of the new Vernon Country Club under the direction of George Goldie, well-known club man, and Tommy Jacobs, restaurateur of Ship Cafe fame.

Notables who made the club at Forty-ninth and Santa Fe avenue a rendezvous in earlier days, participated in a frolic of proportions, amid lavish decorations and furnishings installed by the new proprietors. Entertainment was presented with Mel Calish, George Lloyd, Jane Jones and other night club stars as headliners, and notables among the guests rendering extemporaneous presentations. A premiere dance program, interpolated with unique piano duets, was presented by Dave Snell's orchestra.

Dr. Eells to Study Schools

GLENDORA, Feb. 21.—As a part of his extensive study of junior colleges in California, Dr. Walter Crosby Eells, associate professor of education at Stanford University, will be the guest of Citrus Junior College next Tuesday, Principal Hayden announced today. Dr. Eells will address the students during the assembly in the morning and will visit various classes throughout the day. In the evening he will deliver a lecture in the auditorium of the school for parents and students.

"TRAIN WRECKERS" GO FREE

Ventura County Sheriff Comes Face to Face With Six "Desperadoes," Gives Them a Good Scare and Decides They Will be Good in the Future

VENTURA, Feb. 21.—To meet six "train wreckers," face to face, was the experience of Sheriff R. E. Clark today. At least, the sextet are accused of having nearly wrecked a train by placing rocks on the track and cutting the signal wires.

The near-tragedy occurred Sunday when the Southern Pacific northbound flyer was derailed and ran for 200 feet off the rails. The lives of 230 people were jeopardized by the accident and only a "frog" in the track brought the engine safely onto the tracks again.

Three investigators and G. J. Kuppinger were sent to investigate. This morning Sheriff Clark was telling newspaper men that if the railroad company did not bring the suspects in, his office would round them up.

At that moment in walked Kuppinger and M. F. McCarthy, special agent of the railroad company with the six suspected. The oldest appeared to be 7 or 8 years old and the youngest 5.

"Do you see that man there?" pointing to a picture of a man hanging by a rope around his neck.

"Well, he tried to wreck a train."

The boys looked. Their eyes opened very wide. One of them stepped closer, then burst into tears and it took the combined assurances of the Sheriff's office and the railroad men to quiet him.

The group went down the Courthouse corridor for a talk with Dep. Dist.-Atty. Don Holt. When they came out there were six very sober boys in the party.

"I think, Mr. Kuppinger, that you won't have any more such trouble with these desperadoes," said Clark.

CHARTER SLATE BEING CHOSEN

San Diegans Designated to Redraft City Laws

Committee Erpected to Fill Ticket Within Week

Freeholder Candidates Must Qualify by March 7

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 21.—Plans are being worked out by which fifteen San Diegans will form a group of candidates for freeholders to write the proposed new city charter, it was stated today following a series of meetings, one of which yesterday considered recommendations of candidacy. When the full list of names is completed, it was stated, these will be announced and an active campaign in their behalf inaugurated.

MAYOR CALLS GROUP

The meetings are sponsored by representative citizens who where asked by Mayor Harry C. Clark to act. The purpose of asking citizens to serve as a nominating committee was to be free of the idea that the citizens' charter committee, which recommended a new charter, would be candidates for freeholders, the Mayor said. While it is possible that the nominating committee will recommend as candidates for freeholders some of those who served on the charter committee, it is not probable that all will be asked to serve on the board of freeholders.

As the time for candidates to qualify is short, it is probable that the group of citizens to be nominated will be announced early next week, when petitions will be circulated.

NEED 584 SIGNATURES

According to the City Clerk, a complete ticket of fifteen candidates can be nominated on one petition and as many groups as are proposed can be nominated in that manner. Individuals also can run on separate and individual petitions, it was announced.

Petitions for freeholders must be circulated and filed in the City Clerk's office by March 7, it was stated. A group petition must contain a minimum of 584 names of qualified electors. Individual petitions must contain the same number. Candidates for freeholders are not nominated at the primary. Groups or individuals must qualify by petition and the fifteen receiving the highest number of votes at the April 2 election will be chosen to write the new charter.

Orange County Values Boomed

SANTA ANA, Feb. 21.—Prediction that the assessed valuation of Orange county property will range above $200,000,000 this year for the first time was made today by County Assessor James Sleeper as he prepared to send his staff of deputies into the field for the assessment work, starting at noon of March 4.

While assessed valuation of the oil industry again will be slightly reduced, the reduction will be more than offset by increased valuation of buildings and general development, Sleeper estimated. He expects no great variation from the total of last year, which was $199,-550,653, but thinks there will be enough increase to go above the $200,000,000 mark.

OFFICIALS IN COURT

Lawsuit Grows Out of Heated Row In Redlands Councilroom

REDLANDS, Feb. 21.—This city's officialdom was center in Superior Court today as many of the officials were witnesses in the case of Odore Krumm, City Councilman, who is being sued for $30,000 damages by E. A. Bethurum, real-estate operator. The suit is the result of a battle in Bethurum's place of business following a Council meeting some months ago.

At the meeting the garbage question was up and Bethurum offered to get a man to contract to collect garbage free of charge. Krumm, who had fostered the garbage ordinance now in effect, challenged the statement and there were heated words.

After the meeting Krumm and Bethurum met in the latter's office. There were more hot words and blows struck. Bethurum, on the stand, declared he was so badly mauled that he has been nervous and unable to give his attention to business. Both side have called numerous witnesses and Krumm will tell his version of the affair. Krumm owns several orange groves here and a fertilizer manufacturing plant.

WEALTHY APARTMENT OWNER TAKES BRIDE

SANTA ANA, Feb. 21.—Jacob Bauer, 64 years of age, wealthy apartment-house owner of Long Beach, and Miss Versie E. Smith, 21, of Long Beach, were joined in matrimony yesterday by Justice Kenneth E. Morrison. At the license bureau, Bauer, who was a widower, gave his address as 1827 Gaviota street, Long Beach, and his occupation as apartment-house owner. The youthful bride admitted that she had no occupation and when asked regarding her address, she hesitated, and glanced at Bauer. He nodded slightly. She then gave her address the same as his.

VALLEY MASONS GATHER

BRAWLEY, Feb. 20.—Samuel E. Burke of Los Angeles will be the principal speaker on the program here tomorrow when members of Imperial Valley Masonic lodges assemble in this city for their eighteenth annual get-together meeting. The program is to be held in high-school auditorium beginning at 2:15 and will close with a banquet in the school gymnasium at 6 p.m.

HERO OF GRIDIRON PLACED IN GRAVE

Royce Manley

COVINA, Feb. 21.—Followers of the football fortunes of Covina High School and friends throughout the valley today paid final tribute to Royce Manley, 22 years of age, the 1925 captain of the local grid warriors and one of the outstanding athletes in the history of the school. Funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian Church here this afternoon. Manley died Tuesday at his home in Palms, near Culver City.

Pallbearers were former classmates and members of his football squad, including Don Rieke, Leet Wine, Earl Starr, Lloyd Dancer, Henry Armel and Fred Ashton.

The first State championship came to Covina High School under Manley's captaincy, and he was known by sports writers as "the Rock of Gibraltar," owing to his steadfast work in the position of right guard.

Manley had been suffering for seven months from a cancerous condition. He leaves his widow and 17-months-old son; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Manley of Culver City; a sister, Mrs. Maurine Heisler, and brother, Clive of Culver City. Interment was made in Oakdale Cemetery.

FRUIT MEN HEAR FINAL ACCOUNTING

ORANGE, Feb. 21.—While workmen were rushing construction of a $175,000 addition to the plant to facilitate handling this year's crop, 400 citrus growers, members of the Santiago Orange Growers' Association, at their annual meeting today, heard annual reports by R. E. Gross, secretary-manager, showing that the organization's net receipts from last year's crop were $2,062,104.23.

Shipments for the year were 337,-111 packed boxes, or 843 carloads. This was 35 per cent less than the shipments of 1927, but the returns to members were only 11½ per cent below the 1927 returns.

Despite the fact that a short crop was marketed in 1928, the annual report showed that in the past three years the volume of business handled by the association has been $6,767,120.69, or slightly in excess of $2,250,000 a season. After payment of all expenses, including depreciation, the refund on 1928 operation is .2643 cents per packed box, Gross said.

The officers of the association are Ed H. Dierker, president; C. P. Boyer, vice-president; J. Roy Smith, second vice-president; Gross, secretary-manager; N. T. Edwards, treasurer, and W. B. Williams, treasurer. On the board of directors are C. P. Boyer, J. Roy Smith, H. A. Brown, E. E. Campbell, E. H. Dierker, William F. Feldner, and George Schanckenburg.

Court Sentences Truck Drivers

BANNING, Feb. 21.—J. H. Mills, San Diego truck driver, was fined $75 by Police Judge Childers here because he parked his truck loaded with lumber too near the highway between here and Indio Mills and was held responsible for the wrecking of the car of Mrs. Harold Fountain of Whitewater.

Clarence Brown, Riverside truck driver, will serve thirty days in the County Jail because he drove his truck while intoxicated. Brown was arrested on La Cadena Drive. He was given a year's sentence in jail, but eleven months was suspended.

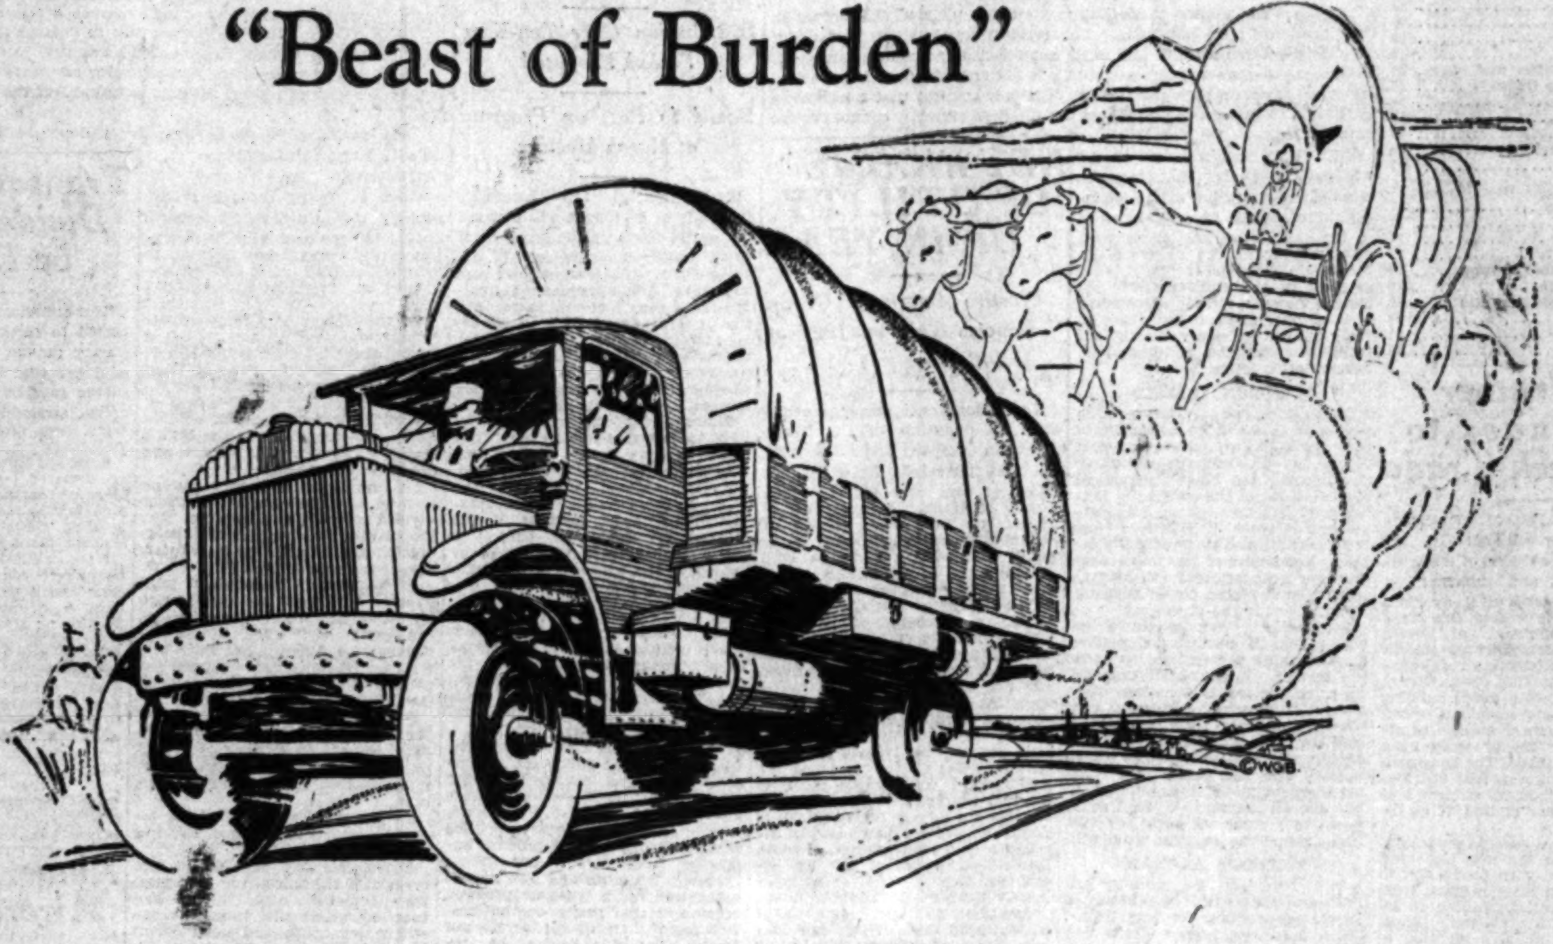
The Twentieth Century "Beast of Burden"



OXEN were all right in the slow, pioneer days. Mules in the mountains and camels in the desert, are still necessary. "Old Dobbin" still has a place--in the country.

But take a two ton load—decide to carry it a few hundred miles quickly, or to move it through city streets without great loss of time and money to yourself and fellow traffic—and the only way you can accomplish this is by means of the twentieth century "beast of burden"—the modern motor truck.

For long hauls and for short ones, for heavy or light loads, there is no other carrier so powerful — so dependable—so economical. Any other method which slows up your work also slows up business in general, of which you are a part.

Good motor trucks can be bought in all sizes, heavy or light to suit your purpose. Fuel consumption is reduced to a minimum, thanks to the effective effort which experts have put into perfecting the modern motor.

Up-to-the-minute construction and equipment, together with a scientific distribution of weight, combine to effect the greatest possible momentum in moving merchandise and at the same time, safety. Vibration, a vital factor in relation to the life of a truck as well as to the condition of goods being transported, has been reduced to a harmless minimum. Engineering and manufacturing science and skill have achieved a perfect "beast of burden" — powerful, fast, economical, and dependable under every condition.

Read the motor truck advertising in the want ads "Automobiles" columns of The Times. Investigate the various makes and models which will best suit your purposes; and arrange for a thorough investigation and test.

Efficiency is the elimination of everything which interferes. Make more money by being modern. Utilize motor transportation to the utmost.

REINSURANCE IN EXPANSION STEP

International's Board Votes to Double Capital

Addition Planned of 100,000 $10 Par Common

Rights to be Offered on One for Two Basis

Directors of the International Reinsurance Corporation have voted to double the capital stock of the company, increasing it from 100,000 to 200,000 shares of $10 par value, Carl M. Hansen, president of the company, announced yesterday. The proposal to increase the capital will be acted upon by stockholders at the annual meeting April 10.

Stockholders will be granted the right to subscribe to one share of the new stock for each two shares held. The price of the new stock to the shareholders will be decided after the annual meeting, Mr. Hansen said. Only 50,000 shares of the new stock will be issued. The stock is listed on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange.

GROWTH RAPID

Organized last July, the company has had a rapid growth and the increase in capital is necessary to permit its further expansion, it was stated. The gross assets of the concern have increased more than 33 1-3 per cent since its inception, being listed at present at $4,010,000 as compared to the original capital and surplus of $3,000,000.

Income for the first six months of the company's business exceeded disbursements by $1,010,000. Premium receipts totaled $1,477,000. Surplus increased from $1,500,000 to $1,587,000.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT

Prospects for the current year were described by Mr. Hansen as being exceedingly bright for the company. Associated with Mr. Hansen in the management of the company is C. Rey Rule, first vice-president, who is executive vice-president of the Pacific Finance Corporation and of the Pacific Indemnity Company and president of Rule & Sons, Inc. J. Phillip Bird, president of the New Jersey Manufacturers' Casualty Association is second vice-president, and E. A. Widmann, New York investment banker, third vice-president, and J. V. H. Challis, secretary and treasurer. The board of directors is composed of prominent insurance men and financiers of Los Angeles and the East.

EATON AXLE SPRING PROFITS POINT UP

CLEVELAND, Feb. 21. (Exclusive) Eaton Axle and Spring Company reported today for year ended December 31, last, net income of $1,429,085, equal to $5.49 a share on the 260,000 shares of capital stock, the average number of shares outstanding during the year. This compares with a net income of $916,066, equal to $3.66 a share on 250,000 shares of capital outstanding in 1927.

OIL CONCERNS IN CURTAILMENT STEP

TULSA, Feb. 21.—Producing wells of Barnsdall Corporation and Prairie Oil and Gas Company were placed on a six-day week by both companies shutting down their wells in Oklahoma last Sunday and it is stated this will probably be continued in an effort to bring prorated output of the State down to 650,000 barrels.

Cold Weather Continues to Check Trade

While the general tone of trade remains cheerful, and industry in "heavy" lines retains all its previous activity, there is visible this week rather more complaint of severe winter weather retarding movements of salesmen, discouraging rural buying at retail, checking production of lumber and slowing down building operations and movements at mines. There is also more discussion of effects of higher money rates upon possible spring trade. The consensus of reports is, however, that distributive trade and industry still are better than last year or in 1927 at the like date.

Best reports as regards operations still come from the iron and steel and allied lines, with production in the first-named lines ranging from 85 to 95 per cent, depending on location, but with relatively most manufacturing activity reported in western mill centers, where railroad and automobile buying has largely centered. Activity in steel buying and operations seems hinged prominently on the automobile industry's takings of material, and February output of automobiles is expected to exceed that of the like month in any previous year.

Bank clearings will be issued the 25th inst.

New Offerings Due Out Today

A new issue of 40,000 shares of Central Public Service Corporation $6 cumulative preferred stock is being offered investors today by the N. W. Harris Company, Federal Securities Corporation, H. M. Byllesby & Co., and West & Co. The stock, which is preferred without par value, is being offered at $95 a share and accrued dividend. The company's net income for the last fiscal year ended November 30 was over 1.9 times the annual dividend requirements on the preferred stock to be outstanding after provision for maintenance and replacements.

A Pacific Public Service bond issue of approximately $5,000,000 will shortly be offered by a syndicate headed by A. E. Fitkin & Co., Inc., it was announced yesterday. It is reported the bonds will carry conversion privileges but the detailed provisions have not been announced. The new financing is another step forward in the previously announced public utility expansion program of A. E. Fitkin, who plans to develop a chain of additional subsidiaries to the Pacific Public Service present holdings.

Bolsa Chica Oil Reports Income

Bolsa Chica Oil Corporation reported net earnings of $548,236 for the year ended December 31, last, according to a preliminary statement released yesterday. This is equal to 23 cents on the 2,400,000 shares of Class A stock outstanding, against dividend requirements of 8 cents annually.

Total revenue of $1,173,795 included $977,872 from oil production; $116,367 from gas production, $10,092 from royalties, and $62,424 from Highway Gas Company earnings. Total expenses were listed at $625,459. The company recently was merged with the Gilmore and Miley Oil companies, but the stock exchange terms have not yet been announced. The Bolsa Chica Company has approximately 3,000,000 shares of Class A and B shares outstanding, of which 2,400,000 comprise A shares. Dividends on Class A stock were started early in 1928, the last of which was disbursed this week.

Utilities to Pay Extension Cost

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (AP)—At the request of the State Railroad Commission the Great Western Power Company and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company today agreed to amend their rules, to permit construction of extension electric lines over private lands at the company's expense. In the past these companies have constructed extension lines at the expense of the consumers.

The new rule, which will be filed with the commission, will result in an annual saving of $2,000,000, the commissioners estimated, adding that other companies would probably take similar action.

PAPER PROFITS OFF

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—Eddy Paper Corporation reported today consolidated net income for 1928 of $136,815, equal to 83 cents a share on 165,000 shares of no par common as compared with $317,748, or $1.93 a share in 1927.

PRICE CUT ORGY STILL ON

Oil Company Stockholders Asking for Reasons; Gasoline Now Sold at Loss

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Refiners of gasoline in California yesterday plunged still deeper in their periodical price saturnalia. This reckless orgy has now been under way for about two months, and lately has reached the point where profit in the manufacture and sale of gasoline is not only eliminated, but actual losses are taken on each gallon sold. The only comfort that stockholders in the oil companies can find is that the situation certainly cannot become much worse.

Yesterday's drop of 1 cent in the wholesale price by one company, establishing a new low of 11½ cents, can be construed as good news in so far as it brings the participants one step nearer the point of exhaustion. From the technical point of view in the stock market, the bearish news is already discounted, and the next step is to anticipate an early return to sanity among the marketers and the restoration of normal price levels.

QUESTION RAISED

On all sides, however, the question is raised: What is it all about? Nobody seems to have an answer, least of all the oil company executives responsible for these periodical sprees. None of the companies taking part has ever gained any permanent increase in gallonage from price cutting, and none of the marketing companies of any importance has ever been crippled so badly as to have been forced out of business. What, then, is the objective?

Stockholders, the partners to whom the oil company executives must account, are entitled to know the answer. If the whole program of price cutting is senseless, they should know what companies and what managements are responsible. If there is a logical explanation, the oil companies should take the stockholders and the public into their confidence and tell their story. Or else the oil industry on the Pacific Coast may wake up some day and find distrust has replaced good will.

METHODS ARCHAIC

It is true that the industry has been grappling with the problem of surplus production for some time. Other industries, however, have met and solved a similar problem simply by reaching a common understanding on the best course to pursue. But in the oil business on this coast it appears that some companies agree to a policy only to break faith the next day. Others are accused of unethical methods of obtaining business. Twenty years ago these methods were the rule, when American business was still young and the public was not necessary as a customer partner.

A glance at January statistics of storage of petroleum and its products on the Pacific Coast is of interest in measuring the extent of the much-talked-of surplus production. Total stocks of crude and gasoline stood at 144,666,873 barrels, compared with 141,376,056 barrels a year ago, or an increase of 3,290,817 barrels. Gasoline stocks, however, declined 1,840,297 barrels to 12,637,326 at the end of January.

In stocks of refinable crude oil a decrease also took place. The total fell from 20,784,053 to 20,118,007, a drop of 666,046 barrels.

The foregoing figures, it seems, fail to disclose any economic basis for price cutting.

Power Utility Board Votes to Offer Rights

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (Exclusive) Directors of American and Foreign Power Company, Inc., voted today to offer to stockholders subject to their approval units of securities consisting of one share of $7 second preferred stock, Series A, and four-tenths of an option warrant to purchase common stock at $100 per unit plus accrued dividends on the preferred from July 1, next, to the date of payment.

Both stock and option warrants will be in the form which the company had previously issued, while rights to subscribe to these securities will be evidenced by transferable subscription warrants and fractional subscriptional warrants. Electric Bond and Shares Company has agreed to underwrite the entire issue at the subscription price without cost to American and Foreign Power.

By this plan the company will raise an aggregate sum of $100,827,200. This will be used for carrying forward its program of expansion and development in foreign countries, it was stated.

United States Guaranty Gains

Resources of the United States Guaranty Corporation, holding concern for eight building-loan associations, almost reached the $30,000,000 mark in January. On December 31, 1928, the resources of the corporation were $26,826,330.27, which had increased to $29,292,596.56 on January 31, 1929, according to Gilbert H. Beesemyer, president of the United States Guaranty and secretary-manager of the Guaranty Building and Loan Association. Present resources of associations under the United States Guaranty banner are:

California Mutual	$13,328,798.51

TOBACCO PRODUCTS EARNINGS INCREASE

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (Exclusive) Consolidated net income of the Tobacco Products Corporation and subsidiaries after all charges and taxes, amounted to $8,386,563 for the year closed December 31, last, equal, after preferred dividends, to $7.93 a share on 659,330 shares of common outstanding, it was announced today. This compares with $7,888,279, or $7.20 a share in 1927.

NET INCOME OF UTILITY UP IN YEAR

North American Group Reports Gain on 1927 of $5,148,095

Consolidated net earnings available for dividends of the North American Company and subsidiaries for 1928 increased $5,148,095, or 29.53 per cent over 1927 to reach a total of $22,582,721, equal to $4.68 a share on the average amount of common stock outstanding, compared with $4.06 a share in 1927, according to a preliminary statement issued yesterday.

Gross earnings aggregated $135,551,899, an increase of 10.96 per cent. Operating expenses including maintenance, taxes and reserves excepting depreciation increased 8.95 per cent to $71,152,646. The operating ratio or the proportion of gross earnings required for operating expenses decreased from 53.46 per cent in 1927 to 52.49 per cent in 1928.

Subsidiary construction budgets for 1929 aggregate $76,894,000. The budgets are largely for additions to electric generating plants and transmission and distribution systems. Electric power output for 1928 established a new record at approximately 6,000,000,000 kilowatt hours.

Additions to the high-voltage transmission lines of the San Joaquin Light and Power Corporation will further strengthen the interconnection with Great Western Power Company of California, also a North American subsidiary, and provide for the exchange of larger amounts of power with greater economies, the report states.

Loan Total of Mortgage Unit Soars in Year

A total of $3,400,000 in new loans was made in 1928 by the Pacific Mortgage Guaranty Company, according to announcement made yesterday by Harry J. Bauer, president, following the annual meeting of the directors. This was an increase over the preceding year of aproximately $1,400,000. Total resources of the company now total more than $10,000,00.

"The Pacific Mortgage Guaranty Company, we believe, made an excellent record during the year just closed," said Mr. Bauer. "The $3,400,000 in new loans made in that time are on income-producing property in Southern California and are an indication of the part Pacific Mortgage Guaranty Company is playing in the development of Los Angeles and Southern California."

Following are the officers elected by the directors: Mr. Bauer, president; Harry Lee Martin and Wallace Moir, vice-presidents; Ralph J. Bell, secretary; Glenn H. McEwan, treasurer; Robert L. Green and Mildred Saylor, assistant secretaries. The Pacific Mortgage Guaranty Company is affiliated with the California bank group which has combined resources of more than $130,000,000.

Borrowings on Securities in New Decrease

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Loans to brokers and dealers held by New York Federal Reserve member banks for the week ending the 20th inst. were announced by the Federal Reserve board today as $5,477,000,000, representing a decrease of $91,000,000 as compared with the preceding week.

The loans for the week ending February 21, 1928, amounted to $3,728,000,000.

The detailed distribution of the loans over the three weeks covered in the board's report was:

PACIFIC MUTUAL LOOKING AHEAD

Distribution Over Ten-Year Period Proposed

Board to Pass on Program at March Meeting

Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California will increase its capital stock by the issuance of 40,000 additional shares of $10 par value during the current year and will make similar increases annually over a period of ten years until the present capital stock of 400,000 is doubled, according to recommendations George I. Cochran, president, yesterday announced he would make to the board of directors at their March meeting.

Shareholders will be given the right to subscribe for the new stock at $50 a share on the basis of one new share for each ten now held. Mr. Cochran said that after the directors acted on his recommendations, a special meeting of the stockholders would be called to ratify the increase which will be subject to the approval of the State Insurance Commissioner.

PRESIDENT EXPLAINS

Mr. Cochran explained that each year's increase will have to be considered separately, but that his recommendation for the additional issue of stock this year is made with the idea of its being the first in a ten-year program.

"For some time I have taken the position that the capital of a company doing the business that our company is, should be commensurate with the volume of its business," said Mr. Cochran. "The additional capital will provide additional security for our policyholders. I am making the recommendation for a ten-year program because in that period our business will more than double and our capital should likewise be increased.

POLICYHOLDERS FIRST

"The primary obligation of a life insurance company is to take care of its policyholders first and the increased capital will increase their protection. The company last year earned approximately 140 per cent on its par value capitalization. The dividends to policyholders were equivalent to 100 per cent of these earnings, while about 20 per cent went for taxes and 20 per cent to stockholders."

The 1928 annual report of the company as recently published showed total insurance in force of $701,043,410, an increase over the preceding year of $33,963,504. Dividends to policyholders totaled $3,612,672, as compared with $3,297,040 in 1927. Cash income totaled $41,113,415, as against $38,298,731 for 1927. The total assets as of December 31, last, were $145,983,166, as compared with $132,273,479 in 1927.

The stock, which is listed on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange, advanced from 90 Wednesday to 97 at the close of the market yesterday. The dividend rate of the stock is $2.

Earnings Loss Registered by Marland Oil

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (Exclusive) Marland Oil Company today reported a consolidated net loss of $4,987,564 for the year ended December 31, last, after interest, depreciation, depletion, intangible drilling and reserve of $2,558,649 for operating loss of foreign companies, the latter item being a new account. This compares with a loss of $7,691,076 in 1927, when a crude oil inventory loss of $2,794,927 was charged off. No loss on this account was suffered last year.

D. J. Moran, president, in his report to the shareholders, pointed out the company's production had decreased as a result of participation in conservation programs, which he added should be continued.

During 1928, the company's crude oil output averaged 35,068 barrels net daily against 41,938 in 1927. However, in December its production averaged 35,844 barrels daily against 34,921 in December, 1927. The slight gain was caused by completion of several wells in new pools in the vicinity of Wichita, Kan., where the company has large holdings.

Additions Made to Two Listings

Additional listing of 1,300,000 shares of Transamerica Corporation capital stock and 284,450 additional shares of Pacific Gas and Electric Company common stock has been approved by the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, Norman B. Courteney, secretary, announced yesterday.

Transamerica stock listed now totals 10,000,000 shares representing the entire capital authorized, which will all be presently outstanding. The total issue of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company listed has been raised to 3,136,784 shares by the addition. The authorized capital is 8,000,000 shares.

PACKARD TO BUILD AIR-MOTOR FACTORY

DETROIT, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Packard Motor Car Company has let contracts for a new $650,000 plant to be located near its present factories and to be finished by May 1 when quantity production will be started on the Packard Diesel radial air-cooled motor for aircraft. Preliminary production capacity will permit monthly output of 500 motors which will be eventually stepped up to 1000 monthly, officials reported today.

RESERVE BANK SECRECY HIT

Policy of Deferring Reports on Activities and Aims Called "Complacent Burbonism"

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

(Copyright, 1929, by the North American Newspaper Alliance)

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—"Buying bills in London these days?" I asked an officer of the Federal Reserve Bank recently.

"Perhaps," he answered, "but we never say what we are doing. You can always get the reports a month afterward in the bank's monthly report."

"So anything you do in February will not be known by the public until March?" I inquired.

"That's it."

There is feeling throughout the country that the Federal Reserve should tell more of what it is trying to do. Its present attitude of secrecy the Wall-street Journal describes as "complacent bourbonism."

"If the officers of a large private corporation were to adopt such a policy today they could not long hold their jobs," says the Journal. "Our central banking authorities are, in fact, falling below the standard of regard for informed public opinion set by such companies as the United States Steel, General Motors and American Telephone.

"If the Supreme Court has no fear of its dignity by confessing a divided court on all cases, why should the Federal Reserve be so careful about bringing its discussion into the daylight?"

In the days to come the Federal Reserve will take the people into its confidence much more than in the past. And when it does, it will become a much healthier and stronger organization. There are point and merit in the criticism of the Wall-street Journal.

S. M. Archer of St. Paul, head of the Archer-Daniels-Midland Company, largest manufacturers of linseed oil in the world, has a wholesome respect for the humble soy bean.

To the orientals it is a food, especially with those people who live largely on rice.

Mr. Archer told of a friend who brought 10,000 tons of soy bean meal from Holland. After the oil had been extracted the meal was excellent for cattle and hogs, for it contained 43 per cent protein.

In the days before chemical research the soy bean meal was fed to stock, oil and all, but this resulted in inferior pork and butter. Now the oil is extracted and is proving valuable for soap, coming in competition with cocoanut oil. The soy beans are produced in large quantities in Manchuria, and in the corn belt in the United States, planted in rotation with corn.

But it is from flax seed that Mr. Archer gets a large part of his oil. The United States uses the product of 42,000,000 bushels of flax seed every year. It grows 22,000,000 bushels, and the rest is imported, largely from the Argentine.

As there is a duty of 40 cents a bushel on the imported seed, the government realizes some $8,000,000 a year in tariff on this product, thereby making it possible for American farmers to raise flax properly.

"Linseed oil," says Mr. Archer, "is valuable in paints because it is the only quick-drying vegetable oil. It forms an airtight film on wooden and metal surfaces. This, combined with pigments such as white lead, is what protects the material beneath from decay."

Scientists at Lehigh University are working on a quick-drying form of linseed oil which may come into competition with lacquer. So far results of their intensive experiments have not been announced.

OREGON EDUCATION BOND ISSUE SLATED

The issue of $1,000,000 Multnomah county school district, Oregon 4½ per cent bonds has been awarded to Freeman, Smith & Camp Co., on a bid of par and a premium of $5400. Other bidders included a syndicate composed of A. B. Leach & Co., Dean, Witter & Co., Peirce, Fair & Co., which bid a premium of $5046; Harris Trust and Savings Bank and Illinois Merchants Trust Company, with a bid of $2939, and another syndicate headed by Eldredge & Co. of New York, which bid $1200. The National City Company bid a premium of $16,799 for 4 3-4 per cent bonds.

Transamerica Dividend May be Permanent

Transamerica Corporation is expected to institute a policy of declaring regular quarterly dividends of 1 per cent in stock in addition to the regular quarterly cash dividends, according to rumors circulated here and in San Francisco yesterday.

Although the stock dividend would be declared each quarter it is thought that it would be made payable semiannually in order to save a large amount of clerical work. Various plans to increase the yield on the stock have been known to be under consideration for some time and it is now said that President A. P. Giannini has definitely decided on this action.

Assuming that the plan will be adopted and based on the present market value of Transamerica of $130 a share, the annual cash return per share if the stock received in dividends were sold, would compare with 1928 as follows:

	1928	Full year beginning April 25, 1929	Inc. per c.
Bank of America	$4.50	$13.92	209.3
Bank of Italy N. T. & S. A.	7.00	16.24	132.

Kinner Steps Up Aircraft Output

Kinner Airplane and Motors Corporation will increase the regular daily shipping schedule to three motors a day from its Glendale factory within the next ten days during which time the balance of the plant's machinery will have been installed, Robert Porter, chairman of the board, announced yesterday.

Plant production is now running between two and three motors a day, working three shifts, while inquiries about the motor are continuing to pile up, Mr. Porter stated. The stock of the company has consistently advanced to new high levels recently on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange. A new peak was scored yesterday at 3.75 up 30 cents from the previous day.

Financing Plan of Utility Hit

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (AP)—The State Railroad Commission today refused the Coast Counties Gas and Electric Company authority to issue $1,000,000 in 6 per cent preferred stock, callable at $102.50 a share in exchange for $1,000,000 in second preferred noncallable stock.

The commission in its opinion stated it had considered all testimony submitted and decided that such an act would not be to public interest or equitable to holders of the company's first preferred stock. The commission also asserted that rates heretofore established by the commission for the applicant, plus net costs of additions and betterments and net current assets, represent the maximum figure which should be reorganized for capitalization purposes.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Corrective Movement Checks Downward Trend of Oil Shares in Local Trading

Union Oil of California and Union Associates, advancing 1⅛ and 2 points, respectively, led an upward turn for oil shares in the trading yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. Although the balance of the list improved only fractionally it was thought the stronger tone presaged the end of the downward trend under the present severe situation arising from the gasoline price-war. It the opinion of traders the technical position of petroleum securities was one in which advantages might well be taken. The balance of the market held steady with stocks of the Pacific Mutual group featuring.

Union Oil of California led the oil list in trading activity and demand which was attributed to a late recognition of the possibilities of a good turn more than anything else. The stock closed at 48⅛ and the Associates at 47. Trading in other oil shares reflected a tendency on the part of the traders to await week-end developments since the market will be closed today and tomorrow. Richfield advanced 1-4 to 40½ and Standard of California moved up 1-8 to 64 3-4. Rio Grande and Barnsdall both eased fractionally in the late trading after earlier strength. Rio Grande ended at 33 7-8 and Barnsdall at 38½. Republic Petroleum gained 1-4 to 7 7-8, Buckeye, 11 cents to 56 and Bolsa Chica, 10 to 2.75.

Pacific Finance Company was a strong spot in the miscellaneous group, advancing 5 points to a high at 101 and closing at 98, up 3 net. International Reinsurance moved up 1½ points in anticipation of subscription rights and finished high for the day at 59½. Trasamerica Corporation added 1-4 to end at 130 1-4. Pacific National Company gained 1 point to 36.

Banks, utilities and industrials were quiet. California Bank firmed up ⅛ to 129½, while Los Angeles-First National eased 1-4 to 140. Emsco Derrick continued to trade briskly and lost ⅛ to 43½. Jantzen Mills advanced a similar amount to 110. Southern California Edison preferred stocks were more than usually active in the utility division. However, no price changes were recorded.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Sharp advances characterized trading on the San Francisco Stock Exchange today, gains from 1 to 5 points being made by many of the market favorites.

All sections of the list shared in the reanimation of the market, particularly the banks.

The Emporium advanced from 33 to 37½, closing at 37, a gain of 4½ points. The high of the day was a new record top for this issue. The American Company rose from 141¼ to 145¾ and closed up 3½ points at 132½. Bank of California sold at 300, netting 5. Transamerica closed at 130⅝, after ranging from 130⅛ to 131⅛. Some 13,000 shares of this issue changed hands.

Among the issues that acted well were Atlas Diesel, up 2 at 57; Golden State Milk, up 1¼ at 55; Clorox, up 2⅝ at 42⅝; Kolster Radio, up 2½ at 62⅝; Union Oil, up 1¼ at 48⅛, and Union Associates higher by 1½ at 47.

Fractional gains were made by Caterpillar at 74¾, Crown Zellerbach at 22⅝, Paraffine at 83½, Schlesinger at 20⅝, Oliver "B" at 38⅞ and Fireman's Fund at 140. Dairy Dale "B" netted 1½ at 23⅛.

With the exception of Shell Union, which touched a new low of 26, but later brought 26⅝, the oils were strong. Richfield sold for 40½ and Standard for 65.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Despite the prevalence of the usual pre-holiday dullness, futures on the crude rubber market exhibited much of the strength on Thursday, particularly in the more distant months. London and Singapore both cabled weakness at those centers, but the local market opened on the upswing and continued strong throughout the day, although sales were few.

Some recessions occurred on profit-taking operations and some recoveries were made later in the day, bringing the market to a close 10 to 50 points higher. Sales were 819 lots or 2047 long tons.

Spot price on the outside market advanced ¼c to 25⅛c. London market opened weak but a sharp rally followed and the close was firm at 12⅛d. ⅛d up. Singapore advanced ⅛d to close at 12⅛c after a rather slow start.

INDEMNITY SETS RATE ON COMMON

Initial Dividend of $1.50 Per Share Announced by Pacific Company

Directors of Pacific Indemnity Company formally declared an initial quarterly dividend of $1.50 on the capital stock of the company, placing it on a $6 annual basis, Lee A. Phillips, president, announced yesterday, following the annual meeting of shareholders. The dividend is payable April 1 to stockholders of record March 20.

The election of two new directors, Ben R. Meyer and Arthur C. Parsons was also announced. All other members of the board were re-elected for the current year.

In outlining to stockholders the operations of the company over the past year, Mr. Phillips stressed the unusual growth in assets and business activity. Net earnings for the period equaled $16.78 a share on the present capital outstanding or two and two-thirds times the dividend just established. Assets increased $919,536 to $6,226,349 while the gross premium income gained 11.6 per cent to $6,404,786. Reserves were increased $416,059.96 to $3,001,210.66.

Officers elected for the ensuing year include Lee A. Phillips, president; O. Rey Rule, executive vice-president; M. R. Johnson, vice-president; Preston Hotchkiss, vice-president and treasurer; H. E. Wood, vice-president, E. L. Stockwell, vice-president and manager claims department; James E. McInerny, secretary, and F. E. Wright, comptroller and assistant treasurer.

BAY CITY CURB

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Bank of America was one of the few stocks on the San Francisco Curb Exchange today that made even a fractional gain. Opening at 193, it rose to 194, but then eased off to close at 193¾. Losses in all the issues were of a common occurrence.

Bank of America of California reacted today to drop to 168½, a loss of 4 points. Marchant Calculating Company, with a small turnover, scored a new all-time low in the 10 par at 29.

Among those that showed the largest losses were Maddux, off ½ at 10; National Fibers preferred, off 1 at 119; National Fibers common, off ¼ at 18; Pacific American at 33½, off ½, and Shasta Water, off ¾ at 15¼. West Coast Life, with a spurt in trading, reached 45 during the day, while Pacific Associates followed suit, rising to 36, up 1 point.

LOS ANGELES CURB

A strong undertone was clearly manifested in the trading yesterday on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange, as the turnover volume increased sharply over that which has prevailed for several days past. Pacific Mutual, Pacific Equities, District Bond, Hancock Oil and Kinner stood out prominently with substantial advances, among a long list of fractional gains for the others.

Pacific Mutual Life featured the market by jumping 10 points to a new peak at 100. The stock closed at 97. The steady advance of this issue over the last few sessions was in response to the expected capital increase which was announced late yesterday. Pacific Equities advanced 3 points to 48, and District Bond, 1 3-4 to 42.

Hancock Oil spurted to a new record high at 49 1-4 and closed at 48 3-4, up 1⅛ points net. Kinner achieved a new top at 3.80 and closed at 3.75 for a gain of 30 cents. Samson Tire advanced 1⅛ points to 25. All airplane stocks improved fractionally except Western Air Express, which eased 1-4 to 49. Claude Neon at 60, was up 3-4.

STOCK MARKET TONE BUOYANT

1927, and North American Company reported $4.86 per share, against $4.06. Receipt of $1,000,000 in gold from Canada was reported, probably resulting from the depression of the Canadian dollar.

Express issues were again strong, Adams mounting 19½ points to a new top, and American Railway selling up 9. National Tea jumped 15 points on reports that 1928 earnings would show a gain of nearly 50 per cent. General Electric and Mathieson Alkali mounted 8 and 10 points. Radio shares were in demand, Crosley rising 7 points to another top, Radio closing 8 points and Kolster more than 2 points higher.

STEEL GROUP UP

In the steel group, Bethlehem made another new high record at 97½, while Sloss Sheffield and Gulf States sold up 5 and 3 points. Missouri Pacific mounted about 3 points and Lackawanna and Chicago and Eastern Illinois preferred were favorably affected by the Van Sweringen merger petition. Jersey Central, however, which is a comparaticely inactive stock, dropped 30 points from the previous sale. Motors were firm, Chrysler mounting 4 points.

Cuban American sugar preferred slumped about 19 points on passing of the dividend. American and Foreign Power dropped 5 points on announcement of new stock issues. Curtiss Aero lost nearly 3 points, and Wright sagged in profit taking. Western Union, Packard and Union Tank Car also yielded to realizing.

The commodity markets were quiet and price changes narrow, with preholiday evening up of accounts about the only business.

Foreign exchanges were firm, as the weekly statements of the London and Paris banks showed improved gold positions. The lira rose to 5.24 cents for the first time this year.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—The medium wool situation is irregular and inclined to weaken. Some dealers are holding stocks firmly at recent asking prices. Limited quantities 56s, 48s, 50s, of both fleece and territory lines have been sold at concessions. The weakness is caused to some extent by prices concessions of spot, South American cross breds and easier prices in the primary market.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—Yesterday's supply included six cars of steers, two of which were held over from Wednesday. She stock offerings were limited to one load and several small lots of dairy type cows. Everything was cleaned up on the morning session at steady to weak prices for steers and strong prices for she stock.

Two loads of plain 1311-pound holdover Imperial Valley steers cashed for 11.00 with four out at 10.00. Four loads of medium 1043 and 1048-pound California steers brought 10.75. Late Wednesday two cars of medium 1058-pound Imperial Valley steers sold for 10.75.

A car of 1202-pound trucked-in dairy type cows scored 9.00, with eight out at 8.00. Odd head of good cows sold up to 9.25, while odd head and small lots of common and medium cows, mostly dairy types, cashed from 7.50@8.65. A few cutters and low cutters sold from 4.00@7.00, with odd head of bulls from 8.50@9.00.

CALVES—Nothing was offered and the general market was quoted firm.

HOGS—The small supply was cleaned up readily at generally 10@15c lower prices. Six loads of good 181 to 192-pound Nebraska and Wyoming butchers sold for 11.50 and 11.60, three loads at each price. Two small lots of 215 and 226-pound trucked-in butchers went over for 10.85 and 11.25 while small lots of lightweight pigs made 9.50. A few weighty packing sows cashed from 8.00@8.75.

SHEEP—The undertone to the market was strong, although nothing arrived to test values. Medium, good and choice lambs were quoted from 14.00@16.00, with medium to choice ewes from 7.00@9.00.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—There was more business in cotton today but it consisted largely of transferring accounts from March to later deliveries and caused very little change in prices.

Some selling on relatively easy cables was absorbed by covering. But the bulges met pre-holiday realizing. The midafternoon market was steady with prices net unchanged to 3 points lower.

Wheat Fraction Off on Evening Up for Holiday

CHICAGO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Local pressure and evening-up for the Washington Birthday holiday prevented an advance in wheat to a new high for the season, but despite the selling, the declines were only fractional, with the finish ⅛c lower. March closed at 1.28½, May 1.33@1.33⅛ and July 1.35½@1.35⅝. Corn was firmer, although there was a range of only ⅜@⅝c for the day, the close being ⅛@¼c higher, with March 95⅝@95½ and May 99⅛@99½. Oats were ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher, with March and July 50⅛ and May 52⅛. Rye lost ½c and closed with March at 1.12⅝ and May 1.13⅞.

There was a marked let-up in the general speculative trading in wheat, with the pit element disposed to look for a reaction, but on the breaks there was commission-house buying on resting orders, and the undertone was relatively firm. Another cold wave was forecast for the winter wheat belt, tending to restrict selling pressure, and thawing weather prevailed in Europe, with some floods. Sentiment at the moment is decidedly mixed and in some quarters the disposition is to go slow on either side, pending further developments.

Hedging against Argentine wheat had a depressing effect in Liverpool and that market closed ⅜@½d lower. Shipments from Argentina for the week were estimated at 6,650,000 bushels, against 6,153,000 bushels the previous week and 4,432,000 bushels last year. Further mention was made of the diversion of cargo and from ice-bound northern continental ports to the United Kingdom. Private reports from India suggest another small crop and further importations of foreign grain. The 1928 crop was 290,000,000 bushels, or 62,000,000 bushels under the 1922-26 average.

Export demand from abroad remains decidedly slow and no sales were reported at the seaboard. Omaha sold 30,000 bushels No. 2 hard winter wheat to come here at equal to 3⅝c under Chicago May. Winnipeg was easy and closed unchanged to ⅛c lower.

Local bulls and commission houses gave persistent support on all dips in corn, and while there was selling of that grain against purchases of oats to close spreads, and also some local pressure on the sales of 70,000 bushels to come here from Kansas City and Minneapolis, the undertone was distinctly firm. No. 3 mixed from Kansas City was secured at 6c under May, the widest discount on the crop. Charters have been made for 1,850,000 bushels for shipment at the opening of lake navigation. Part of this grain is already loaded and the additional vessel room will ease the local storage situation to some extent.

Unfavorable weather and crop reports from the West and Southwest, with seeding greatly delayed, brought in fair commission-house buying of July oats and that delivery averaged higher. March was dull and easier, while May was taken by commission houses and to close spreads with corn.

Scattered liquidation was on in March rye, while houses with foreign connections bought July. Action of the wheat market was the main influence, and there has been a noticeable lack of foreign demand for the cash grain for a number of weeks.

A few trades were made in short ribs, with the close 12½@22½c lower, May leading. Bellies were neglected and 2½@3c lower.

SPECULATORS see only market fluctuations. They watch the tape and quotation board.
INVESTORS are more interested in the outlook for the company whose stock they hold.
A large majority of the outstanding BANDINI stock is being held by the investor class in anticipation of large dividends and much higher prices.
The operations of the company in the sensational deep sand zone at Santa Fe Springs warrants this belief. One well has been completed and is now making about 3,000 barrels daily—twelve more wells are going down to this prolific sand.
Big things are predicted for this aggressive, low-capitalized producing oil company.
We recommend the immediate purchase of Bandini at the market. Buy it outright and have the stock transferred to your own name. We shall be glad to execute your order.

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

The success which has attended drilling for oil at Elwood and the prospects enjoyed by the Elwood Consolidated Oil Company in its wildcat well at a point due north of the town of Goleta about one mile, have stimulated interest in the Goleta district despite the fact that E. J. Miley met with such discouraging results when he drilled the so-called Goleta field two or three years ago.

An organization reported to be the Nevada Standard has erected the derrick for a prospect well to be drilled just back of the postoffice at Goleta. Just south of Goleta the General Petroleum Corporation, it is understood, has in the neighborhood of 1000 acres under lease. Several other organizations are leasing in that neighborhood.

Shell Company Wells

The Shell Oil Company has completed all but six of its wells at Santa Fe Springs, and all but one of these are deeper than 5700 feet. The company has started no new wells there for several months, but is now drilling or preparing to drill four wells at Lawndale, while deepening two Buckeye zone wells at Santa Fe Springs.

In that field its G. H. N. No. 17 is drilling at 5754 feet, G. H. N. No. 18 is drilling at 5790 feet and G. H. N. No. 21 is drilling at 5250 feet, all being headed for the Buckbee sand. Slusher No. B-1 is drilling at 6395 feet, Slusher No. B-2 is drilling at 5975 and Thompson No. 6 is drilling at 6140 feet. These three are going to the deep sand.

At Lawndale the company's Peck No. 1 and Ocenne No. 1 have been spudded in and are drilling ahead, while Barkdoll No. 1 and Smith No. 1 are rigging up.

The company is still carrying on an extensive drilling campaign in the Ventura-avenue field and has started one new well at Kettleman Hills.

Unusual Performance

The Darby No. 4 at Signal Hill, owned by the California Western Oil Company, which came in twelve days ago making 2700 barrels of oil per day, built up its flow gradually until yesterday it was making 3850 barrels per day and had become the largest producer in the field at that time. It was completed at a depth of 6870 feet.

In addition to its oil output the well is making 7,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day, which is producing two and one-half gallons of casinghead gasoline per 1000 cubic feet. The well is located at Olive and Twenty-eighth streets.

Potrero Test Soon

The Associated Oil Company yesterday successfully tested the water shut-off in its Potrero No. 1 well on the golf links of the Potrero Country Club, and will make a production test in the well within the next two days. A successful completion would extend the proven area of the Potrero field considerably.

The well was drilled to 3415 feet and nearly 200 feet of sand was cored at the bottom. This is nearly 300 feet higher than where the sand was picked up in the company's Cypress No. 3, a mile to the southeast, which is still on production.

Associated is drilling ahead in gray sand in its Clark No. 2 at Santa Fe Springs, the drill being down 7717 feet. This is the deepest hole ever drilled in that field.

Deep Test Tomorrow

The Richfield Oil Company will drill out the cement tonight in its Elliott No. 2 at Santa Fe Springs, which has been drilled to 7195 feet and cored about ninety feet of oil sand. A production test will be made in the well tomorrow or Sunday.

The company started bailing for production tests last night in its Oscar Howard No. 3 and in Petitfils No. 1 at Santa Fe Springs. The Howard well is down 5789 feet and the other is drilled to 5911 feet.

New Fruitvale Well

The Pacific Eastern Oil Company yesterday completed its KCL No. 7-B at Fruitvale for a flow of 100 barrels an hour through a half-inch bean. The company has about 18,000 barrels of storage on the ground, and it is expected that when this storage is about filled the well will be capped. The company has a number of producers capped in the Fruitvale field at present.

Ring Goes Deep

The Ring Exploration Company's Simons No. 1 well in the townlot area of Inglewood was drilling ahead at near 3800 feet yesterday, and no substantial oil sand has been picked up. The operators, however, do not expect to find producing sands at much if any less than 4500 feet in this hole. They have drilled to about their present depth in another well on the same location.

New Italo Producer

The Italo Petroleum Corporation's Modoc Kading No. 3 at Signal Hill was completed yesterday with a flow ungauged but estimated to be between 2000 and 2500 barrels a day of clean oil. The well is 6461 feet deep and had more than 400 feet of oil sand. It is located at Thirty-first street and Pasadena avenue.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—After drifting aimlessly through the morning, prices on the bond market today improved in the late dealings and the list generally finished the pre-holiday session firm. First-grade rails, however, failed to attract support and closed generally lower.

Trading was on a small scale, confined principally to the speculative issues. Sales again sank to a new low level for the year, totaling $7,484,000 compared to $7,562,000 yesterday. Money was in supply, but the rate for the time funds was unchanged.

Industrials as a group improved under the guidance of Abraham & Straus 5½s and Anaconda Copper 7s, which registered gains of around 2 points. Alleghany Corporation 5s were in active demand and fractionally higher. Pronounced weakness was displayed by Certain-Teed 5½s, Dodge convertible 6s and General Motors acceptance 6s, all sinking to new lows for the year. At today's low level of 68, Certain-Teed 5s are about 27 points under the price at which they were marketed a year ago this month.

Baltimore and Ohio convertible 4½s yielded to selling pressure and Erie issues nearly all sank to new lows in the face of new consolidation plans involving these lines. New York Railway 6s soared nearly 4 points. Utilities improved with a 2-point advance in Public Service of New Jersey 4½s and strength in International Telephone 4½s.

Trading was slack in the foreign list. Pirelli 7s broke 3 points to 133, more than 21 points under its high price for the year.

United States government obligations improved somewhat.

Trading in curb bonds was restricted to a few selected issues. Associated Gas and Electric bonds were actively bought at around yesterday's closing levels.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite transmission the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: Automotive steel demand is active at Cleveland, being reflected chiefly in sheets, strip steel hoops and bands, nuts and bolts, etc. In some directions the delivery situation is becoming acute with consumers forced to distribute orders in an effort to obtain desired shipments.

Several producers of semifinished steel have advanced prices on sheet bars and billets. The increase amounts to $1. The increase in sheet recently announced by certain leading makers continues to be adopted. Several more producers announce a boost in their quotations to the new levels.

Copper is strong at $18 Connecticut; zinc is steady at 6.35c East St. Louis, while lead is firm at 6.85c East St. Louis and 6.95c New York. Tin is easy at $49.

SHIPPING BOARD LOSS DEFENDED

Plummer Denies Charges of British Leader

Says Present Deficiency Only $7,000,000 Yearly

Mammoth Trade Built Up Cited by American

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Replying to statements by Sir William Currie in an address in London that the United States Shipping Board has continued operation only by virtue of the expenditure of $280,000,000 in seven years, Vice-Chairman Plummer of the Shipping Board, declared tonight that the so-called losses of the board will not exceed an average of $30,000,000 a year since its organization.

At present the actual expense of operation over its income amounts to less than $7,000,000 a year, he added.

SPOONS NOT ADEQUATE

Referring to Sir William's statement that the British shipping industry had never been "spoon-fed," Commissioner Plummer said:

"In view of the fact that while the United States has been operating merchant ships in foreign trade, its international commerce has become the greatest in the world, increasing more in those few years than it did in the preceding half-century, I shall not comment on Sir William Currie's remarks regarding our alleged "losses" in ship operations; and when he says that British shipping has never been 'spoon-fed.'

"I heartily agree with him so far as the word 'spoon' is concerned, for Britain's great mail and naval subventions to her merchant ships, which began in 1839, succeeding the Cromwell laws, which limited cargoes into and out of Great Britain to British ships, giving to the Cunard Line the equivalent of 25 per cent per year on the cost of those vessels; the parliamentary guarantee of 8 per cent on the stock of the Peninsular and Oriental Steamship Company; the practical giving to the Cunard Line of those two giant steamships, the Lusitania and Mauretania, were beyond the capacity of any ordinary spoon.

LOSSES NATURAL

"The so-called losses of the board were natural in that the board had to build from the foundation trades where American ships had not been found for years," the commissioner continued.

"It had to work with war-built ships, not specially designed for the trade in which they were employed. Given modern ships made possible by the Jones-White law, we could match the efficiency of our operation with that of any of our competitors."

CURRIE CHARGES LOSSES WILL TOTAL $280,000,000.

LONDON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Sir William Currie in a presidential address at the annual meeting of the Chamber of Shipping of the United Kingdom today said that the gradual diminution of the fleets operated by the American Shipping Board, coupled with the withdrawal of the Australian government from the business, had been the most important happenings in transoceanic commerce within the past year.

Sir William declared that Australia had lost £12,000,000 by its experiment in the shipping business and that the United States Shipping Board had continued operations only by virtue of expending about $280,000,000 in seven years.

CHIEF OF BIG GAME HUNTERS MAULED BY KING OF BEASTS

NAIROBI, KENYA (British East Africa) Feb. 21. (AP)—Jack Lucy, famous English hunter and widely known among Americans, is in a serious condition at a local hospital from a horrifying mauling by a lion.

Lucy, who was out with Count and Countess Balbo on a hunting expedition in Kilihanueza, Tanganyika, was stalking through a donga when he walked right into a full-grown lion lurking there. The beast was of the black-maned variety said to be the fiercest of lions.

Lucy did not have the chance for action as the lion instantly and mauled him side and probably would have him outright had not a member of the party, Padiar arrived on the scene. The lion turned on Padiar but was shot dead at close range.

Lucy has long been a big game hunter, in lion hunting. turned to England his total bag

REVIVAL GATHERING BOOSTS WATER FUND

TULARE, Feb. 21.—An extra $70 was added to funds being raised here by the Tulare unit of the California State Irrigation Association, in an unusual way, this amount being contributed at the revival meetings being conducted by Rev. Bulgin under the auspices of various protestant churches of the city. A short period before the morning meeting was thrown open to P. D. Nowell, local editor, who discussed gravity of the water situation in the San Joaquin Valley and of Tulare county's efforts to raise funds to assist in securing relief legislation at the present session of the Legislature. Within a few moments $70.50 was raised. This brought contributions this week to $3168.50. Tulare's original quota was $2000.

NEW SCHOOL NAME TO HONOR BURBANK

PASADENA, Feb. 21. — Luther Burbank will be the name of the new elementary school to be erected on North Allen avenue above New York avenue, the Board of Education decided today. The name of California's late plant wizard, proposed by N. P. Moerdyke, was selected in preference to the names of two local scientists that were mentioned as "entitled to honor in their own country."

and substantial movement from Los Angeles and San Francisco.

"The next ship to South America will be in August, but Gilbert indicated he has been sent to this coast primarily to develop operations, and that a regularity and frequency of sailings to and from the Latin countries may be looked forward to.

"We have thirty refrigerated ships from which to draw," he said. Mr. Gilbert is accompanied by Capt. J. MacLeod, recently from London and appointed port superintendent with headquarters at Seattle. Dollar Steamship Company is agent for the line on this coast.

Forerunner of today's "Harbor Day" in Foreign Trade Week, was the luncheon to 150 Southland commerce leaders aboard the great liner Tenyo Maru of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha fleet yesterday noon. The party was at the instance of Y. Kimura, manager, and D. W. Lonergan and J. Vincent Bragga, freight and passenger agents of the line.

Fitting testimonial to Los Angeles Harbor's growing greatness was the Tenyo Maru. The liner is here on her first regular call, and as one of the trans-Pacific fleet of five now beginning to come here every trip. It was the inducements of Los Angeles, San Pedro and Wilmington chambers and Mr. Kimura which enticed the fleet here, and yesterday's party celebrated the event with much speech-making.

All commercial ships in the harbor are expected to "dress ship" today. Two excursions, free to the public, also have been arranged by Burt Edwards, port manager. The excursion boats will leave First-street landing at 10 a.m., and again at 2 p.m., for two-hour cruises throughout the harbor.

Eastbound cargo offerings are so heavy Luckenbach Line announces an extra sailing, the Edward Luckenbach departing here the 27th inst. Of the regulars, Katrina Luckenbach is due tomorrow to drop 4500 tons of gulf cargo, and the Walter to lift 1200 for the Atlantic.

More than 300 passengers have booked accommodations on the Lassco flagship City of Los Angeles, which departs Los Angeles Harbor from Wilmington for Hawaii at noon tomorrow.

George Washington, said to be a direct descendant of the nation's first President, but who is a manufacturer of coffee in New Jersey, is a passenger. Another is Oliver-Tripcovich of Trieste, a capitalist and son of the Countess Gilda Tripcovich-Pozza, who is on his honeymoon to Hawaii. His bride was Elizabeth Crispin of New York, a descendant of William Penn.

Others are John and Elizabeth Bixby of Long Beach; Albert Snook, publisher of Aurora, Ill.; Robert Carroll Pew, writer of New York; Duryea Jones, Gotham aviator, and Rufus P. Spalding, Pasadena banker.

Cornish Bailey, field secretary at Washington for the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, yesterday traveled again over Los Angeles Harbor, which he has come to know so well, despite his distant residence. He hopes to aid in the move toward harmonizing all elements for a unified port, and will visit the harbor again and more in detail next week. He was accompanied by William and Charles Bailey of the Crescent Wharf and Warehouse Company. They are not related to the visitor.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Under command of Capt. George H. Zeh, the Lassco liner Harvard will arrive here tomorrow from Los Angeles on her first voyage in the coastal trade since she went on drydock three weeks ago for annual overhauling and survey. The vessel was repainted, redecorated and refinished, and with her return, the Lassco Line will again put into effect the schedule calling for a sailing from here every Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday to Los Angeles and San Diego.

Alleging that sale of the Oceanic Steamship Company by Mrs. Alma Spreckels resulted in depriving him of a retirement allowance of $96 a month, Harry I. Graham, former traffic manager of that line, today sued to recover the allowance. The Matson Navigation Company now operates the Oceanic Steamship Company. Graham estimated the money due him as $4148.

On her first trans-Pacific voyage under the Dollar Line house flag the liner President Johnson will sail from here tomorrow with Capt. Makepeace Ridley on the bridge.

SEATTLE, Feb. 21.—Four ships of the McCormick Steamship Company are on the North Pacific range this week. The West Notus is completing loading cargo at British Columbia, the Whitney Olson arrived here Wednesday, the Celilo leaves tomorrow for California, while the intercoastal steamer Charles R. McCormick is loading on the sound for return to the east coast.

The steamship Diamond C. Went (J. E. Guptill) will leave here the 26th inst. on his first voyage of the year to View Cove, Alaska, where the lime quarries of the company are located.

TACOMA, Feb. 21.—Ore and concentrates from Iquique and other ports on the east coast of South America are being discharged by the Cusco of the Grace Line, which arrived shortly after noon today. Another arrival was the Alameda from Alaska with several hundred tons of copper ore.

General cargo from London, Liverpool and European ports is being lifted by the King Guy, which arrived last night from Seattle and shifted back to that port late this afternoon.

British Flying 'Bulldog' Will be Night Watch

[Copyright, 1929, by the New York Times]

LONDON, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—The Royal Air Force, which now says it possesses the finest range of military aircraft in the world, has revealed details of the latest fighting machine designed for the night defense of London. It can climb to a height of approximately four miles in twelve minutes and in that rarefied atmosphere can maintain a level speed of 172 miles an hour.

The machine will be called the Bristol "Bulldog," states the Daily Chronicle, and its engine will be supercharged to give high efficiency in cold altitudes at night.

The pilots flying these "intercepter fighters" will wear electrically heated clothing and oxygen masks, otherwise they would quickly succumb to the cold.

VOTE FIXING INDICATED IN TEXAS TRIAL

Representative-elect Who Ousted Lone Republican Linked to Tampering

AUSTIN (Tex.) Feb. 21. (AP)—Testimony was presented today tending to implicate Representative-elect Augustus J. McCloskey directly in changes of vote totals by which he defeated Harry M. Wurzbach, Texas' only Republican Congressman. McCloskey is being tried on a charge of fraud growing out of the election.

Fritz Russi, superintendent of buildings and grounds for the San Antonio Board of Education, testified that McCloskey, then Bexar county judge, came to him two days after the November 6 election and solicited his influence in dealing with Ed Engelhardt, a painter working under Russi's jurisdiction, who had been the presiding officer in the Twentieth Precinct polling place.

Russi testified he drove to Engelhardt's home, overcame the painter's doubts and returned to Judge McCloskey with the voting records Engelhardt was retaining as an election official.

Russi denied that he knew of any changes in the records when he received them back from McCloskey the next day and placed them again in Engelhardt's possession.

Engelhardt testified yesterday that tally marks had been erased, the total of the McCloskey vote changed and that it seemed to him that two new pages for tally marks had been made while the documents were out of his possession.

NEW MEXICO QUART MAY BE EMPTIED

Senate Passes "Bone Dry" Law Which Makes Drink Passing Illegal

SANTA FE (N. M.) Feb. 21. (AP)—The New Mexico Senate, by a vote of 13 to 4 today passed a modified Kansas "bone-dry" law as a substitute prohibition measure for the famous New Mexico "one-quart" law which permits the possession of one quart of liquor so long as it is not for sale or barter.

The bill, among other things, would provide a penalty for the man who receives from or takes a drink with another, and it would classify as a "common nuisance" the home of any person in which a drink is served.

Passage of a new prohibition enforcement bill is part of the Republican State platform and Senators who opposed the bill characterized it as "an unconstitutional political farce which opens the door to malicious prosecution."

Bill Approved Giving Patents to Library Here

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (Exclusive.—The House Patents Committee today reported favorably the bill by Representative Crail of Los Angeles directing the commissioner of patents to supply to the Public Library of Los Angeles printed copies of patent specifications and drawings published during the years 1915 to 1925, inclusive.

More than 465,000 patents and 90,000 trade-marks are involved. At the regular rate of 10 cents a copy the cost to the library would be $55,855, but the committee fixed the price at $2500.

It was disclosed at committee hearings that the Los Angeles Library now has in bound form copies of all Patent Office publications excepting those for the eleven years mentioned and has the most complete set of patent records west of Chicago. There are only seven complete files of the Patent Office publications in the United States.

Jilted, He Kills Sweetheart and Her Twin Sister

EAST ORANGE (N. J.) Feb. 21. (AP)—Peter Mooney, a jilted suitor who felt the only proof of his love was murder, today shot and killed the girl who spurned him, killed her twin sister and then wounded himself critically with a bullet near the heart.

The victims were Margaret, his sweetheart, and Frances Bowes, 20 years of age.

A note marked "This is all the information for the police," read: "I, Peter Mooney, have killed Margaret Bowes and myself because I loved her and I could not get her. And I ask forgiveness from God and everybody, and this is the only way I can prove my love for her to her mother."

In a note to Mrs. Gifford Bowes, the twins' mother, Mooney charged "It is you I blame for all this trouble."

PARENTE SENTENCED TO FEDERAL PRISON

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Joe Parente, once an Ellis-street tailor, who became the recognized leader of rum-running forces on the Pacific Coast, pleaded guilty to three Federal indictments today and was sentenced to a term of two years on each count in a Federal prison, the sentences to run concurrently. The two years will be added to the two Parente now is serving in McNeil Island prison and, with one exception, will clear his outstanding debt to the law. The exception is an indictment standing against him in Los Angeles, which, it was intimated here, will be dismissed because of the guilty pleas Parente entered today.

JAIL PRISONER ESCAPES

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Picking the lock of a cell door at Mission Police Station, where he was held following his arrest for failure to provide, Albert Vickery, 35 years of age, made his escape early today.

FAMINE-MAD VILLAGERS MOB TOWNS

Relief Official Finds Appalling Conditions in China Due to Food Lack

PEKING (China) Feb. 21. (AP)—Appalling famine conditions were described today in a report from Shensi Province transmitted by E. H. Oliver, a representative of the International Relief Committee. The report said that no winter grain had been sown and that consequently there would be no spring harvest.

At one point, Mr. Oliver said, he found 200 villagers huddled in a cave. They were without food, were all afflicted with a terrible eye disease and were awaiting death. Several villages were visited in which there was not a pound of grain left. The inhabitants were grinding dried grasses into powder and making a nauseating kind of porridge from this material.

In one district 70,000 out of the 120,000 population were completely destitute of food and the remainder had very little. In another upward of 100 families had committed suicide and at San Yuan a mob of several thousand hunger-maddened people was threatening to loot the city unless fed.

AUSTRALIA WILL BACK EXPEDITION

Antarctic Exploration Planned With Use of Great Britain's Ship

CANBERRA (Australia) Feb. 21. (AP)—S. M. Bruce, Premier, announced in the House of Representatives today that the government has decided to organize and equip an expedition to the Antarctic.

The expedition will be under the leadership of Sir Douglas Mawson and will explore that part of the Antarctic directly south of Australia, supplementing explorations of Sir Douglas in 1911.

The party will investigate the economic resources of the area and study the commercial possibilities of whaling with an eye to tapping this source of wealth.

Airplanes will be used for inland surveys. The British government has placed a vessel at the disposal of the expedition.

That part of the Antarctic known as the Australian sector extends from the Ross Sea on the east to Enberry Land on the west.

VOICE FILM VIEWED AS STAGE GIANT

Griffith Says Five Years Will See End of Silent and Legitimate Drama

CHICAGO, Feb. 21. (AP)—In the opinion of David Wark Griffith, pioneer motion picture director, the talking picture within five years will force both the silent drama and the spoken drama of the legitimate stage out of existence.

The man who produced the first "talkie" ten years ago made this prediction today as he stopped off here en route to California from New York.

"I am sure the great future of talking pictures has not been realized by the public," Griffith said. "The synchronized talking picture combines all the rhythm, flow and action of the silent film with the talk of the stage, and has added advantage of close-ups and perfectly attuned music. For the reason I am sure the legitimate stage and the silent picture will be things of the past within five years."

Agricultural Society Again Picks Condee

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21. (Exclusive)—Robert A. Condee of Chino, San Bernardino county, today was re-elected president of the California Agricultural Society at a meeting of that organization here. For the sixteenth time, Charles W. Paine of Sacramento was named secretary-manager of the State fair which is held under the auspices of the society. Paine has been continuously connected with the fair for twenty-eight years, serving as a director before being named secretary-manager. T. H. Ramsey, Red Bluff, was re-elected vice-president and John M. Perry, Stockton, treasurer.

Condee announced today that he made arrangements yesterday with Dr. W. W. Campbell, president of the University of California at Berkeley, to have invitations to attend the diamond jubilee exposition of the fair this year sent to all college and university presidents in the Western States.

RUMOR SLATES CUBAN ENVOY FOR PARIS POST

HAVANA, Feb. 21. (AP)—Noble Brandon Judah, United States Ambassador to Cuba, left Havana today en route to Washington, where he plans to remain a week or ten days on official business. Insistent reports in Cuban political circles say that Mr. Judah will not return to Havana but instead will go to Paris as United States Ambassador to France.

Se Prueba una Ley Creando Nuevo Distrito Judicial

WASHINGTON, 21 de Febrero.—La comisión de asuntos judiciales de la Cámara de Senadores aprobó una ley proyectada por los Diputados, por la que se divide el octavo distrito judicial en dos, uno de los cuales será el noveno. El ponente del dictamen, Senador Norris, intentó que el Senado pusiera la resolución en práctica immediata, pero el Senador Blease, demócrata, de Carolina del Sur, se opuso a la moción. Como consecuencia de esta disposición legislativa los siguientes estados de la Unión Norteamericana no estarán comprendidos en el octavo districto: Minnesota, Dakota del Norte, Dakota del Sur, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Illinois y Arkansas. Al noveno pertenecerán las siguientes entidades federales: California, Oregon, Nevada, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Hawai y Arizona. En la décima demarcación judicial habrá estos estados: Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Kansas, Oklahoma y Nuevo Méjico.

Jefe de Una Expedición Cinegética Mordido por un León

NAIROBI (Kenya, Africa Oriental Inglesa), 21 de Febrero.—El famoso cazador británico Jack Lucy, muy conocido en los Estados Unidos de Norteamérica, acompañado de la intrépida condesa de Balbo, se hallaba cazando en Kilihanuega, Tangayaka, cuando de pronto se encontró frente a sí un enorme león. El cazador no pudo intentar ninguna acción pues se vio atacado con una gran rapidez por la fiera, que lo derribó de un manotazo de sus poderosas garras. Ya en el suelo, le dio en el costado izquierdo una feroz tarascada y hubiera perecido en la desigual lucha, a no haber intervenido otro de los cazadores, un tal Padiar, que logró atraer la atención de la fiera, y matarla enseguida de un certero disparo. Lucy ha sido un cazador de nota, habiendo cobrado hasta la fecha cerca de 280 leones en el curso de su expediciones, que le han dado la fama de especialista en la materia. Ahora se encuentra luchando entre la vida y la muerte, en un hospital de esta localidad, a consecuencia de la terrible mordida infligida por el que habría sido el número 281 de su colección.

Fin de la Larga Disputa Chileno-Peruana

NUEVA YORK, 21 de Febrero.—Según telegramas recibidos tanto de Lima como de Santiago, parece que ha llegado a término feliz la larguísima disputa sostenida durante años por los dos países, alrededor de la cuestión de Tacna y Arica. Aun cuando el tenor de los telegramas no es enteramente igual, en el fondo están de acuerdo en declarar que se ha llegado a un convenio entre ambos países hermanos, en virtud del cual Tacna será devuelta al Perú, y Chile retendrá la provincia de Arica. De este convenio no se ha recibido confirmación en Washington aún, y en consecuencia no se ha podido saber la opinión sobre el asunto de parte de los funcionarios de la Secretaría de Estado. Pero el General Pershing, quien fuera en alguna ocasión jefe de la comisión de arbitraje entre los dos países, y que se halla en París, ha declarado que se siente altamente satisfecho del acontecimiento, que sin duda traerá la paz a todo el Continente Americano. Edwards, presidente de la asamblea de la Liga en París, y ex-Secretario de Relaciones Exteriores de Chile, manifestó al enterarse de la noticia, que "todo patriota chileno tenía que sentirse satisfecho de que hubiera terminado, de modo tan feliz, una enojosa cuestión, que tanto tiempo había mantenido distanciadas a dos repúblicas hermanas de Hispano América".

Quintuple Parto en España

MADRID, 21 de Febrero.—El Sol reproduce un telegrama de Olmedo, Valladolid, en el que se asienta el nacimiento, en un solo parto, de cinco niños, cuya madre, Sofía Hernández Malpeceres, está en magnífica condición. Los cinco niños murieron momentos después de haber visto la luz, y el doctor Isidro Villa, profesor de obstetricia de la Universidad de Valladolid, manifestó que su muerte era casi fatal, pues nunca se había dado el caso de que vivieran cinco niños nacidos de un parto de una misma mujer, y que el caso, que ocurre entre 40,000,000 de partos, se registraba por primera vez en España.

CONSUL'S DAUGHTER WINNER OF HONOR

LATIN CLUB GIVES PRIZE FOR BEAUTY

Miss Paniagua Selected for Award in Contest at Carnival Dance

Members of the Latin Club of Los Angeles have awarded first prize in their beauty contest to Miss Martita Galvez Portocarrero y Paniagua, daughter of Dr. Fabio Paniagua, consul of Guatemala and Nicaragua, and Mrs. Bertha Galvez Portocarrero de Paniagua. The vote in favor of the young woman was cast following the carnival dance at Turnverein Hall, which was attended by hundreds of prominent members of the Latin-speaking social circles.

Miss Paniagua, who is 16 years of age and attends public school in Los Angeles, is a musician and pictorial artist, having painted several pictures which have attracted considerable attention. She is a twin sister of Bertha Paniagua, who also was voted one of the most beautiful girls at the dance.

At 4:30 p.m. Sunday a tea will be given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paniagua, 1096 West Thirtieth street, and scores of friends of the prize-winning beauty will be present to congratulate her.

Life Flickers Out in Spite of Heroic Efforts

Pulse beats after life apparently had departed yesterday spurred Police Surgeon Sebastian and a Fire Department rescue squad to extraordinary efforts to save from death Mrs. Myrtle Sparrowk, 30 years of age of 1440 West Ninety-eighth street. But despite signs of animation, Mrs. Sparrowk died. She had had a heart attack in her home. A physician called in there tried to save her, aided by a County Fire Department's inhalator squad. Then she was rushed to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

Dr. Sebastian found no pulse, no breath or heartbeat, but he did not give up hope, believing it to be a case of suspended animation. By using adrenalin and artificial respiration, a pulse was restored but no breathing. City firemen of the rescue squad worked long and steadily before having to give up when death was pronounced. The body was turned over to the Coroner. Mrs. Sparrowk leaves a husband and two small children.

PASTOR RECOVERING AFTER HIS OPERATION

Dr. Gustav A. Briegleb, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, is recovering uneventfully from an operation, it was announced at Hollywood Hospital last night. He has been sleeping well. His appendix was removed Tuesday. He was taken suddenly ill just before church services Sunday.

NEW LOST CITY COMES TO LIGHT

Another Find Announced in Moapa Valley, Nev.

Two Pit Houses Prove to be Unusual Feature

Excavations Reveal History of 1500 Years Ago

Not one Lost City but two now have come to light in the Moapa Valley in Nevada, further to help in the translation of the prehistoric civilization of the Southwest for those whose eyes and minds are trained to read the signs and symbols of the past.

New Lost City, about three or four miles due north of the old one discovered some two years ago, was found within the past ten days, according to Dr. James A. B. Scherer, director of the Southwest Museum, who has just returned from a trip there to familiarize himself with the research being conducted under the direction of Mark Raymond Harrington, eminent archaeologist now associated with the Southwest Museum.

HAD 10,000 POPULATION

The new find, he said, is so old that it belongs in the Post-Basket Making period dating back at least 1500 years. It was contemporaneous with the old Lost City and must have had a population of about 10,000 persons. It covers a space approximately two and one-half miles long, he said.

Thus far only a few excavations have been made, but the most unusual discovery to date and one which Dr. Harrington says he never has seen before, is two pit houses, the earliest forms of structure of the aborigines, built one within the other. Inside the small one is a burial of a woman in a perfect state of preservation, Dr. Scherer said, and Dr. Harrington hopes to find a burial in the larger structure. The small pit house is about fifteen feet in diameter, the large one about twenty-five. They were constructed of pinon poles, sandstone baseboards and adobe and undoubtedly date back before the Christian era, it was said.

BURNING INDICATED

Evidences point to the fact that both were burned in accordance with an old custom of destroying a house after a death, for the woman's fingers are slightly burned and the pinon rafters are charred.

In addition Dr. Scherer said that pottery, turquoise necklaces, rings, bracelets and beads have been found and already a few typical specimens have been received at the museum here. Dr. Harrington, he said, will spend several weeks more working in the new Lost City with his assistants of trained archaeologists, in order to make exhaustive records, photographs and maps of all that he finds.

Important discoveries also are expected from Piute, gypsum and salt caves in the vicinity, which Dr. Scherer visited, whose walls, he says, reveal stratified deposits of pottery, implements and the like of the various civilizations that came and went in the prehistoric era.

Business Man's Rites Conducted

Last rites for Charles L. Otto, 79 years of age, pioneer of Los Angeles, were conducted yesterday afternoon at the W. A. Brown chapel, 1815 South Flower street. Burial was in Inglewood Park Cemetery.

Mr. Otto, a prominent business man, had been a resident of Los Angeles for forty-five years. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Ida Otto, and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Wesseine, Jr., and Mrs. Viola Payne of Los Angeles.

RITES CONDUCTED FOR ANTONIO LANNI

Funeral services were conducted at St. Peter's Church yesterday morning for Antonio Lanni of 940 North Beaudry avenue. Lanni, who was 80 years of age, and grandfather of Anthony Lanni, Times route man.

DEWITT FOLKS TO RALLY

FLEET STARTS HOME SOON

Battleship Mississippi and Submarine Division to Leave Panama Bay Monday

The homeward trek of the battle fleet, now in Panama waters, will begin next Monday when the battleship Mississippi and the submarine divisions sail in advance of the main body for the San Pedro-San Diego area. The bulk of the Pacific armada, however, will not sail from the Canal until March 11, arriving here March 22.

The Mississippi, coming home ahead of her division mates to undergo annual overhaul at the Puget Sound Navy Yard, will arrive here March 8. She will bring to San Pedro a large shipment of mail from fleet personnel to the "home folks" and sail for Puget Sound the following day, arriving at the yard four days later. The submarines will make a leisurely trip north, visiting at Central American and Mexican ports.

On March 8 the base force flagship Procyon, accompanied by the mine sweepers Kingfisher and Tern, will sail for home, followed the next day by the fleet repair ship Medusa. All four ships will arrive here on March 20 to prepare anchorages and shore communications for the fleet main body, due two days later.

The battleship Texas, flagship of Admiral Henry A. Wiley, commander-in-chief of the United States Fleet, will sail from Panama March 8 and arrive here on March 19, to spend the entire spring season in California waters.

The battleship New York, flagship of Rear-Admiral Lucius A. Bostwick, here after completing overhaul at Puget Sound, will sail for Panama this morning. At the Canal she will take in company her division mates, the Pennsylvania and Arizona, and take them to the Atlantic Coast for modernization, to cost $14,800,000. Next fall the New York will return here with the battleships Nevada and Oklahoma, now nearing completion of modernization at Norfolk and Philadelphia.

ANIMAL SHELTER DEDICATED

Several Hundred Witness Ceremony

Pals Line Up at New Canine Haven

THE $60,000 animal shelter at 215 West Ann street was dedicated yesterday by the Board of Humane Commissioners. Several hundred persons witnessed the ceremonies. Jackie Condon, juvenile film star, together with Maud Edwards, appeared in a skit. H. H. Kinney, Mayor Cryer's secretary, extended greetings in behalf of the city's executive.

MRS. E. M. WADDELL

The shelter is situated on a 20,000 site comprising three-quarters of an acre. The main building is fitted with heated and ventilated cages. An added feature of this arrangement is a system of pipes emitting disinfectants.

According to General Manager Robson, dogs will be kept and cared for after a bath for three days. If no claims are made, these dogs will be given away to any one calling for them. A free clinic is being maintained at the front office.

Short speeches during dedication were made by E. J. Lorey, president of Public Works; John S. Myers, Comptroller; Charles O. Britton, superintendent of construction; Hugh J. McGuire, Ray R. Marsh, president of the State Humane Association of California; Mrs. E. M. Waddell, secretary of the board; Mrs. Warren McIntire, president; Mrs. J. T. French, Mrs. H. C. Terrell and Arthur L. Line.

NEW PHONE STRUCTURE ANNOUNCED

Height-Limit Building to Be Erected Just North of Present Headquarters

Another height-limit building for Los Angeles was announced yesterday by F. N. Rush, vice-president and general manager of the Southern California Telephone Company. The building will be constructed just north of the present administration building of the company at 740 South Olive street.

In addition to the new twelve-story building two stories will be added to the present headquarters. Plans for both projects are now being prepared and work will start on their completion, according to Mr. Rush.

"The new building plus the addition will more than double the size of the administrative offices. For a number of years space in the telephone building at 1900 South Grand avenue and at 433 South Olive street has been used as offices by a large part of the administrative personnel. These two buildings are designed for switching equipment and other central office apparatus. Due to the growth of the city, both buildings are rapidly being filled with equipment and practically all of the space in them will be required for this purpose soon," said Mr. Rush.

CITY BOWS TO HONOR IDOL

Birthday of Washington Will be Celebrated in Numerous Ways by Angelenos

WASHINGTON'S PRAYER AT VALLEY FORGE

Almighty God, we make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy holy protection; that Thou wilt incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government; and entertain a brotherly affection and love for each other and for their fellow-citizens of the United States at large; and finally that Thou wilt most graciously be pleased to dispose all of us to do justice, to love mercy, and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility and pacific temper of mind which were characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion, and without these things we can never hope to be a happy nation. Grant our supplication, we beseech Thee, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

One hundred and ninety-seven years ago today, George Washington was born and he was destined in the sixty-seven years that followed to become the Father of His Country, first in peace, first in war and first in the hearts of his countrymen.

So today, Old Glory flies in the breeze and in a thousand and one ways Angelenos will commemorate the day as a holiday. At least 200,000 children in the city schools will pay tribute to Washington as a Virginia schoolboy who became first President of the United States, was made its second President and would have been its third, but for his declination. Something in each classroom will be done to rejuvenate the ideals for which he stood and to pay respect to his memory.

OFFICES TO CLOSE

Federal, State, county, city and other public offices will be closed, except such as are of an emergency nature. Banks will be closed. The Stock Exchange will not open nor will a number of other classes of offices. Patriotic societies will observe the day in various ways. Mail deliveries will not take place. The Municipal Playground and Recreation Department at 3:30 p.m. will put on a special patriotic program of pageant-plays at Echo Park for the children of that territory. Many State societies will hold picnics.

One of the largest public events will be the opening of the three-day annual winter sports carnival at Big Pines Recreation Park for which winter athletic enthusiasts long have been preparing.

The Grand Central Air Terminal will take advantage of the holiday to put on a gala celebration dedicating and opening the airport.

SOME GO TO YOSEMITE

A party of prominent citizens left by special train last evening for Yosemite Park to spend a three-day holiday season amidst the winter there. A group of famous polo players will play this afternoon at Midwick Country Club. A number of golf clubs will hold special tournaments. The Los Angeles unit of

GRAND JURY SCORES JAIL MANAGEMENT IN REPORT

Labor of 1928 Inquiry Body at End; County Industrial Farm Urged; Keyes Tangle Reviewed

Adjournament of the 1928 county grand jury, which established a record for its widespread investigations and the prominence of those against whom indictments were returned, was marked yesterday by the filing with Superior Judge Shaw of a final report, recommending several distinct departures in some forms of county government and severe criticism of the County Jail administration.

Although Col. Thomas F. Cooke, foreman of the retiring jury, announced previously that companionate indictments would be returned in the asserted Councilman Jacobson-Grimes police "frame-up," no further true bills were found on technical reasons, the District Attorney's office announced.

Last Monday the jury indicted seven men and one woman on charges of having the Councilman falsely and maliciously arrested with Mrs. Callie Grimes in a Beagle-street morals raid. Mrs. Grimes is the woman indicted.

NO MORE INDICTMENTS

Conferences between the District Attorney's office and the grand jury resulted in an agreement that the indictments previously voted will be sufficient at trial to cover the asserted crimes, and that a further group of sustaining indictments is unnecessary.

Yesterday Mrs. Grimes, who is conceded to be a State's witness in the case, since she presented an affidavit that she conspired with police and underworld characters to "frame" the Councilman, was missing, and a search for her is being made by the District Attorney's investigators.

E. J. Dennison, veteran prosecutor of the District Attorney's office, has been assigned to represent the State at the forthcoming appearance on the 25th inst., when the defendants named in the true bills will appear to plead. Dennison doubts that Mrs. Grimes's absence will injure the case to any alarming extent.

OTHERS NAMED

In addition to Mrs. Grimes, Detective Captains Wallis and Williams, Detective Cox, former Detective Raymond, former Detective Lieutenant Lucas, C. H. Crawford, Hollywood business man and politician, and Albert Marco, convicted vice king, are named in the indictments.

Before the grand jury appeared before the court in its last official act, a number of routine matters, including the investigation of stock and bond sales of C. C. Julian, promoter, came up for consideration.

The jury is understood to have been prepared to take some action in Julian's case, but apparently was unable to agree definitely, and left the matter to the incoming grand jury and the District Attorney's office for later discussion.

Superior Judge Doran, who will have charge of the 1929 grand jury, announced yesterday that it is unlikely that another panel will be ready for action before a month, because of the necessary routine in selecting the veniremen and starting them on their year's work.

RECORD OF JURY

The criticism of the administration of the County Jail, and recommendations for establishment of an industrial farm for convicted prisoners, installation of the photostatic system of recording public documents, further expansion of county health centers and a number of suggestions for law amendments were prominent among the high-lights of the final report.

The jury, which has been under the leadership of Col. Thomas F. Cooke as foreman, established a reputation during its tenure of office as one of the most determined, aggressive and thorough inquisitorial body of its kind in Los Angeles county in recent years.

As the nineteen members filed before Judge Shaw to return the report and receive his appreciation, they brought to close a year's work in which they shattered several huge trust-deed and stock frauds, indicted and saw the conviction of Albert Marco, underworld ruler, and exposed the Keyes-Getzoff bribe ring.

With a 95 per cent attendance of members, the jury held 119 meetings, heard 1015 witnesses, returned 178 indictments, involving 245 persons, of which seventy-one convictions have been obtained, thirty-two defendants are unapprehended and 131 indictments still untried.

OUTSTANDING WORK

Among the outstanding recommendations and expressions of opinion in the jury's report are the following:

(1.) Criticism of the lax management of the County Jail during 1928, in which the jury charges favoritism and improper privileges

KEYES WILL FIGHT TRIP TO PRISON

Last-Ditch Battle for Freedom to be Planned from Jail Cell

Asa Keyes will make a last-ditch fight against serving any time in State's prison, and Dist.-Atty. Fitts will proceed at once with the prosecution of other charges pending against the former District Attorney.

Such was the situation presented yesterday following the sentencing of Keyes Wednesday afternoon to a term of from one to fourteen years in San Quentin prison for criminal conspiracy with E. H. Rosenberg and Ben Getzoff to receive bribes.

"Keyes is going to stay in the County Jail pending his appeal in this case and prepare to defend himself against the other charges," said Attorney William B. Beirne, Keyes's counsel, after a conference with his client.

RUMORS DISCOUNTED

The announcement set at rest rumors that the former District Attorney might go to prison at once so that the time he spent there pending appeal might count on his sentence.

The case remaining against Keyes is one in which he, Ben Getzoff, Dave Getzoff, Charles Reimer and A. I. Lasker are indicted on charges that they conspired to have a case against Lasker "fixed" while Keyes was District Attorney. Trial of the case has been set tentatively for March 4.

After a conference with Attorney Beirne yesterday, Dist.-Atty. Fitts declared that the interested parties soon will appear in court to fix a definite date for the trial. Fitts would not commit himself on Keyes's last-ditch attitude other than to say that the Lasker trial preparations will proceed.

APPEALS FILED

Attorney Beirne backed up Keyes's statements yesterday by filing written notice of appeal both in behalf of Keyes and of E. H. Rosenberg. A further statement of the grounds for appeal must be filed within a limited time followed by the usual briefs and arguments. It is estimated a decision of the higher court cannot be expected in less than two months, and the probability is great that it will take longer.

While Keyes and Rosenberg prepared to fight still further for their liberty, Ben Getzoff, convicted with the other two, was taken to a Pasadena hospital to recover from a serious condition arising from a stomach ailment. Getzoff filed application for probation when he was called to be sentenced and later was released from jail when doctors testified to his condition. He is still under $50,000 bail on another charge, however.

MAY USE GETZOFF

Getzoff was given ten days in which to have a hearing on his application for probation, but this time probably will be extended owing to his condition. When the hearing finally is held, however, and if probation is denied, he will receive the same sentence—one to fourteen years—that Keyes and Rosenberg got.

Getzoff, whom the State described as the "pay-off man" in the bribery deals, confessed to Dist.-Atty. Fitts since his conviction in the Keyes case and Fitts announced that seven prominent men, heretofore not involved in the bribery indictments, were named by the Spring-street tailor as participants in a $150,000 bribe plot.

While Fitts would make no state-

ECUADOR SENDS EXHIBIT BID

Industrialists and Agriculturists of Southland Urged to Participate in Exposition

An invitation to the industrialists and agriculturists of Southern California, and especially of Los Angeles county, to participate in the International Exposition of Ecuador at the country's principal port city, Guayaquil, October 5 to 15, next, was issued yesterday by Dr. V. M. Egas, Ecuadorean Consul in Los Angeles.

The exposition will be the largest ever held in South America and a special law has been passed permitting all products to be admitted duty free for exhibition purposes. The invitation was issued by Dr Egas at the suggestion of Gonzalo Zaldumbide, Ecuador's Ambassador at Washington. Guayaquil is the city in which President-elect Hoover was received by President Ayora on his South American visit.

Ecuador is considered one of the most progressive of the South American countries and carries on an extensive trade with Southern California. More than three-fourths of the products of Ecuador are exported to the United States, Dr. Egas asserted. He also pointed out that Ecuador is the only South American country that carries a permanent industrial and agricultural exhibit at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

"We are anxious particularly that Southern California take part in our exposition," he said. "This section and Ecuador have much in common and every facility will be afforded exhibitors of Southern California products to take part and display their goods."

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

THERE has been much gossip in literary circles of late about the activities of "ghost writers." These are the professional writers who do the work for celebrities who make believe to be writers.

They used to be thought of as hacks; they have become established as members of a new profession.

OLD STUFF

The truth is, however, that it is a very old profession.

There is very good reason for believing that a ghost writer really wrote Caesar's famous "Commentaries." In which event he deserves to be remembered as a masterly liar. Most of those illustrious military letters from the "front" were fakes. Caesar got well licked in many of his famous "victories."

TRAGEDIES OF HOLLYWOOD

This film city can be a prodigal fairy godmother; or she can be a cruel stepmother. Frequently she starts out being the one and winds up in the other mood. For many girls, like Miss Rubens, the mental strain of playing with Lady Luck becomes an intolerable ordeal—and something snaps.

MEN ARE TOUGH ANIMALS

There wasn't much to be learned that everybody didn't know in the experiment of a German swimmer in Hamburg who swam against the strength of a sea lion—until the monster collapsed from exhaustion.

No animal ever lived with the endurance of man. A cavalry horse can only carry one-fourth of his own weight for any distance—or for any length of time. A man in training can pack three-fourths of his weight—indefinitely.

Mr. Charles Kellogg, the student of vibrations, has told me of a man in the Maine woods who—as an experiment—walked down a full-grown bull moose. He followed the moose night and day for five weeks, until the animal fell from exhaustion.

THE HORSES QUIT

Some years ago a man in Prescott, Ariz., bet that an Apache Indian could outrun any two horses alive.

A course of approximately 400 miles was set. A light rider was given two fine saddle animals, which he was permitted to change at will. The Indian finished twelve hours ahead of the worn-out horses.

ARTISTIC NONSENSE

Again they are playing Shakespeare in modern clothes. In London there is a production in which Macbeth is dressed in the uniform of a captain of English infantry; and Lady Macbeth is arrayed in a three-piece "trotter" suit. Only the witches stick to the ancient costumes. According to recent telegraph dispatches it would be appropriate to dress them as Pennsylvania school-teachers.

RANTING ACTORS

The only reason for the vogue of Shakespeare so dressed is that whenever actors get into ancient costumes they begin to rant and rave, forgetting that Macbeth in his natural clothes probably talked like any other Scotchman.

BUSHNELL FOLK TO RALLY

Former residents of Bushnell, Ill., now residing in Southern California, will hold an all-day picnic at Sycamore Grove Sunday.

Mysterious Disappearance of Multimillionaire May be Cleared

Francis Clarke, Wealthy Spokane Clubman, Done Away With in 1914 by Gangsters, Wowan Says

After being shrouded in mystery fifteen years, the strange disappearance of Francis Lewis Clark, multimillionaire of Sprokane, Wash., who vanished in Santa Barbara in 1914, may be cleared as the result of a statement to police yesterday by Margaret Kelly that Clark was the victim of a "mob" with which she was aligned.

Mrs. Kelly, also known as Marie Allen, was taken into custody late Wednesday night by Detective-Lieutenants Sanderson and Romero and booked at the County Jail as a material witness after she told the police she had received $800 to "keep my mouth shut about the affair."

WAIL OVER PHONE

A woman's voice over the telephone sent the detectives on a hurried call to 1704 West Twenty-fifth street, Wednesday night, after Mrs. Kelly incoherently conveyed to the detectives that she wanted to tell the mof Clark's asserted murder to "clear my conscience."

As the result of sensational disclosures made by the woman during several hours interrogation by Lieutenant Sanderson, a State-wide search for five men, two of whom are now believed serving penitentiary sentences, was instituted.

"I have had this thing on my mind ever since I learned that Clark probably was murdered by a gang I was friendly with and recently I have learned that I may be made the goat to even an old score," the red-haired woman, who is 38 years of age, told officers last night.

CALLED TO HOTEL

"I was called to a downtown hotel during the middle part of January, 1914, by a man working there, who asked me if I wanted to meet a rich 'old duck' who was a good spender.

"I said sure, and went down to meet him. We went to cafes and shows and he threw $50 and $100 bills around to waiters and cabaret dancers like they were quarters.

"We were drinking a lot, but I always kept my head. The boys were hanging around the hotel and immediately got their eyes on my 'find'," the woman declared.

"'You have a live one there,' they told me.

GOES FOR RIDE

"When Mr. Clark asked me to go to Santa Barbara with him just for a ride I said I would. He gave me $100. I told the boys where we were going.

"Did you know they were going, too?" Lieut. Sanderson asked the woman.

"Sure I knew it, but I didn't think they would kill him. I thought they would rob him and turn him loose.

"We drove to Santa Barbara in a taxicab. He sent me into a hotel to register and said that he would be back later. That was about 10:30 at night. I never saw him again."

GIVEN $800 LATER

I waited around the lobby of the hotel until after midnight and then went to bed. The next morning I caught a train back to Los Angeles.

"When were you paid the $800?" the woman was asked.

"It was about three months later. I was sitting in a hotel in San Francisco when one of the boys walked up and handed me $800.

"What's this for?" I asked him.

"It's your cut out of the Clark job," he answered.

"What did you do to the old fellow? You didn't kill him, did you?" I asked the fellow.

"Don't be a fish. Take the money and keep your trap shut," he replied. I never saw him after that.

HAT ON BEACH

Records in the disappearance of the millionaire show that he took his wife to the train for her return to Spokane at 11:15 on the night of January 16, 1914. He was driven to the train by his chauffeur, Walter Shute, whom he dismissed at the station, and then dropped from sight.

At that time the theory of suicide was advanced when the aged man's hat was found the following day on the beach about a mile north of the Santa Barbara pier.

Mrs. Kelly refused to divulge the "old score" which she says the gangsters hold against her, but declared she is well satisfied to be behind bars until the Clark case is MORE——

DID NOT KNOW VICTIM

"I really didn't know it was the millionaire Clark until several months after he disappeared. I knew the man I was with was rich, but I didn't associate him with the man whose disappearance was receiving a great deal of attention," the woman said.

On May 29, 1914, Mrs. Kelly, then known as Allen, was arrested in San Francisco and brought to Santa Monica where she stood trial on a charge of attempting extortion and blackmailing of Earl M. Nash. She was found not guilty.

While held in the Santa Monica jail, the records show, she was questioned as to her connections with Edgar D. Byron, former private detective, charged with attempting to extort $500 from the then Mayor Dudley, of Santa Monica; Sol Alexander, later convicted for a land-swindling deal, and Thomas McCullough, who was indicted with Alexander, but who police say never was apprehended.

IDENTIFIED BY DRIVING

At the same time police began delving into the possibility that Clark was the victim of a nation-wide gang which they claimed used Mrs. Kelly for "bait."

"I never saw or heard of the man. Who is he anyway?" she answered at that time.

A few days later, however, police say the taxi driver who drove her to Santa Barbara with Clark identified her. No connection between the woman and the millionaire's disappearance, however, could be established and she was released after the jury failed to convict her on the blackmail charge.

On February 18, 1914, parts of the body of a man, with a badly crushed skull, were washed up on the beach at Drake's station, five miles north of Gaviota, which was believed by many to be the body of Clark, but the corpse never was definitely identified.

DIVER MAKES SEARCH

A few days later Capt. Ellison, San Pedro deep-sea diver, searched the floor of the ocean bed about the Santa Barbara coastline near where the hat was found, but located no trace of the missing man.

Ten days after Clark's disappearance a ransom note demanding payment of $75,000 for Clark's return was received by Charles Sebastian, then Chief of Police. An answer from the police head through newspapers was demanded. A notice was printed demanding more information and assurance that Clark still lived, but no answer was ever received from the asserted ransom demanders. Police believed the letter a hoax.

In view of Mrs. Kelly's amazing statement, however, police last night were digging into old files for copies of the note and samples of handwriting of the men named by her as perpetrators of the robbery and asserted murder, in an effort to substantiate the woman's weird story.

FAMILIAR FACE SHOWS UP

"I knew this story had to come out sooner or later. I have tried to get away from it but if I was not hounded by my conscience I was by someone else.

"I was working in Harrison's Heart of the Orange soft-drink and lunch parlor, Sixty-third street and Cottage Grove avenue, Chicago, in the middle of June, 1926. Carl Fallors was my boss.

"One afternoon a man, whose face was very familiar to me, came in and sat at the counter for some time, munching a sandwich and sipping orange juice. He didn't appear to be hungry but kept watching me. I became nervous and started to question him. Before I could make up my mind he arose and walked to the cash desk. When I took his change he smiled and said he had left something under his plate.

"'You had better come clean right now on the Francis Lewis Clark deal,' read the note I found there.

"I became frightened and returned to Los Angeles.

"Shortly after last Christmas I was leaving a building on Olive street and met a man coming toward me. He stared hard at me and as I passed him he wheeled about and followed me. I started to stop and ask him what he wanted, but I didn't have the nerve. I felt like he was going to stick me with a knife.

"I saw him board a street car behind me and he watched me all the way home. A few minutes after I entered the house my telephone rang.

"'Listen dearie, jail doors don't stay closed forever. I told you once before to come clean on the Clark deal. You had better do it now before it is too late.'"

MADE FORTUNE IN REAL ESTATE

SPOKANE (Wash.) Feb. 21. (AP)—F. Louis Clark, Spokane millionaire sportsman, who Los Angeles police said Miss Marie Allen today confessed was killed June 29, 1914, at Santa Barbara, Cal., disappeared on January 17, 1914, and it was announced that he had committed suicide by jumping off a commercial pier in that city.

Clark, who made a fortune in real estate and mining, was known internationally as a yachtsman and in 1907 brought six trophy cups to the United States. At Kiel, Germany, he raced his Sonderyacht Spokane for cups offered by the then Kaiser Wilhelm, and later in Spain won an "extraordinairie special" trophy offered by King Alfonso.

Spokane friends of the sportsman said tonight that if Miss Allen's confession were true, the theory that he died after placing his wife on a Spokane-bound train was false, as that was on January 17, while Miss Allen asserts he was killed June 26.

After an intensive search had been conducted after his disappearance, and after a hat which was identified as belonging to the man had been washed ashore, Mrs. Clark said she believed her husband was alive and in a sanatorium. He had been ill for some time, she said.

The Clarks had been living in their cottage at San Ysidro for several weeks before the sportsman disappeared.

Shrine Event Seats Go Fast

With the season ticket sale to Coliseum events of the Shrine convention here in June open to the public for only two days, more than 20,000 tickets already have been sold or reserved, it was stated last night by William P. Jeffries, finance committee chairman.

While 10,269 tickets had been sold to local applicants at 5 p.m. yesterday, orders to reserve an additional 10,000 seats had been received from Shrine temples in the East and Middle West.

The heavy demands appears to indicate a complete sell-out, it was declared by LeRoy M. Edwards, director-general of the fifty-fifth annual Shrine conclave. The tickets are for the $1,000,000 motion-picture electrical pageant, four performances of the Circus Maximus and two dress parades.

BODY OF MAN FOUND HANGING FROM TREE

The lifeless body of an unidentified man about 40 years of age, was found hanging from the limb of a tree late yesterday at the end of Corliss street near the Occidental College campus. Discovered by Chaplain Parker of the college, it was removed to the morgue by the Highland Park police as a suicide. The man was described as being five feet, seven inches in height, weighing 185 pounds and wearing a blue suit and brown overcoat.

HARDWARE MEN TALK OVERHEAD

Southland Association of Retail Merchants Hears Efficiency Discussion

Cutting the overhead in business constituted the topic of discussion during the second-day session at the twelfth annual Southern California Retail Hardware Association convention in the Southwest Building yesterday.

J. L. Belt of Los Angeles advocated reduction of hardware-store forces to the minimum required for efficient operation. "With modern arrangements and a variety of lines now carried, it is not necessary that all sales employees be men of long experience," Belt declared.

T. M. George of Santa Barbara spoke on the advantage of keeping sales records as a "basis on which to calculate salaries." Other speakers were George W. Green of Long Beach; C. F. Messman of Los Angeles, L. T. Hammersley of Puente and George M. Gray, past president of the national association, of Coshocton, O.

Today's session will conclude the convention. There will be an election of officers.

CITY OBSERVES HOLIDAY TODAY

the Women's Overseas Service League will hold a tea tomorrow afternoon in Patriotic Hall in celebration of today's holiday.

Earle C. Anthony, Inc., will open its new building at Tenth and Hope streets at 11 a.m. and will entertain in the evening with a pageant and program depicting the history of transportation. The company is celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary.

In addition there will be a great number of events of a group nature concerning which no public announcements have been made.

The colleges of liberal arts and commerce of the University of Southern California will hold an anniversary celebration in Bovard Auditorium at 10 a.m. Rev. Lloyd C. Douglas, pastor of the First Congregational Church, will deliver the principal address. Following the program classes will nominate officers for the election next Wednesday.

Rites Conducted Yesterday for Miss Ada Burch

Last rites for Miss Ada Burch, corresponding secretary of the Los Angeles Woman's Christian Temperance Union, who died last Monday at the General Hospital, were conducted at 2:30 p.m. yesterday at the George Fitch funeral chapel, Twelfth and Hope streets. Rev. Elmer E. Helms, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiated. Interment was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Miss Burch had been ill for several weeks. She died of complications resulting from an attack of influenza with which she was stricken the day after Thanksgiving.

In addition to being corresponding secretary and publicity chairman of the local W.C.T.U., which post she had held for four years, Miss Burch was in charge of State W.C.T.U. work among the colored people. Before coming here, she spent sixteen years as a missionary in Porto Rico and South America.

LOCAL HORSES WIN FEATURES

Competition Keen in Two Championship Events

Intense Interest Prevails Throughout Program

Seat Sale Sets Record for Horse Shows

Two championship stake events, consisting of cash prizes and totaling $4000, brought out the cream of thoroughbred stables at the Los Angeles National Horse Show last night. When judging had been concluded, Los Angeles horses had been declared winners in both events.

Nancy Highland, chestnut mare entered by Jacob Vogt and ridden by George Howell, won easily in the $2000 three-gaited saddle horse championship event, the second that the handsome thoroughbred has entered and won here at the Ambassador Auditorium after winning three years at the New York, Chicago and Kansas City shows.

Ben R. Meyer's Billet Doux, brown gelding pony, was the other Los Angeles horse to win a big stake in a high class field of beautifully turned-out single harness ponies with light vehicles.

INTEREST INTENSE

Intense interest prevailed throughout the showing last night, which was by far the highest-class program of the entire exhibition. Seating capacity was packed to the utmost.

Every seat and box has been sold for the balance of the show, it was announced last night by W. W. Mines, president, and thousands have been asking for tickets, a condition said to be unprecedented in American horse-show history.

Four more programs yet remain before the exhibition closes. Two matinees are included, the first to open at 1:30 o'clock today.

WINNERS ANNOUNCED

The following winners were announced last night:

Class 78, saddle horses, five-gaited—Rosewall (Irving H. Hellman,) first; Golden Glow (Carnation Farm Stable,) second; Our Johnnie (Alice and Marjorie Marston,) third; Hy Fog (Mrs. D. H. Hostetter, Jr.,) fourth.

Class 102, hunt teams—The Aaron M. Frank Farms, first; Bay-See Stables, second; Mrs. Alma Spreckels Rosekrans, third; Dr. J. H. Heid, fourth.

Class 99, thoroughbred hunters—Allsie (Frank Farms,) first; Mayheart (Frank Farms,) second; U Beat 'Em (Bay-See Stables,) third; Judith (Bay-See Stables,) fourth.

Class 29, heavy harness horses (four-in-hand teams)—Nathan L. Jones, first; Carnation Farm Stables, second.

Class 88, middle and heavy-weight stock horses—El Blanco (Dwight Murphy,) first; Business (M. H. Hellman,) second; Bourbon (M. H. Hellman,) third; Easter (J. H. Taylor,) fourth.

JURY ISSUES INDICTMENTS ON TWELVE

Eight Federal Charges Involve Dozen Persons; Donnelly Case Included

Eight indictments involving charges against twelve persons were returned yesterday by the Federal grand jury, principal among the true bills being one against James J. Donnelly and his wife, Mrs. Florence B. Donnelly, alias Mrs. Luce, both of whom are accused of theft of thousands of dollars' worth of checks from lock-boxes at Postoffice Branch C, at Ninth and Olive streets. Their bail was fixed at $3000 each and both are being held in lieu of bail.

Edwin E. Tucker, 23 years of age, was indicted for using the mails to defraud by sending packages of incense C.O.D. by mail to relatives of persons known to be dead.

Two men were accused of counterfeiting in different cases. Karl S. Cashin, who was arrested when he is said to have placed a fake quarter in a stamp-vending machine in the postoffice, was one accused. A charge of making counterfeit half-dollars was made against Richard E. Gardner, who had previously been arrested on a similar charge.

A charge of extracting bank funds was filed against James E. Bostwick, 20, formerly a clerk of the Bank of Italy. Charges of violating the Tariff Act were made against five persons, who will be tried in San Diego. Violation of the Harrison Narcotic Act was the charge filed against Alfred Lum, alias Lum Poy. This case will be heard at Fresno.

PROTEST HEARING POSTPONED

The City Council yesterday postponed hearing of protests against the improvement of Kilkea Drive between Beverly Boulevard and Third streets when it was informed that the protestants did not desire the abandonment of the proceedings but merely wanted to have it put off for several months. Hearing of protests against the improvement of Oak Crest Way between Oleander Drive and Annandale Boulevard was continued to March 13 and the City Engineer instructed to check the protests meanwhile.

HUNDRED SEATTLE STATIONS FORCED TO CLOSE

SEATTLE, Feb. 21. (AP)—Wholesale gasoline prices tumbled in Seattle today to 9½ cents a gallon and it was indicated by refinery company officials that there was every possibility of further reductions before the gasoline war was over. The retail price was from 9½ to 15½ cents a gallon.

Approximately 100 of Seattle's filling stations were closed today, unable to withstand the furious price cutting and no-profit sales of the last few days.

OREGON DEALERS VOTE TO MEET DROP

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 21. (AP)—After an entire morning of argument the Portland Retail Gasoline Dealers' Association announced this afternoon that members would meet the General Petroleum Corporation's reduction of gasoline to 16½ cents a gallon. The association has more than 500 members in the State.

PRICE DOWN TO 11 CENTS IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER (Wash.) Feb. 21. (AP) Gasoline dropped to 11 cents at two service stations here today. One pump was operated at a General Petroleum Corporation station while the other across the street, was selling Richfield Oil Company products.

SUSPECT ACCUSED OF FAKE FILM TESTS

Accused of giving fake screen tests, Harry Caton, 36 years of age, of 1634 Bellview avenue, yesterday was arrested and booked on a charge of grand-theft bunco. Detective Lieutenants Marshall and Schwab took him in on a complaint of Mrs. Esther Ketner of 3045 West Eighth street. She complained that she paid Caton money for a screen test which was worthless.

GUESTS FIND GIRLS HERE TOO MODERN

Dutch Misses Fear That American Flapper Will Not Make Good Wife

Los Angeles girls paint and powder so much and have such free and easy ways that two demure Dutch lassies who visited the city yesterday for the first time fear they would not make good wives.

The girls are Mary and Margaret Van Wyllck of Venlo, Holland, who, with their father, a wholesale produce merchant of Venlo, are stopping at the Biltmore on a vacation trip.

"The girls here are not like the girls in Holland," explained Mary. "They are not home girls and they use so much rouge and powder and lipstick and do not seem to be modest so I cannot see how they would make good wives and mothers."

As she spoke her sister nodded in approval and her father patted her shoulder encouragingly.

"And I have heard about what you call petting parties," Mary continued. "Maybe they are not nice, yes? It is the automobile though, I think. In Holland we do not go in automobiles. We ride bicycles or in boats on the canals."

LAST RITES OF RUSSELL TOMORROW

Leaders of Filmland Will Be Pallbearers for Stage and Screen Favorite

Leading figures in the motion-picture industry will serve as pallbearers at last rites to be conducted tomorrow for William Russell, veteran of the stage and screen, who died last Monday of pneumonia.

Active pallbearers will be William Beaudine, Robert Leonard, Lloyd Hughes, Herman Spitzel, Jesse White and Richard Hargreaves. Honorary pallbearers will be Daryl Zanuck, John Willitsen, Harold Lloyd, Robert Kline and Edward Kauffman.

Two services will be conducted for Mr. Russell. The first under auspices of the Knights Templar, will be at the LeRoy Bagley funeral chapel at 1:30 p.m. The second will be a Christian Science service at the Little Church of the Flowers at 3 p.m. Mrs. Eugene Swarzwald will conduct the church service. Walter Pigeon will sing. Interment will be in the Sanctuary of Love at Forest Lawn Mausoleum.

Mr. Russell was 45 years of age. He leaves a widow, Helen Ferguson, well-known actress; a brother, Albert Russell, Los Angeles, and three sisters, Mrs. Charles Schaffer of Los Angeles, Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. Nicholas Peterson of New York.

Glee Club Goes on Tour Today

Eight towns will be visited and fourteen concerts presented by the Occidental Men's Glee Club, which will leave today on a five-day concert tour to San Diego. Twenty-one singers, three instrumentalists, Director Walter E. Hartley and Assistant Graduate Manager Ed Hackett will make up the party. The trip wil be made in a chartered bus.

At 10:30 a.m. today a program will be given at the Huntington Beach High School, followed by luncheon and another concert at the Rotary Club. The afternoon will include performances at the Costa Mesa High School and at a patriotic civic rally at Laguna Beach.

Appearances tomorrow will be made before the United Travelers' Association at San Diego and at a formal concert in the San Diego High School Auditorium. On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the club will sing at the Brooklyn Heights Presbyterian Church, the First Presbyterian Church, Hotel Del Coronado, Sweetwater Union High School, San Diego Executives' Association, La Jolla High School, San Diego Army and Naval Academy and the Oceanside-Carlsbad Union High School.

PROTESTS DENIED

Protests against the confirmation of assessments for the installation of sewers in Hoover street between Clarissa and Franklin avenues were denied yesterday by the City Council.

Dr. Kingsley to Play Tomorrow

An attractive program will be given by Dr. Bruce Gordon Kingsley at Bullock's tomorrow morning, preparatory for the tenth symphony concert season. Beginning with a piano concerto by Schumann, a famous battle-horse of all pianists, the audience will be led through the Offenbach "Orpheus" overture with its tonal reference to hades and its exquisite melody of allurement, Saint Saens's Carnival des Animaux (Carnival of the Animals,) introducing the Asiatic wild ass, turtles, an elephant, a swan, kangaroos, an aquarium, a cuckoo, an aviary full of birds, and some fossils. Then "The Chinese Dance" by Tschaikowsky "The Flight of the Bumblebee" by Rimsky-Korsakow, "The Music Box" by Liadow and last, two selections from the "Faust" symphony by Franz Liszt, never before given in Southern California.

Valuable Bonds Found in Pocket of Dead Doctor

Twelve thousand dollars' worth of bonds were found yesterday in the pockets of Dr. Francis La Violette, 87 years of age, who died in his room at 111 South Figueroa street. Mrs. May Leslie, of whom he rented a room, reported that he had been ill for a week with influenza. Yesterday his condition was so alarming that she summoned a doctor, who arrived as the aged man died. The case was reported to the Coroner, who found the bonds and $10 on the body.

Dr. La Violette came to Los Angeles from Portland, Or., twenty-five years ago, and made his home continuously at the address where he died. One grandson, J. H. La Violette, lives here, and another grandson lives in Portland.

Tattooing May Identify Man

A tattoo mark showing the legend "U.S.N. 1916" on the left arm may be the means by which police will identy the man who, they state, ended his life in a rooming-house at 645 Ceres avenue yesterday. On a piece of paper found in the man's clothing the officers found the name Joe Hillman, but there was nothing to show that this was his name.

The man was about 30 years of age and moderately well dressed. He had locked the door and window to his room, covered his head with bedclothes and inhaled illuminating gas through a tube, police said. The body was taken to the County Morgue.

Judge Scores Use of Police Stool Pigeons

Use of police stool pigeons in obtaining evidence was attacked yesterday by Municipal Judge Bullock in finding Florence Watson not guilty of violation of the city morals ordinances. Judge Bullock ordered the case dismissed after hearing the evidence for the prosecution.

"Testimony of the so-called stool pigeons is in many cases unreliable and unworthy of consideration by this court," Judge Bullock declared. "Better testimony must be introduced if convictions are desired. Methods used by police operatives are in many cases of a questionable nature, and I find that the police are extremely hesitant about bringing their operatives into court as witnesses."

Cooks' Health Tests Favored

Compulsory medical examination for all persons cooking or serving food in restaurants, cafes, clubs, hotels and public institutions, recommended in a resolution drawn up by the district chairman of public health of the Federation of Women's Clubs, was unanimously indorsed yesterday by the Philanthropy and Civics Club, a Community Chest agency. Other Community Chest agencies are expected to vote on the proposal, which is regarded as of considerable moment by civic groups interested in public hygiene.

The indorsement contained an amendment to the effect that no fee be charged for such medical examinations, which will be given by city health officers if the examination becomes legally compulsory.

Hearing Delayed on Law to Stop Balloon Flying

Action on the proposed ordinance to prohibit the flying of advertising balloons and kites over the city was postponed for a week by the City Council yesterday. Councilman Alber, sponsor for the ordinance, informed his colleagues that several large advertising interests wish to be heard in protest against it. The ordinance was presented to the City Council once before. It failed of passage and was referred back to the Council's Finance Committee for further consideration.

It will be voted upon by the Council next Thursday after the representatives of the interests opposed to it have been allowed to address the Council.

An Announcement of Importance to Every Motorist!

IN the midst of a competitive price situation the result of which will have a direct bearing on the future of the independent gasoline reseller—actually, perhaps on his continued existence; this company wishes to repeat and to emphasize its policy toward the independent dealer.

Since its inception, and continued throughout a growth which has culminated in its present position, the Richfield Oil Company has always believed in the necessity of the independent dealer and has striven to maintain by every sound, consistent policy, his right to live and to enjoy a fair profit on the products he sells.

There is no sane, economic reason for the present price situation. Richfield, however, has never asked its friends to pay a higher price for the privilege of using its products, and therefore has always met, and will continue to meet existing prices. The quality of its products will, as in the past, continue to lead in every market where they are sold. Richfield Gasoline, Richfield-Ethyl Gasoline and Richlube Motor Oil will not be cheapened because of price.

For purely selfish reasons if for no other, you as a motorist should continue to support the independent dealer. Without this support and loyalty...without your thorough realization of the present situation, his very existence is imperilled.

Today's Bible Text

And He (God) shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. Isaiah ii:4.

THE LOST SHEEP

Little Bo Peep had better steer her sheep away from Wall street or they will get sheared clear to the bone. The graveyard at the head of that highway is no parking place for lambs.

HIGH-PRICED BEDS

According to the best figures the construction of a thoroughly modern hospital will cost more than $8000 a bed. No wonder a lot of poor folks have to sleep on cots in the back yard. What is an order for twin beds worth?

BETTER BEHAVE

The Senators believe in putting a punch in the Volstead Act. In making it possible to give a man a $10,000 fine and five years in prison for a first violation they are not only putting teeth in prohibition but taking a big bite.

CABINET MAKING

Two European cabinets came mighty near falling apart on the same day. They hardly have enough adhesive tape to hold them together. Nothing like that happens to an American Cabinet. Calls for a big explosion to take it apart.

TIES ARE BROKEN

Is Kent Parrot up for both political and domestic divorcement? One seems to be in the courts and the other in the cards. With the severance of the Parrot-Cryer union everything goes to smash. This might be a good time for the taxpayer to go shopping for a new boss.

THE GERMAN FLYERS

Some 32,000 passengers took the sky from the single airport of Templehof in Berlin last year, which shows a pronounced advance over the business of the previous year. At the same time the planes carried more than 600 long tons of express. The Germans take to the heavens as if they knew exactly where they wanted to go. They possibly have more regular lines than all the rest of Europe put together.

THE NEW SOUTH

More than a score of veterans from the Mississippi home for Confederate soldiers are going to make the journey to the Hoover inauguration as guests of the State and the railroad. This is the first time a group of this kind has made the trip from a Southern State to help install a Republican President. And the beauty of it is that Mississippi did not go for Hoover either. But the South is able to indicate a lot of respect and regard for the new chief. Andrew Jackson wasn't the only big guy.

CHAIR OF ORATORY

The widow of Chauncey M. Depew sends a check to the George Washington University at the capital for the sum of $120,000 to maintain a chair of oratory or public speaking. Nothing could be a finer memorial for dear old Chauncey. For more than a full generation he was perhaps the most popular orator in America and his speeches have been numbered by the thousands. He was the finest banqueter of the nation and his genius merits this monument.

CHILD MARRIAGE

In good old England the House of Lords indulges in another debate over the nation's marrying. Every generation something turns up to provoke discussion and the mellow peers undertake this argument with the zeal and endurance of the American Senate. Now they are debating a measure which has been urged by sundry British matrons and which would forbid the marriage of either boy or girl under the age of 16 years. As it stands today it is possible for a girl of 12 to be lawfully wedded to a boy of 14, but there is hardly enough of this childish mating to give the lords anxiety. Nevertheless, there will be much conversation and a possible boosting of the age limit—although Parliament is always very slow in changing the established order.

BYRD MAKES GEOGRAPHY

Whole new areas never shown on map or globe before will have their outlines filled in as a result of the remarkable series of flights over Antarctica now being made by Commander Byrd and his associates in the South Polar expedition, and a vast domain of unknown extent may be claimed for the United States as one result. The size of the Antarctic continent has been guessed at from the meager data gathered by previous explorers, but Byrd's planes and cameras seem likely to determine a good deal of it with considerable exactness.

Where Byrd has made his latest flights it is probable that no man has ever penetrated before, though it is conceivable his remote ancestors roamed it in preglacial times when there may have been a land-bridge connecting it with one of the other continents. He has reason to believe that he has discovered land far beyond the limits of the Ross Dependency, over which the British flag waves nominally, and he has seen and mapped in part two new mountain ranges, together with coast line never before delineated with any preciseness.

If the Byrd expedition should end now, it would have justified itself by the additions it has made to human knowledge. The right of the discoverer to claim this new territory for the land of his birth may never be of any great practical importance, but that is a matter on which no judgment can be passed as yet. It will be recalled that the rich territory of Alaska was considered by many a bad bargain when Seward bought it for a trifling sum, and Marie Byrd Land may have unexpected value.

In the few weeks that Byrd has been flying he has covered some 40,000 square miles of area and much of it has been mapped by the photographic method.

Byrd, of course, enjoys the use of methods of getting about not available to his predecessors, and his results should be expected to be greater. But he should be given credit for utilizing them to their full advantage. It should not be forgotten that his work involves extreme hazards and that he is meeting conditions under which airplanes have never been used before; the flights made about the North Pole were easy and safe in comparison, since flyers there do not have to face the probability of winds of more than hurricane violence coming with little or no warning, nor to fly over mountain peaks 8000 to 10,000 feet above sea level.

Within a few weeks the Antartic winter will put an end to the explorations for this year. The hopes of his compatriots may not contribute to his safety during the remainder of the season nor during the months that he must spend immured and ice-bound until further exploratory voyages are possible, but he will have them.

WASHINGTON AND THE WEST

It is interesting to surmise how George Washington would have viewed the progress made in the development of the Pacific Coast and what his advice would have been to Californians for its further advance, had the Father of his Country been born in the twentieth instead of in the eighteenth century.

Of course nobody knows how Washington would have stood on such specific issues as the Boulder Dam, enforcement of the Wright Act, regulating Los Angeles street traffic, radio legislation, building local airports, and imposing 7-cent street car fares, since automobiles, airplanes, radio, national prohibition, Colorado River control were impossible conceptions in his time to anyone but Deity.

But on broader questions and fundamental issues it is reasonable to deduct from his preserved opinions and utterances how Washington would have counseled the people of California. He was one of the first statesmen to recognize that the future of the new-born nation lay ever to the west. "The invaluable and extensive country back of us," how to reach it and open it up, was the constant theme of his domestic policies. He would certainly be amazed and delighted at the way his hopes have been realized on the western rim of the continent.

He was insistent for maintaining friendly relations and forming trade connections with all whom the forward looking American would meet in this westward march in his day chiefly, the Spanish, the French and the British. In 1784, looking toward the Mississippi Valley, he said, "Smooth the road, make easy the way for them, and then see what an influx of articles will be poured upon us; how amazingly our exports will be increased by them, and how amply we shall be compensated for any trouble and expense we may encounter to effect it."

He believed in spending money for facilitating communications between the settled States and the wilderness that awaited the arrival of the American. He was always investigating and weighing the value of the various routes by which American civilization could find an egress to the west. He considered such objects "of vast commercial and political importance."

Push back the frontier from the Appalachians to the Sierra Nevadas and replace the Mississippi Valley and beyond with the Pacific Ocean and beyond. What would Washington have seen today?

Another "invaluable and extensive country," peopled by Chinese, Japanese, Mongols and Asiatics in general. These we must come in contact with in our forward march ever to the west. With these Washington would surely have again counseled friendly relations and trade connections. Of these he would have said as in 1784, "Smooth the road, make easy the way, and see . . . how amazingly our exports will be increased by them and how amply we shall be compensated for any trouble and expense."

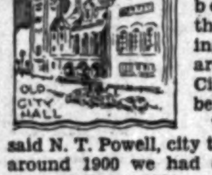
American civilization has not come up against an insuperable barrier at the Pacific Ocean. That ocean is easier to cross today than it was to reach in the days of George Washington. And if we are earnest in our admiration of the First American, what better way to prove it than to carry on his favorite policy of pressing ever west?

THE BIG PARADE

By putting in a few extra chairs seats on the New York Stock Exchange can be cut from $625,000 to $550,000. They must have a mighty good show.

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.
BY Lee Shippey

LOS ANGELES grows so fast that most of us are newcomers, and know little of what was here only a few years ago. Yesterday we heard a man remark that the setting of the new City Hall was growing into a place of beauty, and that nobody'd ever thought of having a garden around the old City Hall, now being demolished.



"But we did," said N. T. Powell, city treasurer. "Back around 1900 we had quite a garden there. About 1901 or 1902 I planted some cotton there, brought from my old home in Georgia, and also some tobacco. Cotton was such a novelty in California then that people couldn't believe it. Back on Spring street was the old Imperial restaurant and bar, which had a door opening on the City Hall garden, and one of the favorite walks of many of the people who were most around the City Hall was across that garden and through that door. It was an avenue of traffic comparable to our Spring-street Arcade of today. But those passers weren't satisfied with the flowing bowls of the Imperial. They insisted on picking the bolls of cotton, too—tearing them open to see if they really were cotton. So the plants did not thrive. And then we had to build additions to the City Hall, so the garden vanished, too. In 1900, though, when this city of well over 1,000,000 had only about 100,000 inhabitants, we thought we had garden space around the City Hall which never would be needed—just as we feel now about the new City Hall.

Not Quite Perfect Yet

They must think our mentality
Is something less than nil,
When they add the sound effect
To what was better still.

Poor old Dobbin trots along
On any kind of street;
Sounds of empty boxes clapped
Are s'posed to be his feet.

If the stagecoach long ago
Was as it sounds today,
All the Indians and bad men
Would have been scared away.

Roarings, raspings, squawkings, groans,
Just any noise, by heck!
Seem to be the main idea
Of the movie sound effect.

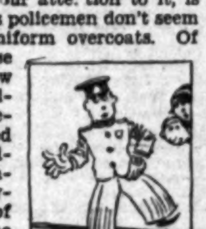
Meanest Man

R. B. is surprised that there aren't more crack women golfers than there are, even. Because, he says, look how persistently they practice the back-seat drive.

Had You Noticed It?

Something we hadn't noticed, till W. A. S. called our attention to it, is that Los Angeles policemen don't seem to have any uniform overcoats. Of course, because we have so few days when red-blooded policemen really need overcoats. Ordinarily, our "finest" are as natty-looking a lot of coppers as one can see anywhere, but when a really raw day does come along they may be seen wearing coats of many colors.



Seen in Passing

Some grim humorist has labeled a wreck tow car stationed on Sunset Boulevard "Auto Hearse."

And on Sunset near Alvarado is a man who doesn't seem to have read what Harry Carr said recently to the effect that Democrats ought to keep quiet about their party affiliation. His big gold sign reads: "Ernest Baume, Dem."

But, of course, the latter may be a demonstrator—which is quite different.

Knew How to Use 'Em

He is a gentleman of high integrity, so we don't believe he would deceive us. But, alas, sometimes gentlemen of high repute, even as colyumists and revivalists, sometimes relate things as personal experiences which never happened, if they make good stories. His story sounds perfectly plausible, however. So here it is:

He was driving out Hollywood Boulevard when a car ahead of him wiggled uncertainly, then stopped. He started to pass, when suddenly it started again, without warning, and cut in front of him. There was a frantic clutching of brakes, a slight bump, and both cars stopped. The offending car was driven by a woman—a cool, serene, well-groomed, confident woman. But our friend couldn't help roaring:

"Hey! Where's your hand?"

She gazed at him unruffled, then lifted a dainty hand to her face, pressed the thumb against her nose, spread the fingers toward him, wiggled them, and said: "There's one. And there"—duplicating the gesture with the other hand—"is the other."

And that was positively the last word.

TWO CALIFORNIA BROTHERS

In the record of filling Cabinet positions the case of the Wilbur brothers is unique. Such demand for official timber lodged in one family is almost unprecedented. Cabinet positions are few and far between and the search for men capable of filling them is widespread and intense. To have one member step out of one Cabinet on the same day that his brother steps into the next marks the Wilburs—to say the least—as men of exceptional ability.

Those who have followed the careers of Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur and Curtis Dwight Wilbur hardly required the honors bestowed on them by two successive Presidents to confirm them in this opinion. But the singular occurrence in Cabinet appointments has called general attention to the two California brothers. Much uncertainty and guesswork still surround the personnel of the incoming Cabinet. The only point on which everyone seems to agree is that President-elect Hoover wishes Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur to be the next Secretary of the Interior and that he will assume this responsibility on the same day that his brother, Curtis, resigns the onerous job of Secretary of the Navy.

Presidents hunting Cabinet material are not alone in their demand for the services of these two California brothers. Stanford University is just as anxious to hang on to its efficient president as Hoover is to draft him for Federal needs. Beyond a doubt Dr. Wilbur will return to the educational duties which have constituted his chief life work when he has completed the task that the wise ones at Washington affirm is the reason for his official selection.

In regard to his equally famous brother the California bar still remembers its regret when the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of California was summoned to Washington by President Coolidge to take charge of the nation's Navy, a post to which his graduation from the Naval Academy at Annapolis especially fitted him. For him the legal profession is still the corner-stone of his career. And it is rumored that when the opportunity presents itself the greatest honor that can fall on any lawyer will be placed at the acceptance of the late Secretary of the Navy.

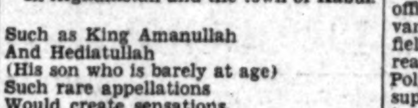
It may be heredity or family training or unrelated personal ability or just California influence that has given these two brothers the characteristics of leadership in such diversified fields. Whatever the cause it makes little difference. They are the product of the Pacific Coast and they are the type of citizen of which no State can possess too many.

WAY OF JUSTICE

There has been another conviction of manslaughter in a traffic tragedy in which careless driving was charged. These convictions do materialize occasionally—thus proving that they are possible.

THE DIAMOND MARKET

Because of much smuggling it is seriously suggested that the tariff on rough and uncut diamonds be removed. It is estimated that about 1,600,000 carats of these stones are imported each year, but the 20 per cent tariff is collected on less than half. There are no diamonds produced in this country and it is urged that with raw stones duty free the cutting industry could be advanced, while compensatory schedules in other lines would bring more revenue to the government. Even the worthiest of dealers seem to have had their weak moments of dabbling in unscheduled stones. Smuggling is ever attractive to some souls—and rough diamonds are so easy!



MEANT FOR MUSIC

By James J. Montague

I am fond of a name one can clearly declaim
In ringing and resonant tones,
Of Robinson, Judson and Jones.
They are rugged and plain like the rough coast of Maine,
They crash on the ear with a "Bing."
But I'm bound to admit that they hardly are fit
For a basso or tenor to sing,
Like the names of the monarchs who once used to rule
In Afghanistan and the town of Kabul.

Such as King Amanullah
And Hediatullah
(His son who is barely at age)
Such rare appellations
Would create sensations
If sung on the opera stage.

I found it is sweet to sit down and repeat
The names of my own kin and kith,
Brown, Higgins and Young lightly trip from my tongue—
So do Atkinson, Jackson and Smith.
A balm to my ears are McMaster and Geers
And Gulick and Brough and McGee,
And Bascom and Fry and O'Connor and Schley
Are always sweet music to me.
But I know they would never give rise to a rage
If they should be sung on the opera stage;

While King Amanullah
And Hediatullah,
Although from their thrones they've been flung
Would be known the world round
By the musical sound
Of their names, if they ever were sung.

Smoking on Campus

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Recently the press heralded announcement that Stanford University had lifted the ban against women smoking on the campus, etc. Voicing the disgust of several I presumed to write Dr. Jordan, and received the inclosed reply, with a subsequent letter from the dean of women at Stanford, which is also inclosed. Since it will partly relieve the distressed pride of many Stanford friends, I ask that you give publicity of the contents of these two replies.

ERNEST CRUTCHER, M. D.

The following letters were inclosed with the above:

February 5, 1929.

Dr. Henry Crutcher,
321 West Third Street,
Los Angeles, Calif.
Dear Dr. Crutcher:

I have had no control over affairs in Stanford since 1916. I feel very much as you do in regard to the smoking of cigarettes by girls, though I think it is a comparatively small number who have insisted on removing the ban on smoking. Stanford University does not propose to dictate the conduct of students except where it tends to disgrace the institution itself. Nearly all of the women's colleges have now permitted smoking in certain rooms—much to my personal displeasure.

I venture to send your letter to President Wilbur, for I think he is not wholly out of sympathy with your point of view.

Very truly yours,
DAVID STARR JORDAN.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY
California
February 6, 1929.

Dr. David Starr Jordan,
Serra House,
Stanford University.
Dear Dr. Jordan:

I thank you for letting me see the letter of Dr. Crutcher. It may interest him to know that the clipping he sent misrepresented the stand of the women. The matter was cleared up at an assembly of the women at which the Associated Women Students again went on record as opposing smoking in public on the campus.

Sincerely yours,
MARY YOST,
Dean of Women.

WHERE CAN I LEARN

To Survey Land?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address: Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

George Washington started his great career as a surveyor, thereby supporting himself and his widowed mother. Fine men are still going into surveying for a livelihood, developing strong lungs and muscles in the out-of-doors, and learning to calculate nice mathematical differences.

Without cost of any kind, residents of Los Angeles may go to the Polytechnic Evening High School, 400 West Washington Boulevard, and receive instruction in surveying. No text is required, but excellent texts may be borrowed from the school library by simply depositing the cost of each book. This deposit is returned when the book is brought back.

The course is chiefly planned as an unfoldment for adults already in this field of work; but, for new students, a rapid review of algebra and geometry will be given. Though not the express aim of the course, students will receive the kinds of reviews which will prepare them for civil service examinations in these lines. The course lasts twenty weeks, and meets on Monday and Friday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Chainmen with some knowledge of surveying, are known to be starting to work at about $100 a month. Good rodmen and draftsmen get more. Work in the field is better done if the man knows how his field notes will be worked up in the office. Similarly, the draftsman in the office will work to better advantage if he knows how the field notes are taken. For this reason, the surveying course at Polytechnic is receiving excellent support from the city and county engineering officials, and from the drafting offices of the road and flood-control departments.

The instructor, Frederick R. York, has done surveying in Los Angeles county; and during the World War was engaged in building merchant marine vessels. He is of both an optimistic and practical temperament, and will give sound advice to those seeking to better their conditions.

Texas produces more spinach than any other State, last year sowing 28,800 acres of the succulent green, while California came along with 12,000 acres.

W. B. J.

According to government reports, the change in the habits of Americans has resulted in an increase of more than double in the demand for salads, in cafes and hotels where the survey was made, and a 39 per cent increase in fresh fruits.

W. B. J.

In a recent month the British Isles exported nearly 380,000 tons of iron and steel products.

WASHINGTON'S COUNSEL

The easiest thing we do, we Americans, is to noisily affirm our profound admiration for our illustrious forebears—and then proceed to disregard all the wise philosophy which these forebears bequeathed to us. A local clever contemporary columnist would perhaps put it this way:

"Americanism—calling an American statesman great, and refusing to listen to any of the wisdom which made him great."

We monumentalize Franklin for his frugality, and show our sincerity by the 101 per cent practice of prodigality. We apostrophize Lincoln's vision of a government by all the people, and 75 per cent of us refuse to participate to make that ideal a reality. We hang pretty draperies about Patrick Henry's "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and then adopt as our national anthem the care-free ballad entitled, "It Ain't Gonna Rain No More."

The colossal figure of George Washington dominates the birth scene of our national drama as the chaste and stately outlines of Mt. Vernon dominate the promontory on the Potomac. We are pausing today to lay our annual wreath: may we not halt long enough to listen for the space of one short paragraph, to the voice which led us into life? If what he said then be untrue now, then let us cut his monument to the ordinary headstone size. But if he were great, let not our monument to him be made a ghastly joke by our disregard for his greatness.

Religion and Morality

"Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of patriotism who should labor to subvert these great pillars of human happiness—these firmest props of the duties of men and citizens. Let it simply be asked: Where is the security of property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths which are the instruments of investigation in courts of justice? And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle.

Our Military Policy

"Had we formed a permanent army in the beginning, which by the continuance of the same men in service had been capable of discipline, we never should have had to retreat with a handful of men across the Delaware in 1776, trembling for the fate of America, which nothing but the infatuation of the enemy could have saved. We should not have remained all the succeeding winter at their mercy, with sometimes scarcely a sufficient body of men to mount the ordinary guards, liable at every moment to be dissipated if they had only thought proper to march against us; we should not have been under the necessity of fighting Brandywine with an unequal number of raw troops, and afterwards of seeing Philadelphia fall a prey to a victorious army; we should not have been at Valley Forge with less than half the force of the enemy, destitute of everything, in a situation neither to resist nor to retire; we should not have seen New York left with a handful of men, yet an overmatch for the main army of these States, while the principal part of their force was detached for the reduction of two of them; we should not have found ourselves this spring so weak as to be insulted by 5000 men, unable to protect our baggage and magazines, their security depending on a good countenance and a want of enterprise in the enemy; we should not have been, the greatest part of the war, inferior to the enemy, indebted for our safety to their inactivity, enduring frequently the mortification of seeing inviting opportunities to ruin them pass unimproved for want of a force which the country was completely able to afford, and of seeing the country ravaged, our towns burnt, the inhabitants plundered, abused, murdered, with impunity from the same cause."—Bulletin of Better American Federation of California.

THE BOUGAINVILLEA

The vines rest motionless
Against the wall,
For the sun,
That throughout the day
Emptied baskets of light
Upon them,
Has donned its cap of lace
And dreams
Behind the hill.

The blossoms are grown sedate
As frightened maidens,
The royal petals
Cling to my hand
Where I have placed it
Momentarily
Upon the window-sill;
They breathe a soft
"Goodnight,"
But in the morning—
Ah! then
They are saucy again.

Levee Sand Boils

The use of levees in attempting to avoid river floods is not always effective because of a peculiar trouble known as sand boils, explains J. N. Heiskell in an article in a recent issue of Liberty Magazine.

"When a river rises against a levee," points out the writer, "the pressure may force the water under it and make it boil up out of the ground behind the rampart. The counter-measure is to surround the gushing water with sandbags. The flow will cease when the water rises high enough in this well of sandbags to equalize the pressure from the river. The water may, however, be allowed to flow over the top of the well as long as it is clear. A muddy stream from a sand boil is a danger signal."

Seraphs' Owner Fightin' Mad Over Issue

BY BOB RAY

With the announcement yesterday by President Harry A. Williams that he has upheld the contention of Tom Turner, Portland owner, and Bill Klepper, Seattle boss, and ruled against the Los Angeles club's claim to admit ladies free every day and not pay visiting clubs, a bitter and costly court war loomed on the horizon for the Pacific Coast League.

HARRY WILLIAMS

William Wrigley, Jr., owner of the Angels, is fightin' mad over the efforts made by the rest of the league magnates to balk his "ladies'-free" policy at Wrigley Field and says he will fight it out with them through all of the courts in the United States. Wrigley believes he is within his constitutional rights as a league owner to regulate the number of free days for women at his park, and also he contends that Wrigley Field is his own personal property and that no one is going to dictate to him how he will run his real estate.

Going even further, the chewing-gum magnate stated hat he is sick and tired of the constant and petty quibbling among the league's politicians and that if they still interfere with his "ladies'-free" policy, he will junk the Angel franchise, close Wrigley Field and not even lease it to the circuit and let the Pacific Coast go t'ell.

While detectiing a possible weakness in this resolution in that it does not specify the section to be suspended, I am basing my decision on what seems to me obvious intent, while inclining to the belief that when the constitution was written this clause was inserted with the thought that it would be invoked only in unusual emergen-

Notre Dame Coach Says Fumble Regulation Will Open Up Game

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Bringing with him some choice new Scandinavian jokes, Knute K. Rockne, substantial citizen of South Bend, Ind., laughed his way into San Francisco today. He came directly from his labors in the recent football rules alteration meeting and is making this city his first port of call on a business tour which will take him the length of the Pacific Coast.

Winter Sport Card on Today at Big Pines

Before a record crowd expected at the Los Angeles county Big Pines Recreation Camp, preliminary events of the third annual winter sports carnival will be run off there today, starting at 10 o'clock this morning.

Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce officials, under whose auspices the event is being staged, were on the ground at Big Pine last night and reported everything in readiness for the affair. The ski jump is ready, and the toboggan slides are in better shape than ever before this season.

The first event scheduled is the professional ski jump trials to be run off on the ski "hill" near Jackson Lake. The afternoon will be given over to an open skating race, a fancy skating contest, and impromptu snow sports. The evening will witness an informal dance in the spacious recreation room of the Big Pines Camp.

Carnival visitors driving this morning to Big Pines will find both highways leading to the camp in excellent condition, according to F. E. Wadsworth, camp superintendent. One route from Los Angeles is through

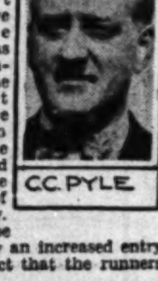
PYLE PLANS 1929 DERBY

Promoter Here to Arrange for Finish of Long Run in This City During Month of June

BY BRAVEN DYER

Charley Pyle, promoter of the 1928 transcontinental run from Los Angeles to New York and famous as the man who lured "Red" Grange into the lucrative realm of professional football, arrived in this city last night.

Although he admitted "taking one on the chin" to the extent of $100,000 last year, Pyle is confident that this season's bunion derby will be a financial success. "We were pioneering last year and we made some mistakes, as pioneers generally do," he stated last night. "But we are going to eliminate those errors and the first is the possibility of losing money. That will be taken care of by an increased entry fee, plus the fact that the runners will have to board and room themselves while en route across the country. Last year it cost me a mint of money to feed the athletes, something I won't be worried about this time."



C.C. PYLE

Pyle is here to complete negotiations for the finish of the race in this city. The start is to be in New York on March 31, which is Easter Sunday. Last year it was run from Los Angeles to Gotham and completed in eighty-four days with fifty-five out of 199 starters finishing.

Right now Los Angeles is not on the program as the official "finish" city, but Pyle wants to end his race in this city and hopes that plans will be worked out so that the runners will come to the end of the rainbow at the Coliseum on the 18th of June.

It's like this—Pyle demands a guarantee from every town

Heavyweights Tangle in Madison Square Garden Ring Tonight

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—While Jack Dempsey and William F. Partly because no one has yet been able to tag the sturdy Paulino with a knockout punch, the Basque stands out as a fairly logical choice to win on points. His clubbing blows, tossed from all angles as he wades

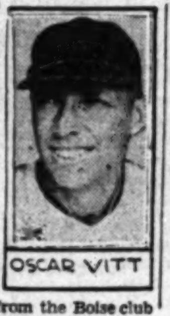
VITT SELECTS ROOKIES FOR PRACTICE GAME TODAY WITH NAVAL FLYERS; MALONEY STAR

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 21.—Infielders who will furnish the combination for the exhibition games of the Hollywood Stars against the Naval Air Station Saturday afternoon were tentatively selected today by Manager Oscar Vitt after the fourth day of spring training at Navy Field.



OSCAR VITT

Harry Green, with the Mission club most of last year, will probably be on first base; Mike Maloney, fine-looking prospect from the Boise club of the Utah-Idaho League, at second; Tony Bernardo, flashy shortstop from the same club, at the short field, with Dick Tallamante, San Diego boy, and Peter Panizzi, from the California State League, alternating at third base.

That will be the starting combination with a number of other youngsters to be given a chance to show their ability in the two contests. The regulars will probably not be used in the infield either day as Vitt wants to give the newcomers every chance to show their ability.

Maloney and Bernardo, in particular, have taken the eye of the club officials as well as the fans in infield practice. Maloney handles himself fine around the keystone sack and certainly gets the ball away fast. Bernardo is

CALIFORNIA IN INTERCLUB WIN

Culver City Women Capture Team Championship

Defeat Flintridge Golfers, 5 to 4, in Finals

Eastern Division Title Won by Fox Hills Club

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Women golfers of the California Country Club yesterday won the 1928-1929 interclub team match title of Southern California when they defeated Flintridge, 5 points to 4, in the final match of the season, played at California.

MISS KATHLEEN WRIGHT.

The match was one of the most brilliantly contested battles of the season, with both teams playing sparkling golf.

In the eastern division finals, played yesterday at Hacienda, Fox Hills scored only 3½ points out of a possible 12, but nevertheless won the championship. In the first match played last Thursday, Fox Hills won, 10 1-2 points to 1 1-2, which was too big a lead for Hacienda to cut down.

California golfers, who scored an 8-to-1 victory over Flintridge a week ago, found the competition stiffer yesterday and in two of the three matches came from behind to win.

The magnificent playing of Miss Kathleen Wright and Miss Margaret Cameron of Flintridge, who scored three of Flintridge's four points by defeating Mrs. Roy Green and Mrs. Richard Edwards of California, 3 and 2, featured the matches. The Flintridge aces were 3 up at the turn and played perfect golf throughout to win.

Miss Hazel Converse and Mrs. V. E. Nittinger evened the score by winning 3 points from Mrs. Kathleen Reynolds and Mrs. A. W. Maine of Flintridge, 3 and 2. Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Maine were 2 down at the turn.

Mrs. P. S. Noon, California captain, and Mrs. C. W. Fellows turned defeat into victory for California by taking 2 out of 3 points from Flintridge's team of Miss Esther Klinck and Miss Julia Lockwood. The California team lost 1 point at the turn, being 2 down, but came back to win the match on the seventeenth green.

FOX HILLS CAPTURES CHAMPIONSHIP

Fox Hills Country Club's team of women golfers today won the eastern division championship by scoring 3½ points at the Hacienda course in Whittier while the home team was registering 8½. By reason of winning, 10½ to 1½ points at Fox Hills the team from that club needed only 2 points today to insure victory. Fox Hills and Hacienda both won the title in their groups in the team match play and met in home and home matches to decide the championship of the western sector. Results of today's matches:

Mrs. L. B. Little and Mrs. Kenneth Carter of Hacienda, ½ point, Mrs. A. Lessell and Mrs. A. C. Raysor of Fox Hills 2½ points.

Mrs. G. W. Crook and Mrs. A. Rowe of Hacienda 3 points, Mrs. J. W. Montgomery and Mrs. C. E. Zinn of Fox Hills, 0.

Mrs. B. A. Edington and Mrs. Mark Fletcher of Hacienda 2 points, Mrs. Edwin Higgins and Mrs. J. H. Grohman of Fox Hills 1 point.

Mrs. R. S. Thompson and Mrs. G. Ellis of Hacienda 3 points, Mrs. J. O. Bassett and Mrs. A. G. Moore of Fox Hills 0.

WALKER, COLIMA FIGHT PLANNED

Olympic Seeks to Stage Bout at Wrigley Field

Junior Lightweight Champ May Come to Terms

BY PAUL LOWRY

Two championship matches were sizzling in the fistic pot yesterday with a strong likelihood that both may be signed for local consumption.

One is a Mickey Walker-Bert Colima battle for Walker's middleweight crown; the other an affair between Tod Morgan, the junior lightweight king, and Santiago Zorilla.

MICKEY WALKER

The Morgan-Zorilla match will be staged indoors next month if the Olympic management and Frank Churchill, manager of Morgan, come to terms.

The Walker-Colima contest is an outdoor battle—one expected to exceed all California records for gate receipts.

Morgan, who won his title from Mike Ballerino at the Olympic four years ago, will defend it at the same place if the management and Churchill can make $15,000 and $18,000 dovetail. Churchill is holding out for the latter figure.

MORGAN DUE

Morgan is due in the city today. He is recovering from an operation on his nose and one on his left hand. Churchill says he has been

Homer Sheridan Favored Over Eddie Gill in Hollywood Legion Feature Bout Tonigh

WINNER WILL MEET COLIMA

Rivals Battle for Chance at Coast Crown

Husky Sockers Expected to Furnish Thrills

Classy Supporting Card is Signed by Gallery

The result of the main event at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium tonight will tell who is going to fight Bert Colima for the Coast middleweight title next month. Homer Sheridan is favorite over Eddie Gill but the odds are close.

HOMER SHERIDAN

Homer Sheridan beat George Dixon, best middleweight in the Pacific Northwest, last week, and by eliminating him he brought the semifinals of the eliminations right down to the fight tonight at the stadium. There isn't an opponent to dispute the right of the winner of the Sheridan-Gill fight to meet Colima, and that makes that bout a natural.

Hollywood fight fans are attracted to the fight tonight because they look to see action and maybe a few knockdowns. The principals are sockers. Sheridan will prove in this fight whether or not his claim to a fight with Colima is warranted and will show how he stacks up against a fighter who can punch and is tough. Gill isn't a push-over by any means.

A previous meeting between Sheridan and Gill ended in a foul. The decision went to Gill, who appeared to have a slight lead. The closeness of the bout warranted the rematch.

A supporting card that should be full of action brings out some very good boys. Jackie Mandell rates number one among the bantamweights just shy of main-event class. He takes on a mighty good youngster in Red Humphries. Mandell's long string of victories over a period of a year makes him the favorite.

Middleweights will be seen in the special event and second four-rounder. Herman Brunden fights Chief Robbins, a newcomer, and Brunden looks like the best bet. Mark Judge and Jimmy Peterson are sluggers and this fight can go either way but Peterson may win because he is a youngster and looks pretty good. Chuck Havard fights Cruz Palicte in the curtain raiser. They are lightweights.

LEAGUE PREXY IN STATEMENT

cies or unforeseen situations of an urgent nature. However, this is only a conjecture.

Personal beliefs and convictions do not enter into my decision, which is based wholly on my interpretation of the constitution. Wednesday I had lunch at the Wrigley home in Catalina at the invitation of Mr. Wrigley, when I heard his side of the case fully. This is the first time I have seen or talked with him in almost a year. After this conversation I am convinced that he is wholly free from selfishness or self-interest in desiring to admit women free in Los Angeles, and that he is sincere in his belief that this is the surest way to build up baseball in Los Angeles to the ultimate benefit of the entire league.

I have known from the first that Mr. Wrigley did not build Wrigley Field with any thought of profit because anybody knows there is no profit to be had on a million and half dollar investment in minor league baseball. I want to go on record in giving him full credit for these fine motives so that nobody will attempt to say that the fact the Los Angeles club voted against me in the recent election in any way influenced my decision, although I hardly can conceive anybody making such a charge.

The Los Angeles club I thought made a very fair proposition when it offered to pay for ladies on "pool days" and not collect its share of ladies admissions from the home club on the road, and had hoped for some response to this from other clubs with an ultimate compromise. In the hope of this I have proceeded slowly because I believe that the Pacific Coast League, due to this controversy, may be on the verge of the longest, most wasting and most expensive fight in its history.

Mr. Wrigley told me that he is determined to admit women free at Wrigley Field every playing day during the 1929 season and will fight with every means at his command any attempt to prevent this. Therefore, unless an agreement can be reached acceptable to both sides, I see little hope of keeping the matter out of the courts in the event all baseball legislation fails. My judgment would be a compromise. Baseball fights are like war—even the winner loses.

Mr. Wrigley also informed me that if attempts are made to prevent free admissions at Wrigley Field this season he will close the park, which is his own private property, to all Coast League games in 1930, and that he will neither sell nor lease Wrigley Field to anyone in the Coast League. I understand he is willing to sell the franchise itself for $400,000. In order to break even on his investment, the ball team must show a profit of $126,000 each season, and he figures it would be less expensive to close Wrigley Field with its costly maintenance and play in a smaller wooden park elsewhere. He says that in building Wrigley Field he had hoped to do something worth while for the league, but is now weary of petty harassments. Where the Hollywood club would go in the event Wrigley Field is closed is a matter to be determined.

There are strong arguments on both sides of this controversy, and I hold no brief for either side and rendered my decision as the representative of eight clubs. Mr. Wrigley told me his idea was to give the ladies day proposition a fair and definite test this season which would have been done by the Los Angeles club admitting ladies free and the Hollywood club charging if it so desired. And in the event it did not confirm his conviction that it would help baseball he would drop the plan if other club owners are still unfavorable.

A test of this sort for one year perhaps would have hurt nobody, probably making a difference of only a few thousand dollars either way, and would have avoided what I fear may prove to be a devastating fight.

Personally, I always have believed in allowing each home club a measurable degree of self-determination as I feel that it is best qualified to judge of conditions in its own city and meet them. Since becoming president of the Coast League I have sought to direct it in such a way as to make it an attractive investment for men of means and in that way attract fresh capital into the circuit from time to time, and such men as the Shibes and Turners of Philadelphia and Herbert Fleishhacker of San Francisco have interested themselves financially in the past four years. Nobody will deny that they are an asset to the Coast League. But such additions cannot continue if we are to have eternal conflict and no compromise in the councils of the circuit. Unless there is an adjustment in this matter, or I misread the signs, I can only feel that the Coast League is confronted with the greatest crisis in its history.

RABBIT PUNCHES
By PAUL LOWRY

A NASTY FIGHT

It LOOKS like a fight.

It will be a fight.

And it's likely to last until the hot spot freezes over unless Bill Wrigley has his way.

President Harry Williams's ruling in favor of the Coast League moguls who are opposed to Wrigley's pet lady-free scheme will result in nothing but bitter warfare.

And as Williams himself admits in his lengthy statement, the Coast League stands on the brink of "its greatest crisis."

Wrigley has given this city a million-and-a-half-dollar ball plant. He believes he has the right to do what he wants to with it.

He wants to admit ladies free every day of the week instead of on stipulated days as laid down in the league constitution.

He doesn't care what the other club owners do—they can double charge the ladies—but Bill Wrigley has his head set on giving his scheme a thorough tryout.

And I suspect that if some of the other league moguls don't track with him a bit on the proposition it's going to be a losing proposition for the league.

Bill's money bags will likely wreck the works if he insists on carrying the matter to the highest courts in the land—and no good can come out of it, one way or the other.

UP OR DOWN?

TOMMY LOUGHRAN intimated recently that Paulino Uzcudun is on the slide because of the body punching he took at the hands of George Godfrey here a year ago.

However, that is a matter which is subject to debate, and perhaps some answer will be found in tonight's battle at Madison Square Garden between the Basque and the hard-hitting rubber worker from Akron—K. O. Christner.

Upside Down never was much of a blocker with arms and gloves. He generally took 'em on his hairy chest, or on the head, or in the bread basket.

But he can't afford to block K. O.'s punches with his head. Christner stowed away Knute Hansen, the doleful Dane, with a punch, and gave Jack Sharkey quite a battle in New York recently.

If Uzcudun wins handily tonight he has promised Promoter Jack Doyle to come West for an engagement late in March or early in April, so the Olympic big gun will be watching the results with interest.

A TITLE BOUT

TOD MORGAN has never been a hot drawing card in this city, where he won the junior lightweight championship from Mike Ballerino.

But he has put big crowds into Madison Square Garden time after time. He has fought his best fights away from home, and fans of this city really never have seen him at his best.

One of the greatest fights I ever saw him wage was in Chicago just before the second Tunney-Dempsey bout. It was a slashing affair with Stanislaus Loayza when the Chilean was at his best. Loayza won on a foul in the ninth, although it took the judges five minutes to decide whether the blow was low or fair.

However, Morgan in defense of his title against the Panamanian, Santiago Zorilla, should be at his best. A fighter has to be when tossed into the ring with the kinky-haired San Blas Indian.

Doyle has this bout under consideration, and after the terms are settled to everybody's satisfaction it will go on some time next month.

THAT NEW GRID RULE

"SAY, the next thing they do will be to run a play over when somebody pulls a 'boner.'"

That's the comment of Charles Wesley Keppen, the silver-tongued announcer, on the latest edict of the football rules committee legislating against runs from fumbles by a defensive team.

Keppen's attitude is that of a lot of smart followers of football—in line with Walter Eckersall's blast that the new rule places a premium on sloppy handling of the ball.

WRIGLEY PLANS TO CLOSE PARK

Coast League and I didn't mince words in telling him of my attitude," Mr. Wrigley said. "I am perfectly willing to go along with the league in the enforcement of rules covering Los Angeles ball players but neither the Coast League nor any other organization is going to dictate to me about the handling of my real estate.

"The fight being waged on my practice of making every day ladies' day is an effort to handle my personal realty for me and is resented on that ground. They've been playing ball for forty years on the Coast and nothing ever has been done to improve the attendance. I saw one game in the Coast League last year and it was a bum game, although typical of the standard of the league. I'm at the point of junking the team and ending this bickering."

NOT GOOD FORM

Mr. Wrigley then followed with his plan for invitational spring training in the Los Angeles park. While considered a Cub farm the Angels never have stacked with Reading in productivity.

President Heydler of the National League would have seen his ten-man idea surpassed in a great big way had he been present to see the game between the Hartnetts and the Malones.

Each team had ten men, including four outfielders and each side was allowed six outs, with the stipulation that the bases were to be cleared after the third out.

Mike Cvengros of the Malones made the first extra base hit of the year, a triple, and Gabby Hartnett made the first 1929 run with a homer in the third inning. The Malones won 5 to 3.

in with his chin tucked low, carry few knockout possibilities, but they constitute a style of attack that piles up points while forcing an opponent to keep on the defensive.

In experience the rugged Spaniard has a decided edge, another reason why his chances are regarded more highly than those of Christner, 33-year-old rubber worker, whose ring career started only about a year ago.

Christner's chances for victory apparently depend upon an indomitable fighting heart demonstrated impressively in his losing fight with Jack Sharkey and upon the man-sized punch which laid Knute Hansen low and started the Akronite upon the big-time trail. Christner also is of rugged mold, a worthy foe for the durable Basque.

another sweet fielder, coming up with the ball on many seemingly impossible chances. Tallamante and Fanizzi are both showing well at third.

Russell Rollings, third baseman for the Fort Worth club of the Texas League last year, will be tried out at second base this season, Vitt announced yesterday. The Stars have quite a hole in that spot with Johnny Kerr, regular of last season, in a White Sox uniform this season. Rollings is fast, hits well and is a good fielder. So he will be shifted one bag over for a trial.

Two more players hit camp yesterday, Walter Kinney, southpaw pitcher, and Joe Bonowitz, outfielder purchased from Fort Worth. Kinney is the man who will have most of the southpaw pitching burden this season. He won seventeen games and lost eight for Hollywood last year and looks to have another fine season. Kinney just returned from a hunting trip in Mexico.

Bonowitz batted .334 and fielded .979 with Fort Worth last year and is looked upon to strengthen the outfield.

WALLGREN IS WINNER OF BILLIARD CROWN

M. C. Wallgren of Everett, Wash., won the Pacific Coast amateur billiard championship and the right to enter the national amateur billiard tourney at St. Louis next month by defeating Joe Chamaca, Los Angeles, in the final block of their match at Stevens's Billiard Parlors. Wallgren won the three nights' play by a score of 900 to 741. The match required ninety-five innings, Wallgren's high run being ninety-six and Chamaca's sixty-three.

WILLIAMS RULES AGAINST ANGELS

Wrigley Threatens to Junk Los Angeles Franchise

Local Park May be Shut Up by Owner of Seraphs

owners think that he's just bluffing they're liable to have a grand and uproarious surprise in store for them during the year of our Lord, 1930.

Wrigley intends to go through with the 1929 season admitting women in free every day to Angel games at Wrigley Field, but he does not plan to pay visiting clubs their pro rata for the ladies. The Angel owner figures that he made the other clubs a fair proposition in not claiming his pro rata for ladies' admissions at their parks when the Los Angeles club is visiting. If the visiting clubs insist on having their cut for the ladies'-free admissions at the local park, Wrigley says they can try and get it. That will mean lawsuits and a lot of expense. Wrigley has $125,000,000 to fight the rest of the clubs with and he'll use all of it if necessary to win his point. That's the kind of a guy Wrigley is when he gets riled up.

My personal opinion is that the rest of the Coast League owners better forget about the ladies'-free war and try and get along with Wrigley. He's not trying to gyp anybody, and will prove a big help to the rest of the league just as soon as the other owners try and work with him.

Wrigley believes that his plan of admitting ladies free to all games at Wrigley Field is beneficial to building up baseball in Los Angeles, and that it will in the end mean more money in the pockets of the visiting club owners. A perusal of Wrigley's past in the business world shows that he generally was right in his ideas when everybody else thought he was wrong. He has the faculty of seeing around the corner instead of just as far as the end of his nose.

BETTER BE CAREFUL

I don't know what will be the next step of the league owners who have opposed Wrigley, but they'd better do a lot of careful studying before they act. Right now the league is sitting on a can of dynamite labeled "Wrigley," and it's liable to go off with a disastrous bang unless some kind of an agreement is reached.

When interviewed over the phone last night Tom Turner announced that he had brought up the fight only for the best interests of the league, which he believed was being abused by Wrigley's action. Bill Klepper stated that he was sorry about the whole mess and hoped that the league could get down to baseball and forget politics, which is a typical Klepper statement.

It is quite possible that a special meeting will be called in the near future in an effort to straighten out the squabble that threatens to put the Coast League on the rocks.

ROCKNE LIKES GRID CHANGES

effect, Rockne said it is his belief that football is due for its most thrilling season next fall.

"The fumble rule, the one about the ball being dead on point of recovery by the defending team, will do wonders for the game," the noted mentor o' Notre Dame's fighting Irish, declared. "It will make possible daring developments in offensive methods and will beyond doubt open up the game.

"With the heavy penalty of fumbles hanging over their heads, coaches have been wary about using trick plays. The new rule banishes this fear and makes practicable the use of deceptive reverses and other plays which call for expert handling of the ball by backfield men. Its greatest benefit, however, will probably be reaped by the lateral pass. The boys will go lateral-pass crazy next year—wait and see."

Rockne characterized the other changes in the grid code as beneficial to the sport and said that most coaches thought as he did about the revised fumble rule.

He was careful about the prospects of his own team for the 1929 campaign, but let it be known that his center probably will be Abie Schloss and his quarterback Izzy Schwartz, freshman products.

Franklin Beats Glendale Team

Coach Tony Spangler's Franklin track and field outfit surprised Normal Hayhurst's Glendale Dynamiters yesterday and slipped over a 53-51 win. Due to the sogginess of the Panthers' track, times and distances in most instances, were poor. Merrill, Glendale's newest sprint sensation, won both dashes, the century in 10 2-5s. and the 220 in 23 1-10s.

100-yard dash—Won by Merrill (G.) Sales (F.) second, Jobe (F.) third. Time, 10 2-5s.

220-yard dash—Won by Merrill (G.) Sayles (F.) second, Lewis (G.) third. Time, 23 1-10s.

440-yard dash—Won by La Due (F.) Snesana (F.) second, Haldt (F.) third. Time, 55s.

880-yard run—Won by Pruett (F.) Allen (G.) second, Rork (F.) third. Time, 2m. 12s.

Mile run—Won by Klein (G.) Harper (F.) second, Kurre (G.) third. Time, 5m. 5s.

70-yard high hurdles—Won by Moody (G.) McGue (F.) second, Davis (F.) third. Time, 9 1-10s.

120-yard low hurdles—Won by Sloan (G.) Slocum (G.) second, McGue (F.) third. Time, 13s.

Relay—Won by Glendale. Time, 3m. 12s.

Chicago Has Gun Welcome for Visitor

CHICAGO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Jim Mullen, boxing promoter, had occasion to go to a railroad station today to greet a friend from New York.

He shouldered a double-barreled shotgun and strode to the train shed.

"I wanted to give the guy a typical Chicago welcome," Mullen explained.

BALL
CRUICKSHANK GO PLAYS A PITCH

BY SOL METZGER

Although there are no motion pictures extant that show George Washington cutting down the fabled cherry tree, one may be certain that if there were the then youthful Father of His Country would be swinging from inside the line on each chop. Eddie Loos, a great golf teacher, compares the golf swing to that one makes with an axe. Unfortunately, for this idea, the prevalence of oil burners, white coal and the other kind makes too many of us unfamiliar with chopping wood, so the comparison means little.

Just the same, if you will watch "Wee Bobbie" of the clan of Cruickshank, who is a grand little golfer, play a pitch shot from his open stance you'll find he will be taking the club back as Washington must have done to chop down the cherry tree, that is, inside the line.

It isn't such an easy thing to do, this taking of a club back inside the line that you may later swing it into the ball along the same arc, unless one use the straight left arm to take it back. Then it has to go that way. Golf, by the way, is mostly a left-arm game, so if you stick to such a fundamental as that you'll be in a better way to properly guide your club, and your faults, though they be many, will rest elsewhere. Tomorrow—let us look into the grip and stance for a pitch.

Why continue to slice when the fault can be absolutely cured by following a few simple instructions? Write Sol Metzger, care of The Times, and request his illustrated leaflet on "Slicing." In writing inclose stamped, addressed envelope.

JIM LONDOS WINS OVER TOOTS MONDT

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 21. (AP)—Jimmy Londos, heralded his return home from a trip to Europe by decisively defeating Joe "Toots" Mondt, of Denver, in the finale of a wrestling card at the Coliseum here tonight. Mondt was carried only partly conscious, from the mat after an hour and seven minutes. Londos had dumped the westerner onto the concrete floor early in the bout and then used three flying mares successively to finally subdue Mondt.

Jim McMillan, 212, former University of Illinois matman, pinned Jack McCarthy, 210, of Montana, in 7:45 with a flying tackle.

JOE STECHER BESTED BY JOE MALCEWICZ

BOSTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Joe Malcewicz of Utica, N. Y., won the right to meet Gus Sonnenberg, world's wrestling champion, when he defeated Joe Stecher, former champion, here tonight in two out of three falls.

Three of the preliminary matches ended in draws. Joe Maloney of Boston and Ivan Michaeloff, Michael Nazarian and Freddie Meyers of Chicago, and Henri Deglane of France and Charley Hanson of Sweden were the pairs who concluded their bouts without decisions.

UNION OILERS WIN OVER CLAN SCOT

The Union Oil sextet scored a 4-to-1 victory over the Clan Scot ice hockey team at the Palais De Glace last night. By their victory the Oilers increased their lead in the league.

Clamen, Union Oil goalie, played a star game, while Henry with two goals, led the scoring. Simington and Wells also tallied for the winners, while Miller scored for the losers.

PARAMOUNT FIVE TO TAKE ON M.-G.-M. TEAM

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's crack basketball team made a bid last night for championship of the inter-studio league, when it defeated the Chaplin studio team by a score of 33 to 20 in a fast game played at the Hollywood Athletic Club.

MEYERS SIGNS FOR BOUT

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Pete Meyers, 150-pound youngster whose punching ability has placed him in the front ranks of ringsters in this section, has been signed to meet Eddie Roberts, Tacoma veteran, in a ten-round match here March 1.

MIDWICK POLO SQUADS CLASH

Purple and White Horsemen Tangle Today

Boeseke and Miller to Lead Rival Players

Roark, Forrester, Walford in Mallet Tilt

BY FRANK ROCHE

The third high goal game on the Midwick Country Clubs midwinter program today will feature two squads wearing local club's colors. The Purples, captained by Long-Legged Elmer Boeseke, will tangle with a White four led by Teddy Miller. On Miller's squad will be those two English Army stars, Capts. Forrester and Walford, who will ride at Nos. 2 and 3, respectively. Miller will hold down the No. 1 position and Howland Paddock the back or goal-tending job.

HAL ROACH

On the Purple team will be C. B. Wrightsman at No. 1, Hal Roach at No. 2, Boeseke at No. 3 and Aiden Roark at back. With the exception of Roark, the Purple squad is composed of regular Midwick players. Roark is to ride with Tommy Hitchcock's team Sunday. He is one of the most promising players that played here this season. Roark is a brother of the famous Irish star, Pat Roark.

The game should produce some very pulse-tickling polo as the riders involved today all have a reputation for daring horsemanship.

However fast the game is today it will only serve as an appetizer for what is coming to local polo fans Sunday. On that day the great Tommy Hitchcock returns here for a rematch game with a Midwick four captained by Winston Guest, the second best player in the world.

Hitchcock will lead his Rancho San Carlos riders again in Sunday's contest. The team will be revamped a bit for the tilt.

On the San Carlos team will be Capt. Forrester, Hitchcock, Averill Harriman and Aiden Roark.

Midwick will have a great team in the field, in fact, one of the highest rating teams that ever represented the Purple Club will face the Rancho riders. On the team will be Stephen Sanford, 7 goals, Elmer Boeseke, 7 goals, Eric Pedley 8 goals and Winston Guest 9 goals. This team rates at thirty-one goals Hitchcock's four will rate at twenty-nine goals.

STROUD RULED OFF SAGEHEN QUINTET

CLAREMONT, Feb. 21. (Exclusive) Due to a recently installed eligibility ruling, Steve Stroud, diminutive Pomona College basketball star, was today forced to give up his athletic activities and will not be eligible for the Pomona-Redlands game Saturday night. The new college ordinance requires that grade-slips be turned in on all competing athletes from week to week and Stroud happened to slip below the line for this week. Which is an unusually tough break for Saturday's game with Redlands is the last one on Pomona's schedule so Stroud's basketball career for the year is over.

TROJANS, BRUINS TO ME

Rival Teams Wind Up Basket Schedule T in Olympic Auditorium

Determined to close their 1929 basketball season with a [illegible] University of Southern California squad has just finished a [illegible] strenuous training and today is resting in preparation for the [illegible] of the U.C.L.A. series and of the season tomorrow night at the [illegible] Auditorium.

Already the Trojans have won the "city championship" by trimming the Bruins in their first two meetings. This week's contest, although it will have no effect upon the standings of the teams in the conference or upon their series, will nevertheless be as furious as any cage battle of the year as the Trojans will be fighting to whitewash the Bruins completely while the U.C.L.A. boys will be striving to win their first conference game.

LLOYD THOMAS

Promoter Jack Doyle last night sent his matchmaker, Hayden Wadhams, north with instructions to sign Walker for a defense of his middleweight championship at the hands of Colima.

If negotiations are successful Doyle will stage the match in the ball park the latter part of April. Although he refused to divulge terms of the offer to be made the champion, Doyle said he believed the bout would exceed all previous California records in drawing capacity, even including the Godfrey-Uzcudun bout of last year, which produced a gate of $125,000.

Wadhams left on the Padre last night, and will see the fight in the San Francisco ball park between Walker and Cowboy Willis this afternoon. The pair met last year, and Walker was a comfortable winner, although Willis is always dangerous because of his pile-driving right.

Doyle hopes to capitalize on the ultimatum delivered Walker by the National Boxing Association that he must defend his title soon or be relieved of the crown.

Walker and Colima fought here four years ago, but Walker was then welterweight champion, and forced Colima to come in at a weakening weight.

COLIMA IS READY

Colima, always a natural middleweight, is better now, in the opinion of smart boxing men, than at any period of his ten-year sojourn in the ring.

If anything, he has improved, while Walker, on the other hand, is not the fighter as a middleweight that he was as a welterweight. He still has the great heart of a wonderful fighter, but his power and stamina have waned.

Under the terms of the ultimatum outlined by the National Boxing Association Walker was given sixty days to sign for a championship match.

This period of grace runs until March 27. It was further stipulated by the N.B.A. and Chairman Paul Prehn of the Illinois Boxing Association that in order to fight Tommy [illegible] ran in Chicago, Walker [illegible] have to agree to a [illegible] his middleweight [illegible] $25,000 to show his good [illegible]

However, the proposed [illegible] fight, which is still [illegible] mythical, would [illegible] way of a Walker-Colima championship match here.

By staging it in the ball park in April the battle would not interfere with the [illegible] bout in Chicago, which is tentatively set for March 11.

rojan Athletes to Get First Real Test in Annual A.A.U. Relays in Coliseum Tomorrow

RUNNERS WILL APPEAR

[illegible] to be Answered [illegible] Performances

[illegible] of Team Certain to be Uncovered

[illegible] Likely to Get [illegible] Attention

BY RALPH HUSTON

[illegible] question marks [illegible] as well as did the re[illegible] point of the [illegible] variety. The University of Southern California can look forward to enjoying a successful track-and-field season. For upon the answers to the various question marks sailing around Bovard Field these days depend the success or failure of Coach Cromwell's athletes.

[illegible]

[illegible] COME BACK?

[illegible]

[illegible] ONLY VETERAN

[illegible]

[illegible] QUESTIONS

[illegible] throw the javelin 190ft., as he did in practice last year?

And more others than Coach Cromwell likes to think about.

The Trojan team is strictly a puzzle. If all the "ifs" can be answered in the affirmative, the Trojans will not have to fear Stanford, or anybody else this year.

A lot of these questions will be answered tomorrow at the annual A.A.U. relays in the Coliseum. Most of the Trojan athletes will perform in the various events on the program, and on the showings made, Cromwell will be more or less able to anticipate what they will do when the dual meet season gets under way.

In addition to the various relay events the field performances are going to attract a lot of interest. What with two Olympic champions performing in the shot and discus, the javelin affair boasting four men who can better 200 feet, a flock of high-class pole vaulters, high-jumpers and broad-jumpers, this usually overlooked part of the meet is likely to become the main attraction.

Zuppke Will Teach School at San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Robert Zuppke, football coach of Illinois University, the man who developed "Red" Grange, will conduct a football coaching school in connection with the summer session of San Diego State College, July 1 to 12, here. Arrangements for the school were completed by the institution today.

Zuppke will give the football ocurse with Boyd Comstock, formerly of Yale and now of Los Angeles, handling the track and field work, and Leo Calland, U.S.C., basketball. The school will be conducted from July 1 to 12.

Pomona Track Team Defeats Pasadena J.C.

CLAREMONT, Feb. 21. (Exclusive) Outscored badly on the track, but with a heavy preponderance of strength in the field, a combination Pomona College track team, composed of varsity reserves and novice athletes defeated Pasadena Junior College 70 to 56 here this afternoon. Coach Bob Strehle used the men not entered in the A.A.U. relay games to battle the Pasadenans.

Jeddy Welch, Pasadena sprint and hurdles ace, turned in the one good time of the day. He clicked off a century in a time announced as ten seconds, but which two of the watches caught at 9.9s. Pomona managed to pick up most of the points in the field to offset Pasadena's strength on the track. The summary:

TRACK EVENTS

100-yard dash—Won by Welch (J.C.) Treharne (J.C.) second, Grey (P.) third. Time, 10s.

220-yard dash—Won by Treharne (J.C.) Rector (P.) second, Osborne (P.) third. Time, 22.2s.

Archery Meet on Tomorrow

Bow and arrow enthusiasts from all over the Southland will gather Saturday and Sunday at Terminal Island Playground, San Pedro, when the first municipal archery tournament of Los Angeles is held there under the auspices of the Playground and Recreation Department.

This meet, heralded as the first in a series of archery tournaments to be staged by the Playground Department in its program of developing archery as a municipal sport, will bring together the best shooters of Los Angeles. First and second place winners in each event of this tournament will become eligible to compete in an all-city archery tournament scheduled to take place in May.

In response to a growing interest in archery in Los Angeles, the Playground Department is organizing a municipal archery association whose purpose it will be to develop archery as an amateur sport and to promote the active interest of archers and the general public in its development.

PREP CINDER STARS TO RUN

Four Practice Meets on Tap in City Leagues

Manual Arts Faces Fremont in Feature Clash

Jefferson Engages Lincoln on Democrat Field

Four practice meets are scheduled for this afternoon in city track-and-field circles. Heading the list is the Manual Arts-Fremont affair. Coach Fox's Toilers are considered to have the best dual team in the city, and are favorites to beat the Pathfinders. However, the Toilers are strong in the same events as the Pathfinders, so close competition is expected.

The other meets on tap will find Lincoln at Belmont and Bud Nash's Roosevelt Rough Riders making the trip out to Garfield.

These two affairs are practically toss-ups, with Belmont given a slight edge over Lincoln and Garfield expected to nose out Roosevelt.

The sprints and the mile race in the Fremont-Manual meet are drawing quite a lot of interest. Manual has three good dash men in "Bones" Houston, Laury Osborn and Warriner. This trio will finish one, two, three in quite a lot of meets this year, but this afternoon Carl Glasgow, speedy Pathfinder, may nose through for one first place at least.

In the mile Jimmy Laurence will have to extend himself to win for the first time this year when he goes up against Boyd Seright, Fremont captain and winner of the Southern California cross-country run.

Ralph Collier, flashy Fremont half-miler, is a heavy favorite to beat Stewart of Manual in the 880. Collier has been clocked in 2m. 2s. already this season.

Bruin Frosh Hand Defeat to Inglewood

Coach Guy Harris's freshman track team of the University of California at Los Angeles yesterday tested its fledgling wings in its first track meet this season against the Inglewood High School tracksters, and showed its heels to the preps to the tune of 78 to 35. Johnny Talbot, captain of the U.C.L.A. pea-green tracksters, was the outstanding performer, winning first places in both the century dash and in the 440-yard dash. In the 100-yard dash, he equaled the mark of 10 1-5s. made by Carl Brown, Bruin varsity runner, against Compton Junior College last Saturday, and in the 440 event, the frosh leader cut one and two-fifths seconds from the time made by Cutler, varsity man, against the Jaysees last Saturday. Talbot's time yesterday in the quarter-mile was 53 2-5s.

Summary of events:

100-yard dash—Won by Talbot (U.C.) C. Smith (U.C.) second, Maguire (I.) third. Time, 10 1-5s.

220-yard dash—Won by C. Smith (U.C.) Lockett (U.C.) second, Maguire (I.) third. Time, 23 2-5s.

440-yard dash—Won by Talbot (U.C.) Dunham (I.) second, M. Smith (U.C.) and Braeger (I.) tied for third. Time, 53 2-5s.

880-yard run—Won by M. Smith (U.C.) Plumer (U.C.) second, Host (I.) third. Time, 2m. 6 1-5s.

Mile run—Won by Livingstone (I.) Boylam (U.C.) second, Plumer (U.C.) third. Time, 4m. 43 3-5s.

120-yard high hurdles—Won by Kelly (U.C.) Eisner (U.C.) second, Flint (U.C.) third. Time, 18 2-5s.

220-yard low hurdles—Won by Foster (I.) Woodward (I.) second, MacDonald (U.C.) third. Time, 27 3-5s.

Shot put—Won by Wershow (U.C.) MacMillan (U.C.) second, Siernad (I.) third. Distance, 44ft. 6½in.

Discus throw—Won by MacMillan (U.C.) Siernad (I.) second, Jolley (U.C.) third. Distance, 109ft. 5in.

High jump—Won by Holzman (U.C.) Heinrich (U.C.) second, Kelly (U.C.) and Ogden (U.C.) tied for third. Height, 5ft. 4in.

Broad jump—Won by Knight (U.C.) Heinrich (U.C.) second, Kenyon (I.) third. Distance, 20ft. 2⅛in.

Pole vault—Won by Casey (I.) Kelly (U.C.) second, Ramsey (I.) and Starr (U.C.) tied for third. Height, 10ft. 6in.

Hollywooders Meet Flyers

The crack basketball team from the army aviation center, March Field, at Riverside, meets the Hollywood A.C. at the Movie City blub tonight in what promises to be one of the best games of the local season. The visitors, boasting an array of former cillege stars, appear capable of giving the Circle H. tea a lusty battle.

Hollywood at present is holding down second place in the A.A.U league, and is in top form for the battle. Headed by Chuck Kearney the Movie City team is enjoying a great season and is threatening to overtake the league-leading L.A.A.C. quintet.

The aviators will fly here in a squadron of twenty-five planes, and will stunt over the city before landing for the contest.

LOUDA, SOVA MIX ON MAIN-STREET CARD

Martin Louda and Johnny Sova, two heavyweights who have just emerged from the amateur ranks, are expected to furnish as much excitement at the Main-street Athletic Club tomorrow night as the double main event. Louda, who weighs 210, will have a twenty-pound weight advantage.

The headliners tomorrow night are Sammy Aguirre and Johnny Blair, welterweights, and Kyzure Kimoura and Rib Frazier, 125-pounders.

ARNE BORG SHATTERS WORLD'S SWIM MARK

BRISBANE (Australia) Feb. 21. (AP)—Arne Borg, the Swedish swimming star, broke his own world's record for 1000 yards today, negotiating the distance in 11m. 55 2-5s. His time, clocked over the fifty-meter course in the municipal baths, clipped 21 2-5s. from his former record, made in 1924.

ERNIE JOHNSON

SAN CLEMENTE, Feb. 21.—The February sun may be shining brightly on the Indians' baseball camp here but the dark clouds are starting to gather for the score of rookies that has been gathered in during the last week. Ernie Johnson, skipper of the tribe, announced today that about a half dozen youngsters would be lopped off the Indian board and room following the three games scheduled for the coming week end. One game will be played Saturday against the San Clemente town team, and two on Sunday against the Hollywood Stars. The club will be split for the games, one of which will be played here and the other at San Diego, where H. William Lane's athletes are conditioning.

Boss Johnson will have a chance to see four of his rookies in action against him, for Jim Ault, Louis Almada, "Buzz" Fox and "Bud" Fenwick will play for San Clemente. Ault will do the pitching, Fox the catching, Fenwick will play shortstop and Almada will cavort in center field. The latter is a real ball player. Ault has yet to prove his ability. He pitched a no-hit game here a couple of weeks ago against a rival semipro team but will probably find it tougher to fool the Indians Saturday.

Johnson plans to use his pony infield in the Saturday game, and in one of the Sunday contests, too, it has been working excellently during workouts this week. Harry Taylor, the young left-hander from the Mississippi Valley League, will work on first base, Joe Chamberlain is on second, "Chick" Ellsworth on short and Fred Muller on third.

The outfield will probably be composed of rookies, for the veterans are not yet ready for action. Larry Gillick, a no-hit pitcher from Sacramento, will start on the mound against San Clemente. He is a big fellow with plenty of smoke, and is in better physical condition than any of his team-mates. Frank Cox and Bill Steinecke will probably divide the catching.

NINE SIGNED BEAVERS IN FIRST OFFICIAL WORK

SANTA ANA, Feb. 21.—Nine contract Portland Beavers indulged in the first official workout of the club's spring training camp campaign at the Orange County Fairgrounds today. Six pitchers, two catchers and one outfielder were in the group which followed Manager Bill Rodgers to the boulevard diamond and put in more than two hours of exercise.

It was not a severe practice. The players, even the enthusiastic recruits, realize there is still more than a month to go before the regular season arrived and they will not begin to "bear down" for a few days yet.

Jack Knight, who turned in, among other well-pitched contests, a no-run, no-hit performance last term, signed his contract and reported today along with Fred Ortman, the youthful veteran, who once was a schoolboy sensation in Portland, and Bob Shanklin, another willowy left-handed heaver, who enjoyed a very agreeable semester with Wichita in the Western League in 1928. Shanklin comes to the Beavers highly recommended as of Class AA caliber by Art Griggs, the old Coast Leaguer, who ought to know baseball talent.

Bob Volkman, a rookie catcher from San Francisco, also checked in at St. Ann's Inn, which was reached yesterday by Recruits John Beck, Ray Rake and Bill Brauer, pitchers; John Saunders, catcher, and Charley Bates, regular outfielder.

DICK MOUDY, SEAL HURLER, HURT; TO REPORT LATE

MONTEREY, Feb. 21. (AP)—The prolonged absence of Dick Moudy, right-hand pitcher, was explained today when Manager Nick Williams of the San Francisco Seals received word that he had been injured. While working on the docks at San Pedro, Moudy fractured his left foot and also received a leg wound, the latter becoming infected and necessitating his entering a hospital. He will not be able to report at training camp until March 4.

F. Wentworth, a forest ranger from Corte Madera, and Charley Garcia, rookie from Salinas, arrived today. Wentworth is a catcher and Garcia plays first base.

The practice game today was won by Coltrin's Colts, 8-6, Pancherian putting his team in front in the eighth inning by homing over the left-field fence. It scored a runner ahead. Stanley Schino, playing on Nick Williams's squad, also hit a four-bagger over the same fence.

ED LAUTENBACHER LOOMS AS CUB MOUND FIND

AVALON (Catalina Island) Feb 21. (AP)—Eddie Lautenbacher, big right-hander from the Reading (Pa.) club, has intrenched himself in the limelight of the Chicago Cubs' spring training.

He stands a mere 6 feet 3 inches in height, and weighs close to 200 pounds, this pitching youngster. He shows a free and easy delivery and every other indication of becoming a regular member of Pilot Joe McCarthy's pitching corps. With the Reading club he won ten games and lost five.

Others have taken the eye of McCarthy. Berlyn Horne, a purchase from Jersey City, has a fast ball with plenty on it. Mike Cvengros, the former big-leaguer, continues to better his form each day, and no doubt McCarthy is counting upon him to fill the vacancy left by Percy Jones, who went to Boston in the Hornsby deal.

Batting practice and base running as well as short periods on the mound have been the interesting features of the Cubs' training so far. Manager McCarthy has varied these workouts in order that he may have his men in good form to take on the second squad when it arrives next week.

KILLEFER WORKS MISSION BATTERYMEN HARD

STOCKTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—There were no new arrivals to disturb the lull in the news from the Mission Bells training camp here today, which went into its fourth day with perfect weather conditions.

The pitchers and catchers are getting the heavy duty these days, with Manager Wade Killefer making them work for extended periods while the batters take their turn at the plate. Each pitcher takes his turn on the mound until the rookies have had about two hours of hitting. A half hour of snappy infielding for rookies follows.

Howard Blethen is making a show on first base where he glides around like a veteran. Killefer has a pair of peppy young catchers in Sypher and McIsaacs, who are vying with each other for the honor of making the most chatter.

OAKS TAKE HOT WORKOUT AT BAKERSFIELD

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 21. (AP)—Oakland's hit-and-run artists went through their paces again today under a sizzling sun. Most of the thirty-odd players already in camp are batterymen. Manager Ivan Howard is working the crowd slowly for a couple of days after which the real labor begins.

POWERS WINS IN TOURNEY

L.A.A.C. Handball Star Cops Match in Play for National Championship

Joe Powers, Los Angeles Athletic Club handball player, advanced another step in his quest for the junior national championship yesterday by defeating William Cohen, San Diego Rowing Club, in the L.A.A.C. courts.

Powers won in straight sets by scores of 21-4, 21-8, reaching the semifinals are a result of his victory. The Mercury star had Cohen at his mercy throughout the match, but it was apparent that the San Diego player was not accustomed to playing on a large court.

Powers will now meet the winner of the Lloyd McGinnis—J. C. Burke match for the right to enter the tourney finals. The L.A.A.C. star is favored to capture his next match and gallery fans believe he will face Fred Olney, another Mercury entry, in the finals.

The semifinal match between Olney and Dick Goold, Elks' Club, scheduled for yesterday was held over until today and will be played at 1 o'clock.

Powers and Le Goube are now in the finals of the doubles. Olney and Tyrrell, L.A.A.C., advanced into the semifinals of the doubles by defeating Rosen and Badham, Elks' Club, while Gordon and Goldsmith, unattached, defeated Courtney and Kuhns, L.A.A.C., 20-21, 21-17, 21-11.

Golden Prince Winner Again

TIA JUANA RACE TRACK, Feb. 21.—Golden Prince, the Sunshot Stable's hope for the rich Coffroth handicap, scored another impressive victory by showing his heels to three high class sprinters—Crofton, Short Price and Judge Schilling, in the five and one-half furlong feature of today's card.

With Jockey Jack Parmelee in the boot the former Kentucky campaigner ran the distance in 1:05 3-5. Crofton and Short Price trailed in the order named.

First race, three and one-half furlongs—Volet, 107 (Mann) won; Kingston Mint, 108 (Trimble) second; Winnow, 115 (Frye) third. Time, 0:42 4-5.

Second race, five furlongs—Zova, 121 (C. E. Allen) won; Dave Hurn, 123 (Tiner) second; Blue Cedar, 123 (Parmelee) third. Time, 1:01 2-5.

Third race, five and one-half furlongs—Mary Kelly, 108 (Hurlburt) won; Dapper, 111 (Trimble) second; Molokai, 106 (Barrett) third. Time, 1:07 4-5.

Fourth race, one mile and one furlong—Nose Dive, 102 (Dunlap) won; Herdsman, 109 (Trimble) second; Fusion, 109 (Corbett) third. Time, 1:54 4-5.

Fifth race, one mile—Liveoak, 105 (Jones) won; Tune In, 109 (Kelsay) second; Augua Caliente, 109 (Parmelee) third. Time, 1:39 4-5.

Sixth race, five and one-half furlongs—Golden Prince, 126 (Parmelee) won; Crofton, 99 (Douglas) second; Short Price, 107 (Dunlap) third. Time, 1:05 3-5.

Seventh race, one and one-sixteenth miles—John S. S., 110 (Crees) won; Forebec, 107 (Trimble) second; Creatan, 107 (Mann) third. Time, 1:46 4-5.

Eighth race, mile and 70 yards—Sanabar, 102 (Trivett) won; Alabama Bound, 104 (Trimble) second; Vowed Vengeance, 107 (Crees) third. Time, 1:44 1-5.

HYMIE MILLER LOSES NOD TO DON KENNEDY

Don Kennedy, Crown City southpaw bantam, upset the dope at the Pasadena Armory last night by taking a six-round decision over Hymie Miller, who won the national amateur flyweight championship last year before turning pro.

In the other bouts Esau Mendibles technically kayoed Johnny Ramirez in the third; Phil Blood beat Leonard Bennett in four rounds; Young Terry took a four-rounder from Les Ostrum; Rib Frazier scored a technical knockout over Georgie Lopez in the third, and Joe Para defeated Harry Peer in the four-round opener.

LONG BEACH CAGERS WIN

Long Beach's championship basketball squad closed its Coast League season last night at Whittier by defeating the Whittier five, 38 to 23. Voorhees and Elliott each scored 13 points for the victors. In the preliminary the Whittier Class C five trimmed Long Beach, 18-6

PANTHERS LOSE TO DENTS

After a five-minute overtime period, the U.S.C Dental College five nosed out the California Christian College cagers, 44 to 43, in a wild game played last night in the Panther gym. Tower, Case and North, Panther mainstays, were absent from the losers' line-up.

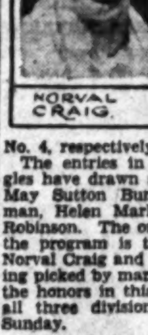
TENNIS STARS OPEN TOURNEY

Club Title Play Scheduled to Start Today

Clif Herd Leads Entries in Men's Singles

Midge Gladman Favorite in Women's Event

Several of the best-known tennis players in Southern California will show their wares today in the opening round of the Los Angeles Tennis Club championship tourney. Heading the list in the men's singles is Cliff Herd, who has been seeded No. 1. Norval Craig, former Occidental College net wizard, has been seeded No. 2, while Allen Herrington and Sidney Wood have drawn No. 3 and No. 4, respectively.



NORVAL CRAIG

The entries in the women's singles have drawn such stars as Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, Midge Gladman, Helen Marlowe and Dorothy Robinson. The only other event on the program is the men's doubles. Norval Craig and Cliff Herd are being picked by many to walk off with the honors in this event. Finals in all three divisions will be played Sunday.

through which his runners pass. Last year the race started here and Los Angeles did not have to pay Pyle a cent. But, as Pyle points out, Los Angeles derived reams and reams of national and international publicity. Virtually every story that was carried during the three months the race was in progress mentioned the city of Los Angeles. Pyle estimates that the word appeared 1,000,000 times in connection with his race.

This time, inasmuch as the race is to end here, Pyle wants the Chamber of Commerce or some such group to guarantee the do, re, mi. If he is unable to come to an agreement with local officials the race will end in San Diego or possibly one of the beach towns near here. But it would appear that Los Angeles will "come to terms" with Pyle, especially if he "is reasonable," as he says he will be.

Charley reports that there will be 200 starters and that he has already received 135 entries. These 135 runners have all paid their entry fee of $300, according to Pyle. Most of them are sponsored by various clubs, chamber of commerce organizations or Legions. Where the runners averaged forty-two and one-half miles a day last year, they will be called upon to travel forty-seven this time.

ANNUAL AFFAIR

The route from New York will be over the Broadway Highway of America into Dallas, Tex., and then via San Diego to Los Angeles. Pyle declares that the race will be an annual affair and that he is through losing money on it.

The prize money this year will total $60,000. First prize remains at $25,000. Andy Payne, who won last year, is not eligible to compete again but Pyle plans to have many of last season's star runners performing again.

By turning the race around Pyle will cross the desert region, where the intake is the least, with the smallest number of his athletes, for by the time this spot is reached all of the "weaklings" will have dropped out. Last year the trek across the desert cost Pyle a pretty penny.

The promoter is convinced that the race is a great body builder. He reports that Dr. Burgess Gordon, who conducted an examination of twenty-five of last year's finishers, has written two articles for the American Medical Journal telling of his findings after giving the athletes the once over.

There will be no carnival with the derby this year but in its place a tent with a seating capacity of 4000. Pyle plans to stage nightly vaudeville shows in this enclosure and will carry his own troupe of high-class actors for the program.

SAN PEDRO SPLITS WITH COMPTON FIVES

San Pedro High's Class "C" and "D" cagers split a double-header yesterday afternoon with the Compton Lions, the Pirates taking the "C" game at 18-15, while the Compton "D" five won 20-18. Masters of Compton took high scoring honors in the "C" game, hitting the hoop for 9 points Tidwell of the Pirates was next with 5 The Class "D" affair was very closely contested, with Rodney of San Pedro registering 14 points, while Driggs of Compton chalked up 15. Both games were played at Compton.

DRILL FOR JUNIOR GAMES

Los Angeles Playground Boys Bearing Down on Practice in Art of Making Basketball Throw

BY BRAVEN DYER

Boys of the Los Angeles Playground Department are taking the 1929 Junior Olympic Games program seriously, just as they did a year ago. In an effort to perfect their technique in the art of tossing the basketball through the net all youths in this organization have been spending the past week competing in the world basketball free-throw tournament.

Throwing the basketball for accuracy is one of the five events on the program, the others being the seventy-five-yard dash, chinning the bar, standing broad jump and baseball throw for distance. Those who have been connected with the Junior Olympic Games program have found that tossing the basketball for accuracy is one of the most difficult tasks on the program. The early training of the playground boys is sure to stand them in good stead this season.

This tournament last year enabled many playground youngsters to develop their shooting eye to a point where they could throw baskets with a high degree of accuracy.

The world basketball free throw tournament each year is participated in by boys and girls from countries of the American continent, Europe, Asia and Africa. Those entered for the meet make their scores in their own home towns under responsible supervision, and these scores are then sent to Charleston, S. C., from which headquarters the winners are announced. Last year Harry Mayo of Echo playground won second place in this world-wide tournament, throwing forty-four out of forty-five baskets.

Although entry blanks have not yet been received at local playgrounds, many boys have already begun to practice for the Junior Olympics event. The world basketball free throw tournament will result in many boys becoming accurate basket shooters.

Youthful playground athletes will then turn their attention to developing their ability in the other four events of the Junior Olympics schedule. The world tournament will be officially closed, as far as the Los Angeles playgrounds are concerned, by next Monday, and winners will be announced from Charleston as soon as results are telegraphed in.

COMPTON BOYS PREPARE FOR JUNIOR OLYMPICS

COMPTON, Feb. 21.—Compton grammar school athletes are being organized this week for the Junior Olympic Games. The intermediate school, which has all the seventh and eighth-grade pupils in the city, will have several hundred pupils in the preliminary tryouts, which will be held here within a few weeks.

H. A. Spurgin, director of athletics at the Tamerind School, will have charge of the work. The boys have named Howard Grabbitt to represent them at all Olympic meetings held at Los Angeles.

Scores of the kids are shooting basketballs, throwing baseballs, running or jumping and chinning themselves on the school grounds now to get limbered up. The boys will be divided into squads according to their ages and height and weight. Later they will be divided into the junior and senior groups. Then, after Mr. Spurgin thinks that they have been given a thorough workout, the preliminaries will be held. In this tryout the lines will not be drawn too tight. Any one that has a show of doing anything will be allowed to run along with the groups until the finals. It is planned to eliminate, in the tryouts, only the hopelessly unfit.

The school has several hundred boys and, according to Director Spurgin, every one of them is going to make an effort to get on the Compton team.

OREGON'S SWIMMERS FACE S.C.

Mermen from Northwest Slated to Go Against Foes at L.A.A.C. Tonight

University of Oregon's fast swimming aggregation takes on the University of Southern California paddlers in a big aquatic double-header tonight (Friday) at the Los Angeles Athletic Club pool, the Trojans and Webfooters tangling in a swiming meet and in a water polo game.

A feature of the swimming meet is expected to be the sprint races between Oscar Simmons, the speedy Trojan sophomore, and Johnny Anderson, Oregon captain, and one of the best collegiate swimmers on the Coast. Chet Floyd of the Oregon men is another fast sprinter, and with Anderson will form a hard pair for Simmons to beat.

Another good event should be the breast stroke in which Capt. Ed Bittke of Southern California will tangle with James Sharp and Wig Fletcher, two of the fastest men in this event in the West. The 440-yard swim looks like another good number with Carlos Schuessler and Bela Kendall of S.C. paddling against Bill Gillette of Oregon.

WILLIAMS IS SPRINT VICTOR

In his trial heat, Williams had been caught napping at the gun and all the powerful driving finish for which he is famous could not save him from defeat at the hands of G. D. Powell of Toronto, an unknown. Williams was second in this heat by a scant half-foot.

In the finals, however, the Olympic champion was away fast and conquered a field that included his Olympic team-mate, Jimmy Fitzpatrick of Hamilton. Fitzpatrick was second and L. Miller of Hamilton, third.

Bob McAllister, the "Flying Cop" from New York, failed to appear for the meet. He had been expected to renew with Williams the rivalry they began at Amsterdam. McAllister beat Williams in one of the trial heats of the 100 meters championship in the Olympics, but was sixth in the finals when Williams won the crown.

The high jump went to Harold Osborn, bespectacled star of the Illinois A. C., Osborn cleared 6ft. 2in. to establish a new Canadian record. G. Smallcombe and C. Vennels, both of Toronto, were second and third, respectively.

FAIRFAX TRACKMEN BEAT COMPTON HIGH

In a meet featured by the sprinting of Bill Crockett, Fairfax High School track team defeated Compton High, 57 to 47, at Compton yesterday. Crockett rambled to victory in the 100 in 10 2-5s., and negotiated the 220 in 22.9s. Miller of Fairfax won the quarter-mile in 53 2-5s. Fairfax scored most of its points in the springs, middle distances and in a few of the field events.

WOODBURY GIRLS VICTORS

The Woodbury College girls' basketballers defeated the Jefferson High cagers, 41 to 16, last night on the losers' court. Miss Lindbergh starred for the victors by scoring 23 points.

BOUGHT AT AUCTION

Guy Axworthy, who was bought by the Oettinger brothers for $2500 at auction during the war, is the progenitor of five of the ten trotters in the 2:00 list and of every colt that has thus far won the $60,000 Hambletonian Stakes.

Hollywood and Richfield Tie

The Hollywood Millionaires and Los Angeles Richfields battled to a scoreless tie last night in the Winter Garden Ice Palace in the fastest game of hockey seen here this season. Inasmuch as Oakland defeated San Francisco, 1 to 0, in the north last night, the Millionaires slipped back a half game in the race.

Hollywood now has 29 points, while Oakland has 26, and at the rate the Oaks are traveling it won't be long before the Bay City team passes the locals.

Carrigan and Murray, rival goalies, played brilliantly in last night's game. Peaches Headley, Ben Ward and Dale Wales also sparkled, while Goupes and Lawrence were towers of strength to the Richfields.

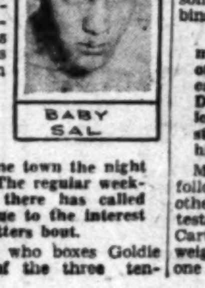
COLIMA SCHOOLS WATTERS

Whittier Idol Will Handle Muddy Mike in His Battle With Baby Sal Tuesday

Mike Watters, the Irish youngster, is being coached by a Mexican on how best to fight Baby Sal Sorio, another Mexican.

Sal and Watters clash at the Olympic Tuesday night on a card which features thirty-eight rounds of boxing at popular prices. Bert Colima will handle Watters for the fight in the absence of Dutch Meyers, who has gone north to see the Mickey Walker-Jack Willis bout today.

Watters took a point decision from Sal about a year ago, but Sal has improved while Watters was forced to take a lay-off after some gruelling fights.



BABY SAL

Sal will undoubtedly be the favorite due to the fact he has knocked out five straight opponents. The Mexican puncher is doing all his training in San Bernardino

Several special trains will bring the fans here from Sal's home town the night of the fight. The regular weekly fight club there has called off its show due to the interest in the Sal-Watters bout.

Jimmy Watts, who boxes Goldie Hess on one of the three ten-rounders, worked out yesterday at the Manhattan gymnasium. He made a good impression.

The newcomer claims the Dixie featherweight title. He hasn't been beaten in sixty-two starts, scoring knockouts in about one-third of his scraps.

Among the boys Watts has beaten are Tony Herrera, Frankie Garcia, Sammy Shack, California Joe Lynch. He has a nice ring personality and seems to be a combination boxer and puncher.

Delos Kid Williams, who meets Huerta Evans, in the other ten-round bout on the card, is also working at Barney Dempsey's place. Williams has looked good in his last two starts, one of them against the highly touted Kid Francis.

Matchmaker Wad Wadhams may follow next week's show with another card of three ten-round contests at bargain prices. Wildcat Carter, Seattle negro junior lightweight, and Johnny Lamar may be one set of headliners.

90 More Carloads of Majestic Radio

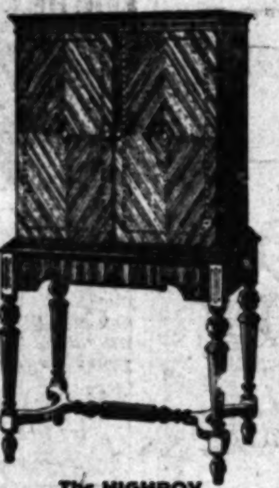
AN unprecedented public demand for the new Majestic Electric Radio receivers has made it necessary to increase the allotment for Southern California and Arizona from 300 carloads to 390 carloads. It required prompt action on the part of the distributors of Majestic Radio in order that the thousands of eager radio enthusiasts who want Majestics in their homes might not be disappointed. With this end in view the entire official family of Ungar & Watson, Inc., Majestic wholesale distributors, made a hurried trip to the six great Majestic factories to plead for additional shipments to Los Angeles. That they succeeded in their endeavor is proved by the telegram reproduced in this message.



The HIGHBOY
Beautiful cabinet with inlaid walnut door panels. Seven tubes with eighth rectifier tube. Self contained Majestic Dynamic Power Speaker. $199.00 Complete

Radio enthusiasts in Southern California and Arizona are buying 5000 Majestic Electric Receiving sets each month for but one reason. Majestic is the outstanding "dollar for dollar" value of the radio industry, which is reason enough for any discriminating buyer. In no other radio receiver selling for within a hundred dollars of Majestic's surprisingly low selling price will you find the beauty of cabinet design that is readily apparent the moment you see the new Majestic Electric Radio receivers for the first time. No other radio equipment, from a standpoint of quality, performance or price, offers the actual value represented in Majestic. Prove these statements to yourself by a personal investigation.

This advertisement is published by the Associated Majestic Radio Dealers whose names appear below. Any of them will gladly, and without obligation, demonstrate the new Majestic Electric Radio in your own home, free of all cost.

A NEW SALAD CRAFT based on RED ROCK

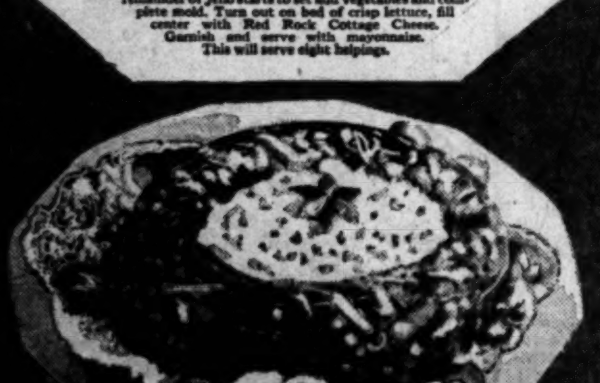
JELLIED VEGETABLE RING

Materials: 2 pkgs. Lemon Jello, 3½ cups boiling water, 3 ts. vinegar, 1 ts. salt, dash white pepper, 1 cup each peas, string beans, carrots, cut in strips, diced celery.
Garnish: Green peppers and red pimiento. Red Rock Cottage Cheese.
Method: Allow Jello to cool. Take ½ cup seasoned Jello, put in mold and when nearly set add diamond shaped green peppers and Pimiento strips in proper place. Let set until firm. When remainder of Jello starts to set add vegetables and complete mold. Turn out on bed of crisp lettuce, fill center with Red Rock Cottage Cheese. Garnish and serve with mayonnaise. This will serve eight helpings.



New and different salads are inspired through the unusual flavor of cream-rich Red Rock Cottage Cheese. Just enough "body" to combine deliciously with the whole range of salad fruits and equally appealing with a vegetable combination.

Only with matchless Red Rock do you get the most satisfying results—its flavor is proof of its quality and it retains its deliciousindividualityinanycombination.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

The marriage of Miss Alice Elizabeth Ege, daughter of Mrs. Henry Carlton Ege, to Floyd Kinner Sullivan was solemnized Tuesday evening, the ceremony taking place in the picturesque little Church of the Angels, Garvanza, with Rev. Harry Parke officiating.

The church was a bower of fragrant blossoms and ferns and was lighted by myriads of tapers, 200 invitations having been issued for the ceremony and reception which followed at the home of the bride's mother, 1037 South Citrus avenue.

The bride was charming in a gown of ivory satin fashioned with tight bodice and long sleeves, with duchess and rose point lace collar. The skirt was long and full and the veil of tulle and lace was held in place by a cap of tulle and coronet of lace. She carried an arm shower of brides' rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Ege gave her daughter in marriage while Miss Mary Elizabeth Squires assisted as maid of honor and Mrs. Frank Payne and Miss Evelyn Hauersaas were the other attendants.

All the attendants wore frocks of orchid moire fashioned with tight bodice and long, full skirts, bows of fuchsia colored velvet placed at one side, the ends falling to the hem. They carried arm showers of orchid sweet peas, fuchsias and cyclamen.

Gerald Toll served Mr. Sullivan as best man and Ralph Murphy, Edward Monroe, Frank Payne and Edward Berry ushered.

The dainty bride was graduated from the Fulmer School and is a member of Sigma Tau Psi Sorority, while Mr. Sullivan received his degree at the University of California and is affiliated with Zeta Psi Fraternity.

After a motor trip through the south Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will return, March 1, and will be at home to their friends at 151 North Swall avenue, Beverly Hills.

Michalek-Richert

Another prettily appointed wedding of the week was that of last evening when Miss Florence Marie Machalek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Michalek, became the bride of George W. Richert, Jr., the ceremony being performed in the Arlington Christian Church, with Judge Collier of Pasadena officiating.

The church was decorated with a profusion of spring flowers, the same color scheme being carried out in the frocks of the bridal entourage, tall white candelabra being arranged down the aisles with huge bows of white satin ribbons. Four hundred guests were bidden.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white satin trimmed with ivory point lace and tulle, studded with crystals, the veil of lace and tulle held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried gardenias, orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Lacy Sears assisted as matron of honor, in a gown of coral satin and tulle, trimmed with blue ribbons and she carried Butterfly roses, while the bridesmaids, Miss Viola May, Miss Patsy McConnell, Miss Mary King and Miss Marjorie Richert, wore pastel shaded frocks in pink, yellow and blue and orchid satin and tulle, respectively. They carried sweet peas to harmonize with their frocks.

Wallace Campbell served as best man and the ushers included Charles Suppe, Ted Tase, Lacy Sears and Robert Harasta. Gladys Robertson Cogan presided at the organ and played the wedding music. A reception at the home of the bride's parents, 2035 Claudina avenue, immediately followed the ceremony, the immediate relatives and bridal party with a few close friends being bidden.

After an extended wedding trip which will include a cruise to Honolulu, Mr. and Mrs. Richert will return to make their home here.

In honor of Miss Michalek a charmingly appointed luncheon was given last Saturday afternoon at the Roosevelt, with Miss Patsy May McConnell and Miss Viola May being cohostesses.

The decorations of the luncheon table were charmingly carried out with a profusion of sweet peas and English violets, a corsage of violets and Chinese lilies forming the place favors, while at the place of the honor guest was a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley. Those included were Miss Michalek, Mrs. Lacy Sears, Miss Audrey Buraltz, Miss Louise Wells, Mrs. Rex Nowlin, Miss Elizabeth Janes, Mrs. Felix Werner, Miss Mary King, Miss Marjorie Richert and the hostesses.

Interesting Talks

Among the interesting events of the near future will be the series of talks which Mrs. Willoughby Rodman is planning in the Music Room of the Biltmore, the proceeds to be devoted to the benefit of the Russian refugees in Paris, and they are to be given under the auspices of the committee for foreign relief.

The first affair will take place tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. These talks are reminiscences of the extended trip which Mrs. Rodman has just completed, and tomorrow the subject will be "From Cape to Cairo," an account of a 10,000-mile trek by the first woman to make the journey alone, including "Nights in Rondavals," "Adventures With Wild Animals" and "A Visit to Matapos-Zimbabwe Ruins."

The personnel of the committee for foreign relief includes Mmes. Arthur Bent, A. C. Bilicke, Walter Burke, Michael Creamer, De La Arena, Fred Darling, Birney Donnell, J. A. Donato, Carrie S. Greene, Arthur Heineman, H. H. Hooper, Edwards-Laughlin, Alice Lynch, Lucia Macbeth, J. J. Martin, M. A. Marsh, William T. McFie, J. W. Montgomery, Leon F. Moss, Irwin Muma, J. Ohler, Herbert Peery, J. R. Pinkham, J. W. Rhodes, Willoughby Rodman, C. A. Russell, Antoinette Stephens, Ray Thomas, W. F. Towne, John Treanor, M. R. Williams, Miss Maude Thomas and Miss Helen Wadsworth.

Luncheon-Horse Show

Miss Carol Latimer and Miss Janie Vandeveer will be cohostesses today at a luncheon to be given at the Jonathan Club, followed by a box party at the Ambassador Horse Show. Spring flowers and ferns will be used on the luncheon table where covers will be arranged for Miss Frances Jean, Miss Goadys Vorhes, Miss Dorothy Douglas, Miss Virginia Giulii, Miss Harriet Neirn, Mrs. James McCarthy Rounds, Mrs. Daniel Ferguson, Mrs. Wallace Moir, Mrs. Franklin Donnell, Mrs. Edmond Locke, Jr., and the hostesses.

Lovely Affair

One of the smart affairs of recent date was the beautifully appointed bridge-luncheon with which Mrs. A. J. Spriggs, wife of Lieut. Spriggs, U.S.N., entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Peter Mitchell Toomey, in South Harvard Boulevard. The decorations were exquisitely carried out in orange blossoms and sweet peas, with tall pink tapers in silver candelabra. The guests included Mrs. H. M. Dupree, Mrs. R. D. Threshie, Mrs. Curtz, Mrs. L. D. Christoph, Mrs. A. T. Mullinnix, Mrs. D. Chadwick, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. W. H. Galbraithe, Mrs. R. D. Calkins, Mrs. W. R. Leahy, Mrs. L. D. Swanson and the hostess. Mrs. Spriggs is one of the most popular of the young matrons in the navy set, and frequently entertains with charmingly appointed affairs. Lieut. Spriggs has duty on the staff of Admiral William V. Pratt aboard the flagship California.

Entertaining Relatives

E. Clarke Comer, 1781 Orchid avenue, pioneer real-estate operator of Hollywood, has been entertaining his daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter, also his youngest son and daughter-in-law, all of Phoenix. His eldest son, Prof. H. L. Comer, wife and grandson of Ocheydan, Iowa, also attended the reunion.

Prof. Comer, who is an authority on agriculture and horticulture, has just been appointed by the United States government to fill a chair at the University of Manila, where he will have charge of thirty-two provinces. Prof. Comer and family will sail for Manila tomorrow.

SUBDEB RIDES AT HORSE SHOW

Equestrienne Gives Party at Opening

[Boye studios]

Miss Marcoreta Hellman

ONE of the most popular members of the young subdeb set is Miss Marcoreta Hellman, only daughter of Marco Hellman of Wilshire Boulevard. Miss Hellman is an accomplished equestrienne and at the horse show now being given at the Ambassador Auditorium has ridden her own mounts, some of them taking capital prizes.

Miss Hellman entertained with a dinner and box party at the opening of the show last Saturday evening and Monday evening invited a coterie of young subdebs as her guests at the show and also for the horse show ball which followed in the Cocoanut Grove.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Rings and Gloves

The economical woman who deplores the hole the stone from her ring cuts into her glove can obviate this by pasting a piece of adhesive plaster on the inside of her glove where the diamond cuts.

Safely Housed

Used razor blades are always a bother to get rid of, as we worry about some one going through the trash and receiving a nasty cut. Put them out with the ashes, not with the trash. Or put them in a candy box, tie, and then put them in the trash.

A Foot Bath

Dissolve the mustard for a foot bath first in cold water. Otherwise the mustard is inclined to adhere to the skin and blister. Two tablespoonfuls of mustard in a cupful of cold water is about right for the average-sized foot bath.

Find It

When you drop a needle on the floor while sewing, get down and search until you find it. Don't leave it for "the sweeper" as it might run into someone's foot before that time.

Spots on Suede

Grease marks on suede shoes can be removed by rubbing the spots with fine emery paper. This will bring up the nap again and cause the spots to disappear.

POTATO AND PEANUT SAUSAGES

Mix one cupful of roasted, finely ground peanuts with one and one-half cupfuls of mashed potatoes, that have been highly seasoned with salt, pepper and butter, add one well-beaten egg, and form the mixture into small sausage-shaped rolls. Roll each one in flour, place in a baking pan that has been well oiled, and bake in a hot oven until lightly browned. Place in a hot dish and garnish with parsley.

CARROT PIE

Peel and slice one bunch of carrots, and cook until tender, drain, put through a potato ricer or colander. To two cupfuls of the pulp and three-fourths of a cupful of sugar, heat one cupful of milk in a double boiler, add to it one-fourth of a cupful of fine bread crumbs and stir until well mixed. Add two tablespoonfuls of butter, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of nutmeg, beat this all into the carrot pulp. Turn into a pastry-lined pie dish and bake from twenty to twenty-five minutes. If the mixture seems too stiff add a little more milk. This depends on the staleness of the bread crumbs.

BRUSSELS SPROUTS SALAD

Boil the required amount of Brussels sprouts until tender, cool, sprinkle with finely chopped onion, stoned and chopped ripe olives, chopped walnuts, and chopped capers in equal amounts. Marinade with two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, one-fourth cheese salad: To a half- cream cheese (the kind sold in small blocks wrapped in tinfoil) add a small amount of thick sweet cream, just enough to make it a little softer, mixing together with a fork. Add a half-cupful or more of finely minced ripe olives, and form into small balls with butter spatulas; roll in chopped parsley and arrange in a nest of shredded raw spinach or on lettuce leaves, placing two or three whole olives on each plate. As this salad forms the protein part of the meal, one-quarter of a pound of cheese should be allowed for each person.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Red Hands

Question: S. A. C. writes: "I am a young girl of 17, strong and healthy. I do not do any hard work, and I do not have my hands in hot water very often, but generally my hands are very red and hot. What causes this, and how does one cure red hands?"

Answer: Besides the possibility of a general toxic condition affecting your circulation, you probably have some impingement of the spinal nerves which go to your arms. I would advise you to consult some physician who understands spinal treatments and get his opinion about your case.

Sauer Kraut

Q.: Mrs. C. D. R. asks: "What do you think of raw sauer kraut or baked kraut? And is the artichoke a good vegetable?"

A.: Sauer kraut may be used if properly combined with other non-starchy vegetables and with proteins. Fresh cabbage is a non-starchy vegetable which may be used the year round. The Jerusalem artichoke is a tuber vegetable somewhat similar to the potato and is grown in certain parts of the country, being in the market during the late summer and fall.

Thyroid Gland

Q.: P. B. D. asks: "What is the function of the thyroid gland? Is it necessary to retain this in order to enjoy good health? I have a small goiter and am considering having it removed by surgery."

A.: The function of the thyroid gland is very important since the secretion of this gland acts as a regulator of metabolism. I am sending you my article on "Goiter" with outlines the form of treatment I consider most satisfactory for this trouble, as I do not advise an operation except as the last resort.

Phrenology

Question: May W. asks: "Do you consider that the positions given in the phrenological charts are accurate with relation to the functions of the brain, and can one actually determine character by this method?"

Answer: There is controversy concerning the efficacy of the phrenological chart, but modern science tends to refute this theory. The activity of the functions of the brain is not essentially related to the size externally. After the skull has hardened, the development of the brain seems to result in deeper grooves and more numerous convolutions in the gray matter.

PAIN UNDER LIVER

Q.: A. M. A. writes: "After I eat a meal and stand upright there is a pain just under my liver, but if I lie on my left side this pain disappears. What could be the cause of this?"

A.: It is possible that you have some adhesions or an inflammatory condition in the neighborhood of the duodenum which are relieved when you lie on your left side by the weight of the stomach pulling on the duodenum. You should have a careful X-ray examination to determine the condition.

RINGS TURN FINGERS BLACK

Q.: Troubled asks: "Can you tell me the reasons why my hands always look dirty, and why my rings always turn my fingers black?"

A.: Your trouble is caused by the elimination through your skin of some chemical substance, possibly sulphur, which attacks the alloy in the gold rings. Pure gold would not be affected by this, but gold rings are made with a certain degree of hardening substance from alloy and this is acted upon by certain chemicals. You doubtless have a general toxemia which should be removed through using a carefully planned cleansing diet.

Filipino Ordered to Stand Trial

Guirardo Virocel, Filipino, must stand trial before Superior Court on charges of assault with a deadly weapon, Municipal Judge Valentine ruled yesterday. Judge Valentine issued the order following Virocel's preliminary hearing on charges of assaulting L. C. Blaisdel, a former deputy sheriff, with a knife.

The assault followed a row over a dance-hall girl, according to testimony introduced by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Stohlman. Blaisdel, suffering from a severed artery, was removed from 308 South Union Drive, where the assault took place, to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, just in time for police surgeons to save his life by stitching the severed artery, witnesses declared.

Hearing of charges of grand theft against A. J. Van Wie, former City Clerk of Glendale, who is accused of embezzling city funds, was continued yesterday by Municipal Judge McDill until March 7, next. The continuance was granted at the request of Dep.-Dist.-Atty. Russell.

Van Wie is asserted by the District Attorney to have been short in his city accounts at Glendale. The complaint charges him with abstracting $375 in June, $920 in July and $100 in December, last.

GUIDING YOUR CHILD

WHEN HE TOUCHES EVERYTHING

By Mrs. Agnes Lyne

There is a notion current among parents that when the toddler touches and handles everything within reach he is simply giving way to a naughty impulse which must be rooted out by constant opposition. This program of correction is seldom carried out with rigorous consistency. When it is, the child suffers a severe deprivation of learning and experience. Usually, however, the opposition is spasmodic, governed by the mother's mood rather than by any plan.

Generally, in the effort to stop the child before he does any damage, the object is snatched from his hand—the worst possible training. It does not teach him to leave things alone and it does teach him to grab rudely for things he wants.

Instead of "breaking his habit" it tends to prolong a phase of his development which otherwise would pass in a few months. The child's whole instinctive nature compels him to touch, manipulate and investigate—blocking him only intensifies his desire. Not until he has had his fill of this sort of experience and not until his curiosity has been thoroughly satisfied will he desist and pass to other interests.

Instead of stopping him it is wise to help him learn as quickly as he is able to take it in. He should be permitted to handle freely breakable objects which are not irreplaceable, to carry his glass with water in it, to help set the table with silver and china. He will soon become skillful, readily learning the poise and control which prevent the breaking and spilling which he himself quickly learns to regard as failure.

Retired Army Man's Daughter Given Divorce

Mrs. Marian Hawthorne Stockton, daughter of Col. Harry L. Hawthorne, retired army officer, was granted an annulment of her marriage with Alfred C. Stockton yesterday by Superior Judge Blake.

The decree was signed by Judge Blake at the close of the second hearing on the young woman's petition, the first hearing having been held two weeks ago.

In her testimony the young wife declared she and Stockton were married after a rapid courtship on the part of the latter on his representation that he was a graduate engineer and earning a comfortable salary. A few hours after the ceremony was performed Stockton admitted, the wife said, that his representations were untrue and that he expected her family to support them.

At the first hearing Judge Blake set the matter over to study whether the young woman had sufficient grounds for the annulment.

AMENDMENT ON JUDGES DISCUSSED

Speakers at City Club Favor Change in Plan for Selecting Jurists

Constitutional Amendment No. 3, now before the Legislature, known as the Commonwealth Club Plan for Selection of Judges, and which proposes a method whereby the race for judgeships practically will be eliminated from politics, was approved by several speakers at a meeting yesterday of the administration of justice section of the City Club.

The bill provides that within thirty days before the 16th of August, preceding the expiration of his term, any justice of the Supreme Court or District Court of Appeal, or any judge of the Superior Court, may file a declaration of his candidacy to succeed himself, and that in cases in which such declaration is not filed, the Governor shall name a candidate. If he is himself a candidate, only the name of the incumbent judge will appear on the ballot, the electorate being given the privilege of voting either for or against his re-election. In case the candidate is defeated, the Governor appoints his successor.

"Such an innovation would be a decided improvement on our present system of choosing judges," said Charles F. Amidon, formerly United States District Judge for the district of North Dakota. "Judges would become more independent, having greater power to control the administration of justice. Recently we have had in Los Angeles an example of the manner in which attorneys today are practically dominating court procedure. In the Keyes case, the lawyers were allowed six days to sum up their cases, whereas six hours would have been sufficient and would have rendered the evidence clearer to the jury."

"Nowhere else than in America and local cantons of Switzerland, are judges chosen by popular election," said Rugby Ross. "It is practically impossible for voters to become informed as to the qualifications and character of candidates for judgeships. As a matter of truth, the more judicial temperament a candidate possesses, the less fitted is he to beg votes. Billboard advertising and brass band tactics are poor ways to select men for the bench. As to time and cost of electioneering, that, too, should be taken into consideration. No candidate should be allowed to accept campaign contributions for reasons too obvious to mention."

Those opposing the measure included H. L. Moller, who contended that the new method would place too much power in the hands of the Governor. Admitting that the present system could be remedied, Mr. Moller said that the change proposed would be jumping from the frying pan into the fire.

"I would be in favor of the bill if it provided that appointments of judges could be made by the Governor, the Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court and another justice of that court, instead of by the Governor alone," said Mr. Moller.

NOTED GERMAN CAVALRY HERO VISITS HERE ON TRIPLE MISSION

COL. GEORG MERZ

One of Europe's distinguished horsemen, Col. H. George Merz German cavalry hero of the World War, and now commandant of the cavalry school at Dresden, has arrived here aboard the Hamburg-American liner Seattle on a triple mission.

First, Col. Merz is here to inspect cavalry centers of the United States Army and to study our Army's method of training its mounted scouts. Second, he will spend a fortnight in Los Angeles arranging for the reception of a team of German horsemen to compete in the Tenth Olympiad here in 1932. Third, he is visiting with his 22-year-old son, Egon, whom he has not seen for three years.

During the World War he was known throughout the German army as the "Charmed Captain," because, although bullets passed through his tunic thirteen times and five horses were shot beneath him, he never was wounded in four years of active service.

In the first German drive toward Paris in August, 1914, Col. then Capt. Merz commanding a troop of the Sixth Carabineers under Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, took his troops within sight of the church spires of Paris before retreating. A month later he was transferred to the eastern front and was in the first battle of the Masurian Lakes, when Marshal Hindenburg wiped out three Russian army corps. Later, he led his troopers as dismounted cavalry through three bayonet charges.

C.M.T.C. CLUB PLANS HOME FOLKS' NIGHT

To further acquaint the community with the purpose of citizens' military training camps, members of the Los Angeles C.M.T.C. Club will dedicate their first meeting to "home folks' night" at Patriotic Hall February 25. Boys who have attended the citizen's military training camps and those interested have formed the club to inspire interest in such training. The club is a part of the National Military Training Camps Association. In line with its general program the club at its first meeting expects to offer an entertaining program to parents and members of families represented at past camps. The meeting, which will be held at 8 o'clock, will include a talk by Baroness Ottily De Ropp on "Communism," a short talk by a Japanese student, Takeo Takahashi, on "The Second Generation of the Japanese," and a military drill exhibition by the Polytechnic High School drill team.

Flying School to Be Started at Mines Field

Plans for the establishment of a flying school on Mines Field or its immediate vicinity, for which $50,000 has been appropriated as an initial outlay, were announced at yesterday's meeting of the Inglewood Rotary Club by R. O. Bone, manufacturer of the Golden Eagle monoplane.

Mr. Bone announced further that he plans to make an eastern tour of two weeks' duration, leaving here next Thursday, in order to inspect various flying fields and study them with the intention of incorporating their best features in his own establishment on his return. With him will go Miss Bobbie Trout, who recently, in a Golden Eagle, captured the world's endurance flight record for women; W. G. Mead, Mr. Bone's chief test pilot, and J. L. Harrison, his chief mechanic.

The party will make the trip in two planes, one of them similar to the one flown by Miss Trout and the other a new model on which the Bone technical staff now is working.

Where is the kiddie that has to be coaxed?

Once there was a little girl who wouldn't eat her breakfast because she just didn't like the taste of her cereal. So, one morning, her mother surprised her with something new. Something all crunchy and crisp. Something like tissue-thin, toasted-golden nut-meats. Something good . . . Heinz Rice Flakes! And she ate them all up—and asked for more.

And that's the end of that story—except to say that the little girl's mother noticed how much rosier the little girl's cheeks became after she had been eating these lovely breakfasts for a while.

Nobody knew why—but the reason is this: Heinz Rice Flakes are made by a special, patented Heinz process which transforms the natural roughage of the rice into a pure cellulose that gives the healthful effect of a gentle, natural laxative.

System of Favoritism at County Jail Denounced in Report Filed by 1928 Grand

TIGHTER LID ON PAROLES URGED AS BODY QUITS

to many prisoners, including Marco, "due to political and financial influences permeating the entire official structure from the Sheriff down."

(2.) Establishment of the photostatic recording system, which the report states the jury believes is absolutely correct and permanent and will mean a saving of from $300,000 to $400,000 per year in the Recorder's office.

(3.) Report by the finance committee that the income of Los Angeles county for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928, was $73,355,361.59; that the county pay roll has a total of 10,300 employees and that the county has about 20,500 indigent individuals dependent on it for all or a portion of their support.

(4.) That a system prevails in the purchase of school supplies "which results in tens of thousands of dollars' worth of stationery and other school supplies being purchased annually in this county without competitive bidding as competitive bidding is commonly considered," leading to an excess of supplies, and unnecessary expense to the taxpayers.

(5.) Recommendation that the fiscal year be changed from July 1 to January 1.

AID TO CONTRACTOR

(6.) Creation of a revolving fund of $1,000,000 as a step to economy in carrying out street construction and other public improvements, thereby aiding the contractor in financial needs and averting 10 to 20 per cent discount on public contracts.

(7.) Approval of the proposed county unit plan for public schools, which will reduce the present 150 school districts to twenty-one, reducing cost of attention to each pupil from approximately $400 to $100 each.

(8.) Addition to the force of traveling deputy county auditors and consolidation "for public convenience," in making all assessments, municipal and county, payable to the County Tax Collector.

(9.) Expansion of county health centers and recommendations to the Board of Supervisors that efforts be made to consolidate all municipal health departments in the county into one united health service department under county government "for efficient and economical administration."

INDUSTRIAL FARM

(10.) Establishment of an industrial farm for convicted prisoners, both male and female, to be employed in the production of food supplies and articles used in county institutions, with a probable per diem wage for inmates of good deportment to be paid on discharge

(11.) Recommendation for the employment of a person of executive capacity and business experience as Assistant Superintendent of County Charities.

The jury's report asserts that soon after the body was empaneled in 1928 "certain bars and hindrances contained not only in the statutes, but in the decisions of State courts, appeared to handicap effective work of the grand jury." Because of that asserted situation a law committee was appointed and after considerable research offered the following suggestions:

(1.) Amendment of the law to establish plainly the grand jury as an independent body, answerable only to its Superior Court judge; that the jury be empowered to employ its own investigators, and to provide for continuity of knowledge and action one-half of the jury be drawn semiannually to serve for one year, and that the jury "be definitely authorized to indict for misdemeanors in all cities and counties."

(2.) That the offices of the City Prosecutor of Los Angeles City be consolidated with the office of the District Attorney of Los Angeles county in the District Attorney's office.

NAMING PROSECUTORS

(3.) That Section 925 of the Penal Code should be changed to make it mandatory on the State Attorney-General to appoint, on the written request of the grand jury, a prosecutor in the place of the District Attorney, and special investigators.

(4.) That the County Parole Board be prohibited from granting paroles to prisoners until one-half of the prison sentence has been served, and then only for reasons arising after convictions, except that parole may be granted earlier on unanimous vote of the board at regular meeting, after public notice of ten days, and on the approval of the judge who heard the evidence and pronounced sentence.

(5.) Establishment of a California Criminal Court of Appeal similar to recent act instituting the Court of Criminal Appeal in England.

(6.) That in bribery, conspiracy and fraud cases the law should establish the presumption of prior intention, which will impose on the defendants the burden of proving that they did not from the outset intend to commit the wrongful acts asserted.

INSANE SLAYERS

The jury's report also invited attention to the Massachusetts law which provides that a person indicted for murder or manslaughter, when acquitted by a jury on grounds of insanity shall be committed to a State hospital during his natural life, and can only be discharged by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Council of Judges, after investigation of the specific case by the State Department of Mental Diseases.

In the portion of the report devoted to the "Sheriff and Jail," the jury asserts that it became dissatisfied with some of the conditions existing in the County Jail because of the "losing" of prisoners in the barred wilderness, leakage of $10,000 in public funds through the conduct of the jail store, favoritism shown Marco, the convicted underworld character, smuggling of liquor into the jail tanks and loss of an officer's gun, which later appeared in a convict's hands.

In the "losing" of the prisoners the jury asserts that a war veteran was overlooked for more than two years and was serving without being sentenced for which "the jury felt the jail administration is morally responsible."

FAVORS TO MARCO

Then the favoritism toward Marco was stated. He was taken from the jail on several occasions to conduct business downtown and on one occasion was found dining in a downtown cabaret. He also is asserted to have been shown other favors.

The report strongly condemns the misplacement of the officer's gun which was used by Jack Hawkins in an attempt to to escape, for which the convict paid with his life in a gun battle in a jail elevator.

"Frank Dewar (the jailer) failed to report the loss of the pistol to his superior, as was his duty," the report says. "After the shooting he (Dewar) was removed from his position as jailer at a salary of $400 per month and placed in the robbery detail at a salary of $250 per month."

The report reveals that the dissatisfaction of the jury members was brought to the attention of Sheriff Traeger, but he chose to stand by his subordinates and "an accusation against the Sheriff for willful misconduct in office was voted by this body."

Before the accusation could be returned, however, the report says Sheriff Traeger appeared before the jury and "expressed a willingness to comply with its recommendations" by the dismissal of three deputies, suspension of three others, denial of favoritism to all prisoners and would permit no prisoner to be taken from the jail without proper court order.

MOTION RESCINDED

"Upon the Sheriff's promise to comply with these recommendations, the motion to file an accusation was rescinded," according to the report.

Aside from the criticism leveled at the County Jail administration, the jury found all other jails throughout the county to be generally sanitary and efficiently conducted, while the "honor camp" system of the Sheriff's office was commended.

The grand jury finance committee declares in the report that "through lax management a serious shortage has developed in the County Jail store. The auditor's report reveals that $15,213.01 worth of goods (valued at the store's retail prices) is unaccounted for during the year. However, out of this amount is an allowance of $5,103.52 for cigars, cigarettes, candy and newspapers to trusties who give certain services. There remains $10,109.49 worth of goods unaccounted for. The jury most emphatically condemns the system of management which has made possible such pilfering of public property."

"As a consequence of the exposure of conditions as cited and upon recommendation of the County Efficiency Commission, and with the jury's approval, a plan has been worked out which we believe will place the jail store on a more businesslike basis. The methods by which the jail authorities can wisely, and without petty graft, distribute thousands of dollars worth of candy, tobacco, etc., to prisoners and employees is still open to serious consideration."

SUSPECTED KEYES

The report also reveals that the grand jury early sensed the disorganization of the District Attorney's office under the Keyes regime, and took steps to obtain a special prosecutor and special investigators. A special committee of the jury was sent to Sacramento for that purpose and was rebuffed by State's Attorney-General Webb, according to the report.

"This grand jury has been unable to accomplish all that might be expected of it owing to the unsatisfactory conditions existing in the former District Attorney's office," the report says.

"Soon after the organization for duty, evidence began accumulating which indicated that the District Attorney's office was in a state of disorganization; that proper investigation and preparation for a determined prosecution of certain criminal cases could not be relied on by the jury.

"Because of these circumstances reflecting on the District Attorney's office, the grand jury on May 28, 1928, by unanimous vote passed a resolution requesting that the Attorney-General of California appoint an independent investigator and an independent attorney to work directly with the grand jury in certain cases.

PROPOSAL REJECTED

"A special committee presented said resolution to the Attorney-General of California in person. This committee reported to the jury that the Attorney-General declared he had no funds to pay investigators and declined to appoint an independent attorney until the grand jury could present a prima facie case against the Los Angeles District Attorney.

"Obviously with no power to engage independent investigators and no attorney to prepare papers the jury was seriously hampered in doing the necessary work. An entrance to the grand jury room other than through the District Attorney's office as heretofore was arranged and testimony finally thus secured through voluntary witnesses resulted in an accusation and indictment being filed against the District Attorney.

"The year's work of the jury was seriously curtailed and in an endeavor to prevent such handicaps in the future an amendment to Section 925 of the Penal Code was presented to the 1929 Legislature making such a request of the county grand jury mandatory on the Attorney-General."

ROADS AND HIGHWAYS

The Committee on Roads and Highways reports the following:

"The situation as to roads and highways in Los Angeles county has shown great improvement with each succeeding year. During the past year new bridges have been put in, old bridges replaced and miles of highway improved. Probably the most necessary and most noticeable improvement is the widening and straightening of the road between San Fernando and Newhall tunnel. With the improvement of conditions right at the tunnel this road will easily carry three times as much traffic as it has been able to do.

"Another noticeable improvement in existing highways is on the Valley Boulevard between Puente and Pomona. Among new projects that should be undertaken is the improvement of a highway which will relieve traffic on the Ridge Route. The road through San Francisquito Canyon by the way of Elizabeth Lake and Neenach to Bailey's ranch is a good example. Such a highway as this will eliminate the dangers of the ridge in foggy and freezing weather and also will probably relieve the ridge of a good deal of the heavy trucking.

"The development of a shorter road to Palmdale and Mohave Valley points is highly desirable. The completion of the coast road to Oxnard will give us a much-needed highway and one of considerable scenic attraction.

"On the whole the highways of the county are in excellent condition."

HEALTH CENTERS

The jury's report approves establishment of health centers ten or more miles from the General Hospital in heavily populated areas, and adds these recommendations for the betterment of the health service:

(1.) A higher standard of bookkeeping and office management in the central health office.

(2.) More efficient control of social diseases by employment of specially trained physicians.

(3.) That the County Recorder transfer the vital statistics bureau to the County Health Department, except the handling of marriage records, and organization of a statistical bureau in the health service.

(4.) Free distribution of vaccines and serums to combat contagious diseases.

(5.) Creation of a commission by the Board of Supervisors composed of the county health office, the superintendent of charities, the superintendent of the outdoor relief department, the superintendent of the Olive View Sanatorium and a representative of the County Counsel's office, to administer the activities against tuberculosis.

(5.) That a trained sanitary engineer be added to the Health Department.

(6.) Creation of a milk commission, to investigate and inspect dairy and animal supervision.

As to the investigation of the Aimee Semple McPherson case, the report says:

"In the Aimee Semple McPherson kidnaping, no evidence was produced before us to show that money was used to induce the former District Attorney to dismiss the case. The investigation now under way by other bodies may develop further evidence which may warrant action by future grand juries."

The jury condemned "the pernicious practice" by some attorneys of following dismissed trial jurors and by playing on their sympathies or threatening them and their families obtain affidavits favorable to the convicted party.

"This pernicious practice seems to be growing, and in our opinion should be strictly prohibited," the report says.

In the case of Mrs. Christine Collins, mother of a missing boy, who was sent to the psychopathic ward by Detective Lieutenant Jones of the Juvenile Bureau, when she refused to accept an impostor as her absent child, the grand jury felt that Jones was adequately punished by suspension from duty for several months.

Further investigation of the city sewer flusher affair, in which it was asserted $500,000 worth of the devices were either missing, misplaced or totally out of order, was referred to the 1929 jury.

In addition to Foreman Cooke, the retiring grand jury members are: Don S. Gates, C. A. Baker, Charles R. Rowett, Cyrus Boos, Alex H. Campbell, J. E. Coggeshall, Edwin E. Cox, Winslow B. Felix, John Anson Ford, Robert W. Garland, V. P Gilbert, Paul E. Jeffers, Adam G. Kading, Edward McCaige, Henry S. Patten, W. W. Pearson, J. C. Porter and G. B. Woodbury.

Wires Cause Disaster to Aircraft in Maneuver

Flyer Injured in Accident

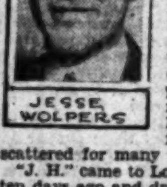
TWO BROTHERS REUNITED HERE WHEN THIRD COMES FOR VISIT

This is a story of two brothers who met as strangers in Los Angeles a few days ago and were introduced to each other by a third brother. Further complications were added by the fact that the one who did the introducing had rather a tough time trying to establish his own identity.

Two of them live in Los Angeles, and have lived here for several years without either being aware of the other's proximity. Chances are, according to Adolph Wolpers, who lives at 735 East Forty-first street, who described the family tangle yesterday, that they might have gone on thus for years but for the unexpected visit of the third brother, J. H. Wolpers, newspaper man of Poplar Bluff, Mo. The family has been scattered for many years.



JESSE WOLPERS

"J. H." came to Los Angeles about ten days ago and dropped in to pay his brother Jesse a surprise visit.

"By the way," said Jesse, after the usual greetings, "how is Adolph getting along? Do you ever hear from him? You know I have neither seen nor heard from him in twenty-three years."

"Humph!" grunted "J. H." "You ought to know—he lives right in the same town with you!"

Whereupon the man from Poplar Bluff took his long-lost brother into his confidence and between them they framed a surprise on Adolph. Early next morning they rapped on the door of Adolph's home and when he answered the knock he was informed that Messrs. Johnson and Whittaker would like to tell him about the wonders of a new subdivision.

Not a tumble from the sleepy-eyed Adolph. He thought it was a heck of a time for agents to be starting out and told his visitors so. He was about to slam the door when "J. H." thrust his foot inside.

ADOLPH WOLPERS

Adolph by now was firmly convinced that they were not realty men, but burglars instead. Anyhow, be they what they might, he had been annoyed plenty. Again he tried to close the door and again the attempt failed.

"Adolph," they said in unison, "don't you know your own brothers?"

Adolph took a closer look. There was something about "J. H." that seemed vaguely familiar, but Jesse was a total loss. Then followed a chat between "J. H." and Adolph about the old days back in Missouri. Jesse chimed in and finally convinced the doubting Adolph of his relationship.

Adolph is employed as a foreman in the Los Angeles Railway shops, while Jesse, who lives at 530 Patton street, is connected with a butter concern. There were six brothers in the family, three of whom are living in the East. The family became separated at the death of the parents and all the boys have made their own way since their early teens.

TWO PLANES WRECKED ON POWER LINES

Army Cadet Pilot from March Field Injured in Crash Near Victorville

When a squadron of twenty airplanes from March Field started on maneuvers over the desert in search of an invisible enemy the cadet pilots failed to take into consideration a number of high-tension power lines and as a result two planes were wrecked yesterday.

One of the planes was burned near Helendale when it struck the 100,000-volt wires of the Southern Sierra Power Company, but the pilot, Joseph Mullett, escaped injury. The other plane, piloted by Cadet E. W. McElwee, struck wires near Victorville and crashed to the ground. McElwee was injured and was taken to the Victorville Hospital.

According to witnesses to McElwee's accident, the plane apparently developed engine trouble and the pilot was attempting to coast to a landing. The plane appeared to settle on two of the high-powered wires and both were snapped by the propeller. The plane turned over and landed on its nose fifteen feet from the National Old Trail.

A party of motorists who were passing rushed to the wrecked plane. One of them, V. H. Grace, 154 West Fifty-second Place, Los Angeles, had a camera and he snapped the plane as it crashed. The pilot was rendered unconscious and suffered a number of cuts on his head. He will recover, physicians say.

Six Centuries Prison Term Cut by Judge

Henry Hollins, who was convicted of forty-five counts of forgery and thus faced a maximum sentence of from forty-five to 630 years, will have to serve not more than forty-two years under a term imposed yesterday by Judge Doran of Superior Court.

The term for forgery is one to fourteen years on each count, but Judge Doran felt it was sufficient to impose a sentence running concurrently on only three counts. Hollins's minimum term, therefore, will be three years, with a maximum of forty-two.

Hollins was convicted of defrauding a local glass company of about $3000 through the forgery of weighmaster's slips on loads of junk glass.

Trolley Kills Pedestrian

A man identified as William Kinsella, 941 Towne avenue, was killed instantly last night when struck by a Pacific Electric car at Kohler and Ninth streets. Motorman A. P. Collins and Conductor W. B. Bull of car No. 1038 on the Newport Beach line reported that the man walked in front of the moving car and was hit before it could be stopped.

George F. Eden, 46 years of age, of 632 East Ninety-fifth street, was injured severely last night, when the bicycle he was riding collided with an automobile driven by John M. Moffitt of 644 South Figueroa street. The collision was at Thirty-sixth and Main streets. At Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where Eden was taken, it was found that his skull is fractured. He is not expected to live.

ARCHEOLOGISTS WILL BE MUSEUM GUESTS

Members of the Southwestern Archeological Federation, made up of groups of scientific men and scholars, will be guests of the Southwest Museum at a dinner tomorrow night. A program of speakers has been arranged for the meeting in the afternoon and among them will be Kenneth M. Chapman, Museum of New Mexico; Chester Stock, California Institute of Technology, and Spencer Rogers, Museum of Anthropology of San Diego.

Dinner to Honor Shoup Planned

Paul Shoup, president of the Southern Pacific Railway, will be honored at a formal dinner on March 8, next, in the Sala de Oro at the Biltmore, according to A. G. Arnoll, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, who is assisting in plans for the event.

DISTRICTING BLOCKADE ATTACKED

Council Pledges Backing for Drive to Defeat Boggs Referendum Bill

Basing its action on the belief that a resolution for a proposed constitutional amendment now before the State Legislature is designed to prevent reapportionment of representation in the Legislature, the City Council yesterday adopted a resolution presented by President Bonelli, which pledges it to support every legitimate step to defeat the amendment.

The amendment, which was introduced by Senator Boggs, would change the present provisions relative to the circulation of initiative and referendum petitions. In fact, it would absolutely forbid the circulation of such petitions by requiring that only one petition may be placed in each voting precinct and that those desiring to sign it must go to the designated location of the petition and sign it there. Furthermore, it would prohibit the solicitation of signatures in any manner.

Not only would the passage of this amendment imperil the entire structure of the initiative and referendum procedure, according to the resolution adopted by the Council, but the resolution also charges that its specific purpose is to lessen the possibility of bringing the adoption of a reapportionment measure by the use of the initiative and referendum, Senator Boggs, it is asserted, has admitted that to be his primary purpose.

DEATH CALLS JOHN W. KEMP

Well-Known Attorney Was Ill Several Months

Public Service Included Aid to Aqueduct

Funeral Will be Tomorrow at Forest Lawn

John W. Kemp, well-known attorney, died yesterday at his home, 2115 Hobart Boulevard. He was 65 years of age, and had lived in California for sixty years, the last thirty-six of which were spent in Los Angeles. Death followed an illness of several months. Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Memorial Cemetery. Rev. Irving Spencer, rector of St. Mathias Episcopal Church, will conduct services. Mr. Kemp leaves a widow and one son, Thatcher J. Kemp.

Mr. Kemp was born in Waupaca, Wis., in 1863. He came to California via the Isthmus of Panama in 1869, was educated in the California public schools and Stockton Normal School and studied law in the offices of the late Senator John D. Works and of former Judge Olin Wellborn. He was admitted to the California bar in 1892. He was associated with Mr. Wellborn in San Diego. Since 1893, he lived continuously in Los Angeles. He was formerly associated in a law partnership with Shepard Mitchell and Mendel B. Silberberg. From 1924 until his death he was with Charles W. Partridge and Thatcher Kemp. He was a member of the Los Angeles, State and American bar associations.

ON AQUEDUCT BOARD

During the construction of the Aqueduct, Mr. Kemp served on the Board of Public Service Commissioners from 1913 to 1918. He was a Republican, a director of the Chamber of Commerce, a director of the City Club, and a member and for seven years president of the Masonic Board of Relief of Los Angeles.

Mr. Kemp was a member of the Bel-Air Country Club, South Gate Masonic Lodge, No. 320, a Thirty-second Degree Scottish Rite Mason of Los Angeles Consistory, a Noble of Al Malaikah Temple and a member of Jinnistan Grotto, No. 76.

In addition to his immediate family, he leaves three sisters, Mrs Harold W. Fairbanks of Glendale; Mrs. Morris M. McGuire of Burbank and Mrs. Annie L. Winter of San Francisco.

THE PALLBEARERS

The active pallbearers are as follows: Frank D. McPherson, B V. Collins, Judge Charles Wellborn, Meyer Elsasser, George E. Bittinger and Theodore Martin.

Honorary pallbears will be: Arthur G. Arnoll, Miguel Estudillo Lucius K Chase, William J. Hunsaker, E. A. Meserve, Judge Lewis R. Works, Frank R. Strong, Judge George A. Sturtevant, Eugene Hawkins, W. I. Hollingsworth, Guy Cutner, Franklin Booth, Dr. Irving R Bancroft, John Newton Russell, Charles L. McComber, I. H. Preston, Judge L. H. Valentine, Judson C. Rives, Capt. Robert Wankowski, Milo A. Baker, William M. McGee, W. S. Montgomery, Horace G. Miller, Robert H. Edwards, John C. Austin, Hubert L. Eaton, E. S. Pauly, Jay Spence, John C. Bannister, W. W. Whitson and A. J. Bayer.

THOUSAND AT FETE BY CHEVROLET

Bankers and Auto Men at Ambassador Dinner After Auditorium Session

More than 1000 bankers and automobile dealers last night dined together at the Ambassador following an afternoon session in Philharmonic Auditorium where R. H. Grant, vice-president in charge of sales of the Chevrolet Motor Company, predicted progress and prosperity for Southern California.

Chevrolet's program for the coming year, as outlined by Mr. Grant, includes production of 1,200,000 cars, intensive selling of new products, and better merchandising of used cars. The speaker also presented a definite plan for dealer operation which, it was stated, has the enthusiastic support of the banking interests.

Among the guests of honor at the banquet were Wade Leach, assistant to Alfred P. Sloan, president of General Motors Corporation; C. J. Henderson, sales manager of the Fisher Body Corporation, and Guy C. Brown, vice-president and secretary of the Campbell-Ewald Company, national advertising agency.

Home Economics Expert Enrolls

Senora Luz Maria Ramos, supervisor of home economics in schools of the Republic of Panama, now is enrolled as a student at the University of California at Los Angeles. Senora Ramos is studying home economics, although she already is an authority on the subject.

Senora Ramos is a native of Porto Rico and a citizen of the United States. She was graduated from the University of Porto Rico, and was then recommended by the government of Porto Rico to the Republic of Panama to organize the teaching of home economics there. In the five years that she has worked in Panama Senora Ramos has established home economics schools for the native women in practically every sizeable native town, teaching them how to better their homes and living conditions.

The senora plans to attend U. C. L. A. just this semester, returning to Panama in June.

DRUG STORE LUNCH MAY FACE FIGHT

National Restaurant Men Meet Here Next Week to Confer on Unification

Lunch counters operated in connection with drug and cigar stores are expected to constitute one of the targets to be fired at by 1000 directors of the National Restaurant Association when they meet in Los Angeles next week for a conference with Pacific Coast restaurateurs. Unification of the restaurant business is one of the aims of the national body, and the objection to combination eating places, it is said, is scheduled for considerable discussion.

The directors of the association will arrive from Chicago Sunday morning in special cars attached to the Union Pacific Los Angeles Limited, and will be met by a welcoming committee headed by Sidney Hoedmaker, president of the Los Angeles Restaurant Association and a director and vice-president of the national organization. The meetings will begin Monday morning at the Alexandria.

NEBRASKA PAIR FIND PARADISE

Theater Man and Wife Arriving Here for Visit, Overjoyed at Climate

Los Angeles again has lived up to its reputation, according to the opinion of Frank C. Zehrung, former Mayor of Lincoln, Neb., and Mrs Zehrung, who arrived here yesterday on a short visit.

"We had heard so much about Los Angeles that when we left Lincoln we had chips on our shoulders," Mr. Zehrung declared. "But it's truly a paradise and we find things far beyond our expectations. The East is having its oldest continuous winter in years and it is certainly a treat to see sunshine and to be able to go out of the house without being weighted down by a fur overcoat."

Until the war Mr. Zehrung was in the theatrical business, owning in partnership a string of legitimate theaters in Omaha, Lincoln, St Joseph Mo.; Joplin, Mo., and Topeka, Kan. He entered politics in Lincoln after giving up his theater holdings and four times was elected Mayor. He retired two years ago from active politics, he said.

This is the first visit of the Zehrungs to California in twenty-five years and he declares he is amazed by its growth into one of the country's largest cities. His father, John Zehrung, formerly a San Francisco candy manufacturer, died in Los Angeles several weeks after contracting an illness from exposure in the San Francisco fire. Mr and Mrs Zehrung will spend two weeks here to renew acquaintances with their former theatrical friends before returning home via the north. They are guests at the Roosevelt Hotel in Hollywood.

OFFICER'S SISTER DIES

Policeman's Kin Will be Buried in Glendale Tomorrow

The funeral of Mrs. Lyda Bensfield, sister of Detective Captain Bert Lynn of the Los Angeles Police Department, will take place tomorrow noon at the Little Church of the Flowers in Glendale. Interment will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Bensfield, the wife of Harry Bensfield, San Bernardino business man, became ill with pneumonia at her home in San Bernardino two weeks ago and died late Wednesday night. She leaves her husband and a 3-weeks-old daughter, Lyda Lynn Bensfield. Besides Capt. Lynn she leaves also a brother, H. C. Lynn of San Bernardino, and a sister, Mrs. Jerrene Sidote of Dallas, Tex.

Members of the family were present when death occurred. She was 27 years of age.

BATTLE PRACTICE DISCOURAGES WIFE

Mrs. Leila Spellman (sitting) and Mrs. Viola Radcliffe

Mrs. Leila Spellman took the part of "the lass that loved a sailor," she testified in Superior Judge Schmidt's court yesterday, but she didn't love him well enough to serve as target for his battle practice.

So with the aid of her attorney, Arthur C. Webb, and a friend, Mrs. Viola Radcliffe, she obtained a divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty. Mrs. Spellman testified that her husband came home drunk, and beat her. She particularly objected to getting black eyes before social engagements, and offered to take mascara and blacken her eye just to show the judge how terrible she looked when so decorated.

Spellman, who is with his ship at an Asiatic station, signed a waiver of his rights so the divorce action could proceed in his absence.

Approval Given Contracts for New Bathhouse

Contracts for the construction of the North Hollywood bathhouse and pool, the plumbing and filtering system and appropriations for extra wings to the bathhouse and a sprinkling system for the playground, were approved yesterday by the Playground and Recreation Commission.

The contract for the bathhouse and pool was awarded to the J. & B. Construction Company on its bid of $22,965.

The contract for the plumbing and filter installation was awarded to R. E. Thane on his bid of $7752. The two totaled more than $30,000 budgeted for the work.

On recommendation of Supt. Hjelte the commission appropriated $4815 to cover the extra cost and to provide for two wings containing shower and dressing-rooms and the director's office. An additional $2500 was provided from the department's unappropriated balance for a water line.

Fire Station at Reseda Favored by Commission

The Fire Commission yesterday unanimously indorsed the request of the Reseda Chamber of Commerce that a modern and adequate fire station be constructed by the city in Reseda to serve seven thickly settled districts in San Fernando Valley declared to be without proper protection.

The resolution pointed out that the community embraces Girard, Owensmouth, Chatsworth, Zelzah, Runnymede and Tarzana, and that such a station therefore would furnish protection to all those districts.

Fire Chief Scott asserted that in the 280 square miles of that portion of the city which is in the San Fernando Valley there are but two small fire stations, one at Van Nuys and the other at Lankershim.

The commission requested that the Council take early action toward providing a station and equipment at Reseda.

Funeral Rites for Architect's Mother Today

Funeral services will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. today for Mrs. Elizabeth Stacy-Judd, mother of Robert B. Stacy-Judd of Hollywood, noted for his revival of Mayan architecture. Mrs. Stacy-Judd died Tuesday in a local sanatorium after suffering for more than ten years a lingering form of shell shock. She was 72 years of age.

Physicians attributed death to shock which Mrs. Stacy-Judd received during the World War. She lived in London during the air raids, the strain of which worked on her nerves. Her husband died of similar shell shock in London in 1917. Mrs. Stacy-Judd was born in Blantyre, Scotland. She came to Los Angeles in 1924 to live with her son. Burial will be at Forest-Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

DIX RETURNS FROM FIRST ALL-TALKIE

After two months in New York filming his first all-talking picture, Richard Dix returned yesterday. His second talkie will be made in Hollywood, he said. His first talkie is "Nothing But the Truth." Victor Schertzinger, who directed, and J. G. Bachmann, associate producer, returned with Dix yesterday.

CITY WARNED OF LOSING AIR UNIT

Jeffers Urges Permanent Lease for Guard

Squadron Will Move North Unless Provided For

Question of Overriding Park Board Again Raised

Warning that the threatened dispossession of the National Guard air unit from the Griffith Park airport would mean the disbanding of the only military air force stationed in this part of the State, Maj. John N. Jeffers, commander of the squadron, addressed a letter yesterday to the City Council asking the co-operation of that body in assuring the unit of continued tenancy of the field.

The National Guard flyers are using the field under a five-year lease which expires October 1. They have not been formally notified that their lease will be terminated on that date but assume it will be, in view of the fact that the Park Board recently adopted a resolution opposing the use of any part of Griffith Park for airport purposes. The Park Board adopted this resolution after it had received an opinion from City Attorney Stephens to the effect that the City Council is without authority to establish an airport in Griffith Park without consent of the board.

SITUATION PRESENTED

In his appeal to the City Council, Maj. Jeffers presents the situation as follows:

"This unit was organized in June, 1924, and has been stationed at this field ever since. Through this period of time, it has built itself up to where today it ranks as one of the best national guard squadrons in the United States.

"It is the only flying unit allowed for the National Guard of the States of California, Utah and Nevada, and is composed entirely of personnel living in Los Angeles and vicinity. Due to this fact, other cities in California are very anxious to have this squadron stationed in their city, so much so, in fact, that they are offering free leases, and are agreeing to build permanent buildings for the squadron and to pay all cost of moving the equipment from Los Angeles.

"The State has had funds available for some time to build an armory, headquarters building, to put and maintain the field in first-class condition; but cannot allow this expenditure until a permanent arrangement can be made for the location of this unit. The War Department has been anxious for some time to improve the facilities of this unit, but is also restrained by lack of permanency of the unit.

SQUADRON WILL MOVE

"In the event it is not possible to make this location permanent, the squadron will be moved either to Sacramento or the vicinity of San Francisco. This would mean that the present personnel would be disbanded, and Los Angeles would be without the benefit of this squadron, which, in the event of war, would be a first line defense.

"In addition to the value of this unit in case of war, it has already demonstrated its usefulness by its co-operation with the various branches of the city, county and State governments in many operations, such as its assistance to the State in quelling the San Quentin riot. For another illustration, when the St. Francis Dam broke this squadron was the first to cover the area and give intelligent information. This squadron was on the job at daylight and, in spite of the fog, returned accurate information as to the extent of the damage, which we were informed later became extremely valuable.

"Without doubt, the eyes of the aeronautical world are focused upon Los Angeles because of its tremendous natural advantages for flying and it will be indeed regrettable if through lack of foresight and co-operation this city would be deprived of its only military flying unit."

URGES CITY AIRPORT

In addition to sending his letter to the Council, Maj. Jeffers made a personal appeal yesterday to Councilman Hall for the latter to continue his efforts to establish a municipal airport on the field now being used by the National Guard. Councilman Hall has been a leader in the movement, although most of his colleagues have more than once expressed themselves in favor of it.

It has long been the understanding of all concerned that if the Griffith Park tract is definitely established as a municipal airport the city will grant the National Guard a long-term lease for the use of a portion of the field, with the rental only being a nominal sum. There is before the City Council at present an ordinance establishing the field as a municipal airport, but, because of the opinion of City Attorney Stephens that the Park Board has sole jurisdiction over the field, the ordinance is being allowed to languish in the files of the Finance Committee.

NOT PART OF GIFT TRACT

It is against the policy of the Council to act contrary to rulings of the City Attorney, but Councilman Hall said yesterday he proposes to attempt to secure the passage of the ordinance for the Griffith Park airport and have the point at issue settled by the courts if necessary. He bases his proposal on the following facts:

The land now being used as an air field is not part of that which was donated to the city for park purposes by the Griffith family; the tract was never legally dedicated to park purposes; the Council also has authority, under Sec. 178 of the charter, to provide for use of the tract as an air field, if it be granted that an airport is a public utility.

EIGHTH OF GERMAN LECTURES DUE TONIGHT

The eighth of a series of twelve free lectures in German will be given at the Los Angeles Public Library tonight at 8 o'clock. These lectures are designed for those who are interested in the best in contemporary German literature and are given under the auspices of the foreign book department of the library. The lecturer tonight is Christel B. Schomaker, University of Southern California, and the subject is Gustav Frenssen, one of Germany's foremost living novelists.

GOLD OF SUN POETIC MYTH

Astronomer Says Old Sol Lacks Element

Stars and Human Beings of Same Composition

Dr. St. John Lectures at Caltech Meeting

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Feb. 21.—"Golden sun" is an expression that may be used by poets, but it is incorrect from the scientific viewpoint, according to Dr. Charles E. St. John of the Mt. Wilson Observatory, who spoke tonight at the California Institute of Technology on "The Material Constitution of the Universe." The lecture was the fourth of a series being given under the auspices of the Astronomical Society of the Pacific and Mt. Wilson Observatory.

Fifty-eight of the ninety-two elements are known to exist on the sun, it was revealed by Dr. St. John, who recently completed an exhaustive spectographic study of solar materials. Platinum is the latest element discovered on the sun, while gold is conspicuous by its absence.

SAME STUFF

"When we look up at the stars," said the speaker, "we are, in one sense, looking at ourselves, because stars and human beings are made of the same stuff.

"Progress, from Aristotle's conception of the elements of the material world as earth, air, fire and water, to the present system of ninety-two elements, represents more than twenty centuries of more or less eventful history in the scientific realm.

"Today, we consider the positive nucleus of the hydrogen atom (the proton) and its accompanying negative electron as the ultimate building stones of which all the elements are constructed by successive additions of protons and electrons." The method used by nature to create the variety of substances found in the universe by embellishing hydrogen atoms is still a process that man cannot imitate, according to the astronomer.

ELEMENTS TRACED

Dr. St. John stated that there are only two undiscovered elements in the range between hydrogen and uranium (No. 92,)and that the general nature of these two remaining undiscovered substances can be predicted. Of these "missing links" in the chain of sensible elements, No. 85 will be found to be of the chlorine class, and No. 87 will be found to be a member of the radioactive family. Back of the single hydrogen proton is nothing, and ahead of uranium would be a range of such unstable material that it could not exist for any appreciable time, so scientists do not anticipate that man ever will discover any radically new components of the material universe.

"Seventy years ago," said the scientist, "we knew nothing at all concerning the composition of the stars, but since that time, with the aid of the telescope, microscope and spectroscope we are learning more and more concerning the minuteness, immensity and material of the sensible universe."

NO EXPLANATION

The speaker, in answer to a question, admitted that there is no explanation of the enormous gap in size between the tiny invisible "universes" in which a proton serves as a sun about which electrons whirl like planets and the gigantic suns and planetary systems of space.

Just as each star or solar system in the universe is characterized by its varying number of planets, the elements, as man knows them, are identified by the varying number of electrons which whirl about the nuclei of that substance's atom.

From the standpoint of the student of atoms, eight is the perfect number because the only elements which will not combine with other substances are of the type which have eight electrons in their outer circles.

LIFE-LENGTH VARIES

The length of life of the elements varies, according to Dr. St. John, and some them have their day and then become as extinct as the saber-tooth tiger. The shortest lived element is radon which has a life of only five and one-half days before its atoms distintegrate. Radium, although relatively short lived, will retain its identity for about 2500 years, but eventually succumbs to the law of the survival of the fittest.

"Helium used for filling the bags of dirigibles is one of the few elements that we know is increasing in the world," declared the speaker.

"The Fraunhofer lines that cross the spectrum of the sun provide an alphabet by which we may read the mysteries of the stars and class them as readily as the botanist does flowers."

ISLAND UNIVERSES

Spiral nebulae are "island universes" and the most interesting objects in the heavens, he declared.

A nebula which goes by the uninteresting name of "N.G.C. 7619" was noted as the piece de resistance for heavenly sight-seers by reason of the fact that it is both the farthest and vastest moving body visible from the earth.

"N.G.C." was believed to be a mirage until an astronomer with unusual fortitude scrutinized it for forty-eight hours to prove its reality.

This nebula is sprinting away from the earth at the rate of 2375 miles a second and the light that makes it visible to astronomers started on its way at the rate of 186,000 odd miles a second just 2,500,000 years ago. Dr. St. John is of the opinion that this bashful nebula is another universe in the making.

VEIL BLOCKS

"The most maddening thing to astronomers," according to Dr. St. John, "is the existence of a heavy layer of ozone located 50,000 miles above the earth's surface, which will make it impossible for all time to discover certain elements in the sun. The strong lines in the spectra of these elements are not within the wave length accessible to man as their light will not pass through this heavy layer."

Through Dr. St. John's development of a method of sounding the sun's atmosphere and locating the origin of radiation from the sun's elements, he proved Einstein's prediction of a change in the wave length of solar light.

TEMPERAMENT WINS DIVORCE

Wife Says She Had to Feed Moody Husband With Spoon

Demanding that his wife feed him with a spoon after he had some teeth pulled and refusing to speak to her for days at a time were some of the things that led up to her suit, Mrs. Bertha F. Garwood, asking for a divorce from Edward Z. Garwood, told Superior Judge Stutsman yesterday.

Mrs. Garwood also testified that her husband became intoxicated frequently and lost much of his earnings over a poker table. The decree was granted.

STATE BLUE SKY CHIEF TO GO EAST

Friedlander to Present Views on Uniformity of Real Estate Securities

The ideas and views of a number of California investment dealers on the question of greater uniformity of practice in handling problems involving real-estate securities will be laid before a committee of the National Association of Securities Commissioners by State Corporation Commissioner Friedlander. He will depart today for Chicago to attend the committee meeting, called to discuss the numerous forms of real-estate mortgage investments with a view to completing its final report in readiness for the association's annual meeting.

In addition to his own views on the subject Commissioner Friedlander will present the ideas of investment leaders here with whom he has discussed the problem. These include, among others, Lee J. Phillips, John M. C. Marble, H. B. Thomas, J. K. Beillie, S. N. Fish Harold Bayly of Los Angeles, and a number of men in San Francisco. The committee was created at the last annual convention of the association, which is composed of "blue-sky-law" administrators of the various States.

Appeals Court Upholds Guilt of Bank Bandits

An echo of the sensational $59,000 hold-up and robbery of a Pacific National Bank messenger on Chicago street on March 2, last, was heard in the opinion given yesterday by Judge Thompson of the Appellate Court upholding the judgment of the Superior Court in the conviction and sentence of three of the bandits.

An appeal from the judgment of Superior Judge Edmonds was taken by Arthur Clensey, Horace Miles and William Woods, the three convicted, the appeal being based on the fact that other defendants were dismissed and that one count of the charges was dismissed in the case of others of the group of twelve men originally accused of the crime. It was contended by the men that dismissal of the first count placed the defendants in jeopardy once and that they could not be prosecuted on the second count, that of robbery.

Hawley Will Sets Bequest for Mormons

The Los Angeles Stake of the Mormon Church was bequeathed $5000 in the will of Henry W. Hawley of the Los Angeles Rock and Gravel Company, who died last week.

Other beneficiaries are Fannie E. Boor of Los Angeles, described as a friend, who inherits $25,000, and Cora Hawley and Stella Hawley daughters, who get real estate and a home with a request that Sophia and Sarah Maxfield be allowed to share the home with them. The Maxfield sisters also get $75 a month from a trust fund.

Other children besides the two daughters mentioned, who share in the estate, are Vera McMurrin, Hazel King and Ray L. Hawley.

Screen Leaders Named to Assist Loyola Benefit

The executive committee for the screen stars gambol, composed of twenty-three of the leading film producers, was announced yesterday by Lou Anger, who has been named executive chairman. The committeemen are:

Adolph Zukor, Harry Conn, Charles Christie, Harold Lloyd, Charles Chaplin, Jesse Lasky, William Fox, Douglas Fairbanks, Winfield Sheehan, Samuel Goldwyn Mack Sennett, Harold B. Franklin Carl Laemmle, Cecil B. De Mille, Hal Roach, B. P. Schulberg, E. H. Allen, Will H. Hays, Fred Beetson Jack Warner, Louis B. Mayer, Sol Wurtzel and Joseph M. Schenck.

The screen stars gambol is to be staged by the Motion Picture Producers' Association at the Shrine Auditorium on April 1. Proceeds from the show will be used to construct an art building at the new Loyola University campus at Del Rey.

Former Iowa Couple Carry Woes to Court

Airing of marital difficulties between Albert H. Brett, formerly of Mason City, Iowa, a member of a prominent Northern Iowa family, and his wife, Mrs. Cora B. Brett, began yesterday before Superior Judge Baird on Mrs. Brett's petition for a divorce and a cross-complaint filed by her husband.

Mrs. Brett, who occupied the stand for several hours at the opening of the hearing, accused her husband of acts of cruelty, declaring that he beat and choked her. Brett in his cross-complaint accuses Mrs. Brett of being too friendly with a man named Henry Thompson, an old-time friend of the family. Mrs. Brett denies the accusation.

The couple were married at Austin, Minn., o May 14, 1922, and separated on May 12, 1928, according to the complaint.

At the close of the testimony in behalf of the husband on his cross-complaint, Judge Baird denied Brett's plea for a separation and granted a divorce to Mrs. Brett. The court also allowed her $300 for attorney fees and alimony in the sum of $75 a month for two years.

LEGION WILL FROLIC

Opera and vaudeville headliners are promised for tonight's frolic of Vernon Post, No. 338, American Legion, at the Vernon Country Club. The entertainment is arranged for the benefit of the post's child-welfare work and for the building fund. Commander Vetran Ricca announces the presence at the frolic of the following: Alice Gentle, grand-opera diva; Sophie Tucker, Morris Stoloff, George Austin Moore, Hunt Cook, George E Grandee, jazz pianist; Nino Herschel and Eddie Quillan, screen comic.

Nurse's Blood Given Patient Valued at $25

One quart of human blood is worth $25, according to a decision of Municipal Judge McDill. The ruling was made on a suit filed by Mrs. Mae Cummings, practical nurse, against Mary Purcell, a former patient.

Mrs. Cummings declared that, as an incident to her employment by Miss Purcell, she was called upon to give a quart of blood for transfusion purposes to aid her employer to recover from an operation. In an itemized list she set forth claims against Miss Purcell totaling $328.66, which included housework, nursing and the use of an automobile, in addition to the blood.

"The court agrees that $25 is a reasonable charge for a quart of blood," said Judge McDill in giving judgment of $150 for Mrs. Cummings.

OPERALOGUE WILL BE PRESENTED NEXT WEEK

As an operalogue, "Thais" is to be presented by Ethel Graham Lynde in Barker Brothers Auditorium next Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Lynde interprets the opera, giving certain paraphrases to the musical score. In interludes, the music will be rendered. Mrs. Lynde interprets the theme and philisophy of the opera, assisted by Miss Marjorie Hicks Hall.

Three other operas to be sung in Los Angeles are to be presented in operalogue form at Barker Brothers, without admission charge. The schedule includes "Norma," March 1, "Faust," March 4, and "Lohengrin," March 6.

ADDITIONAL TAX HUNT LAUNCHED

Federal Experts Arrive to Assist Welch

Hollywood Film Incomes to be Scrutinized

Collector Files Liens Against Two

Government machinery was started yesterday in the annual income tax campaign in the southern district of California upon the arrival here of two Federal officials from Washington. They are O. E. Pagin, indictment expert for the government, and Morton Fisher, assistant to the Attorney-General.

The two officials held a conference with S. H. Hamer, chief of the district's intelligence division for the Internal Revenue Department, and it was intimated that the annual investigations regarding income tax returns will begin within a few days and be in full swing by March 15, next, the "zero" hour on making tax returns.

Upon the arrival of the two officials, it was learned that an investigation will be made regarding incomes of many Hollywood motion-picture players and the returns made through their tax experts. Tax returns will be thoroughly scrutinized, it was stated.

Collector of Internal Revenue Welch yesterday filed an income tax lien against E. Jerome Miley, 761 Subway Terminal Building, for $157,460.07 additional taxes for 1927. Another lien was filed against Tibor Mindszents, known on the screen as Paul Vincenti, 6521 Sunset Boulevard, for $178.64 for additional taxes for 1927.

SNETHEN GIVEN TERM IN PRISON

Sentence of 1 to 10 Years at San Quentin Meted

Former Traffic Commission Official Denied Probation

Spending of Embezzled Cash on Actress Criticised

Clarence R. Snethen, former secretary of the Los Angeles City and County Traffic Commission, yesterday was sentenced to serve from one to ten years in San Quentin penitentiary by Superior Judge Shaw on charges of embezzling approximately $10,000 from his employers.

Snethen recently pleaded guilty to a charge of embezzling $300 and applied for probation, which was denied by Judge Shaw yesterday after hearing the probation officer's report.

In returning his judgment in the case Judge Shaw said the fact that Snethen spent the money on an actress friend instead of for his family influenced him in deciding that there was no legitimate excuse for the embezzlement.

Snethen was captured in Jennings, La., by special detectives from the Southern California Telephone Company while he was acting as advance agent for a road show.

In his story to officers after his return, Snethen is asserted to have said that he took the funds as salary advances until he became so deeply in debt that he could not refund it.

GAIN NOTED IN VISITORS TO CATALINA

Developments on Island Outlined to Wrigley at Meeting of Companies

William Wrigley, Jr., yesterday heard of the travel gains to Catalina and the continued development of that island under his lieutenants and pronounced them good. It was the annual meeting for several of his western companies.

More than 700,000 persons transited the channel on Wrigley liners, a gain of 80,000 over last year, and a new record. A new aviary has risen with more than 4000 birds. A sixteen-mile double-track auto highway to Little Harbor is new.

A tent village and a village for the Mexican help are among the important additions. A new casino will be ready for opening Memorial Day. It will accommodate 7000 dancers and cost $1,500,000.

Officers for the Wilmington Transportation Company and Santa Catalina Island Company are identical, as follows: William Wrigley, chairman of the board; J. H. Patrick, president; D. M. Renton, J. N. Stewart and Capt. William Banning, vice-presidents, and David P. Fleming, secretary-treasurer.

AIR SCHOOL BOYS DO NOT NEED CARDS

Enrollment Can be Made Tomorrow if Mails Have Delayed Certificates

Allowing for the possible delay in transit of membership cards not mailed until yesterday, officials of the Los Angeles Times-National Aviation School for Boys will accept for enrollment tomorrow applicants unable to produce their cards, providing they forwarded the applications before midnight, the 20th inst.

The opening day exercises of the second class will take place at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow in the auditorium of the National Automotive and Electrical School, the aeronautical division of which will conduct the classes in co-operation with the Los Angeles Times. The school is located at Santa Barbara avenue and South Figueroa street.

Elaborate preparation has been made for the reception and formal enrollment of the new students tomorrow morning. In the afternoon, most of them, it is believed, will participate in the Model Air Meet of the Playground Department at Exposition Park.

Indoor Airplane Meet Arranged for Tomorrow

With the indoor championship of the city at stake, boys from all over Los Angeles will meet at the Armory, Exposition Park, tomorrow afternoon, in a miniature aircraft tournament sponsored by the Department of Playground and Recreation. This will be the first annual indoor model airplane meet and the boys are expected to set many records.

The meet will be held in two divisions, with juniors, under 16 years of age, presenting their events beginning at 1:30 p.m. and the senior boys beginning their events at 7:30 p.m. There will be four events for each division: Gliders, indoor tractors, commercial models and baby r.o.g.'s.

Among the prizes are cups for the junior and senior champions, the Helen I. French Trophy for the model airplane club with the most boys entered in the meet, a cup for the winner of the senior commercial-models event and one for the winner of the junior baby r.o.g. event and ribbons for place winners.

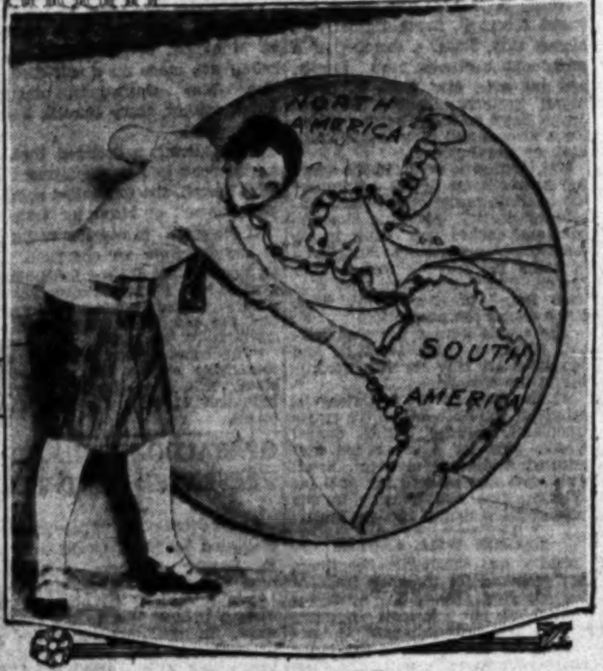
LATIN NATIONS GOOD CUSTOMERS

Many Products Sold From Southland



Some Ports of Call

INEZ BARNES, student of foreign trade at the University of Southern California, points out some of the South American ports recently visited by Los Angeles trade emissaries on a tour of the southern continent.

Thousands of tons of Los Angeles and Southern California commodities are sold annually to South America. A total of $417,000,000 worth of Southern California products were shipped out of Los Angeles Harbor to forty-eight countries last year. Of this, $46,000,000 was for foodstuffs.

PARK BILL DECLARED DANGEROUS

Mrs. Bernice Johnson in Ebell Talk Denounces Measure as Malicious

"If you want to put a mortgage over your home that may cause you to lose it, then go ahead and vote for the 'Metropolitan Park Bill,' the greatest chance in the history of the State for real-estate men to cut a melon," declared Mrs. Bernice Johnson, in a talk on current events before the South Side Ebell Club yesterday.

"I think very few women realize that this bill allows a committee of five men, appointed by the Governor, to vote bonds of 3 per cent of the assessed valuation of the county and city property of Los Angeles, which means $182,000,000 for new parks and playgrounds. Besides this they can vote $5,000,000 a year for interest and almost $2,000,000 for incidental expenses. If you want to put a heavy mortgage on your home, do so, but why let five strange men of whom you know nothing do it for you?

"If this bill, which is before the Senate now, goes into effect, the bonds voted would constitute about as heavy a load as the city and county property could carry, unless the assessed valuation was greatly increased. This would mean that when the time came to float the Boulder Dam project, it would be impossible for Los Angeles City and county to do their share.

"The most malicious thing about it, perhaps, is that there has been written into the bill an emergency clause that makes it impossible for the people to ever referendum it; so once done, it is done for good.

"It seems to me that a better policy would be to take care of the parks we have, rather than to allow a committee to vote huge sums for new ones. There are acres of parks in Los Angeles today where the trees are dying for lack of water, which lack of funds kept the city or county from providing," she suggested.

"To me it seems one of the most dangerous bills that ever has been brought up before the Senate. It is already in such bad repute that no one will claim it as his bill, and I shall certainly bend all my efforts on my return from the inaugural services in Washington to see that this 'illegitimate child' is killed," she concluded.

FOUR BANDS TO PLAY AT AUTO SHOW

Signing of This Number Announced by Chairman of Exhibit Committee

Signing of a quartet of well-known bands to provide the musical background for the sixteenth annual automotive exposition of the Los Angeles Motor Car Dealers' Association was announced yesterday by Watt L. Moreland, chairman of the committee supervising the show, which opens March 2, next.

Each installed on a bandstand in one of the mammoth tents that have been erected at Hill and Washington streets for the nine-day spectacle, the orchestras will present popular and semiclassical numbers. They include Benjamin Laietsky's aggregation, two of Roberts's Golden State bands, and the Patrick and Marsh Orchestra.

To be filled later with the latest modes in motor cars, airplanes, motor boats and accessories, the great tents now are being decorated by a host of artisans. Present plans of the committee indicate that the show will be the greatest affair of its kind ever held on the Pacific Coast. Burt Roberts, executive secretary of the dealers' association, is show manager.

NEWS OF THE CAFES

HAWAIIAN FOUR EMPLOYED

George Lloyd, proprietor of the Patio Restaurant and Tea Garden in Beverly Boulevard west of Fairfax avenue, announces the engagement of the "Prosperity Hawaiian Four," widely known radio artists to entertain his guests Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday evenings. Lloyd is known to cafegoers as an entertainer. The Patio serves chicken, steak and trout dinners until the wee small hours.

LAUNDRY WORKERS EAT

Approximately forty employees of the Empire Laundry Company held a banquet last evening in the Cliff Dwellers Cafe, in Beverly Boulevard at Virgil street. The losing team in a "new customer" contest sponsored by the company honored the winning team with a delicious prepared dinner. The Cliff Dwellers Cafe is one of the most unique eating places in Southern California and features nightly chicken, steak and squab dinners.

DANCE FINALS TONIGHT

With a gala festival tonight, the grand finals of the dancing contest given at the Montmartre will be held. The evening is one of a series of collegiate nights, and on this occasion will be sponsored by Kappa Sigma fraternity of the University of Southern California. Jimmy Spence, business manager of the Daily Trojan, will be guest of honor and will judge the best dancers from the winners of the six previous contests. A handsome and valuable prize will be awarded.

POPULAR EATING PLACE

One of the popular eating places in Hollywood is the Paris-Rome Cafe in Wilcox near Hollywood Boulevard. French and Italian foods are featured with a large variety of unusual European viands on the menu found only in cafes on the boulevards of Paris and famous cafes of Rome. Many patrons of the Warner Brothers Theater are finding the Paris-Rome Cafe a delightful place to dine for luncheon or dinner.

VERNON CLUB AGAIN GAY

Following the brilliant reopening of the new Vernon Country Club under the proprietorship of George Goldie and Tommy Jacobs, the institution at Forty-ninth street and Santa Fe avenue has reassumed the atmosphere of its gayest earlier days.

With such widely known night club stars as Mel Calish, George Lloyd and Jane Jones as headliners and with Dave Snell's orchestra furnishing the dance music, scores of stageland and filmdom's elite are making it a nightly rendezvous.

CAFE REDECORATED

After spending several hundred dollars in redecorating and refitting his popular restaurant in Western avenue at Fifth street, C. Marchetti states, that his establishment now is considered by many as being one of the finest eating places in the West. Quality food and fastidious service are the chief reasons for the ever-increasing patronage, it is said. Marchetti's experience as a restaurateur has been extensive, starting many years ago in the East.

HOLIDAY OBSERVED

The birthday of George Washington will be observed at the Nikabob at Ninth and Western avenue with special cherry pie and ice cream in the shape of tiny hatchets, listed on the menu. Krause, proprietor, announces that every holiday on the calendar will be observed with a featured dish. Corn beef and cabbage will be served on St. Patrick's Day.

STUDENT HONOR GUEST

Bob Behlow, president of the student body at the University of Southern California will be guest of honor tonight at the first collegiate festival in the new Blossom Room of the Roosevelt Hotel.

Eugene Stark, managing director, plans to make the event one of the most notable college affairs ever held in the Southland. Dancing will be to the music of Henry Halstead's Victor recording orchestra. The night's festivities will mark the first college dancing contest, with a beautiful prize at stake.

A measure has been introduced in the Connecticut Legislature by Senator Mary A. Weaver, providing for jury service for women.

AIRMEN STUDY RADIO BEACON

United States Taking Lead in Aerial Navigation

Cabin Plane Assigned for Experimentation

Shielding of Ignition Makes Reception Better

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER

It seems as though the United States has taken the lead in radio development for aerial navigation.

The Department of Commerce has just assigned to the Bureau of Standards a cabin airplane. It has become a flying laboratory for use in the study of the operation of the radio-beacon system and other uses of radio under actual flight conditions.

The plane, which originally was intended to transport four passengers and a pilot, has been converted for laboratory use by the removal of two seats and the installation of permanent radio equipment.

IGNITION SHIELDED

The entire airplane structure was bonded and the engine ignition system completely shielded in order to give satisfactory transmitting and reception conditions.

It is said that the shielding is so successful that an unusually sensitive aircraft radio receiver may be operated without interference from the engine ignition.

DUPLICATE EQUIPMENT

In front of the observers' seats all the equipment is installed in cabinets which, when not in use, form a desk. The essential navigation instruments are duplicated on the instrument board just above the desk.

Visual indicators for the directive radio-beacon and marker beacons are provided in duplicate, one for the pilot and the other set for the observers.

Although the new craft is stationed on the Atlantic seaboard at present, there is every indication that it may later be sent to other parts of the country on tour.

GIRLS' COLLEGE TO GIVE PROGRAM OVER WSB

ATLANTA (Ga.) Feb. 21.—Agnes Scott College of Decatur will have its annual radio program for alumnae the 21st inst. over WSB, which operates on 740 kilocycles at 5 p.m. Pacific time. It is expected that groups of graduates and former students of the girls' college will be listening at various parts of the country.

NEW RULES FOR RADIO ENGINEERS

WASHINGTON (D. C.) Feb. 21.—Department of Commerce radio division regulations governing licenses for operators at broadcast stations have been modified. They now provide that applicants must be able to transmit and receive not less than sixteen words a minute in Continental Morse code, in code groups, and twenty words a minute in Continental Morse code, in plain language, figuring five characters to the word. The previous requirement was to transmit twenty words a minute, in code groups, and twenty-five a minute in straight code.

CHANGES IN THREE STATIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—According to official advice from Washington, the following changes in California radio stations have been ordered: KFCR, Santa Barbara, call letters changed to KDB; KPO, San Francisco, power reduced from 5000 to 1000 watts, and KTBI, Los Angeles, power reduced from 1000 to 750 watts.

BLACK CROWS GET DIRECTOR

Lily Damita's Contract May be Purchased by M-G-M; Camilla Horn Quits United—Maybe for Europe; Malena's Star Picture Bought by Lasky

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

When Messrs. George Moran and Charles Mack, better known to those who sit at home and listen to their radios as the Two Black Crows, start work on their initial picture for Paramount, they will have as their director no less capable a man than George Abbott, it was announced yesterday by B. P. Schulberg.

Abbott is from the stage, having to his credit the direction of such New York hits as "Broadway," "Coquette" and "Gentlemen of the Press." For the past several months Abbott has been engaged as director at the Paramount Long Island studios. His splendid work in making two or three shorties resulted in his assignment to direct a filmisation of Edith Wharton's novel, "The Children," in Hollywood.

The director came to Los Angeles about a week ago to work on dialogue for "The Children." However, Paramount decided yesterday to assign Abbott to the Moran and Mack opus. He will start work early in March.

No title has been set for the initial picture of the comedians on the talking screen. It is known that they will appear briefly without burnt-cork make-up, but for the most part in their familiar vaudeville black face.

Octavus Roy Cohen, famous as the writer of stories of colored people, is working on the first of the vehicles for the popular pair. Both Moran and Mack have taken houses in Beverly Hills.

M.-G.-M. SET TO BUY DAMITA'S CONTRACT

While nothing is yet settled, it is understood that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is all set to buy the contract of Lily Damita from Samuel Goldwyn.

LILY DAMITA

Miss Damita, French actress, beautiful and talented, is considered a find. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has already used her in one of its most important features, viz., "The Bridge of San Luis Rey," and likes her so much that negotiations are on to win her contract away from Goldwyn. Goldwyn, on the other hand, is asking a high price for the young actress's services. And so the matter stands, but with an excellent probability, all things considered, that M.-G.-M. will secure her.

Camilla Horn Leaves United

Although beautiful Camilla Horn's contract with United Artists has until next Christmas to run, Miss Horn, we learn, will probably not renew with that organization.

CAMILLA HORN

She has already, it is known, received offers from several companies for her services, including Fox and Paramount. Also she has received bids from English and German companies—bids so large that she is not sure that she can afford to refuse them.

And then again, the husband to whom she is devoted, Claus Geers, is head of a big business in Germany and England and cannot be with her. So, although she loves Hollywood, it is quite possible that she may accept the foreign contracts.

Lena Malena With M.-G.-M.

There is every chance in the world that Lena Malena will play one of the leading feminine roles in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Green Ghost," which Rupert Julian will direct. She has just taken tests for the role, and is studying to get rid of her accent.

LENA MALENA

Miss Malena has just returned from Germany, and meeting her yesterday frankly, I hardly knew her, she has become so slim, svelte and altogether pretty, deserving a great deal of credit when one considers she has just come from the land of coffee klaches, where they like their ladies round.

The actress starred while abroad in a film called "The Burning Heart," under direction of Ludwig Berger, who directed Pola Negri in one or two of her most successful Paramount pictures. "The Burning Heart" has been purchased by Paramount and will be exhibited in this country.

Miss Malena admits that she is engaged to Manfred Noe, a German picture producer of Berlin, but says that she broke the engagement because of a quarrel when he refused to come to this country.

"He is a very fine man, but he disappointed me very much by refusing to keep his word given to me when I knew him before in Berlin to give up his work there and come to California. Me, I love my Hollywood," declared Miss Malena. "Love me, love my Hollywood!"

Donald Ogden Stewart Acts

You who have reveled in the works of that writer of divine nonsense, Donald Ogden Stewart, may now have a chance to hear him speaking it.

Stewart is appearing in a characteristic nonsense speech in a Paramount talking film called "Humorous Flights," directed by Fred A. Fleck, and being produced in the east.

This is not Stewart's first professional public appearance, he being even now an actor in Philip Barry's "Holiday" in New York.

Music Writers for Warners

We shall soon have a Tin Pan Alley of our own, judging from the hegira of noted song writers from New York to join the film music colony here.

Warner Brothers announced yesterday the creation of a song-writing department that will be the biggest rival of Broadway's Tin Pan Alley in the country.

Ray Perkins, composer, has been placed in charge, and under his direction eight writers have been placed under contract to furnish theme song material exclusively for Warner Brothers and First National studios. The eight song creators are Harry Akst, Joe Burke, Alfred Bryan, Grant Clarke, Al Dubin, George W. Meyer, Herman Ruby and Norman Spencer, all of them big-time figures in Broadway's melody lane.

Another for "Burlesque"

A third member of the original New York cast of the Broadway stage success, "Burlesque," has been signed under contract to Paramount to play his original role in the talking-film version of the play.

The player is Ralph Theadore, creator of the role of Harvey Howell, the cattleman from the West. He will leave for the Coast immediately.

Bouquet for Halperin Film

When the Halperin brothers started out to make "She Went to War," they wrought better than even they knew, it would appear.

At any rate the picture, released through United Artists and Inspiration Pictures, is receiving splendid notices from all previews.

A further compliment reached John Boyce-Smith of Inspiration Pictures yesterday, penned by Duncan K. Major, Jr., Colonel General Staff Corps, United States Army.

"I can assure you," writes Col. Major, "that I consider it a very great privilege to be present at the private showing of 'She Goes to War.' I am sure that it will receive as great if not a greater reception than 'The Big Parade.' It carried me back to France in 1918 and gave me many thrills. Miss Boardman was superb, and the setting was most realistic."

Character Actor With Warners

Olive Hasbrouck With Cruze

That pretty young actress, Olive Hasbrouck, who has just finished the lead opposite Ken Maynard in his latest starring vehicle, "The Royal Rider," for First National, has been signed by James Cruze to star in his next talking featurette, which starts production immediately at Cruze's new studio, formerly the Chadwick studios.

OLIVE HASBROUCK

ART BODY TO BEAUTIFY CITY-OWNED PROPERTY

Attempts to interest wealthy local people in beautifying various city-owned pieces of land will be undertaken during the coming year by the art and education committee of the Chamber of Commerce, according to Robert L. McCourt, chairman of the committee.

Boulevard Bond Issue Approved

By a vote of 289 to 31, Municipal Improvement District No. 61 yesterday approved the issuance of $670,000 worth of bonds for the improvement of Ventura Boulevard between Pacoima avenue and Sepulveda Boulevard.

The vote by precincts was: First, 106 for, 18 against; second, 196 for, 13 against.

FRENCH SLANG AND OURS

French slang more nearly approaches that of the United States than the argot of any other country George Jean Nathan points out in the January issue of The American Mercury. For example, we say a thing is "doggy." The French say "du chien." We are prone to call a restaurant checks "the bad news." The Frenchman often calls it "la douloureuse." We say a person is "in the swim." The French say "dans la puree."

Other slang expressions are common to both argots, such as "His pockets are well lined," "He's cracked," "He's full of bugs," "six feet underground, "chase yourself," "come again" and "shut up."

Golden Silence

Although King Alfonso, making his first appearance in the talking movies, persists in twirling his mustache, be it said to his credit, that he does it noiselessly.—[Detroit Free Press.

FITTS PICKS WAR BUDDIE FOR DEPUTY

Eugene U. Blalock from Porterville Takes Post Hession Failed to Accept

Changes effective March 1 in the office of the District Attorney were announced yesterday by Assistant Chief Deputy Jordan in charge of personnel, when the appointment of Eugene U. Blalock, attorney of Porterville, to become a deputy, was made public.

The appointment of Blalock to the staff of Dist.-Atty. Fitts is made possible, according to Jordan, through the inability of Jesse Hession, District Attorney of Inyo county, to accept a deputy's position. The appointment of Hession was made public at the time Fitts assumed office. The Inyo county prosecutor has since found it impossible for him to take over the Los Angeles county duties.

Blalock is a graduate of the Porterville High School and the University of Southern California, and was president of the student body of the U.S.C. law college. He is well known to a number of the deputies now serving under Fitts. He served in the same unit with Fitts during the World War, and has gained a reputation in Tulare county for being an efficient attorney.

Other appointments include Investigator Penney to the position of a deputy in charge of Municipal

MELLOW OLD THRILLER IS INTERESTING

"Dummy" Revived With Humor and Suspense as Feature at Paramount

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

Early talkie—but interesting. In a nutshell, as it were, that is the way "The Dummy" is to be classified. It is at the Paramount Theater this week. I was going to say "showing at the Paramount. However, that is hardly any longer the proper way to speak of a form of entertainment that is both seen and heard. "The Dummy" is dialogued throughout, and presents as its principal actors Ruth Chatterton, Frederic March, John Cromwell and two or three others. John Milton, noted contriver of artistic stage productions, was its director.

"The Dummy" is from a crook melodrama of the footlights that had a popular run a dozen or more years ago. It belonged to the previous crime wave, as a matter of fact, in the theater, another having come on with various vengeances and much gunfire in more recent seasons.

The plot is about a kidnaping, still a popular pastime, and the hero is a little boy who pretends to be deaf and dumb. Possibly you remember it, as in its original presentation it was a pretty clever affair.

Harvey J. O'Higgins and Harriet Ford made the screen adaptation and have preserved most of the original situations as one remembers them. The crooks are spied upon by the youngster who pretends to be unable either to speak or hear, but who eventually gives himself away by talking in his sleep. There is the estranged couple, whose child has been stolen, the detective who engages the boy to spy upon the kidnapers in their lair, the ne'er-do-wells both serious and light.

Much of the best that "The Dummy" offers as a talking picture is in the comedy of ZaSu Pitts. ZaSu's voice, or at least her manner of speaking lines, unquestionably adds to her importance as an actress. She matches with her audible accomplishment the personality that she has caused long to stand out vividly in the silent medium.

Ruth Chatterton, whose talents give promise of blossoming like the rose in the talkie medium, is cast in a role of negligible import as the wife. It gives her far less chance than "The Doctor's Secret" to display a voice that is essentially rich and musical. She photographs better in "The Dummy," however, than in the earlier production.

Finish of an undoubted sort marks the work of John Cromwell as the detective. He appears to have a definite consciousness of the requirements of the audible screen.

I would not rate "The Dummy" as the best Milton could achieve in talking pictures, because it does not reveal all that resourcefulness which is characteristic of his stage technique. But it is very fair entertainment, with suspense and humor well balanced. Technical crudities somewhat detract from the impression it evokes as a whole—but not sufficiently to lessen one's enjoyment of its rather well-flavored plot.

Henry Busse on the stage is the ceremonial chef for a production designated as the Blue Revue. The best items are the "Blue Danube Blues," Eddie Magill's singing and Pelle and Cola in some acrobatic posings. Irene Taylor, a blues singer, and Busse do a number that pleases. There have been better stage acts—and worse.

Collar Button Only Serpent in This Eden

Married twenty-five years and only one quarrel!

"And that was over a collar button," says Charles E. Evans, the veteran actor who plays the judge in the Henry Duffy Players' production of "Lightnin'" at El Capitan.

"It was just one of those things. We were going out to dinner and the collar button was missing. I searched under the bed, the rug, everywhere. Then, of course, argument, recriminations, tears. But the button didn't turn up. Finally we saw the humor of the situation and we both burst into laughter.

"And as we laughed I looked down and saw I had been holding the button in my hand all the time.

"My wife, Helena Phillips, thought the situation funny enough to make into a vaudeville playlet. We headlined bills for several years in it.

"That actually was our only quarrel—or has been up to this time. Monday we celebrate our twenty-fifth wedding anniversary at our home at the Uplifters' ranch in Santa Monica. After that record is passed we probably can afford to have a little friendly argument once in a while."

Evans is one of the best-known character actors on the stage. He will be 74 years of age his next birthday anniversary. For years he starred in Charles Hoyt's farce comedy, "A Parlor Match." His wife, Helena Phillips, retired from the stage several years ago to devote herself to playwriting.

DORIS IN MURDER STORY

Close on the heels of her election as a Wampas Baby Star for 1929, Doris Hill was awarded an important featured role in "The Studio Murder Mystery," by B. P. Schulberg, general manager of the west-coast production. As Helen, daughter of a studio night watchman, whose infatuation with a movie star almost leads her to the gallows, Miss Hill will have what studio officials call the strongest role of her career. Other featured players already cast in "The Studio Murder Mystery" are Ruth Chatterton, Neil Hamilton, Frederic March and Warner Oland.

ARTIST GETS MERIT AWARD

For having designed the most artistic and most advanced motion picture set of the last six months, Wiard Boppo Ibnen, Hollywood artist, today was presented a Paramount award of merit. Ibnen's set, done in what he calls "abstract constructionism," to differentiate it from the new out-dated modernism, is the interior of a beach home for Clara Bow's new all-talking picture, "The Wild Party."

"Sally of My Dreams"

Madge Bellamy

Is Sally, and William Kernel is the composer of the theme song about her. The Fox film in which both are featured will have a popular presentation for the week commencing today at the Boulevard Theater. "Sally of My Dreams" is the new title of the erstwhile "Mother Knows Best," by Edna Ferber.

NIGHT-CLUB HOSTESS TO ACT TALKIE

Texas Guinan's Vitaphone Premiere Booked for Date in Early March

Warner Brothers' Theater audiences will have their opportunity to give Texas Guinan "a great big hand" on March 4, when the well-known New York hostess descends on Hollywood in her 100 per cent Vitaphone talking picture, "Queen of the Night Clubs," for a two-weeks' engagement. The "greeter of suckers" is said to have developed into a talkie star par excellence. Her picture is nothing more nor less than Texas herself "queening it" in her own palace of jazz on Broadway.

Warner Brothers surrounded Miss Guinan with a talking cast which includes Lila Lee, Eddie Foy, Jr., Jack Norworth, John Davidson, John Miljan, William Davidson, Arthur Housman, Jimmie Phillips and Lee Shumway. Bryan Foy directed and the story is an original Vitaphone play by Addison Burkhardt and Murray Roth.

Texas plays a night-club hostess who was formerly married to a vaudeville headliner. Twenty years before the story opens her husband deserted her and took their baby son with him. During all the years she has not seen either of them, until one night a young fellow is accused of murder in her club. After she has sent him to jail she discovers that he is her own son. Then the mask of the night-club hostess is dropped and the "Mother" comes to the fore.

Larry Ceballos is busy on a new stage revue with all new principals and the Warner girls. There will be new Vitaphone short subjects, and an overture by Forbstein's Orchestra.

ACTOR GIVES UP GOOD OZONE FOR HIS ART

Another casualty has been checked up on the long list of those that have befallen the members of the cast appearing in "The Front Page" at the Belasco Theater, it is reported. Buckly Starky, who plays Carl Williams, the escaped murderer, nearly smothered Sunday night when the air vent in the desk in which he is hiding accidentally became closed.

Starky's hiding place is in the top of an old-fashioned roll-top desk. The desk, with Starky in it, is shut most of the time, but air vents had been bored in the back, out of sight of the audience, so that he could breathe comfortably.

From the start of the third act, Starky must remain in the desk some twenty-five minutes before he is hauled forth and turned over to the sheriff. Sunday night, papers lying on the desk were jammed into the air vent when Starky climbed in just before the curtain rose.

The actor was in such a position that he could not reach the vent to remove the papers. He was gasping for air when the cue came and he was jerked out onto the stage.

Screen Operas Come Nearer

That the public may now expect screen operas is the belief of W. Scott Darling, author of the original screen story, "Taxi Thirteen," which is now showing at the Hillstreet, with Chester Conklin in the starring role. Marshall Neilan directed this production for RKO.

"I do not mean adaptations of stage operas, but productions, books and lyrics, written especially and exclusively for sound pictures. I would not be surprised to see the long-expected great American opera come into being via the screen route, now that the voices of the players may be heard both in dialogue and song."

MISS O'NEILL PLAYS LEAD IN DRAMA

Actress Resumes Original Part in "House of Women" for Repertory

The directors of the Los Angeles Repertory Theater announced today the complete cast for "The House of Women," Louis Bromfield's intimate drama, which begins running March 5 at the Figueroa Playhouse. This will be the fourth production of the Repertory Theater.

Nance O'Neill, noted emotional star, who appeared with much success in "The Silver Cord," opening attraction of the Repertory Theater, will fill her original role of Julia Shane, which she created in Arthur Hopkins's production at the Maxine Elliott Theater in New York last season.

Appearing with her will be Olive Tell and Helen Jerome Eddy as her two daughters, Lily and Irene, respectively; and Theodore Von Eltz, William Davidson and Ruth Eldridge.

"The House of Women," which is Bromfield's own dramatization of his popular novel, "The Green Bay Tree," now in its twelfth printing, follows the current attraction, Galsworthy's new drama, "Escape," which closes March 2.

Theaters Will Exchange Stars

With Marion Harris and Edward Everett Horton enacting respectively the good-will roles, the Orpheum and Majestic theaters will exchange courtesies after a fashion Friday and Saturday nights.

The move, arranged primarily as an Orpheum gesture of welcome to Horton, who recently moved from Hollywood to Broadway, entails the personal appearance of "The Swan" star on the Orpheum stage Friday night. Saturday night Miss Harris, stage-screen-phonograph-radio luminary currently headlining at the Radio-Keith-Opheum house, will appear in person at the Majestic. Regular performances of the respective theaters are in no way involved.

Taylor Holmes, master of ceremonies, Marion Harris, Natacha Nattova and others will participate in the Horton reception at the Orpheum. Greeting Miss Harris at the Majestic will be Edward Everett Horton, Lois Wilson, Ralph Forbes, Marie Dressler and others.

Performers of Current Talkie Will Say Hello

As a special holiday attraction for the evening of Washington's birthday, the United Artists' Theater has arranged to present ten of the cast which is seen and heard in the current "Strange Cargo." The players who will be seen on the stage this evening are Russel Gleason, son of James and Lucille; June Nash, of Belasco fame; George Barraud, of the local "Interference" cast; Warner Richmond, Kyrle Bellew, Otto Matiesen, Ned Sparks, Josephine Brown, Andre Beranger, who will soon be seen in "Squawk," and Frank Reicher.

Benjamin Glazer, who wrote and directed the mystery talkie will also be on hand this evening, it is mentioned. The Pathe all-talking film, which opened Wednesday, has already assumed hit proportions.

LYNDE LECTURES ON OPERA AT ROOSEVELT

Ethel Graham Lynde will give an open operalogue on the four operas to be sung soon by the Chicago Civic Opera Company, this morning at 11 o'clock in the Academy Lounge of the Roosevelt Hotel in Hollywood. Marjorie Hicks Hall will be at the piano.

JAVA FEAST FOR OPTICS SET FORTH

"Wild Orchids" Interests as Travelogue; Romance Stars Greta Garbo

BY MARQUIS BUSBY

Greta Garbo, a cold and virtuous American wife, meets a red-hot papa from Java in "Wild Orchids," which opened yesterday at Loew's State. What happens isn't as sultry as one might imagine. The theater remains temperately comfortable throughout the showing.

As a travelogue "Wild Orchids" is as interesting a picture as I have seen in some time. Depiction of life in the palace of this prince of Java is fascinating. There are some capital shots of San Francisco Bay and the Golden Gate on a nice clear day, glimpses of the tea fields of Java, to say nothing of Greta Garbo riding an elephant en route to a tiger hunt. In fact, just as one is most interested in the travelogue the plot interrupts. Nils Asther, as the Javanese prince, begins to look smolderingly amorous, Greta Garbo is tempted again, and Lewis Stone, as the husband, takes a second or third glass of wine.

There isn't much to tell of the plot. The first time the prince kisses Greta he gets slapped. The second time she bursts into tears, and upon the third kiss the cold American wife forgets that she is a cold American wife. It's so easy to blame things on the heat, too. Didn't the prince say that the heat of Java stripped a woman of all pretense?

Something approximating drama is provided at the climax. The husband leaves the prince at the mercy of a tiger, and then becomes humane in time to save the youth from becoming too badly chewed and scratched. Greta becomes a cold American wife in time to return with her husband to the United States, where the weather is cool and a woman can keep her pretense.

Scenes of native Java are most intriguing. There are interesting dances and exotic music, excellently recorded on the sound device. The spirit of the East which this picture brings to the screen should fascinate audiences. One of the most elaborate sequences is the banquet with which the Prince entertains his guests—a huge cloth, spread on the floor, loaded with food. The guests, by the way, use the familiar boarding-house technique—the one with the longest arm gets the most to eat.

Greta Garbo is handicapped with an unsatisfacory role, but she is always the languid, lovely lady—perhaps the most distinctive woman of the screen. Her appearance in a native Javanese dancing dress is most entrancing. And then, of course, one shouldn't forget Greta draped becomingly in a bit of batik.

Nils Asther is an ideal foil for the blond star, but his role is ridiculous. He looks about as much like a Javanese prince as a goldfish resembles a zebra. It's pretty difficult for a Swedish chap to look romantic, too, with a bandanna on his head—just like Aunt Jemima wears in the pancake advertisements.

Lewis Stone contributes some occasional humor as a placid American husband who wouldn't know a "big moment" if it bit him on the chin.

Sidney Franklin's direction is good, and he reveals a keen sense of pageantry. "Wild Orchids" is an optical feast.

Fanchon and Marco present a clever stage show in the "Fantasma" idea. Ballet numbers are particularly unusual, with "Trees" being outstanding. Vivian Fay, late of "Good News," scores again with her amazing toe dancing, and there is an excellent eccentric dancer. From the program I can't tell whether it was Matt Gibbons or Reeve McLean. Both young gentlemen can take a bow. The Anderson brothers dance as only colored dancers can dance. Don Carroll possesses a pleasant voice, but it was impossible to hear Elaine Drummond from the middle of the house. "Red" Corcoran seemed to amuse the audience with his comedy antics. Rube Wolf is master of ceremonies.

Marie Dressler Can't See Self

Marie Dressler, comedienne and character star of both stage and screen, has a notable role as the mother of Emma Hart, the young English beauty, in First National's Vitaphone success, "The Divine Lady," now being shown at the Carthay Circle Theater.

Although the picture has been showing at the Circle for a number of weeks, Miss Dressler has been unable to see it due to the fact that she is appearing in "The Swan," at the Majestic. On the opening night of "The Divine Lady," she sent the following wire of regret to Miss Griffith, star of the picture: "What with 'The Swan' on my neck and the flu on my chest, it will be impossible for me to attend your premiere. May this opening be the greatest ever and I wish you every success."

The management of the Circle has invited Miss Dressler and "The Swan" company to be its guests at a matinee performance next week.

Edison, Jr., May Visit Criterion

Theodore Edison, Jr., son of Thomas Edison, Jr., who is now in Los Angeles, has been invited by the Fox-Criterion Theater to witness a special Fox talking picture of Thomas Edison entertaining President-elect Hoover and Henry Ford in Florida.

All Daughters of the American Revolution and descendants of veterans of the colonial wars are invited to a special George Washington matinee to be held at the Fox-Criterion today. The Fox reproduction of the inauguration of Gen. Washington in talking pictures will be shown.

WANT-AD RATES

EFFECTIVE DECEMBER 1, 1928

Rates per line insertion, 30 consecutive times, 24c Daily, 29c Sunday; 7 to 29 consecutive times, 25c Daily, 31c Sunday; 3 to 6 consecutive times, 28c Daily, 35c Sunday; ONE TIME, 40c Daily, 50c Sunday.

SITUATIONS WANTED, 7 or more consecutive times, 16c Daily, 19c Sunday; 3 to 6 consecutive times, 17c Daily, 20c Sunday; ONE TIME, 24c Daily, 27c Sunday. Advertisements for the subheadings, "PAINTING, DECORATING, CARPENTERING," "DRESSMAKERS & SEAMSTRESSES" and "NURSES" are not classified as Situations Wanted Advertising and will be charged for at the General Want-Ad Rates, 40c Daily and 50c Sunday.

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES, MOTION PICTURE ADVERTISING, etc., under any classification, 30 consecutive times, 26c Daily, 33c Sunday; 7 to 29 consecutive times, 27c Daily, 34c Sunday; 3 to 6 consecutive times, 30c Daily, 40c Sunday; ONE TIME, 43c Daily, 55c Sunday.

Advertisements on rate-holder rates on application.

MINIMUM CHARGES 2 LINES.

To estimate the cost of want ads count 5 average words per line. Words containing more than 6 letters should be counted as two words.

Advertisers should retain receipts given by The Times for payment of Want Ads, as no mistakes will be rectified without them.

Cancellation of advertisements before appearance cannot be guaranteed to take effect until after the advertisements have appeared once. Countermands must be received by 2:30 p.m. for daily issue and 6 p.m. Friday for Sunday Times. Cancellation of advertising running cannot be accepted after 4:30 p.m.

Rates for display advertising will be furnished on request.

The Times will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

The inadvertent omission or incorrect publishing of advertising will be rectified only by cancellation of the charge made for the service rendered.

HEALTH!

Life's greatest blessing can be found in this part of Glendale: high, dry, impressive view without the penalties of hillside property. You can be the happy owner of an out-of-the-ordinary Spanish influence stucco home on a deep corner plot of velvety clover—on the bus line and equally convenient to both Hollywood and Los Angeles; "midst pleasant homes and friendly neighbors;" 9 cheerful rooms, four airy bedrooms and three pleasant tile baths, unit furnaces keep you warm as toast these cool evenings; a fireplace gives you the joys of a real log fire; a covered porch leads to your garage. Owner compelled to leave this lovely home before he has even had an opportunity to finish shrubbing the yard. Will consider low price and easy terms.

U.S.C. TO OPEN CIVICS SCHOOL

New Major Division Will Begin Classes in March

Courses Will Deal With Public Administration

Part-Time Study Program in Subject Available

A new major division, the school of citizenship and public administration, is announced by the University of Southern California, to open with the spring quarter March 18.

In a statement issued by President Von KleinSmid regarding the new school, he advises:

"That the profession of public service may receive proper recognition, support and stimulus, the University of Southern California has now effected an administrative organization which correlates the curricula available for such study in its various schools, colleges and affiliated institutions. The university also plans to offer through its new school of citizenship and public administration additional courses designed to meet the needs revealed in the fields of civic interest and public affairs."

FOR CIVIC TRAINING

To establish an educational organization for the advancement of civic knowledge and for increasing the skill of those interested in the more efficient performance of their duties and responsibilities, a part-time program of study is offered in the Los Angeles Civic Center which will lead to junior and senior certificates in public administration, with specialization in selected fields. A special phase of the plan is an annual summer short course in public administration.

Officers and advisory committee of the new school of citizenship and public administration at the local university include Emery E. Olson, director; James I. Tucker, assistant to the director; Frank C. Touton, director of educational research and service; Philip S. Biegler, engineering; Emory S. Bogardus, social welfare; Roy Malcolm, political science; Justin Miller, law; William D. Cutter, medicine; Reid L. McCung, commerce and business administration; Lewis E. Ford, dentistry; E. W. Tiege, education; W. R. LaPorte, physical education, and Rockwell D. Hunt, graduate group.

MAJOR FIELDS COVERED

With the co-operation of Federal, State, county and city departmental committees, the faculty of the school has developed a special course content for each major field.

Full-time students will attend classes at the campus at University avenue and Exposition Park, in accordance with the regular semester schedule. Part-time and extra-hour students will attend classes in the Wilson Building, First and Spring streets.

Youth Jailed in Trial for Setting Fires

In the case of James H. Bray, 30[illegible] Kelton avenue, Palms, accused of setting fire to the Santa Monica pier, Municipal Judge McConnell yesterday dismissed three arson charges against the youth and ordered the fourth count reduced to malicious mischief. In order to cure Bray's incendiary habits, however, Judge McConnell ordered that he serve twenty days in jail on the malicious mischief charge, suspending an additional forty days for two years on condition that the youth curb his propensity for fires in the meantime.

The first three charges were dismissed when Deputy District-Attorney Penney was unable to prove that the youth had started the fires on the pier.

Sororities End 'Rushing' Today

Sorority "rushing" on the University of Southern California campus will end tonight, when the eighteen Trojan women's groups entertain prospective members with formal preferential dinners. Bids for membership will be given to Dr. Mary Sinclair Crawford, dean of women, tomorrow morning. Co-eds will report to the office of the dean of women on Monday morning and list, in order, the sororities which they prefer. Bids then will be mailed by special delivery and pledging will take place in the various chapter houses Monday evening.

Jail Trusty's Nightly Thefts Will be Costly

Found guilty of burglary with two prior convictions against him, George Mazingo, 30 years of age, yesterday was sentenced by Judge Fricke to serve from fifteen years to life in Folsom prison.

Testimony showed that Mazingo, who had been a trusty at the University Police Station Jail last fall while he was serving a short time for violation of the dry laws, slipped past the guard one night and broke into the home of Howard Hildreth, 11272 Ohio street.

Mazingo, it was said, returned to his cell with a watch and chain and other things taken from Hildreth's house. He was arrested on the burglary charge when these articles were found in his possession.

Owing to the two prior convictions Hildreth's one night of freedom from his jail cell will cost him at least fifteen years of imprisonment.

PROJECT ADVANCED

The City Council yesterday denied the protests against the ordinances of intention for the improvement of Gower street between Hollywood Boulevard and Melrose avenue, and of Corbin avenue between Sherman Way and Ventura Boulevard, thus making possible the early introduction of the final ordinance.

REALTY BOARD PLANTS TREE

Action Signals Opening of Campaign

Botanic Garden Scene of Ceremony

INAUGURATING a campaign which will have for its object the development of a systematic tree-planting program, the Los Angeles Realty Board yesterday added a tree to the scores of others already planted in the grove of honor in the California Botanic Garden, in Mandeville Canyon. The tree of the Japanese flowering cherry variety, is in full bloom.

The realty board was represented at the planting ceremonies by President Mason Case, Secretary Tom Ingersoll and Norman Lyon, chairman of the board's tree-planting committee.

Under the direction of Chairman Lyon, the realty board is working out a comprehensive plan for tree-planting and maintenance, which will include the placing of hundreds of trees in the newly developed sections of the city.

EGYPTIAN TO LEAVE WITH BRIDE SOON

Swimmer "Checks Out" at Immigration Office After Being Ordered Deported

Farid Simaika, Egyptian swimmer, and his bride of a few weeks, the former Miss Mabel Van den Akker, appeared yesterday at the Federal Building at the office of Immigration Inspector Ellis and "checked out" for New York to begin a trip to Alexandria, Egypt. He was ordered deported because he overstayed his period of visit in the United States.

Samaika informed the inspector that he and his bride are scheduled to leave New York on March 11, bound for Egypt. He is under bond of $500 and will travel to New York without restraint. He is expected to arrive in his native country in time to take part in the Egyptian Olympic games.

Objection on the part of the bride's parents to her marriage is said to have resulted in Simaika being reported to the immigration authorities. After an investigation he was ordered deported. Upon his departure from New York, his bond will be exonerated.

Alien Mate Sole Heir of Lucy Banning

Shortly before Lucy Banning Ota and her Japanese husband, Setsuza Ota, left for abroad last September, Mrs. Ota, then a bride of eight months, made a will in which she left virtually her entire estate, valued at upwards of $500,000 to her new husband, it was learned yesterday in the Banning family circle.

Some of the property is in real estate and alien land laws may complicate the inheritance situation, it is learned. Mrs. Ota's home, 503 South Commonwealth avenue, is filled with rare objects of art and Mrs. Ota possessed jewels worth a king's ransom. She died in Florence, Italy, Wednesday, where she and her husband were spending the winter. Pneumonia and influenza are given as the cause.

With Mrs. Ota at the time of death was Mrs. Mary Banning Norris of Paris, a sister, who was summoned when Mrs. Ota became ill. It is believed that the sister and husband are bringing the body here for burial. Ota ranks as one of Tokio's four best jiu jitsu champions.

Services to be Conducted for Banker Today

Funeral services for Willis C. Allen, formerly a banker of Kansas City, Mo., were conducted yesterday from the family residence at 7125 Hillside avenue, where Mr. Allen died last Tuesday. He had resided at the Hollywood address since coming to California several years ago.

Mr. Allen was the son of the late Maj. Abner J. Allen. He was born in Holderness, N. H., April 21, 1855 and had lived in Kansas City for many years prior to coming to Hollywood. He was a former president of the Kansas City Athletic Club and of the Knife and Fork Club of that city. He also was a Son of the American Revolution, a member of the Loyal Legion and of the Gamut Club of Los Angeles.

Mr. Allen leaves his widow, Mrs Gertrude Ramsay Dodds Allen, a daughter, Mrs. Louis deS. Fuller of Hollywood, and a son, Capt. Burrel C. Allen, U.S.N., a brother, Prof. Harry G. Allen of Denton, Tex., and two grandchildren.

Buyer to Scout Europe's Fairs for Store Here

As enthusiastic as ever, although now considered a veteran European traveler, Herbert H. Wilson, merchandise manager for the B. H. Dyas Company stores, left early this week on his annual buying and research trip of continental Europe and the British Isles. He will return here about April 15.

Wilson will sail from New York aboard the steamship Olympic today, bound for Cherbourg. From the French port he will go by train to Paris, then to Berlin, Leipsic, Vienna and Zurich. He will then journey to London.

Each year, Wilson arranges to plan his trip to Europe to be there at the time of the industrial fairs at London, Paris and Leipsic. At these fairs, the newest in merchandise is exhibited.

Girl Who Sued Beery Granted Probation Term

Juanita Montanya, who recently sued Wallace Beery, motion-picture actor, charging that he had criminally attacked her, yesterday was granted three years' probation by Superior Judge Shaw on a charge of burglary filed by Mrs. Frank Kelly, 6808 De La Vista Way.

In her plea for probation, Miss Montanya asserted that she took some clothing from the home, but did so to obtain a disguise to escape certain persons who were following her and attempting to persecute her.

The court placed the girl in the custody of Carl L. Davis, a deputy Public Defender, who offered to be responsible for her conduct during the period of probation.

More Students Enter U.C.L.A.

Registration for the second semester at the University of California at Los Angeles reached a total of 5555 students when the books were closed Thursday. While the university will receive registrations for another week, it is estimated that the total for the semester will not exceed 5600.

Of the total now registered 429 are new students, 5126 being the number of old students continuing their work at the university. Registration figures reveal an unusually large number of applicants from States other than California, although the preponderance of registrants are from Los Angeles and Southern California.

Classes were dismissed last evening for the week, Washington's Birthday being observed both by the academic and administrative departments.

Woman Named Aerial Officer

The post of aerial policewoman investigator has been created by Beverly Hills and was filled yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Ulysses Grant McQueen was sworn in at the City Hall.

Duties in the new post require that Mrs. McQueen prevent illegal flying over Beverly Hills, particularly flights that violate Federal aviation regulations and those of a stunting nature.
